Nurses' Station Directs Staff To Various Duties

Located at the junction of the two main halls in the new Charlevoix hospital is the central nurses' station.

Carrying out the simple but attractive decor of the building, it is from this point that the nurses will be directed to their jobs, where the call board is located and where current medical records will be kept.

A smaller nurses station will be found in the obstetrical department, which can be separated from the remainder of the hospital by closing double doors across the corridor.

Utility and workrooms are located near each nurses' station.

To the north from the main nurses' station will be found patients' rooms, the isolation ward and the children's ward. The remainder of the rooms in the medical and surgical department are located on the north side of the west wing.

The second nurses' station will serve the obstetrical department and nursery.

Storage Space Will Help New Hospital Give Good Service

With brick and steel and mortar, the Strom Construction Co. of Grand Rapids has created a modern new building, a credit not only to the builders but to the city of Charlevoix.

The new Charlevoix hospital, with great thought and planning, has been constructed from plans presented by Gordon Cornwell and Associates of Traverse City. The building has been constructed under the best labor conditions with each contractor completing his work to the best of his ability.

In commenting on the project Ralph O. Dunn, president of Strom Construction Co. of Grand Rapids, general contractor, has written: "We do wish to say that we have enjoyed working in Charlevoix; everybody has been very cooperative, even the men on the job have worked exceptionally well. It is one of the jobs which we will remember pleasantly."

New Hospital To Be Dedicated Sunday

Mr. Kit Carson, Floyd Brown, Harry A. Craig, Max Novak, Hans D. Young of Atwood and John Porter of East Jordan; Miss Anne Baumgartner, superintendent of the Charlevoix hospital; Mayor Dean Davenport; Kit Carson, chairman of the fund-raising committee; John R. Homminga and John F. E. Appleman, of the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction; Dr. Gilbert B. Saltonstall, chief of staff and Dr. Lawrence E. Grate and Dr. Jerry VanDellen of East Jordan, staff officers; Myron McGlynn, project engineer and other distinguished guests.

Following the dedicatory address Jacques DeLaurier, director of the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction, will speak briefly and cut the ribbon at the main entrance thus marking the formal opening of the new 44-bed hospital.

Ralph O. Dunn, general manager and president of the Strom Construction Co. of Grand Rapids, builders of the new hospital, will present the keys to the new hospital to Fred W. Willis, president of the Charlevoix Hospital board of trustees who will accept them in behalf of the board of trustees and the community.

Address of the Rev. Lloyd M. Schell, pastor of the Lutheran church, will conclude the dedication program which will mark the realization of a dream and the fulfillment of the hopes and plans of an entire community.

The new hospital will be open for patients by Sept. 1.

Financed by a federal grant through the Hill-Burton Act which is administered by the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction and contributions by permanent and summer residents of the Charlevoix area, the 44-bed one-story masonry and steel hospital will offer the most modern of hospital facilities to the residents of the area.

Constructed in the form of a modified Greek cross, the hospital has four wings. The north wing and the north side of the west wing house the 22 patients' rooms, all of which offer a view of Lake Michigan, and all of which can be converted to private or semi-private use; the south section of the west wing is the site of the operating and delivery rooms and related departments; the east wing where the main entrance is located houses the business offices and the radiology department and the south wing is the home of the maintenance and service departments.

A circular drive has been built at the main entrance and a parking area and ambulance drive to the south of the building.

Special Generator To Provide Extra Power In Emergency

A special liquid petroleum-powered emergency generator has been included in the construction of the new Charlevoix hospital to provide electrical power in the event of a failure of the outside power system which is generally supplied by the municipal light plant.

In an emergency, automatic magnetic switches will start the motor and in less than a minute electric current will be flowing to key points.

The generator will supply power to boilers and pumps to keep the heating plant in operation as well as to all operating rooms, delivery rooms, nurses stations, corridor lights, and to small emergency lights in patients' rooms.

While it is hoped that the unit may never be used, it is well to have it on hand as a special safety measure. It will be tested regularly for immediate use in case of an emergency.

The installation was made by Dart and Cady of Mason, heating, plumbing and ventilating contractors.

Connaghan - Cole Marriage Vows Exchanged At Holy Cross Church

St. James, B. I. — Lillian Connaghan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Connaghan, and Donald Raymond Cole, son of Mrs. Grace Cole and the late Raymond Cole, exchanged wedding vows at a Nuptial Mass celebrated at Holy Cross church Wednesday morning.

The Rev. Fr. Joseph Herp, O.F.M. officiated at the Mass which was sung by the choir of Holy Cross church. Eleanor Gallagher was the organist. Vases of pink and white gladioli decorated the altar for the ceremony which was attended by more than 250 guests.

Given in marriage by her brother, Gene Connaghan, the bride selected a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle for her wedding. It was styled with a fitted lace bodice, long tapered sleeves and a bouffant skirt of nylon tulle. A satin band embroidered with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil of bridal illusion and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white carnations and geraniums.

Marie Gauthier of Grand Rapids, as her only attendant, wore a waltz-length gown of sea-foam green lace and tulle fashioned with a lace bodice, long sleeves and full skirt of nylon tulle. Her matching picture hat was of nylon net and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

Francis Earl Left, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Roger Pischner of Charlevoix and Donald Gallagher of Manistee.

Mrs. Connaghan chose a gown of rose crepe and lace, black accessories and a corsage of sweet-heart roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Cole, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gown of aqua lace, black velvet accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the King Strang Hotel for the wedding party and their immediate families. An afternoon reception for 300 guests was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple are spending their honeymoon on Donegal Bay on Beaver Island. After Sept. 1 they will make their home in Detroit.

Both are graduates of St. James high school. The bride is also a graduate of Mercy Central School of Nursing in Grand Rapids and has been a member of the nursing staff at St. Mary's Hospital there. The bridegroom, a veteran of two years in the army, is employed at the Forbes Neon Sign Co. in Detroit.

Administration Office Gives New Space

Inside the main entrance of the new Charlevoix hospital will be found the attractive new administration department.

Finished in redwood with large windows that look out to the south and enhanced with light bamboo drapes, the office with its adjoining record and other business rooms will give the office personnel much-needed space which was not available in the old hospital.

Inquiries and other business will be handled over an attractive gray stained oak counter which opens onto the main corridor. Admittance records and other more personal business matters will be transacted over a special counter which opens into a special admissions area off the main corridor.

Records which until now have had to be stored wherever space was available will now be filed in special record-rooms where they will be easily accessible at all times.

The offices will be furnished with attractive office furniture.

The Friendly Dark

The setting sun has bathed the western sky with splendor. Twilight has mellowed and darkened the vivid flush, and now that the sun has dipped the required eighteen degrees below the horizon, night has come.

Some moments ago a hen ruffed grouse completed an evening meal of beechnuts and buds. Then having quenched her thirst at the nearby brook, she lifted her head skyward, chose a rugged, twisted branch on a nearby maple and there settled down for the night. Darkness came, and with the blackness of the night there settled upon this gamey denizen of the forest a deep peace akin to trust. No marauding fox could see her now, nor reach her. Nightfall silenced the thundering guns of hunters and the menacing prowling of their dogs. Goshawks, those bloodthirsty pirates of the air, put to port at day's end and must await dawn before plunging their talons into the flesh of more ruffed grouse. Melted into the shadows and shielded by surrounding limbs, the hen is safe too from the clutches of the horned owl. She rests. She stirs slightly and then becomes still again. The alert eyes close, and she falls to sleep sheltered by the friendly dark.

Beneath her scamper the gem-eyed mice, white feet leaving a delicate embroidery of elfin tracks on the dust of fallen leaves. Most of the day they tremble in fear of their many enemies—foxes, hawks, butcher birds, prowling cats from neighboring farms, skunks, shrews, snakes, and a host of other predators. Almost every meal-eater for a meal, of deer-mouse, and all day long the furtive little fellows huddle in hiding from their furred and feathered enemies. Then darkness comes. From thousands of sheltered haunts the deer-mice scurry to satisfy their hunger. They are daring now, guarded by the friendly darkness.

Deer, too, are about, especially if the forest glades are silvered with moonlight. They browse. They drink from the laughing waters of a favorite stream. Darkness drives many an ancient dread away and proffers a new freedom of movement to the whitetail deer.

Small birds await the night for migration, some primitive and vague awareness whispering to them that darkness is their friend to guard them from their foes.

Darkness is even more an expression of nature than is light. The distant burning suns and stars are but glittering sequins on Nature's dress of midnight blue. The vast background is dark; the tiny sparkles are light. The surface of the sea twinkles with reflected sunshine falling upon the many-faceted waves. But below two thousand feet no light penetrates, and all is blackness. Yet life there in the stygian depths. Queer looking fish dart about. Arrow worms troop up and down the dark corridors of the wrinkled sea floor. Strange phosphorescent shrimps live their entire lives without ever seeing a ray of light. The vast ranges of the sea are dark. Only the surface is light. Yet the darkness is cordial to life, welcoming it, sheltering it, and supporting it.

We often speak of our troubled days as "dark days." But look back over the years. With your imagination pry up, lift out of your life and discard all the dark times you have known, all of your troubles. Throw away, too, the good your troubles have germinated and grown in you—patience, courage, persistence, faith in God. What would you have left? Not much of a person!

The darkness as well as the light has nurtured you. Some virtues have thrived in the long shadows of your night that would never have survived the constant glare of perpetual sunshine.

Darkness can be a friendly thing.

New Blue Sunoco FIRST CHOICE Of Auto Engineers

92% SAY IT EQUALS OR EXCELS ALL OTHER GASOLINES

42% ALREADY BLUE SUNOCO USERS

1,042 automotive engineers tried the New Blue Sunoco in their own cars... compared it with other gasolines.

Of those who had formerly used premium-priced gasolines, 95% report New Blue Sunoco equals or excels those premium-priced gasolines for over-all performance. Yet New Blue Sunoco still sells at regular gas price.

FOLLOWING the introduction of New Blue Sunoco, we invited a large group of automotive engineers to try this new gasoline in their cars. Of the original 1,384 who tried New Blue Sunoco, we received answers from 1,042.

9 out of 10 say New Blue Sunoco equals or excels "Premiums" for power and pick-up

To us, a very significant group were those who had previously used a premium-priced gasoline. Many of them drive high compression cars. They compared New Blue Sunoco, selling at regular gas price, with premium-priced brands costing up to 3¢ more per gallon. 93% said New Blue Sunoco equals or excels "premiums" for power and pick-up.

8 out of 10 say New Blue Sunoco equals or excels "Premiums" for Anti-Knock Performance

Of those who compared New Blue Sunoco against premium-priced brands, 80% said it was equal or superior to the "premiums" for anti-knock performance. These engineers are specialists on everything from spark plugs to high compression engines.

42% already users of Blue Sunoco

We were pleased that 42% of the engineers who answered our request for their opinions reported they were already users of Blue Sunoco. This was a far greater number than reported using all other premium gasolines combined.

High-Test at regular gas price

Sun Oil Company produces only one grade of gasoline. This policy saves on storage tanks, trucks, pumps. These savings are invested in research and now, improved refining processes which enable us to produce a gasoline with high anti-knock power especially designed for high compression engines, and sell it at regular gas price.

Follow the lead of automotive engineers, the men who know most about cars—use New Blue Sunoco in your car.

COMPARISON CHART

This is what automotive engineers reported after comparing New Hi-Test Blue Sunoco with premium-priced gasolines in their own cars.

Laundry, Boiler Room Designed For Efficiency

Located in the south end of the utility wing of the new Charlevoix hospital are two important departments designed to furnish the institution with clean linen and to provide heat, steam and hot water.

In the laundry whose windows open to the east are a commercial type washer a starch cooker, extractor, fluff dryer, a flat work mangle or ironer and two smaller presses. All equipment was supplied by the American Machine and Metal Inc. of East Moline, Ill.

Like other departments, the laundry has been arranged progressively in the most efficient manner possible. Soiled linen will be brought in hampers through one door, sorted, passed through the washing, drying and ironing equipment to the linen room where it will be sorted and stored until needed in the various departments. It will leave the linen room via another door which leads directly to the corridor.

At the end of the utility wing, isolated from the remainder of the structure, is the boiler room where all equipment has been installed by Dart and Cady of Mason, holders of the contract for plumbing, heating and ventilation.

In the boiler room, which is partially underground, are two Farrier and Traft 100 horsepower, gas-ignited, oil-fired boiler units which will be used alternately to provide heat, steam and hot water for the entire hospital.

Normal boiler pressure is 100 pounds per cubic inch with pressure in the various steam systems of the hospital at five, 20, 50 and 100 pounds. Reducing valves lower the pressure to the desired level.

Heat for the hospital will be provided by a hot water circulating system which is thermostatically controlled. A special system has been installed in the nursery, delivery and operating rooms and the radiology department so that they can be heated only when in use.

Hot water is provided for washing, showers, lavatories, hot water sterilizing, dish washing and laundry. Steam is provided for steam sterilizing and for the laundry.

The boilers are fed by fuel oil from a 10,000 gallon underground tank located outside the building.

The operating rooms, delivery room, inside workrooms, kitchen, laundry, corridors and all toilets in the hospital will be ventilated by a powered roof ventilating system.

Plumbing in the building is located beneath the floors and in the walls and will be serviced from an underground tunnel.

Michigan Bell Installs System For Best Service

Installed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., even the telephone system in the new Charlevoix hospital has been designed to give efficient service.

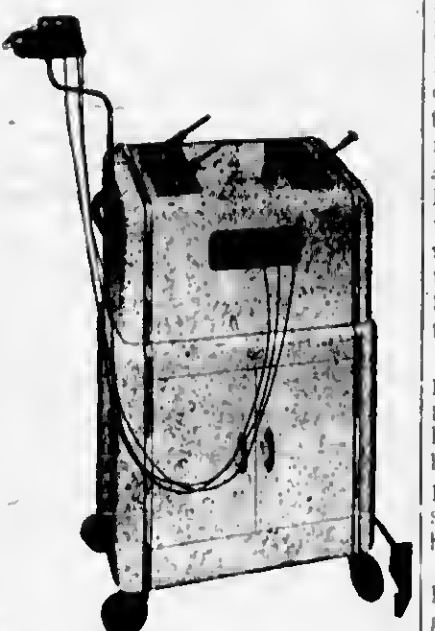

A cordless switchboard with two lines leading into the hospital and 11 stations at strategic points throughout the building, the new system will provide telephone service in the administration office, nurses stations and other important departments in the hospital.

At the hours when no one is in the main office, the switchboard can be set so that certain telephones in the building will be answering stations.

Outgoing calls must go through the switchboard except at such times when certain stations have been designated as answering stations.

New Diathermy Equipment Is Of Latest Type

Two beautiful new pieces of equipment, a new model "AG" Bovie electro-surgical unit and a frequency controlled short wave diathermy, will be found in the new Charlevoix hospital when patients are admitted for care Sept. 1.

For use in surgery, the Bovie electro-surgical unit introduces completely automatic spark-gap adjustment, the most important advance since the introduction of practical electro-surgery. In addition the new Bovie incorporates both spark-gap and tube cutting currents, each independent of the other, and provides a range of flexibility heretofore unknown in an electro-surgical apparatus.

The new unit will replace the one now in use.

The frequency controlled short wave diathermy will be found in the radiology department where treatments will be given.

Physical therapy is widely used for many types of disabling diseases as well as injuries. Thus, disease and injury that disabled persons years ago, now often respond to massage, exercise, and the physical, chemical and other properties of heat, light, water and electricity.

Both were manufactured by the Liebel-Flarsheim Co. of Cincinnati and supplied by the Medical Arts Surgical Supply Co. of Grand Rapids.

Petoskey Players Present Comedy On 'Witch Hunt'

Time-honored notions about witches being fiendish hideous creatures with such trappings as broomsticks, black cats and pumpkins, were discarded by John van Druten when he wrote "Bell, Book and Candle", the Broadway comedy hit being presented through Sunday, August 22 by the resident professional summer stock company at the Petoskey Playhouse. For modern audiences, van Druten decided to conjure up modern witches, and his play is therefore inhabited with spell-binders that really "belong" in the 20th Century.

"Times have changed", the playwright says by way of explanation. "The horse and buggy have gone, to be replaced first by the automobile, then the airplane and, shortly, the jet. It seems to me that witches would have changed too."

The leading sorceress in "Bell, Book and Candle" is Gillian, a glamorous witch to be played here by Joan Arneson. She is young and alluring and lives in a well-furnished New York apartment, keeping her talents at witching a well-kept secret from her neighbors. Witches were not recognizable as such in the old days, and van Druten feels that their present-day counterparts deserve the same privacy.

Although she has no broomstick for night flying, Gillian does keep a cat, the witching symbol that links her to her mythological forbears. Even Gillian's "familiar", or witch's pet, has been modernized. He is not black and diabolic, but a cheerful Siamese.

The conjuring and spookery in "Bell, Book and Candle" puts the accent on comic aspects rather than evil ones. The most potent weapon employed by witch Gillian is love. Its use ultimately destroys her powers in sorcery, proving that love, obviously, has a magic of its own so mighty that even a witch succumbs under its spell. Shep, a young publisher who is the object of Gillian's love will be played by Gil Miller, a new member of the Petoskey Playhouse Company. Cast as minor witches will be Patricia Davies as Gillian's aunt, whose magic fails to work on street traffic and Bill Galarno as a rascally brother witch who delights in putting phones out of order. Bob Gray will have a featured role as a whiskey-steeped mystery-writer on the witches' trail.

The well-known Dr. James Brock, Director of Dramatics at Albion college has joined the staff of Bentley Lenhoff's Petoskey Playhouse as guest director for this production of "Bell, Book and Candle".

The play was a resounding success on Broadway, where it ran for 223 performances during the 1950-51 season with the celebrated husband and wife team of Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer in the leading roles. Reservations for all performances are available by phoning LI 7-4292 or visiting the theatre box office corner of Bay and Howard Sts.

• Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamlin were their daughter, Mrs. Albert McCort of Jackson and their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Hamlin and daughter, Mary Laura, of Wayne. Virginia Hamlin, who had spent the past three weeks in Jackson with the McCorts, returned home with them.

• Mr. and Mrs. Lee Heckman and family have moved to Lead, S. D. in the Black Hills district where he is employed by the Home State Gold Mining Co. The family left here two weeks ago for their new home in Mr. Heckman's home state. He was formerly employed at Freedman Aircraft.

StromConstruction Creates Building Of Lasting Service

One of the first things visitors to the new Charlevoix hospital will notice when they tour the new structure this weekend will be the wealth of storage space. Located in the center of the service wing is a 20 x 50 storage room which will be equipped with steel shelves to hold supplies of every description. The kitchen has its own special storage room or pantry. Other departments are equally fortunate.

Along the corridors will be found special nooks for dressing carts, surgical carts and other special equipment.

What looks like a wealth of space will soon be filled as equipment and supplies are transferred from the old to the new.

Operating Room Is 'Center' Of Hospital

What might be called the nerve center of the new Charlevoix hospital, the operating rooms, delivery room, central supply station and their related areas will be found on the south side of the west wing of the structure.

Each is a complete unit in itself, easily accessible from the remainder of the hospital but isolated so that once the doctors and nurses enter any one unit, they need not leave until their work is completed.

The surgical area is built around a common lobby and includes two operating rooms, work rooms, scrub room, special storage rooms, doctors and nurses dressing room and a window to the central supply station through which surgical supplies can be passed.

Large swinging doors isolate them from the main corridor.

Along the hall to the west on the other side of the central supply station is the obstetrical department complete with labor room, delivery room, workrooms, scrub room and special storage room with a window opening to the central supply station as in the surgical department.

An emergency room service will be offered for the first time in a third operating or emergency room located near the ambulance entrance on the south side of the building. Accident cases of all descriptions will be treated here.

The central supply station, where sterile supplies for the entire hospital will be prepared will be equipped with autoclaves and instrument sterilizers with stainless steel work tables and storage cupboards. It is entered from the main corridor and has windows that open into the adjoining departments.

The walls of the operating and delivery rooms are finished in soft green tile with the floors covered with a special ceramic tile.

The main operating room is equipped with a new Ohio-Scanlan selectrol operating table which features complete one-hand positioning control and simplified foot controls, all at the head of the table; a multi-beam light installed over the table and Steril Brite aluminum alloy surgical furniture. The second operating room will be furnished with similar equipment now in use in the present hospital.

The labor room in the obstetrical department is attractively and comfortably furnished. The delivery room has a new light, the delivery table will be transferred from the present hospital and new aluminum surgical equipment will complete the furnishings.

Lighting Plan Is Functional And Decorative

In keeping with the other furnishings and facilities in the new Charlevoix hospital, the lighting equipment, installed everywhere to make for a well-lighted structure, is functional as well as decorative.

Corridors are lighted by recessed lights in the ceiling, special spot lights are installed over counters, built-in wall-lights have been installed over every bed and everywhere fixtures in keeping with the architectural formation are utilized.

In fact, the lights are so much a part of the structure that one complements the other. Even in special departments where lighting is often a problem, the Grand Traverse Electric Co. of Traverse City has done an excellent job.

The nurses' call system, installed by the same company is an outstanding feature of the new hospital. Located at the main nurses' station in the center of the hospital and at the special ward, the call system not only shows the number of the room which has issued the call but allows direct communication with the patient through a special inter-communication system. The system is designed to give the patient better and more efficient attention as well as to save the nursing staff many unnecessary steps.

Through a similar inter-communication system, the nurses' stations and the administrator's department are connected with strategic points throughout the hospital.

All wiring has been installed in the ceiling, walls and floors of the hospital. Like the plumbing, much of it will be serviced from an underground tunnel.

Doctors' Dream Fulfilled

Dr. R. B. Armstrong

Dr. F. F. McMillan

Everything, even a dream, must begin somewhere.

The dream that is being realized this week, a new hospital for Charlevoix overlooking Lake Michigan, had its beginning in the hearts and minds of two men who ministered to the ills of the community for more than half a century.

They were Dr. Robert B. Armstrong and Dr. F. F. McMillan who had two things in common . . . their love of humanity and of Charlevoix.

Hardly had the first Charlevoix hospital been in operation when these two men, with great foresight, started dreaming of the day when a new hospital would be built on this very site overlooking their beloved Lake Michigan whose moods they knew so well.

Those who worked with them or knew them well listened often to their plans and were caught up in the enthusiasm of the pair who planned not only themselves but their successors in the medical world.

When Dr. Armstrong, after 48 years in the medical profession, died in January, 1940, the spark had been struck and there were those who had been inspired by his dream.

Dr. McMillan, with this same single goal in mind, carried on until he had kindled the spark into a small flame that was destined to keep burning in other men's hearts.

When he died in June 1948 after giving 41 years of service to his chosen profession he had the assurance of those around him that the work would be carried on.

This week the work has been completed and their dream becomes a reality.

On the very spot they had selected has been constructed a modern hospital structure which will serve to heal the sick, where modern miracle drugs they did not know will be used to save lives and where the work to which they dedicated their lives will be carried on by their successors. As if to guard their dream, the pictures of these two men who endeared themselves to all who knew them by their gentleness and kindness will hang in a place of honor in this new Charlevoix hospital.

The hospitals need trained workers in every field from scientifically trained technicians for X-ray departments and laboratories to specialized medical secretaries and librarians. The hospital of today has become so complex that the demand for workers in many specialties is far outstripping the supply.

New Hospital Result Of Area Effort

Hospital Superintendent Has Excellent Personnel Group

Miss Anne Baumgartner, superintendent of the Charlevoix hospital since 1948, will continue in the same capacity in the new area hospital.

As superintendent, she is in charge of the entire hospital, its personnel and operation. She carries on the work under the Charlevoix Hospital board of trustees, the governing body of the institution and the medical staff.

A native of Fargo, N.D., she is a graduate of St. Francis Hospital in Breckenridge, Minn., an affiliate of St. Mary's hospital, site of the famed Mayo Clinic, in Rochester, Minn.

She came here in 1948 from Lockwood General Hospital in Petoskey to assume the duties of superintendent of the Charlevoix hospital.

As superintendent, she has gathered about her an excellent staff, all of whom perform their duties efficiently and with the interest of the patient at heart.

Heading the list is Mrs. Ellen Hamlin R.N., former superintendent, who now serves as supervisor of surgery. She will also be in charge of the central supply station in the new hospital. She is assisted by Mrs. Mary Boss R.N.

The medical, surgical and obstetrical departments are under the supervision of registered nurses at all times. Among the nurses on the staff at the present time are Barbara Crick R.N., Mrs. Mary Bradley R.N., and Mrs. Pearl Schmidt R.N., who serve in the obstetrical department; Mrs. Mary Lou Shanahan R.N., Mrs. Florence Maxson R.N., Mrs. Gladys Mort R.N., who serve regularly on various shifts in the medical and surgical department and Mrs. Alma Dryer R.N., Mrs. Wilma Zoulik R.N., Mrs. Margaret Gallagher R.N., Mrs. Patricia Schlopp R.N., Mrs. Helen Cook R.N. and Mrs. Phyllis Wolf R.N. who are relief nurses.

Nurses aides who are assigned to the various departments are Mrs. Mildred Petersen, Mrs. Beatrice Richardson, Mrs. Lois Gill, Karleen Larsen, Lorraine Essenberg, Mrs. Hazel Sheldon, Mrs. JoAnne Hoffman, Mrs. Shirley Mapes, Mrs. Shirley VanZant, Mrs. Edna LaBlance, Mrs. Alice Pardee, Mrs. Dorothy Whitley, Mrs. Jeanette Boss, Mrs. Joy Felling, Susan Crump and Joan Heilig.

Richard Lomas serves wherever he is needed as orderly.

Miss Anne Baumgartner

In the administration department Miss Baumgartner is assisted by Beverly Danforth as head bookkeeper; Mrs. Jane Bowen and Evelyn Keiser who are in charge of admissions, discharges and insurance and Marilyn Descheneier who serves the department in a relief capacity.

In the kitchen, where 35,459 meals were prepared last year, Mrs. Eva Brown is chief cook with Mrs. Ruth Russell preparing and serving the evening meals. Mrs. Marion Case is relief cook. Other kitchen employees are Mrs. Olga Smith, Muriel Lang and Karen Potts.

Sims Baker is chief of maintenance for the entire hospital. He is assisted by Louis Courtade. Mrs. Betha Faculak is head of

Annual Report Shows Need For New Facilities

During the years since the first Charlevoix hospital was opened 34 years ago, the need for improved and enlarged quarters has grown as was shown in the yearly report presented by Miss Anne Baumgartner, superintendent of the hospital, at the annual hospital meeting last week.

As compared with the lean years when hardly a hundred patients were admitted annually, this year's report reveals that a total of 1,139 patients were admitted for treatment and 1,127 discharged.

This did not include the outpatients who received emergency treatment, x-rays and other treatment without being admitted for care. Last year the hospital reported 1,542 outpatients.

In addition there were 681 x-ray patients and 1,794 laboratory patients. These figures include both those who received these services while patients and as outpatients.

During the year there were 141 births recorded and 1,082 operations performed, the report showed.

The hospital averaged a daily census of 19 adults and two babies with the maximum of 31 adults and four babies and a minimum of seven adults and no babies.

In all a total of 7,079 hospital days were reported.

As the hospital has grown, so has the number of nurses and other employees needed to maintain a growing organization. During the past year the average number of employees on the $86,363.35 payroll was 52 persons.

With the growing number of patients and employees, the number of meals served reached a new high last year with a total of 35,459 prepared and served by a comparatively small kitchen staff.

With the opening of the new Charlevoix hospital by Sept. 1, the entire operation is expected to show a marked increase during the next fiscal year, ten months of which will be spent in the new building.

The new Charlevoix hospital overlooking Lake Michigan will be dedicated Sunday, August 22.

The event, scheduled for 2 p.m. on the hospital grounds, will mark the realization of a dream and the conclusion of a successful community project which started 10 years ago when the Charlevoix hospital board of trustees donated the first $1,000 to make a survey of the community's needs and select a site for the proposed new hospital to replace the one which had been in operation, since 1920.

Thirteen months ago ground was broken for the $606,000 44-bed hospital which will be dedicated this week.

The completion of the structure in record time is a credit to the contractors and workmen who made the most of unseasonable weather last fall to get the building under cover so their work could be continued throughout the winter months.

The 44-bed one-story masonry and steel structure was built with funds provided by the federal government under the Hill-Burton Act and contributions by the permanent and summer residents of the Charlevoix area. The federal grant of $306,075 which was administered by the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction constituted 55 per cent of the entire cost of building and furnishing the institution. The remaining 45 per cent was given by the residents of the area to be served by the hospital.

The project became a community affair as long ago as 1949 when the first carnivals and fairs were sponsored by the community to raise funds. Later, when the fund-raising campaign became more highly organized, more than 1,000 permanent and summer residents pledged funds to meet the community's commitment so the federal grant would be forthcoming. Equally as many persons contributed smaller sums toward its construction.

In addition more than 250 workers headed by a fund-raising committee comprised of Kit Carson, chairman; Robert Bridge, treasurer; Herbert Schofield, secretary; Earl A. Young, Gordon L. Freedman, Fred W. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Malpass of East Jordan, Alvin D. Goldman, Ernest G. Loeb, Julius W. Gilbert, John P. Wilson, J. H. King, Mrs. D. Eckhart Williams and the late Mrs. W. B. Stewart participated in a concerted drive which raised $294,000.

Working hand in hand with Joe Hommings and other officials of the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction while the plans were being made was the Charlevoix hospital board of trustees whose members are: Mr. Willis, president; Mr. Freedman, vice president; Mrs. Edward K. Shanahan, secretary; Charles Bleha, treasurer; Floyd Brown, Harry A. Craig, Mrs. Kit Carson, Hans DeYoung of Atwood, Max Novak, and John Porter of East Jordan and Gordon Cromwell, of the firm of Gordon Cromwell and Associates, architects, of Traverse City, which furnished the plans for the hospital. Legal advice during the time was contributed by Norman D. Ance.

Giving generously of their time and knowledge throughout the entire project have been the members of the advisory committee: Mrs. D. Eckhart Williams, Mrs. Arthur P. Taylor, Mrs. C. L. Retherford, Mrs. Charles C. Gilbert and Mrs. John B. Tytus of the Belvedere club; J. P. Wilson, Frederick Scott and J. H. King of the Chicago Club and Alvin D. Goldman, Ernest G. Loeb, Julius W. Gilbert and Robert J.

A DREAM COME TRUE

... by Community Effort

The Board of Trustees and the Hospital Staff cordially invite you to attend the dedication of the new 44-bed Charlevoix Hospital, on Sunday, August 22, 1954. There will be a program at 2:00 p.m. with Senator Charles E. Potter as speaker and guided tours of the building afterward.

We urge you to attend and inspect this modern new facility. It is your hospital. And it is a tribute, we believe, to the finest kind of community and public cooperation.

This dream of many years is now a reality because of the constant and wholehearted help of many who achieved what no single individual or group in the community could have accomplished alone.

Your cooperation everywhere has been fine and the community spirit behind it all has been wonderful. We believe this has brought you a hospital that is not only modern in every respect but one that is practical and efficiently laid out. We trust that you will also find it attractive and that it will serve you well.

Visitors at the new hospital will find an attractive waiting room designed for their comfort and convenience while waiting to call on patients.

To the right of the main entrance overlooking Lake Michigan is an attractively and comfortably furnished area, a large alcove off the main corridor, which will serve as a waiting room.

Off this area is what is known as a 'family' room where relatives of critically ill patients may wait. The walls of the two rooms are finished in redwood with attractive furniture and drapes adding Hinges, made of anodized cast aluminum, are of ball-bearing construction for easy operation.

All room doors have arm pulls from either direction, mounted away from the doors so they can be opened with the arm if hands are loaded.

New Hospital Result Of Area Efforts

Meanwhile legal details were untangled, plans were presented and eventually approved and the fund campaign drew to a successful close. Finally, in June 1953, the green light was given and the board of trustees advertised for bids for the construction of a new area hospital.

Less than a month later contracts were awarded to Strom Construction Co. of Grand Rapids, general contractor, for the construction of the building at the cost of $290,350; Dart and Cady of Mason, heating, plumbing and ventilation contract, $112,352; Grand Traverse Electrical Co. of Traverse City, electrical contract, $31,750; Rhoads Refrigeration and Store Equipment Co. of Fort Wayne, Ind., kitchen equipment, $10,783.15; American Machine and Metals, Inc., laundry equipment, $9,763.

Other contracts were awarded later and included Coleman Floor Covering Co. of Chicago, floor coverings; Medical Art Surgical Supply Co. of Grand Rapids, sterilizers and operating room lights; General Electric of Milwaukee, Wis., x-ray equipment; Hill-Rom of Batesville, Ind., bedroom equipment; American Hospital of Evanston, Ill., nursery equipment; Max Woehner and Sons of Cincinnati, Instruments and Operative equipment; Lake Construction Co. of Charlevoix, pumping station and sewer line.

Within a week after the contracts were awarded, Lake Construction Co. of Charlevoix, a subcontractor, started the ground work for the new Charlevoix hospital.

Project supervisor was Myron

McGlynn of Fenton, who represented the Charlevoix hospital board of trustees, the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction and Gordon Cromwell and Associates. His job has been to co-ordinate the work of the contractors.

The construction and completion of the new Charlevoix hospital will long stand as an example of what can be accomplished when a community, in this instance the entire area served by

More than 95 per cent of all births in the state last year were in the hospital according to statistics which also revealed that Michigan tops the national average in hospital births, particularly when it comes to rural areas.

The Charlevoix hospital last year recorded 141 births, which proves that the obstetrical department is an important part of any hospital.

Babies delivered in the new Charlevoix hospital will be cared for in not only an efficiently but attractively furnished work room and nursery located on the south side of the west wing. The large window which forms the south wall of the nursery looks to the south and is covered by drapes in the softest green. The walls of the nursery and workroom are also pink. The nursery has a large window on the corridor side where visitors may view the babies without coming in contact with them. Entry to the nursery is made through the workroom.

Formulas will be made in an equally modern formula room located down the hall near the maternity ward nurses station.

The new arrivals will sleep in plastic bassinets placed in a portable section which can be moved about the nursery. They will be bathed and treated in a special workroom which is also furnished with the best equipment possible.

Equipped by the American Hospital Supply Co. of Evanston, Ill., the entire department, nursery, workroom and formula room, like the rest of the hospital, boasts the finest equipment designed to give the best care to its babies.

Floors, Walls Covered With Special Tiles

With an eye to beauty as well as service, the floors and walls in the new Charlevoix hospital have been covered with special tiles and floor coverings supplied by the Coleman Floor Co. of Chicago.

Among the materials furnished by the company are rubber floor tile, plastic floor tile, ceramic tile for floors and walls, quarry tile for floors, acoustical ceiling tile and linoleum for counter tops.

Floors in the operating and delivery rooms and related rooms are covered with a special conductive ceramic tile.

Rubber floor tile is used in the corridors and patients' rooms, quarry tile is utilized in the kitchen and laundry, bathrooms, work and utility rooms are finished in ceramic tile and the pharmacy, laboratory and other special rooms feature a plastic tile.

The wide range of floor and wall coverings on the market today made it possible to choose those which were most adaptable to special needs.

The relatively small community hospital is the real backbone of the American voluntary hospital system, according to information compiled by the American Hospital Association.

The figures reveal that two-thirds of the approximately 4,900 acute general hospitals in the United States have 100 beds or less. More than 2,200, almost half, have fewer than 50 beds.

Hospital Served Well

The new Charlevoix hospital to be dedicated Sunday will replace the first Charlevoix hospital (pictured above) which has served the community well during the past 34 years.

According to information found in the early records of the institution, the site of the first hospital, located on West Hurbit av. together with a large frame dwelling, was purchased May 21, 1917, at the cost of $2,000. During the next two years additional funds were raised to finance the remodeling of the structure and the purchase of furnishings and equipment. On May 5, 1920, the Charlevoix hospital was officially opened.

On the hospital board of trustees at the time were Harry Nicholls, president; J. L. Crana, vice president; Lisle Shanahan, secretary; Ira A. Adams, treasurer; W. H. Miller, A. D. Crimmins, Albert F. Bridge and William Finucan.

Dr. Robert B. Armstrong was elected manager in complete charge of operating the hospital.

During the next four years the demands on the new hospital grew so much that the east wing was added in 1924-25, increasing the hospital's capacity to 27 beds.

As the years went by, every inch of space in the old building was utilized and the nursing staff made the most of existing facilities.

Despite handicaps, the patient is always received excellent care. It is also to the credit of the superintendents and hospital boards that they kept abreast of hospital progress and though the building itself was old and outmoded, there was the best and newest hospital equipment available for use by the medical and nursing staffs.

This is borne out by the fact that everything but the most antiquated equipment and furnishings will be transferred to the new hospital.

But sooner or later, the board of trustees realized, plans would have to be made for a new hospital for the area served by the hospital was outgrowing existing facilities. In 1944 a committee composed of W. H. Wallace, E. J. Edwards and Earl A. Young was appointed to study the problem and to suggest means of raising funds.

As a result of their efforts $4,800 was raised, an architect was engaged to present plans to meet the community's needs and select a site for the proposed structure.

The present site, then used as a trailer park for the city, was selected and plans presented. The cost of the proposed hospital seemed prohibitive, however, and the idea was dropped.

But in 1949 the board of trustees was warned by the state fire marshal that the present hospital could no longer be approved unless extensive and costly changes were made and he suggested that plans for a new hospital be initiated.

About the same time the U. S. Congress passed what was to become known as the Hill-Burton Act which offered federal aid to communities such as Charlevoix for the construction of hospitals if the need was approved by the State Office of Hospital Survey and Construction.

Interior Decoration Of Hospital Is A Study In Color Technique

You pause for awhile at the modern glass entrance of our new hospital and you can't help but wonder at the bigness of the dream, the hope, the planning . . . and the faith of a combined group of communities that made this beautiful institution a reality.

You are a little awed upon walking through the doorway of a dream that came true . . . and as you enter the beautiful lobby that looks out over the broad green slope to the silver sand necklace of Lake Michigan . . . and step silently down the wide, soft-toned corridors, you sense the thoughtful planning that has been made to make this a lovely haven amidst a treasure-land of nature.

Every room is a study in color technique that has been designed of directors almost at once applied for federal aid, which, after due consideration was approved if the community would raise a given amount of the total cost of the building.

For the next two years, a concerted effort was made to raise the necessary funds. Cash and pledges were solicited and individuals and organizations cooperated in fund-raising projects and by August 1, 1951, $29,000 had been raised.

This fell short of the community's share needed to receive the federal grant so in the fall of 1951 a firm of professional fund-raisers was engaged to aid in the community drive. During the next three months, the fund reached the $294,000 mark in each and pledges to cover the community's share of the cost of building and equipping a 44-bed hospital.

In the meantime, the city of Charlevoix which owned the trailer site on which it was decided to build the hospital, deeded the property, approximately five acres, for the token sum of $1.00 to the Charlevoix hospital to be used as the site for the new structure.

The federal grant of $306,075 was finally approved, contracts for the project were awarded in July 1953 and the ground-breaking ceremonies followed on July 18, 1953.

The project which has taken 13 months to complete resulted in the $606,000, 44-bed fireproof building to be dedicated Sunday.

to bring a handful of wonderland inside. The walls are surfaced with beautifully toned colors suggested in the unique and original drapery patterns chosen for each room. There is a subtle grey-green, accented with floral draperies patterned with pink roses on a white background . . . and a shell pink room with petti-patterned drapes of a conventional flower and thistle design executed in brown and pink on white.

Another unit is done in a sand-wood shade, with floral hangings of orange and brown on a sand shaded fabric . . . and one has deep off-blue walls combined with a modern red, gold, green and off-blue print on white.

All of the room furnishings are blond-toned and each has built-in wardrobes, cupboards and closet space, and a private lavatory. One of the loveliest, I think, has walls the shade of pink lemonade reflecting through blue glass . . . lending a vague lilac background to lovely grey and pink patterned draperies in a sketchy Roman pillar design.

Thirty nine descriptive paragraphs later . . . you enter the staff dining room which is paneled with softly surfaced Redwood and one wall of windows framed with a rosey chrome-spun wonder fabric. The tables and chairs are matching sets of bronze metal, upholstered with a deep rose, metal flecked material.

Pausing again in the richly paneled lobby, you notice the smart black wrought iron furnishings . . . an oval sectional upholstered in an oyster shade, the back padding framing a wrought iron filligree design. Other pieces are upholstered in a lovely ripe tangerine shade and turquoise. The sheer draperies at the huge floor to ceiling picture windows are of oyster white.

Off the lobby is the registration desk and business office done in soft greys with chalk white bam-

First Hospital Was Founded In Detroit In 1845

Michigan's first hospital, founded in Detroit in 1845 by the Catholic Sisters of Charity, was actually a project financed by people of all races and creeds in the community.

Detroit had just emerged from a series of tragic epidemics which made the whole community aware of the need for a hospital.

Named St. Vincent's, it was originally located at Randolph and Larned streets. Five years later, it was moved to St. Antoine street and re-named St. Mary's hospital. The present Detroit Memorial hospital stands on the same site.

Housekeeping Is Major Problem In Hospital Routine

The average housewife has it easy compared to the job the housekeeping personnel in the new Charlevoix hospital will have.

With floors to clean and wax, windows to wash, furniture to dust and a million other little jobs that have to be done to keep the place neat, the entire department will find it more than a full-time job.

The work will be done by two members of the department assisted by the maintenance department personnel.

boo traverse drapes.

You came too soon because many of the rooms . . . like the family room, which will be furnished in French Provincial . . . the doctors' and nurses' lounge, the nursery and others, had not been completely set up . . . so there are many thrilling surprises yet to be seen.

X-Ray Laboratory Departments Have Best In Diagnosis Tools

Though the x-ray and laboratory department of any hospital remain a great mystery to the average lay person, to the doctors it offers the latest tools of diagnosis.

These same departments in the new Charlevoix hospital will be no exception. Located to the north of the main corridor in the east wing where it is easily accessible from all other departments are the x-ray and fluoroscopic rooms and related rooms and the laboratory. A counter on the main corridor serves as the entrance to the rooms in the department.

The new x-ray equipment consists of a General Electric "Maxicon" generating unit capable of producing 200 milliamperes at 100,000 volts for radiographic work and five milliamperes at 100,000 volts for fluoroscopic examinations.

The x-ray table can be raised and lowered by foot pedals that activate an electrically-controlled hydraulic unit mounted in the

Staff Rooms Are In The East Wing

In the east wing of the new Charlevoix hospital behind the administration offices will be found the staff and employees entrance and special rooms designed for their use.

Largest of these is the superintendent's apartment which includes a living room with pullman kitchen, bedroom and bathroom.

Three smaller lounges designed for use by the doctors' nurses and employees are located in the same area.

table base. The radiographic tube stand is independent of the table enabling it to be used over a greater area in the room.

A second tube for fluoroscopic examinations is mounted under the table.

Built into the fluoroscopic screen staging is a spot film device which allows the radiologist to take radiographic exposures of what he sees fluoroscopically.

In the dark room x-ray films are developed in a divided stainless steel tank that has a thermally-controlled water system.

A separate room has been provided for viewing and studying the finished films.

The new x-ray department equipment, supplied by General Electric of Milwaukee, Wis., may be considered an expansion over the old. It offers a wider range of diagnostic facilities to the radiologist and the patients.

In the same department will be found a room to be used for metabolism and other special examinations as well as treatments, three dressing rooms with a rest room and a small waiting room.

An up-to-date laboratory is located to the east of the other rooms. It too will supply the doctors with the latest aids in diagnosis made possible by modern science. Last year a total of 1,704 laboratory patients were cared for in the facilities of the old hospital, according to the annual report.

The report also revealed a total of 681 x-ray patients.

Lowell Hyde will continue to serve as x-ray and laboratory technician in the new hospital.

Dr. Harry Weitz and Dr. Robert Garneau, radiologists of Traverse City, will continue to serve also as radiologists in the new hospital, as they have in the old, visiting the hospital weekly to read all x-rays and make reports.

Patients' Rooms Practical, Beautiful

Practical as well as beautiful would be the best description of the patients rooms in the new Charlevoix hospital.

Designed to be used as either private or semi-private rooms, all 22 have thermo-pane glass windows and smaller sectional windows for ventilation. All offer a view of Lake Michigan.

Following the trend of modern styling, the rooms combine good taste in equipment, including the newest and most comfortable in modern hospital beds and furnishings with striking yet pleasing color combinations.

The entire effect is one which will create a pleasant atmosphere for the patient.

In addition each room features piped-in oxygen, separate audio-communicators with the central nursing station as well as push-button light communication, which are designed to provide not only better service but greater safety for the patient.

When used as a semi-private room cubicle curtains which hang from a ceiling track isolate each bed.

Twenty-six new beds and some room furnishings were supplied by Hill-Rom Co. of Batesville, Ind. Other furniture supplied by the same company and now in use at the present hospital will be transferred to the new hospital.

All rooms feature built-in wardrobes, drawers and lavatory and toilet facilities. All but five are equipped with showers and two with tubs.

Drapes for the rooms as well as elsewhere in the hospital were supplied by Hess Furniture.

Our American hospitals are providing the best medical care in the world. Millions more of us are using the hospitals each year.

Hospital Kitchen Planned For Most Efficient Flow Of Food

The kitchen, located in the south or utility wing of the new Charlevoix hospital, is a cook's dream come true.

Planning of the kitchen was done in such a way as to provide for efficient flow of food from the storage area to the completed dish.

A separate entrance is provided for the food to come into the kitchen and there will be no need for employees other than the kitchen staff to come in contact with it.

Next to the large storage room which will house staples and the refrigerators to hold meats is the cleaning and processing area. Here a long table underneath windows that look to the west are a potato peeler, a sink for washing and cleaning foods and other related equipment. Across a narrow aisle is a food chopper, vegetable steamer, mixers and other preparation necessities.

The cooking and baking area is just around the corner where a large Magic Chef oven will handle all baking. Besides the oven is a large Magic Chef gas-operated range with ovens underneath and broiler's above. A stainless steel canopy over the stove carries away the cooking fumes.

Across from the stove and oven island is a steam table which will receive the food and keep it hot, preparatory to serving. Dishes and trays will be stored under the steam table and a large coffee urn will rest on the end nearest the door. Trays will be taken to the rooms on large tray carts.

On their return to the kitchen they will be brought in another door where the trays will be cleaned, scraps placed in a special garbage disposal unit and dishes will be washed in a hot water washing unit.

A special pot and pan sink located near the range and oven will handle all cooking utensils.

The institution-size equipment was supplied by the Rhoads Refrigeration and Store Equipment Co. of Fort Wayne, Ind. and it's large enough to take care of future expansion.

The walls of the large kitchen area are finished in cement enamel for easy cleaning. The floor is covered with red quarry tile and the ceiling with special plastic grease-resistant tile.

A new upright deep-freeze and a refrigerator will be supplemented by similar equipment now in use at the old hospital. All pots, pans, dishes, trays, silverware and similar equipment will be transferred to the new hospital from the present hospital.

Celor Scheme Aids In Recuperation

Area Coaches Prepare For Football Season

With the 1954 football season scheduled to open with practice sessions on Monday for all but one Northern Michigan Class C school, coaches are returning from summer jobs to take up the task of preparing their squads for opening games Sept. 17 or Sept. 24.

Only one new head football coach, as yet unnamed, will join the league this fall. The newcomer will coach at Grayling where Supt. Frank Bond expects to sign someone this week. A number of new assistant coaches, however, will make their initial appearances and later assume their duties as head basketball coaches.

Coach Del Terrill, who has called his first practice session for 6:30 p.m. Monday, has spent the summer here and operated the Charlevoix Day Camp for Boys. He will have four weeks in which to prepare the Rayders for their opening game against East Jordan Sept. 24. S. E. Irish Coleman, secretary of the Charlevoix board of Commerce during the summer months, will return as his assistant. Pete Burns, city recreation director for the past three months will again have the Rayders and will be assisted by Bill Aldridge who was employed in a local grocery store during the summer. The Rayders reported for physical examinations earlier this month.

Coach Tom Weede has returned to Boyne City after attending summer school at Central Michigan college and has called his first practice sessions for Monday. Last week he was in Mt. Pleasant for the annual football clinic at Central Michigan. Boyne City will open the season against Cheboygan Sept. 17.

Jay Baysinger who coached basketball at Boyne Falls last season will take over as head basketball coach and assistant football at Boyne City this year. A native of South Haven, he is a graduate of Carthage College, Ill.

Coach Dick Boles has spent the summer in Harbor Springs as life-guard and swimming instructor at the Little Harbor Club. The Rams will hold their first practice session under the lights beginning at 7:30 p.m. Monday with physicals scheduled for Tuesday. Continued on page 5

Text Of Dedication Address

Sinai Temple, Chicago, Ill.

My friends:

I share your disappointment in Senator Potter's unavoidable absence. His presence would have meant much to us. I believe that it would also have meant much to him. It is good for our leaders in Washington to feel the heart-throbs of smaller communities. As each little mountain rivulet winds around until it finally finds its way into and becomes part of the mighty ocean, so each effort made anywhere to lift up the fallen, to heal the sick, to educate the ignorant, to abolish poverty, make up that mighty reservoir of good will, called America.

If ever a Biblical text is appropriate mine is today: "This is the day which the Lord hath made, let us rejoice and be glad in it." A dream has come true! An ideal has been realized! A task has been fulfilled! A challenge has been met! A problem has been solved!

If religion is the love of God as transformed, transfigured and transfigured into the love of man, then man's humanity to man is deeply moral and spiritual.

The cry of a sick child is a language more universal than Esperanto. The agony of a victim of an accident transcends all boundaries of race, creed or color. The pain of those who enter the valley of the shadow of death is common to all men.

When men care . . . and because they care, help sick aged suffering fellow-beings, they prove they are children of a common father and that one God has created them all.

Great institutions like this do not spring like Minerva from Jupiter's brow. The many dreams, the countless committees, the unnumbered meetings, the various plans, the enthusiastic collections, the endless toil, have now been greatly rewarded. Few communities, the size of Charlevoix are (Continued on Page 10)

Council Acts To Collect All Utility Bills

City utility subscribers whose accounts are in arrears may find themselves without lights, water or sewage disposal service or all three if the delinquent accounts are not paid or arrangements made for payment following action taken Monday night by the city council.

The city clerk has been instructed to notify all delinquent users and discontinue these utilities unless the accounts are given immediate attention.

A special hearing to discuss the possible amendment of the existing building ordinance to include motels has been set for Monday, Sept. 20, following a discussion of the issue by the council this week.

The council also agreed to extend fire protection to Eveline township until Sept. 7 to await the outcome of a special township meeting scheduled for 7 to 9 p.m. tonight (Thursday) to decide the issue.

The licensing ordinance for transient or seasonal business was discussed and the issue referred to a committee for further study.

The bid for liability insurance for the city submitted by the Wolverine Insurance Co. whose local agent is Charles Hanlin was accepted. The insurance will cover all city owned property.

The Trailer Park committee reported on the results of its survey following several meetings during which the members inspected several possible sites. All their suggestions would return the city to the trailer park business.

Inspiring Ceremony Dedicates Hospital Before Large Crowd

"Over and above the bricks and stones, beyond the wood and the glass; in addition to the steel and other metals, over arching the latest and best equipment and undergirding the artistic and aesthetic qualities, there are the invisible, intangible potent forces of the spirit: determination, cooperation, dedication and consecration, which have resulted in this beautiful new hospital we dedicate today."

Thus spoke Dr. Louis L. Mann, Rabbi of Chicago's Sinai Temple and beloved summer resident, at the dedication of Charlevoix's new $606,000 44-bed hospital Sunday.

He went on to say that without these forces, there never could have been a hospital. "Today a dream has come true, an ideal has been realized, a task has been fulfilled, a challenge has been met, a problem has been solved," he continued in an inspiring dedicatory address which was heard by more than a thousand officials and guests who gathered for the dedication ceremony. (The full text of his address will be found in another column on this page.)

Dr. John Rodger of Bellaire, member of the Michigan Advisory Hospital Council, was master of ceremonies and introduced Dr. Mann as well as Jacques DeLaurier, director of the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction, who complimented the community on its accomplishment and later cut the ribbon which marked the formal opening of the building overlooking Lake Michigan.

Ralph O. Dunn, president and general manager of the Strom Construction Co., major contractor for the new hospital, presented the key to the new building to Fred W. Willis, president of the Board of Trustees who accepted it in behalf of the hospital board and the community.

Mr. Willis opened the program, welcoming the officials and guests and introduced Dr. Rodger who was master of ceremonies for the program held under warm gray skies.

Among those who were introduced were Mr. Willis, president of the board; Gordon L. Freedman, vice president; Mrs. Edward K. Shanahan, secretary; Charles Bleha, treasurer; Mrs. Kit Carson, who spoke briefly in behalf of the board and thanked the entire community for its efforts toward the construction of the hospital.

New US 31 South Paving Job Is Now Completed

The paving of 8.75 miles of highway on US 31 south of Charlevoix from the US 31-Barnard intersection to a point just south of the Norwood road was completed late Saturday, William P. Collin, engineer for the Michigan State Highway Department has announced.

The paving of the new highway by the Sargent Construction Co. of Saginaw, general contractors, was started in mid-July.

The completion of this phase of the job does not mean the project is completed, Mr. Collin added in making the announcement. With about six weeks work to be done before the project is finished and accepted, the highway will not be opened for traffic until about Oct. 1. Until then the present detour will remain in effect and anyone traveling the new highway will do so at his own risk, Mr. Collin warned.

The construction of shoulders along the entire length of the new road, the placing of approximately 11 acres of sod and the installation of guard posts and nearly a mile of guard cable remains to be done before the highway will be opened for travel.

The new highway is 22 feet wide and is constructed of eight-inch uniform depth concrete reinforced with steel. It replaces an 18 foot roadway.

Travelers will find many improvements on the new highway when it is opened. All sharp corners have been eliminated and a number of hills cut down or eliminated providing a road that will not only be easy to travel but easy to maintain.

The project was started Nov. 11, 1953, by the Sargent Construction Co. of Saginaw whose contract was for $636,674. The project was halted for a time last spring when continuous rains made it impossible for heavy equipment to be used on the roadbed then under construction.

Public School Year To Open September 14

The Charlevoix public schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 14, for the 1954-55 school year, Supt. R. G. Bennett announced this week. On Monday, Sept. 13, will be devoted to teachers' conferences.

At the same time Mr. Bennett announced one major change in the elementary school, stating that Glenn Snider, a member of the faculty since 1947 would assume the duties of elementary school principal.

Frances Milner who has resigned after serving in the position for 15 years, Miss Milner will continue on the staff as second grade teacher. Mr. Snider will add the principalship to his duties as sixth grade teacher.

Only one teacher has been added to the faculty. She is Miss Arville Roberts, whose home is here. A graduate of Central Michigan college in Mt. Pleasant, she taught in Petoskey for two years and in Portland, Ore., for the same number of years before returning here to teach the second grade.

Mr. Bennett went on to say that with the increased enrollment in the lower elementary grades it will be necessary to have three second grades this year. Last year, it will be remembered, it became necessary to open a third first grade room. It is not known at this time whether the same procedure will be warranted this year in regard to the first grade.

The names of the faculty and school personnel as well as the subjects to be offered will be announced later.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

THE GREAT day has come and gone... the dedication and opening of our new hospital... And wasn't it just beautiful as we said it was? And as Dr. Mann said... This is not the work of one person... It is the result of the determination, cooperation, dedication and consecration of an entire community...

If you looked closely you no doubt saw all those people who'd had the least bit to do with it just about popping their buttons and patting themselves on the back and rightfully so...

One couple who was especially proud and we couldn't blame him were the Gordon Cornwells for this was his first hospital... As an architect, he'd done other things but Sunday he was seeing his child dressed in its Sunday best and ready for company...

WE SAW more people... people we hadn't seen in years, summer people and just people we'd never seen before... And they all agreed on one thing... It was a beautiful hospital and Charlevoix's lucky to have it...

Talked with two nurses from southern Michigan who were associated with hospitals that had been opened in the past year and both said that neither, despite the fact that they were new, could compare with ours...

AND NOW that the ohs and ahs have died down, the task of moving in the patients and the remaining equipment will begin... It's going to be a difficult one, the job of moving, but if it's handled as efficiently as the job of opening this one, it will be accomplished without a ripple...

There just wasn't anything that wasn't grand so we won't say any more about it... But wasn't it wonderful and aren't we lucky to live in a community that can still around but we could name quite a few who served long and well... It is unfortunate that at a time like this everyone who has helped in some way or other cannot receive the recognition he has earned... But since that is quite impossible, let us say that somewhere along the way we're sure they will receive their just reward...

IF YOU happened to be one of those people who saw all the activity at Oyster Bay in Lake Charlevoix Friday and have been wondering what it was about...

We have the answer... It was a crew of amateur divers looking like men from another planet doing their 'stuff' while two photographers, one with an underwater camera and the other on board the boat taking movies of the 'frog-men' and their underwater antics... And if you'd like to see the finished product, watch for it on Mort Neff's Michigan Outdoors on your television either Sept. 2 or 9... over Lansing, Bay City or Detroit (we forgot to ask what channels) We got our dope from Greg Smith of Boyne City who was one of the photographers on the excursion...

LAST WEEK we renewed our offer to air complaints... we had a couple so we're going to present them to you... One was from a local resident who has what we think is a legitimate complaint... Seems she saw a car full of out-of-town people slowly driving down Bridge St., either looking for a place to park, looking at the lake or trying to find an opportunity to turn off Bridge St., which you'll admit, is difficult... To quote directly from the note: "I think to myself... Guess Charlevoix is selling itself to these folks when all of a sudden I hear a horn blow, not just a little tap but a real impatient blast. And what's worst, upon looking at the guilty driver, I find it's a Charlevoix resident."

"Last week it happened again and again the guilty party was someone dependent upon our summer trade as we all are."

TO ME the more outsiders here the better and if they want to drive slowly down our main street let them take their time. It won't be long before we will again have the streets to ourselves and the above offenders will be squawking the loudest about the season just over. It seems to me that it behooves all of us to be patient and courteous to all. We all need more of that stuff they are willing to leave with us... with just a little bit of encouragement... For our money people drive too fast down Bridge St. at all times and I think this is a worthwhile complaint... How about it?

AN another from a summer resident, again a good one... Charlevoix does so very much to make the city attractive... It's a lovely spot and we like it here... But can't someone do something about the poison ivy... This person said she knew it was a difficult thing to control, but she added... You have so much of it here... That we also know is true... How about a city-wide campaign to rid the place of it... In fact, that would be a good project for the Garden Club...

FOR THOSE of you who like to be reminded... Christmas is less than four months away... That's right... four months from yesterday... And, in case you're interested, there's exactly 100 shopping days 'til Christmas... That doesn't include today...

FOOTBALL starts next Monday... You don't believe it? Well then, see for yourself when Coach Del Terrill and his Raiders put in their initial appearance at Kipke field at 6:30 p.m. Monday... And if you think those kids don't give up a lot and by through a lot so we can have a football team, how would you like to go on all that gear and practice in this kind of weather?...

A successful measure for light and airy are cut off from the gel food — one cup of egg white to each cup of flour, according to foods specialists at M.S.C.

When a farmer fertilizes, cultivates and thins out his corn, he gets the best return. A similar practice produces the most desirable fish.

"FIRST WE do everything we can to make a lake support more fish," says Dr. Leonard. "Then we seek to adjust the fish population to this level."

Southern states have been able to increase the productivity of lakes by 40% with the addition of certain fertilizers. Unfortunately this doesn't work out the same in northern climates. In fact, Michigan has found that adding fertilizers can kill every fish in the lake.

Dulcify here is long winters. Fertilizers produce greatly increased plant growth. When cold weather comes with ice and snow, many plants die. This loss causes many plants to die. The resulting decay completely absorbs the limited oxygen available. The fish are suffocated.

The Conservation Department is conducting experiments to find a fertilizer that is practical to use in this climate.

When too many fish inhabit a lake, none of them can get enough to eat. This means very few grow big enough to brag about.

For this reason there are open seasons, or very short closed seasons, for several of the more common fish. In most warm-water lakes fishermen can try their luck anytime for crappies, rock bass, perch or calico bass. There are only three weeks in April when it is illegal to catch blue gills and sunfish. Regulations concerning legal size have been relaxed.

MORE drastic means are used in other lakes. Michigan pioneered the idea of using a chemical called Rotenone to poison all the fish in a lake. When all are killed and the poison dissipated, the lake is stocked with trout. These soon grow well past legal size and become an angler's delight.

Constant fear of Conservation officials is that these lakes will be planted with other kinds either knowingly by some well-meaning person or by a fisherman who innocently dumps the balance of his live minnow bait into the lake. This is why fishing regulations prohibit use of live bait in certain lakes.

The average pair of bluegills produces 17,000 young each year; perch up to 48,000; walleyes produce several hundred thousand eggs each season. It is easy to see that one pair of minnows grown to adulthood could soon stock a lake to the point where none of the fish could obtain sufficient food to grow big.

Officials worry too about people who might use goldfish for bait. A few of these under the right conditions would produce so many carp-like creatures that the lake would have to be poisoned.

Charlevoix IN UNIFORM

Al-c Arnold Loper of Warner-Robbins AFB, Macon, Ga., and his guest, Jean Keeling of Charleston, W. Va., visited last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loper.

Cpl. James N. Roberts has been discharged after serving two years in the U. S. Army and is expected home this weekend to visit his mother, Mrs. Bertha Roberts and family before going to Battle Creek where he will teach this year. He returned last week from a year in Germany and received his discharge in the east.

His wife, the former Ila Sterns of Alpena, who went to Germany in June, returned with him and will visit relatives in Alpena before joining her husband here.

TOO MANY fish is a problem seldom faced by lovers of the rod and reel, but the large number of underdeveloped finny fellows in Michigan's warm-water lakes makes a major headache for Michigan's Conservation Department.

The problem is more complicated than it seems," says Dr. Justin Leonard, head of the Research Division in Conservation. One of his important duties is to see that the state's lakes, rivers and streams are full as possible of fish to make sportsmen proud and happy.

Dr. Leonard looks at this problem somewhat as a farmer looks at securing the highest yield of corn from a 40 acre plot. Although it is somewhat more involved, the basic factors are the same.

Everything practical must be done to make both water and land able to support the largest crop. The number of plants or fish must be limited to what can be supported.

When a farmer fertilizes, cultivates and thins out his corn, he gets the best return. A similar practice produces the most desirable fish.

Lawless-Left Marriage Vows Are Spoken In Double Ring Ceremony

Kathleen Marie Lawless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lawless, became the bride of Gerald Edward Left, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Left, in a double ring ceremony read at St. Patrick's church in Portland Saturday morning.

The Rev. Fr. Louis Floke celebrated the Nuptial Mass before an altar decorated with white gladioli, ferns and lighted tapers in candelabra. The Senior Men's Choir sang the Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white imported Chantilly lace and nylon net over satin fashioned with a lace-etched yoke, long sleeves which tapered to points over the wrists and a wedding ring waist which released a full skirt of nylon net overlaid with Chantilly lace with net panels. A Juliet cap of seed pearls secured the fingertip veil of imported illusion tulle. She carried a white prayer book with an arrangement of white roses and mums.

Betty Ann Lawless as her sister's maid of honor wore a tulle length gown of coral rylon tulle over taffeta styled with a scooped neckline and full nylon tulle skirt. Her headpiece of gathered nylon tulle and brief mits matched her dress and she carried a Colonial bouquet of coral mums and carnations.

Deanna Left, sister of the bridegroom, Alice Spitzley of Portland and Mrs. Kevin Lane of Detroit as bridesmaids wore gowns of powder blue tulle and taffeta similar to the honor attendant's, matching headpieces and mits and carried Colonial bouquets of mums and carnations tinted to match their gowns.

Patrick Lawless of Portland, brother of the bride, assisted the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Frederick Lawless of Standish, brother of the bride, Jack Cross and Charles Krahneke.

Mrs. Lawless selected a dusty rose afternoon dress with black accessories and a corsage of white roses and mums for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Left, mother of the bridegroom, wore an orchid dress with matching lace jacket and dusty rose accessories. Her corsage was also of white roses and mums.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was held for the wedding party and their immediate families. An evening reception for 300 guests was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents.

After a northern Michigan wedding trip the couple will make their home at Lake Charles, La., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Air Force. For traveling the bride chose a beige linen dress with matching hat and gloves and luggage tan accessories and a bronze mum corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Portland high school and attended Central Michigan college in Mt. Pleasant. The bridegroom, a graduate of the Charlevoix high school, is a veteran of two years with the U. S. Air Force.

Among the wedding guests were the couple's grandparents, Mrs. Joseph Selback of Ionia and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Forrester of Charlevoix.

First Methodist Church Scene Of Ostrum-Lanterman Wedding Vows

In a candlelight ceremony solemnized at the First Methodist church August 16, Gloria Jeanne Ostrum became the bride of James Lanterman of Petoskey.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Ostrum and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Helen Jackson of Petoskey.

The Rev. Lloyd M. Schlopp officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli and lighted tapers in candelabra. Seventy-five guests attended the wedding.

Mrs. Jack Abfalter sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. A. C. Belding who also played a program of traditional music and the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a round scalloped neckline, long tapered sleeves which came to points over the wrist, fitted bodice and a full skirt which ended in a cathedral length train. A lace headpiece held her fingertip veil and she carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Donna Smith as maid of honor and Joann Liston and Judith Anderson of Walloon Lake, cousin of the bride, as bridesmaids, wore similar gowns of taffeta with overskirts of net and matching net stoles. Miss Smith and Miss Anderson wore light blue gowns, blue carnation headpieces and carried Colonial bouquets of blue and white carnations. Miss Liston's pink gown was worn with a pink carnation headpiece and she carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Louis Mason assisted the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Eldred F. Ostrum and Robert Ostrum, brothers of the bride. Mrs. Ostrum selected a light blue gown and white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Jackson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a marine blue print gown and black accessories. Both had corsages of yellow gladioli.

A reception followed in the church parlors which were decorated with pink and white gladioli. The refreshment table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and decorated with lighted white tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rhine of Harbor Springs were master and mistress of ceremonies.

The couple will make their home in Charlevoix for the present.

Garver-Elzinga Marriage Vows Spoken In Double Ring Ceremony

An ivy-covered arch flanked by baskets of pastel gladioli and lighted tapers in candelabra formed the setting for the recent wedding of Lois Pauline Garver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Garver, and James L. Elzinga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Elzinga.

The Rev. Walter N. Carr officiated at the double ring service at the First Baptist church on Thursday evening, August 12. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. William E. Barker sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Walker Miles who also played a program of traditional music and the wedding marches.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, chose a ballerina length gown of white lace and net for her wedding. It was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a lace headpiece and she carried a white Bible topped with red roses. Mrs. William Hair, aunt of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of yellow lace and net, a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow mums.

Joann Liston and Lorabelle Elzinga, sisters of the bridegroom, as bridesmaids, wore gowns of light blue lace and net similar to the honor attendant's, yellow headbands and carried bouquet of yellow mums.

Tremendous numbers of land turtles, migrating with the seasons, once were deep gullied trails between highlands and seashore in Ecuador's Galapagos Islands, says the National Geographic Society. Only wide enough for one tortoise at a time, the gullies forced the shellbacked travelers to move in single file, all at the leader's pace.

Banquet Follows Recent Donkey Baseball Game

Zach's Club was the scene of a banquet recently honoring Zach Whyte's Burger Beer Boys and the V.F.W. Vhammers following their recent softball game.

Fried chicken and all the trimmings was the menu for the banquet prepared by Rowena Slaughter of Cincinnati. As a surprise Mr. Whyte, national representative for the Burger Co., presented each guest with a leather billfold as a gift from his company.

Preceding the dinner the two ball clubs furnished a large crowd with plenty of laughs before the local nine came through with a 3-2 victory over the Burgers.

Kenny Collier, Bob Jones and Roosevelt Jones of St. Louis, Mo., and Grady Butler of Cincinnati were top performers at their base positions. Other players who turned in equally fine performances were Woody Smith and Milton Wilder of St. Louis, Mo., Lawrence Jones of St. Joseph, Mich., Harold Lee, H. Jackson, Tom Phelps, Bill Cobb, John Whyte and Zach Whyte Jr. of Cincinnati and Thurman Springer of Lansing. Zach Whyte Sr. served as team manager.

John Whyte, Charlevoix's ace bootblack, is credited with choosing the smallest and bolkiest donkey which never did move and Zach Whyte Jr. was bounced from his donkey and rolled from the ball park.

Area Hairdressers Gather At Boyne

The August meeting of the district National Hairdressers and Cosmetology Association was held at the Hotel Dilworth in Boyne City recently. Mrs. Mildred Ruedisell of Boyne City was hostess at the dinner meeting.

Plans were made for a rummage sale to be sponsored by the group at St. Mary's church in Cheboygan Sept. 15. Bernadette Bonsecours of Cheboygan was named chairman of the event.

The October meeting will be held in Petoskey Oct. 11 with Mrs. Virginia Benedetti will be program chairman.

Among those from northern Michigan who attended the meeting in Boyne City was Mrs. Ruby Morrow.

Alkali will discolor aluminum cooking utensils, but they may be cleaned with steel wool or a mild acid solution, such as vinegar and water, say home economists at M.S.C.

Rachel A. Pardee, Jack Niswander Married In Double Ring Ceremony

In a quiet ceremony solemnized at the Church of God Saturday afternoon, Rachel A. Pardee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pardee, became the bride of Jack Niswander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Niswander.

The Rev. George L. Majors officiated at the double ring service before an altar decorated with lavender and white gladioli in the presence of 60 guests.

Preceding the service Mrs. William E. Barker sang "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Herbert H. Hamlin who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride selected a light blue tweed gabardine suit, navy accessories and a corsage of white lilies and carnations for her wedding.

Mrs. Edward Mann, as her only attendant, wore a pink dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. Mann assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at Fellowship hall.

The couple will reside here following a wedding trip to the upper peninsula and Canada.

The bride attended the Charlevoix high school and the bridegroom is a 1953 graduate of the Charlevoix high school.

Inspiring Crowd Dedicates Hospital

A new building; Harry A. Craig, veteran member of the board; Max Novak, Floyd Brown, Hans DeYoung of Atwood and John Porter of East Jordan, board members; Miss Anne Baumgartner, hospital superintendent; Kit Carson, chairman of the fund raising committee; Robert Bridge and Herbert B. Schofield, treasurer and secretary respectively, of the same committee; Alvin D. Goldman of the North side Association; Mrs. E. Eckhart Williams of the Belvedere Club and J. H. King of the Chicago Club, representing the advisory committee; Dr. G. B. Saltonstall, chief of staff; Dr. L. E. Grate, vice chief of staff; Dr. Jerry VanDellen of East Jordan, secretary and Dr. Isaac Terr, local member of the staff; Joe Homminga and John F. Bimplinger of the Office of Hospital Survey and Construction; William J. Burns of Lansing, executive secretary of the Michigan Hospital Association of which the local hospital is a member; Gordon Cornwell of Traverse City, architect; Mayor Dean Davenport and Melvin McGlynn of Penton, project supervisor.
The Rev. Fr. Raymond F. Griesse S.J. gave the invocation and the Rev. Lloyd M. Schlopp the benediction.

Music for the program was played by the Charlevoix City Band directed by C. A. Odmark. The presentation and raising of a new flag by the Charlevoix V. F. W. post No. 1153 and the Leslie T. Shapton post No. 226, American Legion, opened the impressive program. Immediately following the dedication ceremony, an open house was arranged through the efforts of the newly organized Women's Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital under the chairmanship of Mrs. L. E. Grate and Mrs. E. D. Hawley was held until 8:30 p.m.
It is estimated that more than 2,000 persons toured the hospital during the afternoon and evening, viewing for the first time the results of ten years of work on the part of an entire community which planned, raised funds and supervised the construction of the new building. Bouquets of seasonal flowers sent by local businesses, contractors and residents enhanced the beauty of the already lovely building.

At the close of the hospital tour refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. Alen Macdonell, president of the Women's Guild and Mrs. Clara Walker. Refreshments included fruit juice furnished by Joe Kauzlerich of Petoskey, local representative for the Gardella Company and cookies provided through the efforts of Neff Brothers Quality Food Store.

More than 100 local and summer residents joined Guild members in the reception committee headed by Mrs. Carson, the guest book committee in charge of Mrs. Freedman, the guides in charge of Mrs. Saltonstall and the refreshment committee. Nurses were also stationed throughout the hospital to answer inquiries about the new hospital.

The new Charlevoix hospital, which will be opened for patients by Sept. 1, replaces the two-story frame building in use since 1920. The construction of the new one-story 44-bed, 12 crib, masonry and steel building was financed by a federal grant through the Hill-Burton Act and contributions by permanent and summer residents of the Charlevoix area.

PCA Anniversary Meetings Held At East Lansing

Joseph Martinechek returned Friday from East Lansing where he had attended the 20th Anniversary and Complete Member Ownership Celebration of the 10 Production Credit Associations in Lower Michigan.

The Gaylord Production Credit Association of which Mr. Martinechek is director, is located at Gaylord and was organized in Dec. 1933.

Governor G. Mennen Williams speaking at the Celebration banquet told the more than 500 Michigan farmers and their wives that they could be proud of their achievements in the 20 years they have operated their own credit organizations.

Governor Williams considered it fully as significant that although the government had provided the means and the method, the farmers had ably demonstrated their ability to use the means placed at their disposal to help themselves.

Robert B. Tootell, Governor of the Farm Credit Administration, Washington, D. C., said "American agriculture is dynamic. It is ever changing." He noted that "The American farmer makes for greater use of mechanization and of science than the farmer of any other country" and "this takes financing and usually involves the use of credit."

Suggests Easy Way To Clean Kitchen Broiler Utensils

Home economists at Michigan State college offer homemakers these suggestions for cleaning and caring for broilers:

Grease the rack of the broiler with salad oil or shortening before using it and it will be easier to clean.

After broiling, pour off all the drippings as soon as you have removed the food. Use paper towels to wipe off both the pan and the rack.

Then fill the pan immediately with very hot water, and add a soap powder or detergent. Let the pan and rack stand until you are ready to wash them. With fresh, hot suds, you'll find them easy to clean.

If you don't care to save the drippings, add enough trisodium phosphate to form a soap curd. Then it can be flushed down the drain.

If food sticks, you can use steel wool pads containing soap if your broiler is aluminum or stainless steel. Enamel broilers, however, require more gentle treatment.

The M.S.C. home economists suggest that you may want to remove the broiler when using your oven. This will prevent any possibility of cracking of the enamel or warping of the metal pan.

Type Of Dressing Is Important In Salad Preparation

Choose the right dressing for the right salad this summer . . . one that brings out and enhances the flavor of the fruits and vegetables.

Take care not to drown these flavors, either by too much dressing or by one with too much flavor of its own, cautions Dr. Elizabeth Osman of the Michigan State college foods and nutrition department.

Have the greens and vegetables or fruits quite free of excess moisture when the dressing is added to avoid a soggy, watery result. Add the dressing just before the salad is served in order that none of the crisp texture is lost.

Dr. Osman suggests that you prepare a few basic dressings and keep them on your refrigerator shelf. They can be used "as is" or varied by the addition of special ingredients for "tailor-made" dressings.

Jars of mayonnaise, cooked salad dressing, French dressing and possibly a fruit French dressing will give you bases for any number of variations.

A Lesson from Burning Logs

When the winter winds howl and snow swaths the frost-bitten earth with smothering handages of white, smoke will climb from our chimney. A wood fire will sing dreamy ballads of things past. Shadows will dance softly, silently on the walls. In the drowsy comfort of the cabin heads will nod as heads are bound to do when night has fallen, loved ones are near, conversation has lulled and red-orange flames in the fireplace hypnotize tired minds.

Smoke will curl from our wood fire next winter because of a disposition that is found throughout nature. It is a tendency toward gathering things. Those birch logs over which the flames sigh and doze are stored sunshine, rays of heat and light gathered by birch leaves throughout many a summer and tucked away in trunk and limbs for future use. When ignited the logs release the energies collected there.

Range as widely as you please through the nature of things and you will discover how universal is this urge to collect and to conserve. Wood, coal, oil, gas and all other fuels are the accumulated sunshine that poured down upon the earth in years or millennia past. When we burn them we set free the imprisoned splendor of by-gone sunny days.

What does a whitetail deer or a raccoon or a man do when it eats? When any creature consumes a meal, no matter what its diet may be, it collects and stores energy for future use. Honey is collected nectar. An art gallery is gathered beauty and stored genius. A bank full of money is accumulated toll and sweet, anxious figuring and thrift. Memory is the hoarded treasure of recollections of the past. All are subject to release as fire frees the reserve of energies in a white birch log.

We humans are incorrigible collectors. We are constantly gathering something because our human nature abhors emptiness. We are bound to be full — of good thoughts or evil ones, of good news or gossip, of love or hostility and hatred, of motives of grabbing or giving, or full of a confused mixture of goodness and badness. When some crisis ignites us, like a birch log we can only give forth what we have gathered.

One secret of successful living is found in developing an insatiable appetite for the good, filling up on it, so that when emergencies come and our souls are aflame they can warm and enlighten the world with stored strength and faith and hope and love.

Hospital Guild Completes Two More Projects

The newly-organized Women's Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital has completed two more successful projects.

The first was the open house with guided tours and refreshments at the new Charlevoix hospital Sunday in which more than 100 summer and area residents participated.

The second, a fund-raising project, netted the Guild $500.00 which will be used to carry on the work of the Guild.

Two gifts, a $40.00 contribution from Mrs. Robert Schlemmer and a $20.00 gift was also received from Mrs. Hopewell Rogers of the Chicago Club.

Funds raised thus far will be used to finance purchase of new mirrors in the Charlevoix hospital, the filling of planters and the cost of new children's furniture for the children's ward of the hospital.

The Guild also financed the cost of the open house at the new Charlevoix hospital Sunday with the exception of the fruit juice and cookies, which were donated.

"Charley's Aunt" Being Given By Petoskey Players

Petoskey — "Charley's Aunt" the famous farce comedy which has moved millions to tears of laughter, first as an exciting stage play, later as a hit movie and most recently as a successful musical comedy will be the seventh offering this season of Bentley Lenhoff's resident professional summer stock company, Petoskey Playhouse. The production, which is under the direction of Bob Gray, who was seen as Sidney Redditch in last week's production of "Hell, Book and Candle", opened last night at the Playhouse on Bay and Howard streets, and will play through Sunday evening, Aug. 29.

This laugh filled comedy centers around two dashing young college men who are violently in love with two charming and beautiful young women and who invite the girls to a luncheon in their rooms which will be chaperoned by Charley's Aunt. The comic confusion which results when Charley's aunt, from Brazil, fails to arrive in time for lunch and a class-mate of the young men attempts to take her place, has produced hilarious entertainments for two generations of theatre-goers.

"Charley's Aunt" is the only costume play scheduled by the theatre group for this season. The play is set in the year 1892 and for the past several weeks members of the Playhouse company have been looking through old trunks and checking the wardrobe department of the Petoskey Little Theatre in search of dresses and suits which were worn in that period. The wonderful co-operation of area residents has been so helpful that producer-director Lenhoff hopes to schedule many period plays in future seasons.

Seats for all performances of "Charley's Aunt" may be reserved by phoning D1 7-4292 or visiting the theatre box office which is open daily 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

State Judges To Gather At Beach Hotel Wednesday

The Michigan Judges Association will open its annual convention at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel Wednesday, Sept. 1.

The three-day conference is the first state-wide meeting of 35 Michigan judges to study judicial procedures in the state.

The 1954 legislature adopted a law requiring Michigan's 72 circuit judges, 12 judges of the Recorder's Court of Detroit and the superior court judge of Grand Rapids to meet annually to study the judicial system in general and make recommendations for improving it.

Leland W. Carr, associate justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan, whose members will attend, will preside in the absence of Chief Justice Henry M. Butler.

Said to be the largest convention the group has ever had, more than 200 members and their guests are expected here for the event.

Dedication Address By Dr. Louis L. Mann

privileged to have a hospital as beautiful, as adequate, as modern, as well equipped as this one, Charlevoix the Beautiful will now also be Charlevoix the Healthful.

The first Charlevoix Hospital was opened 34 years ago. In the early days there were less than 100 patients a year. "Though thy beginning was small, great shall be thy latter end" we read in Holy Scriptures. Last year there were 1,339 patients, 1,500 outpatients, 681 x-ray patients, 1,794 laboratory patients, 141 births, 1,082 operations. To paraphrase Winston Churchill: We pause to praise those dedicated men and their staff who did so much, for so many with so little equipment. Be it said to their eternal credit, that despite handicaps, a building old and outmoded, the medical and nursing staffs kept it medically up to date.

Just ten years ago the Board of Trustees of the Hospital contributed the sum of $1,000.00 (a) to make a survey of the community's needs; (b) to select a site for the new hospital. Never was money better spent. This site could not have been improved upon. Even some who preferred another, have come to realize what a magnificent choice it was. All differences will now be forgotten once the die is cast. This is the American way. To disagree agreeably is democracy. To agree disagreeably is totalitarianism.

Here on the beautiful shores of Lake Michigan, with its ideal climate, its pure air, its gentle breezes, Nature herself becomes a medical asset.

This too is a day of memory. Amidst the joys of achievement, we recall with gratitude the toils of the pioneers. We shall not permit them to go unnamed, unheralded and unsung. Reverently we remember Doctor Armstrong and Doctor McMillan. Theirs was a noble sense of dedication, theirs a spiritual sense of consecration. We pause to pay tribute to their successors, Doctors, Siltontail, Grate, Terr and Van Dellen whose great gifts, high professional standards and unselfish devotion have brought about the fulfillment of this dream. We pause to pay tribute to the hundreds of good men and women who in a hundred and one ways, under the steady, conscientious, humble and inspired leadership of the chairman, Fred Willis, servant of God and servant of man helped to make this dream come true.

We pause to pay tribute to the summer residents who joined so generously and enthusiastically in this labor of love.

Nor shall we ever forget the $300,000 grant given by our Federal Government. Never was Federal money more wisely spent. The latest and the best, the functional and the efficient... these ideas are basic in the principles upon which this hospital was built.

Charlevoix Hospital, where every precaution for their safety and well-being has been alerted. If these little ones could quote Scriptures the moment they are born, they would doubtless say: "My lot has fallen in pleasant places, we have a goodly inheritance".

Over and above the bricks and stones, beyond the wood and the glass, in addition to the steel and other metals, over arching the latest and best equipment and undergirding the artistic and aesthetic qualities — there are the invisible, intangible potent forces of the spirit: Determination! Cooperation! Dedication! Consecration!

"Establish Thou, Oh God the work of our hand Yea the work of our hands (our hearts and our souls), Establish Thou it".

Leslie Everts, equipment fund chairman for the post, said that the proceeds this year would be used for the purchase of a much-needed wheel chair.

Under the program, Christmas gift subscriptions may be purchased now and a gift card and the first issue of the magazine sent to the recipient at holiday time.

City, Coast Guard Conduct A Water Safety Program

Co-operating in the water safety program sponsored by the U. S. Coast Guard in an effort to cut down on the number of lake tragedies, the city of Charlevoix has had printed and will post a number of safety posters in boat-houses and docks along the waterfront.

The posters carry a series of important reminders to the boat owner for his own safety.

Among them are the questions: Have you notified anyone of your destination and estimated time of arrival, the time you will return and a good description of your boat?

Do you have a sea-worthy craft with enough fuel to get back, a recent weather report, an approved life-jacket for every person aboard, a good signal device and a fire extinguisher?

Do you know what to do in case of a sudden storm or if an emergency arises?

If you, as boat owners and operators, can answer the above questions in the affirmative, then you are following the safety rules suggested by the U. S. Coast Guard. If you can't answer them, then you'd better not cast off your lines from the dock where your craft is tied up.

When the schools of the nation open their doors for the 1954-55 year, a record enrollment of 30,000,000 children will fill the classrooms. The number of boys and girls just beginning their years of schooling is expected to soar to a high figure, due to the consistent upswing in the nation's birth rate.

The experiment, now being conducted at Vance Air Force base, Enid, Okla., will be completed next June.

Whether the results are favorable or not Sgt. Lucas said it is gratifying to know that the Air Force is always taking steps to better the morale and welfare of its personnel and also consider reduction of its overall operation.

Another new feature of the Air Force is the new pay program. Beginning Oct. 1, airmen will be paid twice a month, on the 5th and 20th of each month instead of once a month.

Voice of Our Readers . . .

Charlevoix Courier
Charlevoix, Michigan

Gentlemen: Several times this summer it has been my pleasure to see a fine demonstration of what may be a declining phase of Americana . . . that is, the weekly concerts of the municipal band.

I wonder if the people of Charlevoix and the City officials realize the amount of practice and preparation necessary to reach this stage of proficiency. In most cases it requires individual practice over a period of years, and in some this practice and preparation spans a lifetime. It sure seems that the combined effort of 40 or 50 people in this direction would justify the erection of a band shell.

ODDS 'N ENDS

By Fran Martin

THIS THE second day of the ninth month of this year called 34. Can you believe it? Neither can we.

This weekend we'll be saying good-bye to the majority of our summer residents who have been with us such a very short time. Don't know why they can't arrange to stay through the fall when it's so very beautiful here. And then too we'd like a chance to show them what life is like here during the winter.

Many have the idea that we hibernate but the truth of the matter is we're busy doing the things we don't have time to do all summer.

But to our friends a fond good-bye and, come June, we'll be seeing you. This is one of things we talk about living in a summer resort . . . all the goodbyes one must say . . . and the only thing that is nice about that is that in June we'll be able to greet our friends once more. Which perhaps doesn't make sense but it's true. So, 'til next year, 'bye, have a nice winter, hurry back and may God go with you.

THAT Reminds us, this is Labor Day weekend coming. One of those times of year we've learned to dread because it means so many accidents. We'd like to add our warning to all the others being issued . . . don't drive unless you have to and then be careful. Remember, it's not only yourself but the other guy you have to look out for. So, unless you're dying to become a statistic, be careful. Come Tuesday, we'd like to see you around.

WHO KNOWS the history of the bad train accident long ago? Mrs. H. B. Jacobs found among her possessions a picture of a train wreck on Aug. 23 but she couldn't find the year on the picture that was taken by a young photographer named Earl A. Young. Must ask him about it. Anyway, last week was the anniversary of the accident and we'd like to know a bit more about it.

OUR LITTLE Buttercup who's been stepping out all summer did a bit of stepping out last week with nine-year old Mary Ellen McGeath and won himself not only a prize in the pet parade in Petoskey but also one at the Emmet county fair.

Mary Ellen, wearing a little yellow skirt and bow to match Buttercup's golden fleece, entered him in the parade and later at the fair where he won first place in his particular division (wonder what that was?). Buttercup may not be the biggest or fleetest or what-have-you lamb but we'll bet he's the most talked about sheep not only in northern Michigan but the state and points about the midwest, which is the idea of the whole thing anyway.

IT'S ABOUT that time again to get ready to go back to school. Whether you've a child going to Kindergarten or if you're all grown up and going to college . . . there's the planning of the wardrobe and the million or so other little details to be taken care of. While you're planning that wardrobe and these other little details, how's about looking in our own shops. You'll be surprised at all the things you'll find . . . new and different and just right for that back to school look.

THE completion of the new Charlevoix hospital brought forth a story from Fred Cartier we'd never heard before. Seems he was on the hospital board when the addition was built on the old hospital back in 1924. . . some 30 years ago when they did things a bit differently than they do now. Anyway, it came time to build the addition so the building committee appeared with a set of plans, hired a group of carpenters and went to work.

To keep all the carpenters in town happy they hired another builder and his carpenters at the end of three months or so. And since there was still work to be done, engaged a third man and his workmen. Each contractor was a bit, shall we say "miffed" at being "fired" and before the deal was completed everyone wasn't on speaking terms with the building committee. But all the carpenters had worked and the addition was completed so the end was accomplished. And as Mr. Cartier said we had big shoulders and could take it. Some different from the system of advertising for bids and construction jobs today.

THE Dockside Press, owned by Bill Ratigan and located on Belvedere ave., went into operation last week and after hearing about it we can understand why Mr. R. did not have his book, So Canal! printed on it. Some youngsters from the Belvedere used the press last week to print some invitations to a party. The cost of materials wasn't so high but labor. . . Wow! . . . 48 hours by two printers to put out less than 50 invitations. When you consider that the press is a century or so old and hasn't been used in heaven knows how long, we suppose that's not too bad.

WHAT started out to be the Oldest race of the Belvedere Yacht club last Wednesday turned into quite a memorable experience when a sudden squall caught the entire fleet (eight rocket centerboard boats) on Lake Charlevoix. Seven of them brought down their sails, pulled up the center boards and beached the boats near what they call Raspberry hay near Pine Point.

But the eighth one couldn't bring down its mainsail so had but one choice . . . ride out the storm. Lake Charlevoix proved to be never crossed as rapidly as it was by the little vessel as the crew headed the boat for two mile point on the south side of the lake. A big cruiser noticed the plight of the little craft and sailed along with it, protecting it to some degree until the winds that hit more than 40 miles an hour subsided. It was an experience long to be remembered by the veteran crew. The races were re-scheduled for Saturday but this time there was no wind so it was called off for this year.

This is the time of year when fashion pampers the college girl. Designers and manufacturers have scouted from East to West to find out exactly what she wants... for the college look is definite and sure, dictated by the college girl herself. Styles that loom big for the 1954 campus were predominately shown recently during Polly Kay's exciting "Fashions and Cocktails" ... a party which previewed big news in the latest of Fall fashions.

A new version of the beloved camel hair coat classic shown was widely yoked and sported tremendous patch pockets, the round neck and push-up sleeves were finished with matching sweater knit ribbing.

Coeds mostly have conservative tastes, which was evidenced in a tailored grey alpaca coat complimented by a small plaid hat with matching skirt. The happy revival of the jumper is sweeping the country... a darling at Polly Kay's is a jewel-red velvet with a full bobbing skirt.

Also for dressy-up... but for the more sophisticated, was a slim black wool, shawl with gold and worn with a chunky gold link belt and jewelry. And a slim black jersey two-piece with the new low V-neck outlined with sleek black satin finished with a long streamered bow in front.

Blackish tones like charcoal greys, browns and navy's are high styled colors accenting with the important range of "high" colors of orange, green, turquoise and tangerine... and vibrant red and blue jewel tones. A stunning costume suit was shown in blue... the slim and simply designed dress was signified by a deep band of open fagoting bordering the boat shaped neckline. The dress was worn under a simple matching blue wool hip-length jacket.

One of the most intriguing of the young styles shown was a black wool scoop necked dress with a ripling princess skirt lined in cotton print, worn over a cotton blouse of the same print.

A dressy back-to-college suit modeled was a classic styled two-piece skirt and jacket with a black velvet chesterfield collar... and dandied up with a black derby hat. It wouldn't be college without sweaters and skirts... and the luscious cashmires with matching wool skirts are natural campus mix-masters.

A trim French blue corduroy raincoat has a nautical sailor collar.

Belvedere Yacht Club Completes Its Eighth Season

The Belvedere Yacht club has completed its eighth successful season with the Witherspoon family making a clean sweep of club honors.

Senior class honors were won by Houston Witherspoon of St. Louis, Mo., club commodore who gained permanent possession of the trophy by winning it for three consecutive years.

Jim Witherspoon, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Witherspoon, won the Varsity trophy for sailors in the 13 to 21 year class. His sister, Jane, placed first in the Gang class for youngsters 12 years or younger who sail with an adult advisor.

The trophies are awarded on a point system kept during the summer months with the winners having the highest average for the season. A trophy must be won for three years for permanent possession.

Participants sail in eight 18 ft. rocket center-board boats owned by the club.

Sailing has become a popular sport among club members of all ages since the Yacht club was first organized in 1947 by George Schwab, Robert Ware of Chicago, one of the oldest sailors on the club, has been active in promoting interest in the sport in which the majority of club members now participate.

A regular program is now held throughout the summer with the Senior class, open to anyone, sailing on Wednesday and Saturday; the Varsity class for skippers 13 through 21, Monday and Friday; and the Gang class, 12 years or younger, Tuesday and Thursday.

lar and matching cap... while to the other extreme for fun on a rainy day, there's a watermelon shaded traditional sou'wester and hat.

There were also smart fashions shown other than for collegiate fancies... one was a navy wool jersey with unusual button ornaments on the bodice and a permanently pleated apache-styled skirt... and a bright and slim blue wool featuring a scoop-necked shawl collar. A two piece camel hair suit with a bell boy styled jacket was worn with a white turtle-necked jersey.

Along with the ubiquitous jumper dress, the Princess and Empire look is with us again... as shown in a black cocktail dress designed with a slim looking front and full back with the neckline plunging in arrears to a low V. And a red moire, perked with a very full skirt and a thin streamered bow in back where the low neck ends.

One of the outstanding mix 'n' match combinations modeled was a pepper printed cashmere skirt with huge pockets fringed with black yarn... worn with a black cashmere sweater. Another was a cherry red matching skirt and new three-quarter length cashmere.

The Polly Kay Shop puts the Fall fashion story in the well-known nutshell, thusly: Fabrics are heavier flannels, jerseys and tweeds... that go right around the clock from station wagon, office, bridge or club meetings, cocktails, dinner and dancing. Depending on the styling, of course. The skirt silhouette is either very slim or very full, propped with crinoline petticoats. Suits are predominantly boxy types in solid colors or plaids.

It's "Classic with soft touches"... and maybe the idea came out of the attic, but it all looks entirely new and 1955-ish!

Can Recorder May Replace Old Scarecrow

Scarecrows and tree covers may go out of fashion in Michigan orchards.

The cross stick with the floppy clothing and the costly tree netting may soon be displaced by a phonograph. That is, if the modern machine will show the birds as some folks believe it will.

Two researchers at Michigan State college are finding out for sure.

Horticulturist G. M. Kessler and Zoologist G. J. Wallace are placing machines with recordings of bird distress calls in several cherry orchards. They hope the recorded trouble calls of the robin and starling will keep these two birds away from ripening cherries.

Pennsylvania State University researchers showed that recordings of the distress call of the starling kept starlings away from an entire town for the rest of the season. The starlings' troubled call was played by tape recorder for 30 minutes each night for three nights.

Specialists Aid Raincoat Choice For School Days

Girls who are starting to collect a school wardrobe for fall probably have "raincoat" down on that shopping list.

Clothing specialists at Michigan State college offer these tips to help you select the kind of raincoat you want.

If the label says "waterproof," you'll know that the fabric has been treated to shed water completely. . . . even in a driving rain. Plastic coats and "slickers" come in that class. But, remember. . . . hat treatment also closed the pores" of the fabric so no air can penetrate. And some people find this type hot and uncomfortable.

"Water repellent" raincoats are a fortunate because they maintain their porous quality. They have been chemically treated to make them resistant to wetting. They shed water satisfactorily ex-

The M.S.C. clothing specialists urge you to look for a close, firm weave if you buy a water repellent raincoat, whether made of cotton, rayon, silk, nylon or a blend of fibers. Look, too, for the tag that indicates whether the water repellent finish is durable or non-durable.

Finish would mean you must have the finish restored with each dry cleaning or laundering, an expensive process.

Take time to read the labels before you buy, your raincoat is a year-round investment.

He brought home with him not only a lot of happy memories but several awards won for proficiency in a number of sports.

back to school Shopping notes

Charlevoix stores are packed to the rafters with one of the largest, most colorful and varied collections of back to school clothing and accessories for children and college men and women that has been seen here in years.

The big news in school clothes appears to be color and materials. Jackets for fall and winter, for example, are unusually colorful, in bright shades, solids and plaids. Town and Country suede jackets in luscious soft shades for both men and women are being featured at Lieberman's Department Store. . . also fringed frontier leather jackets for boys. Also at Lieberman's are flannel lined jeans, favorite of boys and girls for the playground. . . and gay cotton back-to-school dresses for the classroom. Girl's plaid raincoats with a button-on hood. . . and genuine little sou'westers with matching hats tucked into an inside pocket for brother. Older girls will love the reversible alpaca lined all-purpose coats in red and gray. . . and a charcoal gray suede loafer unusually accented with black and white. For dress, a black suede low-heeled pump with a gold pilgrim buckle on the short vamp.

Hess Furniture Company has a wonderful selection of handsome Samson luggage for college traveling. . . luxuriously finished in saddle tan, natural alligator, Colorado brown, Admiral blue and natural rawhide. At Polly Kay's you will find the latest in winter cotton jumper darlings for pre-teens. One style is a full skirted printed cotton dress with a plain colored jumper to cover. And lovely nylon and orlon sweaters for girls whose sizes range from 2 to 14. Also Bermuda shorts, plaid or plain. . . and among the smart belts, a leather contour with a golden scarf loop.

Mailhot's has stocked a large collection of Jantzen sweaters for boys and girls. And just arrived are White Stag heavy weight jackets in charcoal, navy, beige and red. The all nylon jacket comes in charcoal, navy and brown. Bound to be a season favorite is the Roughneck jacket that is shown in white only. High school and college girls can choose from a variety of Pendleton box jackets and slim skirts. . . plaid, striped or plain wool. Boys'll go for the brown leather branded moosekins.

W. W. Mae is displaying all kinds, sizes and shapes of notebooks, zipper binders, pencil boxes, crayons and portfolios. And a large size selection of brown and white saddle shoes ranging from 3 to 8. . . junior shoe sizes from 10 to 2. And don't forget the flat metal lunch buckets, complete with thermos.

The Cashmere Store has just received some of their smart college fashions. Turtle necked wool jerseys in white, orange, red or brown. Among their jumper styles is a charcoal gray wool, double breasted with bone buttons. . . hip pockets and slim skirt. For any school girl who loves plaid, like they do. . . there's a long sleeved, full skirted plaid wool called a "Brigadoon Fantasy." The Cashmere Store features Lady Manhattan tailored shirts which team up with popular Bermuda shorts. Completing the casual outfit are wool and orlon half socks, and string ties, plaid or black velvet. Every college student needs a stadium style Pak-A-Robe. . . plaid wool in a matching cushion case.

Campbell's Boot Shop is catering to the back to school crowd with their tried and true brown calf loafer for sturdy wear. New and most popular shoe style this year for girls is the 'skimmer' which is shown in blue, red, black or white calf. . . or black suede. "Grent Scott, how they wear!" is the slogan for the Grent Scott children's school oxfords or shoes featured by Campbell's.

Fny's of Charlevoix has darling gingham dresses in sizes 5 to 14. And for big sister, wool skirts in either slim or full styles in peppery tweeds, plaid or plain wool. One has fringed pockets and another is a night watch plaid, permanently pleated into a straight silhouette. To go with the variety of skirts is a range of sweaters with long or short sleeves, cardigans or pull-overs. Men-tailored cotton pajamas for the dormitory are available in a variety of patterns. . . and for the more demure co-ed, cotton or sheer flannel shortie gowns with long sleeves.

Charlevoix is a young-hearted world of fashion these days. . . and the stores and shops have had every one of you in mind when they did their fall planning. They extend a welcome to all to come in and look around. You'll find just what you're looking for, we're willing to bet!

Charlevoix Shamrocks Presented Annual Water Ballet Last Week

Under threatening skies, the Charlevoix Shamrocks presented their annual water ballet at the north side Lake Charlevoix beach Wednesday afternoon under the direction of Patsy and Anne Ratigan.

Despite the weather, however, a large crowd gathered on the beach to watch the youngsters display the swimming talents learned during the summer in a cleverly executed water ballet.

The Hawaiian ballet starring Bonnie Shapton, Jeanette Novak, Dee Sheriff, Sharon Abfalter, Karen Neff, Julie Schofield, Georgie Smith, Linda Neff, Garlyn Bice and Martha Coleman opened the program.

Playing the roles of cute little water lilies frolics in the pond were Kitty Carey, Mary Ann Gibbons, Ruthie Schofield, Patty Shapton, Lore Silberman, Maggie Sheriff, Nancy Novak, and Kay Davis with Anne Ratigan playing the part of the water monster who frightened the pretty little flowers.

Sharon Fochtman, Susan Pearl, Nancy Snider, Sue Ellen Cooper, Mary Lynn Edwards, Linda Campfield and Nancy Carey were the lost ducklings looking for their mother.

The nightgown race, a Shamrock contest, furnished the comedy touch as two teams raced to don wet nightgowns, swim to a given goal and return, remove the wet garment and give it to the next participants. Fran Martin was the official starter and lifeguard Gordon Mol, the judge for the race.

The grande finale featured the entire cast and their petite queen Anna Silberman, concluded the performance as the rain started to fall.

Swimming medals earned during the summer were awarded by Patsy Ratigan. Guests were then entertained at the Shamrock Shack where they were served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Bambach Observed 53rd Wedding Anniversary Wednesday

Ellsworth — Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Bambach will observe their fifty-third wedding anniversary Wednesday at the home of a daughter in Ellsworth, Mrs. Herbert J. Peebles, with whom they have made their home six years.

They were married at Atwood, at the home of the bride's parents and have lived in this vicinity since then.

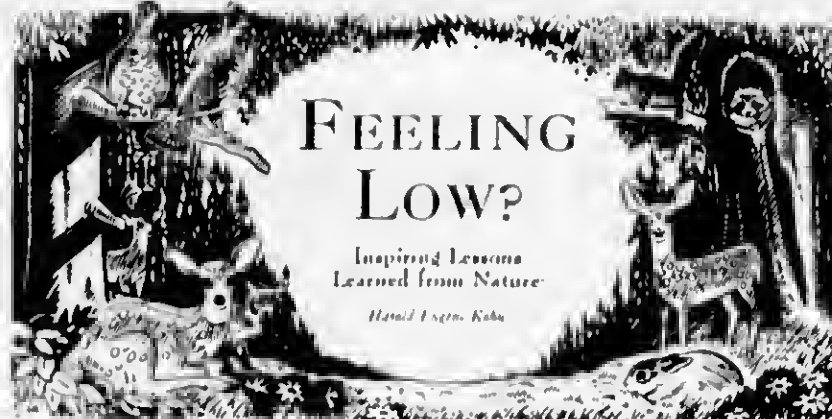

Mr. Bambach, 78, a retired farmer, was born Dec. 9, 1877 at Marns, the son of Fred and Carrie Osborn Bambach, and came to Antrim county at the age of 20. He is now a scrap iron dealer.

Mrs. Bambach, 71, the former Mary M. Woldruff, was born June 20, 1883 at Atwood, the daughter of William W. and Clara Teal Woldruff. She is a member of Norwood Methodist church.

The couple has one son, Vernon of Charlevoix; five daughters, Mrs. Peebles, Mrs. Charles Coleman of Kewadin, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. Harrison Warner of Charlevoix, and Mrs. Kenneth Bradley of Midland and 10 grandchildren.

One of the most important elements in a growing child's diet is milk. And every school child needs at least a quart a day for good health. For the youngster who won't drink milk, mother can see to it that he gets it by making puddings with milk, preparing milk shakes at home, and by using milk in as many dishes in her menus as possible.

An Inviting Climate

On an August evening's newscast the radio announcer ends his summary of the day's events with the weather report: "Temperatures soared today throughout the Midwest. At 3 p.m., Eastern Standard Time, the downtown Chicago temperature was a sweltering 101, Detroit 99, and St. Louis heat reached a blistering 104-degrees." It is gratifying to know that he could have added, "But in Charlevoix, Michigan, townspeople and summer visitors, bathed by Lake Michigan's offshore breezes, were enjoying a comfortable 78 degree afternoon."

Again, one can hear the 10 p.m. newscast on a late December evening. Says the Chicago broadcaster, "And now concerning today's weather, the thermometer slid to a new low for this month. Here in Chicago commuters shivered in a 3 degree below zero blast of cold as they made their way toward the Loop over icy streets. And those ice-boxes of America, Duluth, Minnesota, and Cadillac and Pellston, Michigan, seem to be vying with the Antarctic for low temperature records. The cold wave hit Duluth with a minus 7 degrees, struck Cadillac with a negative 9 and Pellston with an icy 11 degrees below zero!" At Charlevoix we look at our back porch thermometer and smile complacently as we see it registers 10 degrees above zero.

Summer and winter, this town experiences a moderate climate that gives it a wide and enviable reputation for living comfort. What makes Charlevoix so fortunate weather-wise? The latest. The town is almost completely surrounded by large bodies of water — Lake Michigan, Round Lake, and Lake Charlevoix. And water has a faculty for moderating and tempering the extremes of heat and cold. It is slow to heat and slow to cool, while land is warmed and cooled more rapidly. Prevailing breezes at Charlevoix come from the west and the northwest, crossing Lake Michigan, bringing along with them the moderate temperatures of the water. The prevailing winds take into inland cities the summer heat of the land they cross, or the winter cold of the terrain they travel. Even Chicago, situated on the south shore of Lake Michigan, derives small benefit from that Great Lake's moderating effects, because Chicago's prevailing winds do not cross the lake, but reach the Windy City from Wisconsin and Minnesota and other points west.

A town like Charlevoix is fortunate indeed to be located near that grand moderator — water — which tempers the extremes of heat and cold. Faith is like a vast body of water over which the winds of life blow. A good faith moderates and tempers. It softens life's harshness, abates its excessive heat, cools its fretfulness.

A person of profound faith suffers from neither extreme — haughty pride nor self-debasement. He can never be guilty of the lordly arrogance that marks the self-made man who worships his maker! When he traces the good that has come to him to its ultimate source, he finds its origin in One greater than himself and better than himself. Nor can the person of faith be a hand-wringing, self-deprecating Mr. Miquetoast, loaded with feelings of inferiority and inadequacy. He knows he is a child of God, the heir to powers that are infinite. What is God's life like? Faith moderates both extremes — self-worship and self-contempt.

Faith tempers life's other exaggerations too. Its presence gives us escape from utter hopelessness, because faith's essence is hope, the knowledge that the night is darkest just before the dawn. Nor will it allow us to be cocksure, since a final certainty about everything belongs only to Omniscience. Faith prevents groveling in unforgiving guilt and yet keeps us from acting "holier than thou." With faith in our hearts we do not leave everything in man's hands as if there were no God to help us, nor do we lazily leave all in God's hands as if there were no need to help God. Faith melts together earth and heaven, fuses God's plans and man's work.

While a person of faith often feels elated, he never gets so high that he is out of touch with those less fortunate than himself. And while he sometimes feels low, he never hits bottom.

Lake Lake Michigan, the friendly moderator lying westward of our town, tempering summer's scorching heat and softening winter's biting chill, faith mellows destructive excesses and gives to life an alluring climate.

Plastic or paper covers keep textbooks looking neater and lasting longer. The school emblem or some other decoration makes it part of the school ensemble.

'Glass Menagerie' Being Given By Petoskey Players

Bentley Lenhoff, producer and director of "The Petoskey Playhouse," who has successfully given you "See How They Run," "Laura," "The Lobbies," "Male Animal," "Night Must Fall," "Bell, Book and Candle" and "Charley's Aunt" completes this versatile slate with "Tennessee Williams' unforgettable tender story, "Glass Menagerie."

The ability to present great drama following light comedy and farce is the proving test of a resident theatre company. Bentley Lenhoff's Petoskey Playhouse company will meet this challenge of the professional theatre when they present "The Glass Menagerie," now through Labor Day, as the eighth and final offering of their first season of resident summer stock.

ending story of people who cling to a faded and tragic memory of past life and as a result live in an unrealistic world of dreams and desires, has been regarded since its first production as one of the most dynamic and distinguished plays of the modern theatre. Its success in New York, where it won more awards than any drama of this century, on the road and finally as a movie, placed its author, Tennessee Williams among the leading playwrights of theatrical history.

The drama's characters, Laura, Amanda, Tom and the Gentleman Caller, remain a constant challenge to the talent and versatility of our actors and actresses. Producer Bentley Lenhoff will resume the directing reins of the Petoskey Playhouse as he guides Jean Artesani, Yvonne Doolittle, Dick Curtis and Bill Galarino in the most difficult and promising production on this professional company's first year's schedule.

All Playhouse performances begin at 8:30 p.m. and tickets may be reserved by phoning DI 7-4292 or visiting the theatre box office which is open daily except Sunday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Farmers Warned To Protect Seed Wheat From Hessian Fly

Keep your seed wheat in a sack or a bin until you're sure the Hessian fly will give you no trouble.

That's a suggestion from Ed Reiman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent. The fly-free date for Charlevoix county is September 3, according to word from Ray Jones, Michigan State college extension entomologist.

The Hessian fly is one of the insects that attacks wheat in both fall and spring. The insect's larvae (maggots) feed beneath the leaf sheath, usually next to the ground. That's the reason the fly is dangerous.

The fly overwinters in the "flaxseed" stage on the wheat. Maggots that come out of the "flaxseed" in the spring become the flies that lay the eggs for the spring generation.

The only way to control the insect is by planting wheat in the autumn after the late summer generation of the insect has died off. That prevents damage to the wheat in the fall from the maggots and cuts down on the number of flies overwintering for the spring generation.

Janes advises farmers who have been having trouble with Hessian fly to plant their wheat later than the fly-free date, if the wheat can make enough growth before its dormant period. A late fall, he explains, sometimes upsets the calculations on the fly-free date and some flies continue to lay eggs.

Observing the fly-free date also helps avoid damage from some other insects, Janes says.

4 Important Reasons why you should buy a PONTIAC RIGHT NOW!

1 Pontiac is One of the Greatest Cars Ever Built!

Match today's Pontiac with America's finest cars and you'll get a dramatic picture of Pontiac value. First of all, Pontiac is bigger, in fact, than many cars costing hundreds of dollars more. Pontiac is beautiful—with its distinctive Silver Streak styling. Inside, you'll find genuine fine-car luxury and appointments—along with the roominess and comfort that come only with a long wheelbase. But the big surprise comes when you test Pontiac's performance. See how alert it is in every demand in traffic, how it handles and corners almost without effort, how it takes to the open road with plenty of power to spare and saves money every mile.

2 Pontiac has the Best Resale Value in its Price Class!

Along with all its fine-car size, luxury and performance, Pontiac has a very special attribute no car at any price can beat—its unsurpassed reputation for year-in, year-out dependability. Pontiac's carefree, economical long life and its proved record of amazingly low maintenance expense are so widely known and acknowledged that it commands the highest resale value in its price class. Because Pontiac is America's most desirable used car, your original investment comes back in greater measure when you trade.

3 Pontiac is Priced Just Above the Lowest!

After you've convinced yourself of Pontiac's value, after you've considered all the good things you've heard about its dependability—see how it compares dollar-wise. Despite the fact that it's a fine car in every sense of the term, Pontiac is priced so near the lowest that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac.

4 We'll Make You a Deal You Can't Afford to Miss!

Right now we're making such liberal trade-in allowances that you just can't afford to pass up the greatest opportunity you ever had to become a fine-car owner. Come in and get the facts.

DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR YOU CAN'T BEAT A PONTIAC!

Arthur Stoel Fatally Hurt By Pistol Shot

Arthur A. Stoel, 43, Marion township farmer and widely-known professional trapper, was shot and fatally wounded late Monday on Beaver Island where he had gone to trap coyotes which were destroying small game. The accident occurred on the south end of the island when his Colt standard revolver fell from his holster and accidentally discharged as he bent over to pick up an object on the beach near the Beaver Head lighthouse. The slug entered his chest.

Accompanied by his nine-year-old daughter, Shirley, he had finished checking his traps and was walking along the beach at the time of the accident. Shirley ran to the lighthouse a half mile away for help. When she returned with Bert McDonough, the lighthouse keeper, her father was dead.

The body was returned to the Pontius Chapel here for funeral services at the Barnard Methodist church at 2 p.m. Thursday afternoon. The Rev. Robert H. Moore will officiate. Burial will be in the Barnard cemetery.

Mr. Stoel was born at Holland June 26, 1911 and had lived in northern Michigan 37 years. He was a 1930 graduate of the Central Lake high school where he finished his education by trapping. In 1935 he was married to the former Dorothy Smith. He had resided in Marion township since then, operating a farm during the summer months and trapping throughout the north during the remainder of the year. He was a veteran of World War II. He was a member of the Barnard Methodist church where he served as a lay leader.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Carolyn, Betty and Shirley, all at home; his father, Gerrit, who made his home with his son; a brother, Harold, of Ellsworth; and a sister, Mrs. Joel Zahl of Muskegon.

church and its Rosary Altar Society.

She is survived by two sons, George A. and Emerald of Charlevoix; five daughters, Mrs. Charles Livingston of Kalamazoo, Mrs. Edward Fochtman of Elmhurst, Ill., Mrs. John Bissell of Manitowish, Wis., Mrs. Robert Withers and Mrs. Patrick Martin of Charlevoix; 24 grandchildren; four brothers, Augustus Sendenburgh of St. Ignace, Joseph Sendenburgh of St. James, Alphonse Sendenburgh of Escanaba and Leroy Sendenburgh of St. Joseph.

Parking Meters Will Operate Until November

Parking meters will remain in operation for the present following a decision by the City Council at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. The issue was discussed at length and it was decided to leave the meters on until Nov. 1 or later if the need continued.

The question of snow plowing the road to the new Charlevoix hospital which lies in both the city and Charlevoix township was brought up. After some discussion, the council advised Charlevoix township and hospital directors to formulate a plan for financing the project and present it at a later meeting.

Evelina township representatives appeared to ask for an extension of the present fire protection plan until a special election could be held the first week in October. The extension was granted.

A progress report was presented by the Trailer Park committee which reported that the best proposal presented to date was one offered by Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Schrader who would build such a park with some assistance from the city in the matter of installing utilities.

A resolution was adopted and forwarded to J. W. Schaub of the Michigan Highway Department recommending that several additional streets be classified as major streets so more funds for their upkeep would be forthcoming from state funds.

The charge for water-heater timers was cut from $27.00 to $10.00 for off-peak use of electricity at the request of Roy R. Robinson, city superintendent.

The sale of cemetery lots was discussed in regard to out-of-town people having local residents purchase lots and transfer the title to the former. The issue was referred to the city attorney who was advised to make necessary changes in the existing ordinance to protect the city in such matters.

Bids for compensation insurance were submitted by the Michigan Mutual Liability Co., the Wolverine Insurance Co., represented by Charles Hamlin and Auto Owners Insurance Co., represented by Charles Hampton. The bids were referred for tabulation and report at the next meeting.

Walter Hunley, grounds superintendent at the Municipal Golf Course, appeared before the council to ask that the greens fee for local youngsters who play golf before and after the regular season be cut to 50 cents. His suggestion was accepted and the new rate will become effective at once.

State Judges Group Holds Meeting Here

Governor G. Mennen Williams urged the greater use of probation to rehabilitate young criminals as he addressed the 27th annual convention of the Michigan Judges Association at the Charlevoix Beach Hotel Thursday evening.

The governor's message was presented during the first judicial meeting under the new law passed in 1954 by the legislature which changed the method of assigning circuit judges. The new law placed Meredith H. Doyle in the position of court administrator. He was appointed by the Supreme court of Michigan.

At the annual banquet at which Judge Edward H. Falon of Petoskey was toastmaster, Prentiss M. Brown of the Straits Bridge Authority gave an interesting and informative account of what happened when he was a member of the 13-man senate committee which, in 1937, killed President Roosevelt's request for a 15-man Supreme Court.

Among those introduced during the evening were Gov. Williams, Senator Homer Ferguson, Harry F. Kelly, justice of the Supreme Court. Continued on page 5

He was a certified public accountant at 21 and at 30 chief executive officer of three neighborhood banks in Chicago. In recent years he was interested in charitable works, notably the Catholic Youth Organization and Jewish charities.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; a son, Barnet Jr. of New York; and three sisters.

Room Rates Set For Hospital By Board Of Trustees

The room rates at the new Charlevoix hospital have been set by the board of trustees following a meeting of the group at which the issue was discussed at length. Fred Willis, president of the board, has announced.

Only ward rates to be offered are those in the pediatrics department where the rates will be $9.00 per bed per day.

Two different rates are offered for semi-private rooms. They are $10.00 per day per bed for a semi-private room with lavatory and toilet facilities and $12.00 per day per bed for a semi-private room with full bath.

Private room rates will be $15. per day for a room with lavatory and toilet facilities and $20.00 per day for a private room with a complete bath.

Mr. Willis went on to say that subscribers to the Blue Cross hospitalization plan will receive up to $9.00 per day for a ward bed. Under the new plan the patient will pay the extra $1.00 per day for semi-private room care.

The new rates were adopted following an extensive survey of other hospital facilities in northern Michigan. The new rates compare favorably with those elsewhere.

Rates for special rooms and services are expected to remain the same.

Expect Increase In Students At St. Mary's School

St. Mary's Parochial School opened yesterday (Wednesday) for the 1954-55 school year, the Rev. E. F. Denay, head of the school and pastor at St. Mary's church has announced.

Although the registration was not completed at noon Wednesday, an increase in the enrollment over last year was anticipated. Last year 35 children were enrolled in the eight-grade school. An increased number of first grade pupils who attended kindergarten in the public schools last term plus several new families in the community are expected to bring the enrollment to a new high.

Half-day classes will be held Thursday and Friday with regular full-day classes scheduled to begin Monday.

Teachers in the school are Sister M. Athanasius who will teach the first four grades and also Sister M. Leona who will teach the fifth through the eighth grades. Both spent the summer at the Mother House, Marywood, in Grand Rapids and attended summer classes at Aquinas College.

Tentative plans call for the construction of a new school building to replace the present frame school building. Building is expected to begin in the spring. For this reason the school program is beginning earlier than usual so school can be dismissed at an earlier date in order for the building program to start.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

CAN YOU believe it . . . the trees are changing color already . . . We couldn't believe our eyes when we looked across Round Lake the other day and noticed that the trees on Little Island and the Chicago club are taking on an autumn look . . . And down Ainslee St. there's one tree that has one branch that always turns red before any other on the north side . . . So, whether we want to accept it or not, fall is here . . . You kinda get that idea from the weather too . . . While every other place in the country was sweltering over the Labor Day weekend, we were trying to keep dry . . . What a way to end an all-too short summer . . . Must consult with the weather man and see what's in store for us . . . Let's hope it will be a season such as we enjoyed last year . . .

LABOR DAY means just one thing to the kids in the community . . . school . . . And Charlevoix's school population will wend its way to the classrooms next Tuesday for 181 days of study . . . It looks like a big year for the Charlevoix schools with record enrollments in every department . . . And school just naturally means football, so two weeks from tomorrow you will see the Raydars in action against East Jordan . . . on the latter's field . . . With seven games this season, four will be home games which aren't hard to take . . . So for the next few weeks you know where we'll be spending our time . . . By the way, wanna make any predictions about this year's team? . . . We think they're going to be mighty fine . . .

WE'VE GOT the whole town almost to ourselves . . . now that the Labor Day weekend is over . . . Everyone's gone home and we'll miss them . . . But soon we'll be seeing our friends we haven't seen since June and before you know it, we'll be back in the groove . . . Such is life in a summer resort . . .

ONE OF our old friends is missing these days . . . a dog to whom we were very attached . . . His name was Mike . . . he was an Irish setter and we were old friends . . . It took him a year or two to learn that I was his friend but once he accepted me, we became fast friends and even in recent years when it was hard for him to get about, he came to meet us when he heard us coming and always managed a wag of his red tail . . . But old age brought about a number of ailments and the doctor suggested he be sent away to dog heaven . . . The Beach Hotel just won't seem the same without Mike . . . Kramer watching over it from his special place on the grass just east of the building . . . But we're sure, like other animals we've loved, he's keep-

SHE SENT the results of her trip to Englewood to her mother and her sister, Mrs. Robert Wilson, in Petoskey . . . But they still couldn't believe it was all true so before they told anyone, Mrs. Ecker called Beaumont . . . Mrs. John Critchlow answered the phone, said her husband's ship was out but talked with Mrs. Ecker . . . told her things about the Critchlow family that only a member of the family would know . . . Said that John had often talked of returning to Charlevoix and surprising the family . . . She also said they had three children, the oldest of whom is 18 years . . . In fact, she gave a resume of the past 20 years and has promised to write to them . . . On Sunday morning, Inez called her sister in Petoskey with the good news . . . And if you could have heard Mrs. Wilson you would have realized how very happy the entire family is . . . They can hardly believe it's true . . . And, thanks to the efforts of Ed Madill, the entire class of '29 is now accounted for . . .

HE RELAYED the info to the family, who in turn investigated further . . . A sister, Inez, now Mrs. Robert Ecker, lives in Venice, Calif., so the address was sent to her . . . FEELING LOW?

Inspiring Lessons

Enough Light

The Canada geese are nervous now, tense and unsettled. At the slightest disturbance they spring from the lake, wings beating wildly, hoarse voices gabbling a hoisterous clamor. Summer is ending, and autumn draws near. The goslings, grown from a tender downy babyhood to strong-winged adolescence, are almost ready for their southward flight. They have learned to fly in formation, wing to wing, buoyed up by the slipstream of air flowing from the beating wings of birds just ahead of them. The youthful goslings have learned, too, the language of their tribe. The inflection of a honk, the pitch of a cack, the number of syllables in a gobble have taken on significance. Meaning is there — sudden danger, a word of direction or a note of satisfaction. Such understanding will be needed as the long thin ranks sweep southward to spend the winter.

A wild Canada goose inspires me with awe, as do all migrating birds. How does it chart the skies? What sort of a mental map does it follow? Landmarks are of little use since much flying is done under cover of darkness. While there has been no dearth of explanations as to why birds migrate (mainly for purposes of an adequate food supply), satisfying interpretations as to how they travel through the trackless air are still wanting.

One mystery, however, scientists have explored with considerable success. What is the triggering device that shoots flocks of birds southward? The answer: light. Migrating birds are possessed by a vague inner craving for a certain amount of light. Gonadal glands within them respond to changes in the duration of daylight. When days become shorter the migrants grow restless and at last find the shorter days intolerable. They then fly to southern homes. In the early springtime, as light changes transpire, their aroused glands urge them northward again. Migrating birds have an insatiable appetite for sufficient light.

Most animal activities are related in some way, directly or indirectly, to the sun and its light. The varying hare, also known as the snowshoe rabbit, is one of several animals that bear brown fur in summer and white fur in winter. But their seasonal changes can be affected by the use of artificial light, regardless of the temperature. Thus, in autumn, when other varying hares are doffing brown summer garments and putting on winter white, a select group of their brothers are experimentally exposed to artificial light for eighteen hours daily. No matter how low the temperature drops they retain their suits of brown. In January a varying hare clad in a white snowsuit is exposed to a sudden increase of illumination, amounting to eighteen hours each day. What happens? His coat of white is shed and he is garbed in the brown of summer while his brothers, without artificial interference, are snowman white. Weasels are affected the same way, and the seasonal moulting of such birds as the bobolink and scarlet tanager can be regulated by manipulating the light-dark ratio.

Changes take place in human beings too in direct relationship to the amount of light we receive. Fill the mind with nothing but the somber and sordid facts of life — the worst news, the latest "low-down" on people, the most recent crimes, the darkest predictions — and you have one sort of a person. Absorb all the faith, the hope and trust available, dwell upon thoughts that lift, inspire and redeem and another kind of person is the sure result. We can alter the quality of our living by changing the light-dark ratio.

Some darkness in life is needed. A certain amount of it is friendly to the human spirit and nurtures growth. But like the Canada geese, we become restless and fretful when light diminishes too soon. The urge within us demands a longer day, more light. Then we must migrate to fairer spiritual climes or stay behind at great peril. From the beginnings of time at the heart of Nature there has been a stirring urgency for light. The Almighty is still saying to our chaotic times and our disturbed humanity what He spoke at the dawn of creation, "Let there be light!"

Marilyn Ann Bulow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fenton R. Bulow, became the bride of Jack Louis Knetsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arie Knetsch of Galesburg, in a ceremony Saturday afternoon at the First Congregational church.

The Rev. Harold E. Kohn officiated at the double ring service in the presence of 40 guests. The altar was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladioli for the ceremony.

Virginia Smith sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Dawson Way, who also played a program of traditional music and the wedding marches.

Mr. Bulow gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a waltz length gown of white net and Chantilly lace over taffeta styled with a fitted bodice, a Peter Pan collar, long tapering sleeves and a full skirt. A matching net and lace head-dress secured her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. William E. Clark of Syracuse, N. Y., was her sister's matron of honor and another sister, Patricia J. Bulow, was bridesmaid.

Mrs. Clark wore a waltz length gown of pink net over taffeta and a matching lace jacket. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Miss Bulow's gown of blue net and taffeta was identical to the honor attendant's and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Albert J. Knetsch of Galesburg assisted his brother as best man.

Mr. Bulow chose a powder blue print dress, navy and white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Knetsch, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy dress, light blue accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Friendship Hall. Pink larkspur circled the tiered wedding cake which centered the refreshment table. Doris Nielsen, Shirley Shetler of Lake Odessa and Nell Knetsch of Galesburg, sister of the bridegroom, assisted. Beverly May of Tecumseh was in charge of the guest book.

After a 10-day wedding trip through the east, the couple will make their home in East Lansing. For traveling the bride selected a navy suit, white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and Michigan State college business school. Mr. Knetsch, a graduate of Galesburg high school, is a senior student at Michigan State college where he is affiliated with Alpha Zeta fraternity.

Tremendous TRIFLE

The form in which your medicine is "put up" may seem to be of little importance, but actually it is a tremendous trifle — tremendously important to you. For example, the capsules which we use to contain exact doses of certain prescribed medicines are of the purest quality, selected for their superior properties of quick dissolving, freedom from absorption of moisture, and occlusion of foreign matter. Perfection is no trifle — but in prescription compounding, such trifles make for perfection.

- Is your insurance adequate?

Sermon Next Sunday Will Be
If I Only Had Ten Minutes to Preach

If you now regularly attend another church in our town, this notice is but a neighborly greeting and wish that you and your church may prosper. If you do not already have a church home, it is an invitation to attend Charlevoix's Congregational Church next Sunday.

Give Report On Goldman Meyer Fund

year. First, the conditions in Charlevoix were better than they had been for some time and second, the winter was a comparatively mild one.
In breaking down the report, Mr. Bridge said that $180.32 was spent for clothing, $54.15 for shoes, $88.42 for food, $137.98 for milk and $87.66 for miscellaneous items.
This year's expenditures bring to $13,345 the amount spent since the fund was established 13 years ago.
The milk program carried out in the schools is one of the major activities of the fund. Through the cooperation of school personnel milk is provided for needy children who otherwise would not receive the important diet supplement.

Fifteen cases involving some 40 persons received emergency aid from the fund. The number included several new cases.
At the meeting it was also decided to add another couple to the administration committee which is headed by Mrs. Rengar. The local committee will meet at a later date to name the new members.

Established in 1941 as a living memorial to Lenné Gnidman Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Goldman, the fund offers emergency aid to those in need of immediate assistance other than medical care. Only persons not receiving financial assistance from other sources are eligible for aid through the fund.

A summer resident here from childhood until her untimely death in 1941, Mrs. Meyer was always interested in the welfare of the community she called her "other home." Because of this interest which was and is shared by her entire family, the fund was established in Charlevoix.

Her immediate family made the initial contribution to establish the fund and annually add substantial amounts to keep it operating. Since it was established friends of the family here and elsewhere who have become acquainted with its fine work now contribute to honor of an anniversary or to memory of someone. Last year 15 new names were added to the growing list of contributors, Mr. Bridge said.

Hugh Woodhams, 170 pounds, all guards.

Seven returning lettermen will give Coach Baumann plenty of material with which to round out his squad. Included in this group are 202 pound Bob Carlson, a tackle; Lawrence Canfield, 175 pound tackle; Larry Balch and Ken Larowicz, guards weighing 180 and 185 respectively; Orlin Luckstead, 180 pound center; Mel Luter, an end and Steve Jorgenson, a back.

Coach Sexton will depend on returning lettermen to give his team the much-needed weight. Alen Somerville, 130 pound quarterback, is the lightest of the returning lettermen. Others are John Brock, 170 pound tackle; Floyd Cutler, 180 pound end; Lery Woodcock, fullback; Jerry Brennen and Dick Johnson, center, all weighing about 180 pounds.

Another veteran, Bob Russell, will be lost to the team because of a bone condition that has developed since he received an arm injury last season.

Coach Dick Boles will call on returning lettermen to fill regular berths this season. Among the candidates are Bill Myer and Jack Meyers, both tackles; Tom Larson and Ray Mann, ends; Pete Maribush, center; Norm Pemberton, guard; Gordon Kruskie and Ed Mathews, backs.

A Ride Is an Education!

There has never before been a time—since the beginning of the automotive industry—when you could learn as much about motor car performance in a single hour as you can today!

All you need do is slide behind the wheel of a new 1954 Cadillac—and head for the open highway.

That great Cadillac engine introduces you to a new measure of power and performance. It takes even the most challenging hills in easy stride—and sweeps you out of a difficult traffic situation with only the slightest pressure on the accelerator.

Cadillac's improved Hydra-Matic Drive is unbelievably responsive and silken and smooth—and takes you from a standing start to your desired rate of speed in one continuous flow of power.

You guide the car with only a feather-light touch on the wheel. It seems almost to follow the weight of your hand around the corners—and it takes you over the winding highway as if it were reading your mind.

Vision is so wide and clear that a single, sweeping glance acquaints you with traffic on every hand. Braking is unbelievably sure and easy. And you ride in such comfort and quiet that you seem to be resting in your favorite easy chair.

Yes, it's an education to take the wheel of a 1954 Cadillac—an education in all the good and wonderful things of motordom.

So stop-in any time—slip into the driver's seat—and head for your favorite stretch of highway. You're in for the greatest surprise of your motoring life!

Mrs. Macdonell with 259 points brought home a first place trophy in the Women's Class B division.

In the junior boys division Vernon Mathews placed fourth with 225 points, Tracy Curtis fifth with 181 and Lawrence Bergmann seventh with 185.

Awards were presented to the following members of the local club: the Turk Trophy to Steve Paterka; one dozen Stream-Eze arrows to Fred Looze for lowest Class B man; same prize to Lawrence Bergmann, lowest junior boy; one dozen blunts from the Black Lake Archery group for having birthday closest to date of meet; Tracy Curtis, Fred Looze and Lawrence Bergmann each received a bow string from the Onaway Field Archers to replace those broken in the meet and Eugene Bergmann received a gift of matches from Bob and Anita's.

Believing that the way to meet the people is to go visit them at their work, Mr. Leonard visited other plants and shops in the community.

In speaking with the people he met while here he emphasized the need for an accelerated and expanding highway program with new and better roads, both state trunklines and farm-to-market roads which are vital to our economic well-being; the need to take every step possible to preserve our natural resources for the benefit of the people; the need of a strong non-political Agricultural department and the expansion of the marketing and research program for agriculture.

While in the county Mr. Leonard also visited in East Jordan and Boyne City and attended several events arranged for him by Mrs. A. F. Litzinger, head of the Leonard for Governor committee in this county.

Jerry Albright, William Golden and Barbara Pouquette, all of whom received scholarships, are attending Ferris Institute in Big Rapids; Darlene Houck has enrolled at the Northwestern Michigan School of Practical Nursing in Traverse City; Thomas Fessenden has gone to Sault Ste. Marie where he will study at the Soo Branch of Michigan College of Mining and Technology; Marguerite Colburn left last week for Springfield, Mo., where she has enrolled at Central Bible Institute.

Sue Beaudoin, Larry Burns and Robert Miles will leave soon for East Lansing where all will attend Michigan State College; Patricia (Continued on Page 5)

Mrs. Paul Beatty, Former Resident, Dies Unexpectedly

Funeral services for Mrs. Paul S. (Pete) Beatty, 34, who died unexpectedly at her Petoskey home Tuesday, were held at the Peters Funeral Home Friday with burial in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Beatty was the former Eloise L. Davis. She was reared in Hayes township and attended the Charlevoix public schools prior to her marriage to Mr. Beatty in 1936.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Dale and Thomas, at home; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis of Bay Shore; five sisters, Mrs. Fred Newman, Mrs. Harry Phelps and Pearl Davis of Traverse City; Mildred Davis of Detroit and Mrs. George Miller of Bay Shore and three brothers, Perry and Jack of Bay Shore and Harvey of Cadillac.

Girl Scouts To Hold Pep Rally At Gym Friday

Fun, lots of it, will be in store this Friday for all Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts as they open their 1954-55 activities with a pep rally in the Charlevoix high school gymnasium at 3:45 p.m. Friday.

There'll be lots of noise, equally as many laughs as there are Scouts, a skit and a treat.

Boat Is Rescued From Rocks By A Local Cruiser

P. D. Campbell, assisted by Charles Hampton, aboard the former's cruiser, the Beaver, are credited with the recent rescue of the 25 ft. cruiser, Diana, which they pulled off the rocks at Big Rock Point north and east of here.

The cruiser, enroute to Charlevoix from Harbor Springs, went on the point during a heavy fog. Unable to free the boat, the owner walked along the beach until he came to the Hampton cottage at North Point. He was taken to the Charlevoix Lifeboat station which dispatched a surf boat to the scene. The latter, however, could not reach the stranded boat because of the rocks and shallow water.

The Beaver, however, was able to accomplish this and by careful maneuvering freed the stranded cruiser and towed it to the Beltinger Marine service where it was found that the wheel, shaft and running gear were badly damaged.

Two passengers remained aboard the boat during the rescue operation.

Only a southwest wind prevented the craft from being dashed to pieces on the rocks.

Class 'C' Football Season Will Get Underway Over The Weekend

The 1954 Northern Michigan Class C football season will get underway this weekend with seven of the eight teams seeing action in one loop and five non-league games.

Only league game is the Gaylord-Grayling meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday which will mark the Vikings return to the conference.

Other games will find Pellston hosting Cheboygan Catholic Central at 3 p.m. Friday; Boyne City traveling to Cheboygan and Manicella entertaining Lake City at 8 p.m. Friday; East Jordan entertaining St. Ignace at 2:30 p.m. Saturday and Harbor Springs hosting Petoskey-St. Francis at 3 p.m. Saturday.

The Pellston-Cheboygan Catholic Central game was scheduled Monday with the idea of giving the Hornets a chance to see action before the league schedule started, according to Coach Ray Brown who has named the following tentative line-up: Larry Carlson, the fifth and last brother to play end on the Pellston team and Dale Drier, ends; Jack Betterly and Walt Spencely, tackles; Jack Kerridge and Fred Marshall, guards; Bill Mallory or Pat Fitzpatrick, center.

In the backfield will be veterans Bob Rudy, quarterback, Lawrence Shanahan, fullback and Merlyn Davenport and Russ Elmhurst, halfbacks. Coach Brown also said that Pellston has more depth in the backfield this year than at any time in past years with Ron Kaiser, a transfer from Melvindale; Harry Ball, Frank Durkalec, Bill Gokec and Frank Marcellic, all scheduled to see action.

Frank H. Carman Longtime Resident Of Area, Passes

Frank H. (Tinker) Carman, 74, resident of Norwood township for many years, died early Monday at the Charlevoix Hospital where he had been a patient four days.

Graveside services were held at the Norwood cemetery Wednesday morning with the Rev. Robert H. Moore of East Jordan officiating. The body was at the Pontius Chapel until the hour of the funeral.

Born at Hopkins in Allegan county March 9, 1880, he moved to Moreland with his parents, Henry and Julia Squires Carman, as a child. In 1892 his family came to Ellsworth and two years later moved to Norwood where Mr. Carman resided until moving to Charlevoix in 1949. He was a shingle-weaver by trade and worked in the shingle mill at Norwood and elsewhere in the north for many years.

He was a member of the Methodist church at Norwood. Prior to World War I he served in a National Guard unit composed of residents of Charlevoix and Antrim counties.

He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Nellie Brown, of Flint.

New Meadowlane Sub-Division Is Opened For Sale

The Meadowlane sub-division, located on the southeast section of the city, has been platted and opened for sale to the public, T. R. Miller who has developed the property, has announced.

A total of 28 lots are included in the sub-division. Mr. Miller plans to keep several of these, however, and build on them before offering the property for sale.

The sub-division is located east of May street and extends to Alice st. It is bounded on the north by Garfield ave. and on the south by Eaton ave.

Building in the new plat, the first to be registered since 1912, will be restricted. Features of the new district are its winding street and its fine garden soil.

Red Rayders To Open Season September 24

The Charlevoix Rayders, defending champions and only team in the Northern Michigan Class C loop not playing this week, are being put through drills nightly at Kipke Field in preparation for their season opener against East Jordan on the Red Devils field next week.

Coach Terrell said Wednesday that competition among the more than 30 candidates for the varsity squad was keen and that at least four players are battling it out for all positions on the squad.

A number of young players brought up from the Reserves are showing a great deal of scrap and are expected, in some cases, to crowd out veteran candidates for positions in the starting line-up.

Charlevoix's backfield is probably the biggest question mark in the loop.

Tom LaBlance is a candidate for the signal-calling job but Guy Swanson, who also plays defensive halfback, is giving him some competition for the spot. Charlie Dennis, up from the Reserves, is also a candidate for the starting eleven along with Tom Erber who has been shifted from the line to the backfield.

Gary Vandenberg, Clay Walker, Mike Elzinga and Ken Balch, on the other hand, have been doing most of the running so can still be in the line-up when the starting whistle blows next week.

In the line it's the same story with newcomers trying hard to edge veterans from coveted spots in the forward wall.

Jack Stebb and Walt Poquette are candidates for the center spot; Joe Powell, Jerry Foster and Dick Elzinga, lettermen, and Joe Etienne, up from the Reserves, are trying for guard assignments.

John Connolly, 1953 all-conference choice for tackle, will have to look to his laurels against such tough competition as Tom Swanson, Charlie Pierce, Bruce Bergmann and George Farmer, the latter three up from the Reserves.

Enrollments Set New Record For Local Schools

Charlevoix public school enrollments passed all former figures this week when 842 students in the kindergarten through the twelfth grade registered Tuesday for the current school year. Supt. R. G. Bennett announced today.

The 1954 figure of 842 students tops the 1953 initial enrollment figure by five students, Mr. Bennett said. Within two weeks, however, it is expected the enrollment will increase by at least another 15 students, thus pushing the new figure well over the 850 mark.

Enrollment in the top six grades follow:

Grade	1954	1953
12th	63	47
11th	63	69
10th	78	66
9th	64	84

Kindergarten	72	76

The enrollment at St. Mary's parochial school showed a marked increase with 95 students registered the first week as compared to 78 at the same time in 1953, the Rev. E. F. Denay reported.

The first grade had the largest enrollment with 21 pupils. The other grades and the enrollment for each follows: 2nd grade, 9; 3rd grade, 9; 4th grade, 10; 5th grade, 8; 6th grade, 15; 7th grade, 8; 8th grade, 14.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fren Mertin

WITH THE tag-end of our summer residents still here plus the big convention at the Beach hotel last week, the town wasn't as deserted as it usually is the week after Labor Day. But come Sunday when the skies up up, the last resort trains were leaving the north, all but a few summer residents were still around. . . . and holy cats, you had the whole town to yourself. . . .

But shortly everyone will be rested, the fall activities will start the football season will open next week and every one will be battling for a right to plan something. . . .

And so it goes when you live in a resort town. . . .

DID YOU recognize anyone you'd seen before in the September issue of Mademoiselle? Then you'd better look again for or page 110 in an article entitled "Picking the Winners" is a picture of Gigi Michelson, sister of Mrs. Isaac Terr, who's visited here often. . . . A real smart cookie, she has one of those fabulous jobs you're always hearing about but can't believe. . . . for she's the first woman labor relations manager in Macy's history. . . . where she deals with eight different unions representing eight to ten thousand store employees. . . .

Quite a job for a mere slip of a gal of 29 who has a major in industrial psychology from Pennsylvania State University and a law degree from Columbia Law School. . . . But don't let all that scare you for she's just about the nicest person in the world to meet. . . . and like all real brilliant people, you'd never know all these wonderful things about her unless someone else told you. . . . she's a most charming, quiet, personable gal whom you like at once but who isn't out to impress anyone. . . . You'll have to meet her next time she comes around. . . . And when you do you'll find she has many of the fine qualities so evident in our branch of the family, namely Mrs. Terr. . . .

AND WHILE reading the article in Mademoiselle we couldn't help but notice the radical change in fashions. . . . one of those deals where either do or you Dior. . . . if you'll pardon the corn. . . . Anyway, we don't think much of those flat, long-waisted deals with the bets down around you know where. . . . If the gal has a figure well. . . . let her show it off. . . . Maybe not like a certain Mrs. J. D. but to advantage. . . . But what do I know about fashions, anyway. . . .

WENT OUT to the new hospital the other day to take a picture of the first baby born there. . . . incidentally, he wasn't a bit impressed by it all. . . . Anyway, the place seems more like a hospital now and do you know why? . . . It smells like one. . . . Before there was only the smell of fresh paint and new things which was fine but it wasn't like a hospital. . . . Oh yes, and it's just as beautiful as ever with all the patients and all as before. . . . And they've sure had a busy week with seeds of patients and seven babies in the first 12 days they've been in the new building. . . . As of Saturday everything was transferred from the old to the new so now when we say hospital you'll just have to learn that we mean the one overlooking Lake Michigan. . . .

IT'S THAT time of year. . . . when all the little kids you've watched grow up come around to say goodbye before leaving for college. . . . It's bad enough when they graduate but when they put on their grown-up clothes and take off for greater hall of learning. . . . it makes you kind of sad. . . . This year's class, incidentally, is setting some kind of a record for itself with better than 50 per cent of the class of 45 going on to school. . . . And don't forget the five who've already enlisted in the navy or the airforce. . . . One can hardly say any of them are wasting their time. . . . Whether we give them credit or not. . . . they know what this business of living is all about, they're facing it squarely and confidently going on their way. . . . We wish them all the luck in the world. . . .

And those veterans. . . . (the one's with at least a year of college behind them) . . . are nonchalantly packing a few things and talking of going back to the grind. . . . that great, thrilling, never-to-be-forgotten freshman year behind them. . . .

AND ON Tuesday many tears were shed as little ones registered for kindergarten. . . . And not all where shed by little Johnny or Jill. . . . 'Cause all of a sudden Mommy realizes that her guy or gal is growing up and advancing into a grand new life. . . . Nothing will ever be as wonderful again as those first few weeks of school. . . . Gee, to be a kid again. . . .

BY THE way, next time you're around school, take a good look at our kids from kindergarten to high school age and see if you don't agree with us that we have just about the cutest kids in the world assembled in our schools. . . .

WE FOUND out recently that we have a fan. . . . he's a guy who thinks everyone reads this column and he asked us to do him a favor. . . . he's our milkman, Sonny Belfy, who wants to get across to his customers that henceforth you'll receive your milk every other day. . . . on the north side it will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday and on the south side the alternate days. . . . The other routes are being set up much the same. . . . The company has an ad elsewhere but Sonny wanted everyone to know about the new schedule. . . . so don't disillusion poor Sonny by not reading this. . . . And get your orders out on the right days. . . . please. . . .

IT'S HAPPY birthday this week to one of our summer residents, Mrs. Clarence Coleman of Chicago, who will be 75 years old come Monday. . . . With her at that time will be her four children, all of whom were reared in Charlevoix where she had been a part-time resident for more than 40 years. . . . We'd like to join with her many friends in wishing a very happy birthday to a very gracious lady. . . . And speaking of birthdays, Ken Forbes celebrated one last week.

IN UNIFORM

Pfc. Ronald Cunningham arrived recently from Fort Bliss, Tex., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Cunningham, before reporting at his new assignment at Limestone, Me. He was accompanied here by his wife, the former Mary Alice Lagerman, and daughter, Norma Jean, who have been living in Chicago. They will remain here for the present.

Pfc. Lester Capps returned to Philadelphia, Pa., Monday after spending 10 days with his wife, the former Barbara Gennett.

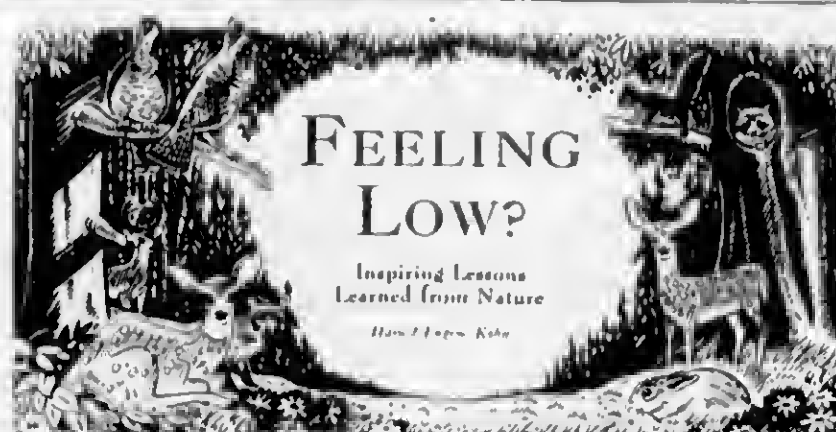

A2-c James Pettis left Friday for Omaha, Neb., after spending ten days with his wife and infant daughter at the home of her mother, Mrs. Klaus Andersen. Mrs. Andersen and daughter will fly to Omaha to join him next month.

and told us that the nicest part of it was having three youngsters, Don, Gary and Mary Moore sing "Happy Birthday" to him. . . .

WHO SAYS there's never anything new in Charlevoix. . . . there is a new sub-division, the first to be platted since 1912. . . . So says Ted Miller, owner of the new Meadowlane area off May street. . . . Seems you can find all sorts of interesting information at the court house. . . . For instance, the Eaton Plat was recorded in 1884, the Clifford addition which is located between Jess Smith's property and the Belvedere club in 1883 and the last until Mr. Miller's new one was the Woods' addition, located between May st. and the Jess Smith property. . . .

MRS. Harrison Trimble, who retired from teaching last spring, told us of an interesting but unplanned reunion of the Alba high school class of 1911 over the Labor Day weekend. . . . Seems all four members had returned to attend the annual homecoming so got together for a gabfest. . . . Joining in the festive event were Mrs. Florence (Fuller) Riley now of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Maude (Rifenburg) Phillips who lives near Alba, Mrs. Trimble, the former Elizabeth Kranz, a retired teacher and Joseph Hale who operates a motel at Tampa, Fla. . . . All agreed it was all more fun than if they'd planned it. . . .

THERE ARE times when words fail to say what one feels. . . . As far as we're concerned this is one of those times. . . . We'd like to join with his many friends in saying we're sorry about the untimely death of Art Stool. . . . but we're sure that all the words have been said. . . . Like the rest of you, we feel that we've lost a wonderful friend and the community has lost a fine citizen. . . . He was one of those guys who, to our way of thinking, was the personification of everything good and surely this world is a better place because he passed through it. . . .

Ready for Wintry Blasts

Autumn weather has come. There is a chill in the air that prophesies the advent of fall, soon followed by winter. Villagers ready their homes to welcome wintry blasts. Screens are removed from windows and stored in garages, basements and attics. Storm windows are washed and, to the tune of grunts and groans, fitted into position, looking like old-fashioned spectacles over the eyes of bungalows and cottages. Coal, fuel oil or gas is ordered to assure a cozy winter.

A few days ago in my favorite woodland retreat I saw other creatures preparing for winter. Although they expend no effort removing screens or lifting storm windows, nevertheless they are in the process of making themselves snug and snug against the north's penetrating cold. As we drove along the gravel road, my companion exclaimed, "Look, there's a buck! I've never seen a bigger rack of horns!" Sure enough, there he stood in a cedar copse, statue-still, looking steadily at us. Having at least ten points, his antlers were tall, well-spread and massive, with some of summer's velvet still on them. I stooped the car and we watched him as he stared at us. After a few moments he bounded off toward a maple-dotted blade, and we drove on. Upon returning over the same stretch of road no more than five minutes later, we came upon a rare spectacle about three hundred yards from the place where the great buck had made his appearance. Within fifty feet of the road, just beyond the fence, stood a doe with three fawns. Twins are common, but triplets are an exceptional treat. As we feasted our eyes on the sight of the infants with their mother until at some signal, with whiffs of ears flying, they raced through a nearby orchard and out of sight.

The buck, the doe, and the fawns are making winter preparations. Over a space of several weeks they leisurely discard their light-weight summer clothes. Some reddish hairs fell last week. Some more will be discarded today, and others will fall until well into October. As each summer hair is shed another grows in to take its place. But what an ingenious creation is this winter hair! Each filament is hollow, made like a vacuum bottle, built for retaining heat and insulating the body against cold. Without conscious effort on the deer's part, each white-tailed denizen of cedar thicket and birch grove is readied for wintry blasts.

There is a kindly Providence that anticipates our needs. He sees that resources for weather-proofing are available to us to that wintry weather does not chill us. Faith is blizzard insurance. It doesn't keep storms from coming but makes them bearable. Faith is the confidence that God will never let anything come your way that you and He together cannot handle. It is the trustful conviction that our spiritual nature has been prepared by our Creator for the worst gales that life can hurl at us. Blizzards are bound to come. But they will find us ready.

Saint Paul once faced a bleak future of persecution and eventual martyrdom. But it did not alarm him. As he put it: "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Life could do its worst. Paul would still be at his best. He was ready for wintry blasts.

Few if any of us will ever face Paul's kind of hardship, but we shall all need his kind of faith, for everyone's life gets stormy. The answer to winter's chill is an insulating faith that vexations can be made into victories and tragedies into triumphs.

Kurtz-Lagerman Marriage Vows Exchanged At St. Mary's Church

Sally Kurtz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kurtz of Boyne City, and Clifford A. Lagerman, son of Edward Lagerman of Detroit and the late Mrs. Lagerman, exchanged their wedding vows in a quiet ceremony solemnized at St. Mary's church Friday evening.

Arrangements of gladoli formed a setting for the double ring service at which the Rev. Fr. E. F. Denay officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of Chantilly lace and net over satin for her wedding. The molded bodice was styled with a net halter over which she wore a fitted lace jacket. The full ballerina skirt featured a gathered lace peplum fashioned in points which extended over the skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a halo of orange blossoms formed of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Ann Lagerman, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Nanette Davis of Boyne City, was bridesmaid. Their wait length gowns were of aqua and yellow net and satin respectively and their small headpieces matched their gowns. Miss Lagerman carried yellow carnations and Miss Davis a bouquet of aqua carnations.

Charles Bennett assisted the bridegroom as best man and Desmond Milligan was groomsmen. Floyd Kurtz and Kenneth Eggers of Boyne City, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Kurtz wore a navy blue ensemble, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations for her daughter's wedding.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Charlevoix Rod and Gun Club.

For traveling on their northern Michigan wedding trip the bride chose a navy dress and white accessories. After Sept. 14, the couple will be at home at 215 Cherry st., S. E. Grand Rapids.

The bride was graduated from the Boyne City high school and the Grand Rapids Beauty School. Mr. Lagerman, a graduate of the Charlevoix high school, served four years in the U. S. Air Force and attended Central Michigan College. He is employed at the Associated French Line in Grand Rapids.

First Baby at New Hospital

Young Alvin Jay Elzinga, pictured here with his mother, Mrs. Martin Elzinga of Elkworth, wasn't impressed by the fact that he was the first baby born in the new Charlevoix hospital and slept through the presentation of a cup to his mother by Mrs. Alan Macdonell, president of the Women's Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital while nurse Barbara Crick R.N., keeps a watchful eye on her charge.

Weighing a husky 8 pounds and 10 ounces, Master Elzinga arrived at 11:28 a.m. Sept. 2, less than 48 hours after the new hospital was opened. Dr. John Savory of East Jordan was the attending physician.

Book Committee To Start Drive On Undesirable Comics

Interested adults in the area, with emphasis on parents and educators, have been invited to attend a public meeting of the Petoskey Books committee at the Petoskey library basement 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 21.

The committee was organized earlier in an effort to eliminate crime and horror comic books from the area newsstands.

A Michigan State Library representative, Muriel Fuller, will speak on the Book Mobile Unit as a possibility for this area as a method by which good reading can be made available to a greater area. Letters have been sent to Petoskey newsstand dealers asking their cooperation in removing comics objectionable to minor children from their places of business.

Parent-Teacher groups are asked to follow up by calling on dealers and reporting to the committee at the Sept. 21 meeting.

A world atlas, dictionary and encyclopedia are handy tools for a child to have at home. They'll help with school work, and make good reading too.

Association For Retarded Children Meets At Center

The Association to Aid Retarded Children met last week at the Charlevoix Center for the Retarded Children's Center opened recently in the former Washington school building on the north side.

Robert Cook presided at the meeting at which plans for opening of the local school were discussed by Charlevoix members and members and visitors from Petoskey.

A special meeting was planned for last night Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oleksy and Mr. and Mrs. Cook were to report on the Michigan Association for Retarded Children convention held in Detroit last weekend. The two couples attended as delegates from the local group, which has been accepted for membership in the state and national associations.

A regular meeting of the local organization will be held at the Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 21.

Labor Day Picnic At Whiting Park Attracts Exhibits Of 143 4-H Youth

Although Labor Day started out rainy, 143 4-H exhibitors defied the weather and brought their exhibits to the annual Labor Day picnic at Whiting Park. By noon the rain had disappeared and the sun shown beautifully. The fall exhibition was made in connection with the picnic because of the closing of the Charlevoix County Fair. Exhibits were limited to those dealing with the summer program, while at the County Fair it was common to have both summer and winter project exhibitors.

With the cooperation of Bill McGregor, park caretaker, stalls were built for the dairy cattle and 18 head were exhibited. Dairy animals were judged at noon by Dallas Alsop of Traverse City. The animals were placed according to breed characteristics, condition and confirmation and then were judged with emphasis being placed on what the member had accomplished with the animal. First were won by Ray Fisher, Edward Campau, Vern Hart, Harold Hart, Paul Liskum, Jack Zoulek, Martha Lord and Walter Murphy all of East Jordan; Sue McBride, Ed Masson and Dale Parsons of Charlevoix. The senior showmanship contest was won by Ivan Parsons of Charlevoix and the junior showmanship contest by Edward Thompson of East Jordan. Edward Thompson, a polio victim showed his holstein heifer despite the fact that he had to walk on crutches. The prizes for the showmanship contests were supplied by F. W. Dilworth and Sons and the Boyne City Co-op.

Breakdown in the various projects were as follows: 36 displayed attractive vegetable baskets; 14 made floral arrangements; 6 showed products from the commercial garden projects; 43 brought products made in the food preparation project; 7 showed photography notebooks; 8 members exhibited their canning; 4 displayed proper containers for frozen foods project; 5 exhibited pens of rabbits; 1 completed his winter electrical work; 1 showed geese and 1 chickens from their poultry projects and 2 showed their workbooks completed in the junior leadership projects.

John Hodge, assistant county agricultural agent for Emmet county, judged agricultural exhibits, while Mrs. Emma Reinbold, home demonstration agent, judged home economics work.

The 4-H club exhibits helped to attract a greater crowd than has been seen at the picnic during the past few years. The South Arm 4-H club contributed to the atmosphere and made a little money by operating a food stand. The club members enthusiastically entered the competitive games and some won as high as $5.00 in prize monies.

Generally speaking, the display was a bit more attractive than it usually is at the Fair since the products of food preparation were fresh when brought in. Club leaders were satisfied with the affair and more are expected to participate next year. The County Extension Office was surprised at the splendid turnout of exhibits despite the fact that no premium monies were given. All exhibits received only ribbons.

Clarifies Rule On Planting Wheat In Excess Of Quotas

Farmers may plant wheat to protect their land and for feed and still be eligible for price support on their 1955 crops providing the excess acreage is disposed of before harvest, says LeRoy Hardy, Chairman of the Charlevoix County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee. Farmers following this procedure also will avoid the marketing quota penalty.

This, the Chairman explains, leaves the program pretty much as it was for the 1954 crop when Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson also lifted the restrictions on overplanting to permit the seeding of wheat to protect the land and to permit the use of wheat for pasture and hay.

The important point, the Chairman explains, is that any wheat planted in excess of the farm allotment may not be harvested for wheat and that by a time to be announced next spring the excess wheat must be disposed of so that it cannot be harvested for grain. Farmers taking advantage of this provision will be asked to designate the excess plantings and farms will be checked after the announced closing date to determine whether or not the disposal requirements have been complied with.

This point also is covered in the law recently passed by Congress which provides that:

"Any person who knowingly harvests any basic agricultural commodity on his farm which has been determined by the Secretary to be in excess of the farm acreage allotment for such commodity for the farm for such year under this title shall not be eligible for any payment for such year under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended." And, "If the acreage determined to be planted to any basic commodity on the farm is in excess of the farm acreage allotment the Secretary shall by appropriate regulations provide for an reasonable time prior to harvest within which such planted acreage may be adjusted to the farm acreage allotment."

Eveline Farmers Aid Neighbor In Planting Wheat

Because of a neighborly gesture on the part of a number of Eveline township farmers, William Skye, well-known resident of the area, will have a crop of winter wheat.

Mr. Skye has been ill and unable to prepare 30 acres of land for the planting of the crop.

Recently seven farmers, headed by Albert Carlson, met at the Skye farm with their tractors and filled the field in preparation for the drilling of the winter wheat crop. The latter operation was started late in the day and continued the next day.

All work with the exception of the drilling was done on a volunteer basis.

There's little advantage in feeding antibiotics to feeder lambs, tests at M.S.C. show. There was no change in the rate or gain but there was a slight improvement in feed efficiency.

"To the unknown
Operator who saved
my life..."

That's how the letter began. It was sent to Michigan Bell by Mrs. Ida Vaughn of Ann Arbor. Here's why.

One evening, Mrs. Vaughn, who then lived alone, suffered a severe heart attack. She was able to reach her telephone but was choking so badly the operator could hardly understand her.

The operator checked the address and notified the hospital. Then she learned the family doctor's name from Mrs. Vaughn and telephoned him.

She asked if there were any relatives she should call. Mrs. Vaughn gave the name of her daughter. The operator called her and soon she was on the way to the hospital with her mother.

Mrs. Vaughn's letter ended this way,

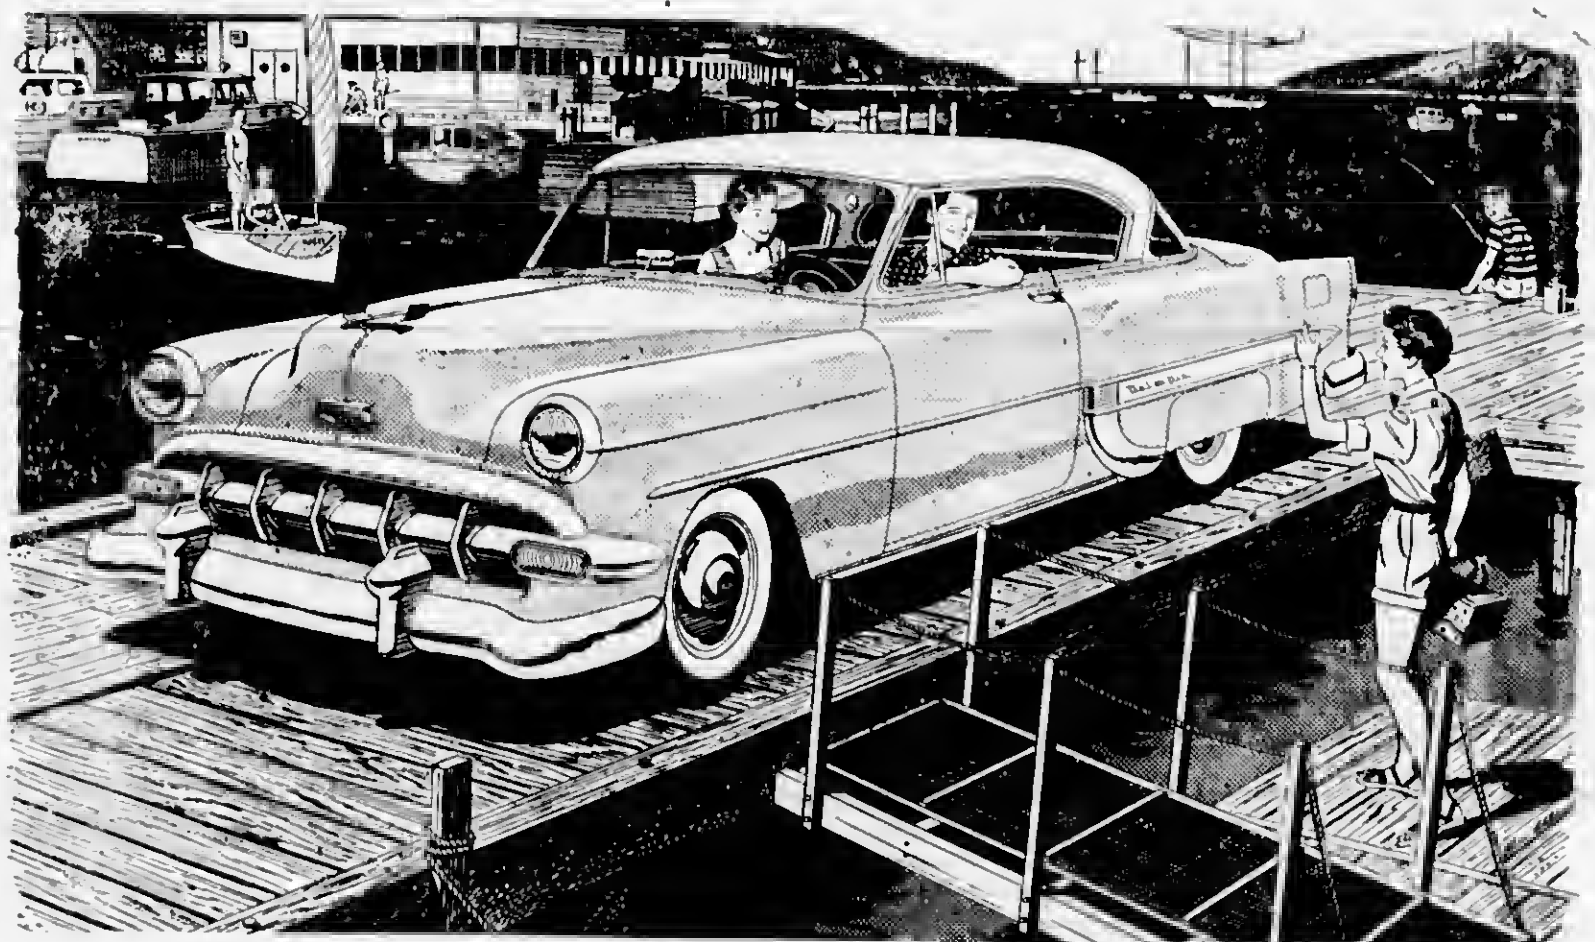

"I frankly do not think I would be living today if that operator had not been on the job that evening. Many, many thanks for wonderful service at a time when most needed."

The "unknown" operator is no longer unknown to Mrs. Vaughn, of course. She is Mrs. Bonnie Walker.

For her alertness, presence of mind and resourcefulness she has been awarded a Vail Citation, a telephone company award for outstanding service.

Police Taking A Practical Pistol Training Course

Charlevoix's police are better qualified right now to protect the city than they have been at any time in the past, Dr. C. O. Whitten, who is conducting an F.B.I. practical pistol training course for local police, said this week.

The course, which will run for a period of four to five weeks, depending on their progress, is held at the Charlevoix Rod and Gun club range where the men are taught the newest ideas advanced for police training for the F.B.I.

The officers receive training at two-hour training periods a week a part. They also hold practice sessions daily.

At the end of the course, a trophy will be awarded to the winner. The contest for the trophy will become an annual event.

After the initial training course, the police will continue to shoot once a month during the year. Dr. Whitten is conducting the course at the request of the local police. The city is financing the cost of ammunition and other needs. Dr. Whitten is donating his services.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

NOTICED a little item in the newspaper the other day about three Ann Arbor newsmen in Rome. I took a quick look and wasn't too surprised to find that one was Stan Swinton who is chief of the Associated Press bureau in the Italian capital. Many of you know that he's the son of Prof. and Mrs. Roy Swinton, U. of M. professor and his wife who sat out World War II in Manila as prisoners of the Japanese. . . . and brother of Mrs. Vincent Madison who with her family summers near Ironton. . . . These Michigan boys do get around. . . . And I'm sure if you're traveling in Italy he'd appreciate a call from you. . . .

WE DON'T know too much about its history but we do know that it's mighty old. . . . the city-owned house at 211 Park ave. which is being razed. . . . It's on the front of the property where the water tower is located and we understand was first built for use by the city employee whose job was to take care of the water works. . . . How about it? Can any of you tell us about it. . . .

EVERYONE loves the summer flowers but we think the brave and colorful fall flowers are just about the prettiest of the lot. . . . Noticed the other day that the Supps' garden on Michigan ave. is ablaze with color and the zinnia bed on the south side of the Charlevoix Lumber Co. makes one forget that winter is so near. . . . And speaking of winter, coal trucks have been making regular trips to homes in our neighborhood. . . . Right after school the other night we noticed that one driver had three little assistants. . . . youngsters on their way home from school. . . . who, despite many warnings, were standing as close to the coal shoot as possible and getting dirtier by the minute. . . . We're sure their mothers didn't appreciate their efforts to help the coal man. . . .

THERE'S a series of articles running in the Grand Rapids Press that we wish you'd take a look at. . . . Entitled Air Defense of Michigan it tells you many interesting things about our state and precautions it is taking to protect us. . . . It's a very sobering series which has just started. . . . so don't miss it. . . . And if the jet base is built in Benzie county it will be just one more link in an already amazing chain of air defense facilities in just our own state. . . .

FOOTBALL. . . . the air is filled with news of the popular autumn sport which happens to be our most favorite of all sports. . . . Wonder what our little ole Rayders will do this fall? . . . Every year 'bout this time everyone starts making predictions so we'd like to add ours to the mountain that have already been made. . . . It's this you're going to see a lot of good football, for Charlevoix has yet to field a poor team. . . . Through the years they may not all have been champions as far as wins and losses were concerned but they have always been good teams. . . . They could dish it out. . . . but what's just as important, they could take it too. . . . That's why we know, even though we haven't heard too much about this year's squad, that they're going to be good. . . . they're going to play 60 minutes of good hard ball in the best way they know how. . . . We hope they'll win 'em all. . . . but just in case they don't, we know it won't be for lack of trying. . . . So to Coach Terrill and his Rayders. . . . lots of luck and a most successful season. . . .

LIKE THE love of the sport, the predictions are not confined to any special team. . . . Right now everyone's wondering how State's going to do under Duffy Daugherty. . . . and we'd like to venture another guess. . . . Leave the boy alone and he'll do OK. . . . He's been a good player. . . . and because the powers-that-be at State know he's good. . . . So, given half a chance, he'll come through. . . . He has lots of good friends in northern Michigan who are in there pitchin' for him every minute. . . . One thing's for sure. . . . it's going to be an interesting season. . . .

AND HOW about this fabulous character, Jim Podoley, who's turned up at Central. . . . We hear he's quite a guy. . . . runs a farm down there for his widowed mother, takes all this glory in his stride, works hard and is concentrating on getting an education. . . . After what he did Saturday we'll bet there'll be a lot of eyes focused on Mount Pleasant from now on. . . .

WASN'T it wonderful to see the sunshine Sunday? . . . Never saw so many dark days in a row. . . . It started over the Labor Day weekend and somebody forgot to turn off the faucet. . . . But after that thunder storm Saturday night things (as we're writing this) have cleared and we're hopin' . . . Surely winter can't come so soon. . . . Or can it? . . .

SUPPOSE we should send a check to the Grosse Pointe chapter of SPERSQSA and ask them to come back, now that it isn't raining. . . . Like they have for 11 years, they came this year for the Labor Day weekend, put their own jamboree but spirits were dampened by the rains. . . . But come next fall, we're sure they'll be back. . . . At least we hope so for it's always good to

Camp O-Gull Is Purchased By Two Men From Detroit

The sale of Camp O-Gull located on the north side of Lake Charlevoix to Lewis Shulman and Sam Segel of Detroit has been announced by Mrs. Edythe Cugell, former director-owner who operated the camp for younger boys and girls for 10 years.

The new owners have a very fine background of camp experience, according to Mrs. Cugell, who added that they will continue to run the camp under the new name of Sea-Gull, maintaining the same high standards under which Mrs. Cugell operated the camp for younger boys and girls.

Mrs. Cugell, who has had 28 years in camping, plans to devote her time to the Cugell Day school which she operates in Detroit.

see them. . . .

JUST about the last of our college students left this week for halls of higher learning. . . . And the first letters from those who left earlier are beginning to trickle back. . . . And we understand from loving parents that the kids are all doing OK during the first few days. . . . Just as tho' we didn't know they would.

WE KNOW that the general election isn't 'til Nov. 2. . . . But if you want to go to the polls and vote, don't forget you have only about 10 days in which to do this. . . . It's going to be an important election, so we're told. . . . So we're passing along that bit of info to you and warning you right now. . . . If you aren't registered, do it now if you want to vote, and you should, in the Nov. 2 election.

IN mentioning the summer friends who've left us we neglected to mention one who was a familiar sight to everyone. . . . Of course we mean Buttercup. . . . Yes, Buttercup, like everyone else has gone south. . . . But not so far that you won't be able to see him if you happen to stop in at the new zoo at Traverse City. . . . His mistress, Mrs. William Butters, was beside herself, wondering what to do with him when this call came from Traverse City. . . . It was almost an answer to a prayer. . . . He'll be the center of attraction (and we mean that literally) for his new quarters are located in the center of a large display area in the new zoo with the other animal cages outside the walk and Buttercup's inside it. . . . So if you're down that way stop by and say hi. . . . O yes, and before leaving he stole an idea from Mother Goose and went to school on opening day. . . .

REMEMBER Mitch Gordon who used to be at the Gaylord radio station? . . . In case you haven't heard and seen him, you'll be glad to know he's back in northern Michigan. . . . This time with WWTW at Cadillac and is scheduled to have a sports cast Tuesday night. . . .

Training School At Higgins Lake Attended By 190

Lansing — Attendance at the eighth annual conservation scholarship training school at Higgins Lake during the past summer totaled 190 Michigan school teachers, reports the conservation department.

Divided into four one-week sessions, the school provided special, intensive study in land use, geology, forestry, plant and animal ecology and the relationship of world populations to world food supplies. Field trips supplemented classroom work and a highlight of each session was a visit to Ogemaw county to study the conservation department's watershed improvement program on the Cedar river.

Lodging, dining and classroom facilities of the department's training school were used and instructors were provided by the department, Michigan State college and Central Michigan College of Education.

As in the past, the school was sponsored by the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, the National Farm and Garden Association, Daughters of the American Revolution, Michigan United Conservation Clubs and the Michigan Department of Conservation.

LIEBERMAN'S "For Yourself and Family"

Young Eagle

This four-looking creature is a bald eaglet, though obviously too young to be bald. He was found in a nest in the northern lower peninsula. Conservation department field workers scaled a 75-foot tree to band and photograph him. It will probably be another three years before the characteristic white head plumage appears on this youngster.

Farm Tractor Now A "Pinch Hitter" At Milking Time

When lightning knocks out your electricity the cows still have to be milked. But now you can use your tractor to do the job, reveals Ed Rehman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

The cost is very little to make your tractor a substitute milker motor, but it's not the type of change you can make on a moment's notice, warns Rehman.

The set-up needs an extra stall-sock to put in place of the manifold plug and a length of hose to run from the tractor to the vacuum line. But not all tractors will have the manifold plug and it may have to be drilled and tapped.

There are some precautions that farmers should take, notes Robert White, Michigan State college extension agricultural engineer.

The tractor should be opened slowly as the sudden demand for vacuum may stall the engine. The stallcock should be closed when starting the tractor.

The tractor should be run at a slow engine speed, as it develops more vacuum. Keep a watchful eye on the vacuum gauge on the milker line. Usually a tractor will have 18 to 22 pounds vacuum . . . that's too much . . . only 10 to 16 are needed. The vacuum tank should not be by-passed. Just connect the tractor to the tank . . . it makes the milker run smoother.

Equipment dealers in Charlevoix county may have the necessary connections for this "tractor milker." Ask at the county extension office for details.

Receives Recognition For Long Service

went in as a new recruit. It was while he was receiving training at Fort Meade, Aberdeen, Md., that he developed a heart condition which was to lead to his present partial invalidism.

He was given a medical discharge but placed on reserve status to be recalled if his condition improved. In the meantime he was advised to return to business school to complete the accounting course he had interrupted to enlist with the understanding that he would return to serve in the finance division. His condition did not permit this, however, so when he had an opportunity to become administrator of the Veterans' Trust Fund in Charlevoix county he took the job. Experience gained first hand and through his connection with the trust fund were to serve him well in later years.

But the knowledge was destined to remain dormant for a few years while he served as an investigator for the Motor Vehicle division of the Office of Secretary of State.

A severe illness in 1949 which hospitalized him for six months forced his resignation and when he started to recover he again returned to veterans' affairs. In 1950 he accepted an appointment as Post Service Officer and despite many illnesses and setbacks he has continued the work.

In fact, after suffering a stroke in 1952 he made a solemn promise to himself that if his life was spared he would dedicate it to helping veterans. As the result he has become the best informed Service Officer in the area and devotes all his time to the duties of the office.

What was once a routine job has become a full-time project with him and he averages well over one case a day which adds up to quite a few in a year.

In speaking of his work he says the compensations are many for when you can come up with a solution to a difficult problem . . . well, it all seems worthwhile and the hours spent are rewarded by the gratitude of the veteran or his family.

His wife, the former Mrs. Florence Ypma whom he married late in 1945, has also become interested in the work and when necessary gives him a helping hand.

Two step-sons, Charles Greeley, a veteran of World War II and the Korean War, and Jerry Ypma who has served eight years with the U. S. Air Force keep his interest in today's military service up to date.

Born at Marston Sept. 9, 1901, there aren't many sections of the state he hasn't called home at some time or other. He was reared in Grand Rapids where his mother operated a rooming house following his father's death in an accident and was graduated from South high school there. Later, when his mother re-married, he lived in Big Rapids and attended Ferris Institute. He first came to northern Michigan in 1912 to visit his grandparents, the Rudolph Seamans, who operated an apple orchard there and other relatives on the island.

He's been in just about any business you'd like to mention but gave them up to return to the service in 1942.

Today you'll find him at his home at 1101 May street, grossed in this problem or that problem . . . all pertaining to veterans. He has no regular working hours and can be found at most any hour calling here by telephone, writing a letter there, trying to come up with an answer and most always he is successful.

On his desk where he does most of his work will be found pictures of his grandchildren, Timmy and Mary Greeley, age 5 and 3 respectively, whom he hopes some day to see.

In the meantime we will, as he always has, put his own illnesses and troubles in the background and give himself unselfishly to those in need in keeping with the promise that he feels has given him a few more years to serve his fellow-men.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Loyole Malloy

Captain and Mrs. Andrew Greene and son of Muskegon spent a few days on the Island last week visiting Andy's sister, Mrs. Juhany Gallagher.

James W. Gallagher was a business caller to the mainland last week.

Last Friday a party was held at the "Beach Comber" to raise funds for a new heating system for the Parish Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough have gone to Grand Rapids.

John W. Greene is a patient in the Marina Hospital in Chicago. He has been gone from the Island for the past two weeks.

Walter Wojan spent a few days on the mainland last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie LaFreniere have gone on a two week vacation. Before starting their vacation they will attend the Table-Toppers Convention in Charlevoix.

Mrs. Maria Gallagher left last Friday on her way to Orlando, Fla., where she expects to spend the winter with the Frank Scapps.

Fr. Joseph Herr will be away from the Island for this week.

September 15 was Dennis Cull's sixth birthday. He had his first grade class at his home after school to help him celebrate.

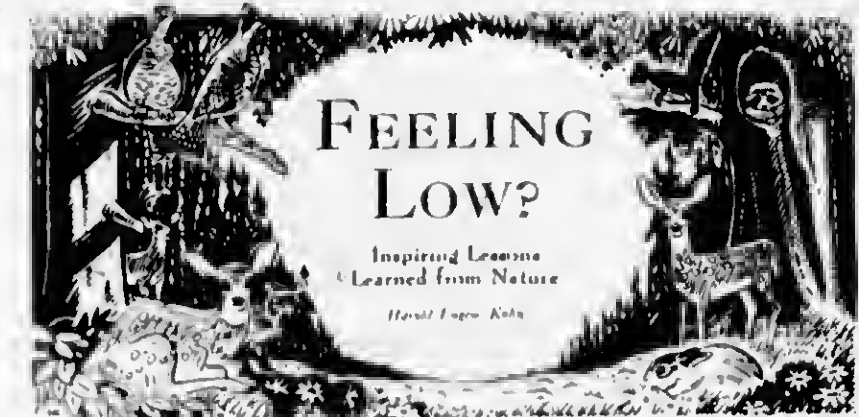

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Vall took their son, Billy, to Ferris Institute in Grand Rapids last week. Billy will finish his last year of school there.

I would like to correct a mistake I made a couple of weeks ago. Mary Kennedy is a patient at Little Traverse Hospital instead of Charlevoix Hospital. At last report Mary is doing fine.

Warren Townsend Jr. spent the weekend on High Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gallagher Jr. and party spent a few days on the Island. They occupied Karl Erber's cabin while here.

Small Beginnings and Big Endings

One of the biggest of all American game animals and the very largest of living flesh-eating creatures is the bear. Weighing anywhere from two hundred pounds (as does a small black bear) to more than three-fourths of a ton (as does the big brown bear of the Aleutian Islands off Alaska's mainland), the bear is an exciting giant among American animals.

Yet how pitifully tiny a bear cub is at birth! No other animals, with the exception of such marsupials as the opossum, have young so small in proportion to the mother that bear them. While a new-born human infant generally represents about one twentieth of its mother's weight, a bear cub at birth may weigh only one five-hundredth as much as its mother, as does the nursing Kodiak bear. Michigan's black bear mothers attain a weight of from two hundred and twenty-five to four hundred and seventy-five pounds. But what sort of a start do they have in life? They enter the world as midgits of about nine inches long and eight ounces in weight, averaging less than one five-hundredth of their mother's heaviness. Wee blind Creatures at birth, bear cubs make such a poor start in life that anyone seeing their beginnings might despair of their ever becoming "big game". But they do.

The really big and significant things start in a small way. Those that hurt us do. Hundreds of people die every year in the United States because they give no heed to little cuts and small scratches that grow into serious infections. Thousands are imprisoned each year who have paid little attention to petty dishonesties and tiny germs of character defects. But, like bear cubs, small flaws become big ones when nourished. The best elements of life, too, have small beginnings. Newton sees an apple fall and defines a law of gravity enlarging man's vision of his world. Isaac Watts sees the lid of a steaming tea kettle rise and fall, and from such a little incident begins to think of the power of steam, and soon the era of mechanical power and the Industrial Age are ushered into history.

Edison experiments with incandescent bulbs and before long his little invention illumines distant parts of the earth. Tiny seeds are sown in countless millions of little furrows and the world is later given its daily bread. Every United States President, every saint, every world benefactor started life as a wrinkled pink-fleshed weakling, a tiny fraction of its mother's weight. The biggest and the best have small beginnings.

William James, capacious-minded philosopher of Harvard University, one time said: "I am done with great things and big things, great organizations and big successes. And I am for those tiny, invisible, molecular moral forces which work from individual to individual, creeping in through the crannies of the world like so many soft rootlets, or like the capillary oozing of water, but which, if you give them time, will rend the hardest monuments of man's pride".

So your beginnings were trivial and insignificant! You don't stand a ghost of a chance of making good? Pshaw! Fiddlesticks! You can still be big game — a creature of consequence. You are the creature of a God who makes four hundred and seventy-five pound bears out of eight-ounce cubs, and sees to it that wondrous destinies are given to feeble births.

ONE OF the World's most elaborate birthday parties is being planned to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Michigan State college.

"Centennial fever" is a common disease affecting faculty, students and staff. For nearly a year a special office has been laying groundwork for the impressive program which will last from February to December in 1955.

"If the education world doesn't become more conscious of Michigan State as an outstanding university, it will be because they are unable to observe the quality of work being done here in teaching, research and extension," says James H. Denison, chairman of the Centennial committee.

And if everyone in the state doesn't hear about Michigan State college next year, it will be because remnants of newspapers, hours of radio time, stacks of letters, and millions of words never reached an audience. "We expect about a half-million people more than usual to visit the campus during the celebration," states Alvin Smith, Centennial director.

THERE WILL be ample opportunity for both public and academic figures to become more familiar with the college. Nationally prominent people will be on hand to take part in various programs and conferences.

There is reason to believe that President Eisenhower will be the speaker at one of the most impressive attractions of the year. He is expected to be the honored guest at the October Convocation when college authorities are planning for 50,000 visitors.

President Theodore Roosevelt was a MSC back in 1905, when the institution was celebrating its 50th birthday, and college authorities would like to see the President come for the 100th birthday.

Along cultural lines, 10 symposiums are scheduled: one for each branch of the college. "Symposium" is a more formal name for an organized bull session.

Special efforts have been made to attract leaders in each field so that significant discussions can take place. Subjects for the symposiums are: Agriculture, Engineering, Business and Public Service, Home Economics, Science and Arts, Veterinary Medicine and Experiments, Education, Communications, Continuing Education and Basic College.

BIGGEST attraction will be the Centennial of Farm Mechanization. This event, which takes place in August, is expected to bring more than 200,000 people to the East Lansing campus.

Basic ingredients for the show are a gigantic display of modern farm machinery; demonstrations of important farm operations; exhibits, pageants and tours showing progress of the century in the farm world.

Immense plans for the program include specially constructed grandstands to seat 6,000—much cooperation with many state and national farm organizations.

An industrial exposition of significant scale will be held in May. Major manufacturers in many fields plan to exhibit their products.

Included will be automobiles of the future and the latest railroad trains. Chemical companies will demonstrate the newest wonders they have developed.

Numerous other programs in arts and sciences are scheduled during the year.

SIX home football games in 1955 took several years' arranging. In 1954 only four games will be played in East Lansing. The Centennial year will see games with Notre Dame, Sanford, Illinois, Purdue, Minnesota and one opponent yet to be arranged.

A concentrated effort was made to secure the U of M game for East Lansing by MSC representatives but they report that university officials did not approve the idea, that the game will be played in Ann Arbor.

Official beginning of the Centennial observance will be Feb. 12, Lincoln's birthday. This is considered appropriate because it was Lincoln who signed the Morrill Act which provided for the establishment of land-grant education institutions.

The opening ceremony will be called Founders' Day. It will be a "cop and pown affair" to which many of the outstanding educators of the world will be invited. A distinguished leader in education will be announced as speaker.

THE ENTIRE program is controlled by a Centennial Committee made up of MSC administra-

Nocturnal Mystery Is Solved

The mystery of the nightly nocturnal visitor at the summer cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Belding was solved recently when, after countless attempts, their nephew, Robert Gillett of Grand Rapids, succeeded in catching the above picture of a raccoon.

Later the Beldings discovered that not only this culprit but his entire family, numbering five in all, were dining regularly on scraps thrown in the garbage can at the back door.

Attempts to secure a family portrait proved futile for the way raccoons wouldn't all come out at the same time.

Labels On Rayon Materials Guides To Best Of Care

Stop being disappointed in color changes when washing rayons. Look for labels when you buy; then listen to them. Acetates and rayons carry new labels which show how they are to be laundered, says Mary Ellen Carlson of the Michigan State college department of textiles and clothing.

L22 is the name of the new specifications on labels of fabrics or ready-made apparel containing 50 per cent or more rayon or acetate. But L22 is voluntary, cautions Miss Carlson. You, the buyer, will have to look for and ask for the labels and they will be put on.

When you buy a fabric you want to know if it will shrink, if it's colorfast, if it must be dry cleaned, or if it's weak when wet. L22 will answer these questions. These labels are traffic-light colors. Green means good ahead washing in hot water, up to 160 degrees F. Amber cautions you: warm water, up to 105 degrees F. Stop when you see the red label, dry or wet clean only.

L22 is based on performance, rather than how the clothing is made. You are more interested in the cloistress to sunlight in a fabric used for bathing suits than one used for pajamas.

Success of L22 is up to you, warns Miss Carlson. Ask for it when you buy rayon or acetate garments and retailers will respond.

tion people, students, alumni and citizens.

It is headed up by Jim Denison, executive assistant to President John A. Hannah.

There are special sub-committees to plan for the anticipated crowds. One for invitations, housing and food, awards and citations; even traffic.

When the celebration is complete, MSC officials hope they have demonstrated that the first 100 years were very productive; that the next century can bring even greater accomplishment.

Creede School Of Dancing Re-opens

Band Rehearsal To Start Monday

Any adult in the community who would like to play with the city band is asked to contact Mr. Odmark.

More Ducks For State Hunters Is Goal Of Project

Lansing — More Michigan ducks for Michigan hunters is the goal of a marsh flooding project under way in Roscommon county, reports the conservation department.

Completion of a dam this month across Denton creek east of Houghton lake will result in the flooding of a 270-acre tract which has been especially prepared as a duck nesting and feeding area.

The project will give conservation game workers an opportunity to observe the results of a number of experiments.

Three methods of destroying old grasses in the area to be flooded were tried by the Department. In one, the grass was sprayed with an herbicide. In the second method, called "scalping", grass was removed by a bulldozer. In the third, the grass was plowed under. Purpose of all three is to hasten the growth of duck food plants. The relative merit of each will be carefully observed.

In other experiments, holes, or pockets, were dug in the marsh bottom. Because the water in the flooded area will be generally shallow, about two to three feet deep, these holes were dug to give ducks a number of open-water resting places. Dirt removed was piled into tiny islands to create secluded nesting sites.

The work is being done under the supervision of the department's Houghton Lake Wildlife Experiment Station. Cost of the dam is financed with Pittman-Robertson funds. This is federal money made available to Michigan from an excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition.

Farm Union Expresses Gratitude

Rayders Meet East Jordan In First Game Friday

Red Devils Showed Strength In Opening Game With St. Ignace

The Charlevoix Rayders, Northern Michigan Class C defending champions, will open their 1954 football season against East Jordan on the Red Devils' field at 3 p.m. Friday.

The game will mark the initial appearance of this year's squad built around the regulars and lettermen from last year's championship team pictured above.

The Rayders have a tough season ahead of them with each team in the loop a contender for the title now held by Charlevoix.

Class 'C' Teams Go Into Action This Week End

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C league will be thrown into high gear this week as six of the eight teams in the loop open conference schedules.

Headline of the list will be the game between the defending league champions, the Charlevoix Rayders at East Jordan at 3 p.m. Friday afternoon.

In other games scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday night, Harbor Springs will play at Mancelona, Pellston will travel to Gaylord and Boyne City will host a non-loop opponent, Traverse City St. Francis.

Grayling will play at Onaway in a non-loop game at 3 p.m. Saturday.

The game at East Jordan Friday afternoon will mark the first appearance of the Rayders against the Red Devils who downed St. Ignace 40-0 last week. Coach Del Terrill will be fielding an untried team while East Jordan will have the advantage of a one-game win but the Rayders can be expected to do their best against the only team to rob them of a championship in recent years. The game will be close but Charlevoix's big and experienced line is expected to stop the Red Devils fast backs who will have to take to the air or depend on long end runs to score.

While Mancelona was trouncing Lake City 25-0 in a game highlighted by long runs and good passing, Harbor Springs was soundly beaten by Petoskey St. Francis 38-6.

Those who saw the game, however, said that the Rams were plagued by fumbles and hard luck and really weren't as bad as the score might indicate. They will have a chance this week to prove their strength against the Ironmen who have a well-balanced team and who performed well against Lake City last week. Though Mancelona may hold down the credit end of the score, Harbor Springs will give them a good scrap before the final whistle sounds.

The Gaylord-Pellston game will probably be the best game this week. Both teams are big, both teams showed possibilities in their opening games and both line-ups boast a number of veterans and lettermen. Gaylord edged past Grayling last week 6-0 and Pellston downed Cheboygan Catholic Central 13-0. Both Coach Ray Brown of the Hornets and Coach Bob Wallis of the Blue Devils were pleased with their teams' performances in their opening games. Both are predicting a victory this week. One thing is for certain, both teams will be trying and the score will be close.

After defeating Class B Cheboygan last week 18-7, Boyne

City, fielding one of its strongest teams in recent years, should have little trouble with the visiting Traverse City St. Francis squad which was downed 40-0 by Alpena Catholic Central last week.

At Grayling Coach Larry Baumann has been busy finding replacements for regulars and substitutes who have suffered injuries during the past week in preparation for Saturday's meeting with Onaway.

Ken Lazarowicz, a former guard will replace Steve Jorgenson in the backfield. The latter suffered a concussion in the game at Gaylord last week and will be out of the line-up for several weeks. Halfback Mike Gibbons who suffered a twisted knee in the same game will be replaced by Dick Warner, a 98-pound freshman. Gibbons had replaced Gary Worden who received a fractured foot in practice. Keith Warner or Keith Johnson will replace Lazarowicz in the line.

Even with a crippled team, the Grayling Vikings who showed up well against Gaylord's big squad should win over the Onaway eleven.

When you are making that new fall dress, press narrow darts to one side, advise Extension clothing specialists at Michigan State college. Lengthwise darts should be pressed toward the center front or center back of the dress. Crosswise darts are pressed downward.

Last Week With Class "C" Teams

Seven of the eight teams in the Northern Michigan Class C league opened their 1954 football schedules over the weekend with all but two teams playing non-loop opponents.

On Friday afternoon the Pellston Hornets won over Cheboygan Catholic Central 13-0; in the only league game Gaylord defeated Grayling 6-0 Friday night with Mancelona romping over Lake City 25-0 and Boyne City winning over Class B Cheboygan 18-7, on Saturday afternoon East Jordan trounced a weak St. Ignace eleven 40-0 and on Saturday night Harbor Springs bowed to Petoskey St. Francis 38-6, Pellston 13, Cheboygan Catholic 0.

Playing on their home field the Pellston Hornets scored their first touchdown early in the game when Ron Kaiser, sophomore fullback and a transfer from Melvindale, took a pitch out and went around right end to score from the 35-yard line. The pass for the extra point was not good. Fullback Lawrence Shanamaquet went over standing up from the 15 yard line in the second period for the Hornets second and last touchdown. Halfback Merlyn Davenport scored the extra point on a pitchout from quarterback Bob Rude.

Gaylord 6, Grayling 0

At Gaylord, the Blue Devils' only touchdown came in the first period when left halfback Jim Glasser scored from the seven-yard line after his team had marched the ball from their own 25 yard line when they had recovered a Grayling fumble. The ball was fumbled on the attempted kick and the conversion was missed.

Gaylord threatened several times later in the game but failed to carry the ball into the end zone and the final score remained 6-0.

The game was marred by injuries for Grayling. Fullback Steve Jorgenson, 17 and a junior, received a head injury midway in the game and was taken to the Gaylord Community hospital for treatment of a possible concussion. He was discharged Saturday but will be out of the line-up for some time. Mike Gibbons, who replaced regular halfback Gary Worden, was sidelined with a twisted knee early in the game. He is expected to be out for a couple of weeks. Regular halfback Worden fractured three bones in his foot during practice earlier in the week and will be out for several weeks.

Mancelona 25, Lake City 0
Mancelona's left halfback took Lake City's kickoff and romped 80 yards behind excellent blocking to score the Ironmen's first touchdown of the current season. Jewell then kicked the extra point to make the score 7-0.

Lader in the period Jewell added another six points on a reverse play from the 35 yard line. The kick was wide.

Right end Don Phillips scored in the second period on a 25 yard pass from quarterback Don Wilks after running 20 yards. The kick for the extra point was missed. Right halfback Gary Luens added the final touchdown late in the third period on a 50 yard run on a reverse. The pass for the extra point was missed.

Boyne City 18, Cheboygan 7
After a scoreless first half left

Coach Del Terrill and the returning regulars and lettermen who will be assigned to regular berths on the 1954 Rayder squad. Kneeling (l to r): Gerry Foster, guard; John Connolly, tackle; Joe Powell, guard; Tom Swanson, tackle; Dwain Walker and Gene Towley, ends.

East Jordan 40, St. Ignace 0

East Jordan showed unexpected strength as they trounced visiting St. Ignace 40-0 Saturday afternoon.

Right halfback Bob Dainforth scored from the 10-yard line in the first quarter and again from the three-yard line in the second period to give the Red Devils their first two touchdowns. Fullback Larry Woodcock went over from the 25-yard line and Bob Darbee kicked the extra points to give East Jordan a 21-0 halftime lead.

Fullback Bob Rombach found his way into the end zone from the one yard line in the third period and halfbacks Denny Wilson and Bob McGeorge both scored from four yards out in the last quarter to end the game. Darbee was successful on one of three attempted kicks for the extra points.

Harbor Springs 6, Traverse City St. Francis 0
At Harbor Springs the Rams' lone touchdown came in the second period when quarterback Tom Clarke went over from the two-yard line.

Scoring for the visitors were halfbacks Phil Pemberton, Joe Budek and Jerry Stowe who scored two touchdowns each and quarterback Frank Causens who scored one. The extra points were scored on passes.

U.S.D.A. Designates Crop Lands Under New Total Allotment Plan

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced the designation of crops which will be included under "total acreage allotments" when such allotments are established for individual farms in connection with the administration of "cross-compliance" and "use of diverted acres" in 1955.

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson announced on June 22, at the time the 1955 wheat marketing quota was announced, that special provisions would be in effect in 1955 to influence the use of acres diverted from allotment crops.

The special program requirements are designed to influence the use of diverted acres, helping to prevent shifts from surplus crops to other crops which might themselves soon be in surplus trouble.

The program is designed to aid in attaining a more balanced production and in bringing supplies more nearly in line with demand. Compliance with the program is voluntary except for crops under marketing quotas. Producers will have the choice of complying with their allotments and being eligible for price supports or disregarding their allotments and foregoing price-support privileges. Producers of crops under marketing quotas in 1955 are cautioned, however, that exceeding the farm acreage allotments of marketing quota crops will make them subject to marketing quota penalties.

For all farms, these provisions will require compliance with all individual crop acreage allotments established for the farm as a condition of eligibility for price support on any crop grown on the farm. Farmers have already been notified of their 1955 wheat acreage allotments. Allotment determinations for the other five basic crops (cotton, corn, peanuts, tobacco, and rice) have not yet been made.

For farms where the limitations of individual crop allotments call for the diversion of more than 10 acres there will be an additional requirement. These larger operations will have a "total acreage allotment" established for the farm. In general the total acreage allotment will include the individual crop allotments and the 1953 acreage of other crops designated below.

County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees will be authorized to make limited adjustments in the 1953 acreage of designated crops in cases where the acreages were not representative because of drought or other conditions beyond the control of the operator. Operators of these total acreage allotment farms will then have to stay within the total farm acreage allotment, as well as within all individual crop allotments for the farm, in order to be eligible for price support on any crop. Total acreage allotments for farms will be determined before the planting season for spring crops.

Farmers planting fall and winter seeded crops can use their 1953 acreages as a guide, since the 1953 acreages of all the crops and uses listed under groups 1 and 2 below will be used in establishing total farm acreage allotments.

The announcement designates the crops which will be included in determining the "total acreage allotment" and which also will be included in determining compliance with the total allotment in 1955. Total farm acreage allotments in 1955 will include the following crops and crop uses.

1. The acreage of the following crops for harvest as grain or seed: small grains (such as buckwheat, barley, oats, spelt, emmer, etc.) or mixtures of small grains; wheat mixtures (in designated wheat mixture counties); soybean, annual tyegrass, sudan grass, and millet; summer legumes (such as cowpeas, blackeyed peas, velvet beans, mung beans, etc.); winter legumes (such as Austrian winter peas, rough peas, crimson clover, vetch, lupines, etc.).

2. The acreage of the following crops regardless of use, except as otherwise noted: sugar cane or sorghum, (sorgo) for sirup; field corn in non-commercial counties; sorghums, except sorghum cut green for hay; popcorn, broom-corn, and sweet corn; flaxseed, tobacco not under marketing quotas; dry beans; dry peas; and lentils; Irish potatoes and sweet potatoes, commercial vegetables; melons, and truck crops for fresh market or for processing; berries and small fruits; peanuts not picked and threshed; and hops.

3. The individual crop acreage allotments established for 1955 (wheat, corn in commercial counties, peanuts, tobacco, and both upland and extra long staple cotton are under allotments in 1954).

4. The acreage of any "basic" crop not under allotments (rice is the only basic crop not under allotments in 1954).

5. The planted acreage of sugar beets and sugar cane in 1953, unless proportionate shares are established for 1955, these will be

Advices Catering To Whims Of Pullets

You have to do a lot of catering to whims of pullets when you first house them.

And, adds Ed Rebman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent, you may have to trick them to make them lay in the right place, in the nest instead of on the floor.

Don Miller, extension poultryman at Michigan State college, has these suggestions.

Try to have nests similar to those the pullets used on the range. Use only one type of nest. Each pullet wants a nest just like her sister's, no matter how much crowding she has to do to satisfy her wants.

Set the nests low to start with, then raise them to their permanent spot after the pullets get used to them. If the pullets lay in corners, set the nests in that spot and move them gradually toward the spot where you want them.

It's a good idea to use some nesting material even with wire-bottomed nests, that is, for awhile. The material will disappear soon. Wire-bottomed nests pay off in saving time and avoiding dirty eggs.

used in calculation of total farm allotments. (On Aug. 26, USDA announced proportionate shares for sugar cane farms in La. and Fla. for the 1955 crop).

Paint Offers More Than Appearance To Farm Buildings

Painting farm buildings not only spruces up the farmstead and adds life to the buildings, a coat of paint can do a lot for morale of the farm family, reminds Ed Rebman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

High buildings costs make painting even more important today to stretch out building life, notes Robert L. Maddox, Michigan State college agricultural engineer. But avoid the painting contractors who knock at your door. Many traveling painters operating in Michigan have done unsatisfactory work. Rely on local painters and paint stores, he advises.

If painting is put off too long, there may be rotted wood and rusty surfaces that do not cover well. Rough weathered surfaces take more prepainting time and more paint. New wooden buildings should have a priming coat as soon as weather permits.

Before painting, repair any defect that lets siding get wet, Maddox advises. Cut down on moisture generation in buildings. Ventilate both the buildings and the insulation. Then paint on dry surfaces when it is not raining, frosty or freezing, in the 60 to 80 degree weather.

Use a good quality paint, Maddox urges, with the oil content at least 80 per cent. Linseed, or linseed-soybean, oil is good. Better paints contain less than 10 per cent of thinners and dryers.

Release Figures For Commercial Fishing In 1953

Lansing — Michigan's Great Lakes waters in 1953 produced 25,012,789 pounds of fish at a total value to commercial fishermen of $3,314,696, according to figures released by the conservation department.

The 1953 total was down somewhat from the 29,231,823 pounds taken in 1952. Total value that year was estimated at $4,161,836. Men in the conservation department's fish division are of the opinion that this year's take will not vary greatly from that of 1953.

The report for last year shows Lake Michigan as the most productive with 15,874,756 pounds of fish. Lake Huron was second with 6,118,079 pounds, followed by Lake Superior with 5,843,715 and Lake Erie, 1,395,273.

Twenty-five different kinds of fish were included in the report for 1953. They ranged from giant sturgeon from Lakes Michigan, Superior and Huron to goldfish from Lake Erie. Herring led the list with 10,919,080 pounds, and more than half of this total came from Lake Michigan. Other leaders included: smelt, 4,250,121 pounds; chubs, 3,424,465; carp, 2,566,664; lake trout, 2,074,921; whitefish, 1,846,718; suckers, 1,712,611; yellow perch, 1,042,954.

Since 1929 the average annual commercial fish production of Michigan's Great Lakes waters has been approximately 26,000,000 pounds, with 1927 the top year when 32,303,074 pounds were taken.

Increased enrollment in the Charlevoix elementary school necessitated the opening of another first grade room last week, Supt. R. G. Bennett has announced.

The transfer of 18 first grade pupils from St. Mary's parochial school because of the crowded conditions there brought the enrollment in the first grade to 84 pupils and made it necessary to add another room and full-time teacher.

Mrs. Constance Snider is teaching the class. Mrs. Geraldine Goss has replaced her as assistant in the kindergarten.

The Charlevoix Reserves played the Boyne City Reserves to a 6-6 tie game at Kipke field Tuesday night and gave a fine account of themselves during the game, their first of the season.

Later in the same period, left halfback Terry Davis went over from the two yard line on a cross buck after the little Rayders had taken Boyne's kick off and marched it 60 yards to place the ball in scoring position. The kick for the extra point was wide. Charlevoix threatened twice in the opening period.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

IT'S TOO nice a day to work... the sun is shining (one of the few times this month), the wind is blowing, the temperatures in the 70's and leaves are tumbling from the trees... a real Fall day...

But the boss says there's a certain amount of space to be filled...

AND SINCE it's Fall, let's talk football, our favorite sport...

On Wednesday night the Pep Club had the grandest Pep Rally... up at Koke field... a bonfire (the one that we felt), the cheerleaders who have now "graduated" in varsity status were presented...

with new "CS" Coach Terrell introductory letter, Ann Rutigan...

was a clever as M.C., Joe Powell said a few words and so did

Dad, Mom, and in more than a few words we got our two... cents worth in our invitation from the club... All in all it was a grand gesture.

YOU'VE heard us say before three months left 'til the big day... In fact there's only 85 days 'til Christmas and that doesn't leave too many shopping days...

If you're playing Santa Claus to some serviceman overseas you have even less time than that for the postoffice department is asking everyone to have their overseas parcels in the mail by Nov. 10 so start planning right now...

And if you're packing one for the first time, better look around for ideas, 'cause you can't do it all in one day...

THE BOW and arrow season for deer hunters opens tomorrow... Wonder who the first lucky hunter will be... Last year, you'll remember, it was Gary, Curtis... We don't think much of hunting deer but doing it with a bow and arrow is a real sport... And it certainly demands more than a little skill... Any hunter who gets his deer that way is doing it the hard way in our way of thinking...

UNTIL Sunday night we'd never heard of 'shaggy mane' mushrooms but now we'll vouch for their tastiness... It all happened when Frank Oleky and son, Tom, came by with a basket of big white mushrooms and offered them to us... Never one to say no to food, we took them (with a few qualms, we might add) but they turned out to be as good if not better than the little black Morrells we get in the spring... Frank wouldn't tell us where he gets them but we swear he must have a bed of them someplace 'cause he had so many... Anyway, they're good.

IN THE Sept. 12 issue of the Chicago Sunday Tribune book section was an entire column written by Fanny Butcher and devoted entirely to Bill Ratigan, his Dockside Press and Charlevoix... A grand bit of publicity for everyone concerned... Mostly about Bill and his book "Soo Canal", the story was most interesting and of course so very cleverly written... It was Mrs. Solomon A. Smith of the Chicago Club who introduced Miss Butcher to the Press and its owner... So we should all be very grateful to everyone concerned for the Literary Spotlight, the name of Miss Butcher's column, which was focused so clearly on Charlevoix the Beautiful...

The Forgotten Things

The best reforestation expert in America is not a professor at a school of forestry nor a consultant to the Federal Government's Department of Interior. He is a nervous fellow, seldom seen when not in a frenzied state of high excitement. Speaking infrequently, when he does have something to say it is with a sharp note of authority and usually consists of some such remark as "Qua-qu-qu-qu-quack! Teht, teht, teht, teht!" Such a provocative statement by the emphatic flicking of the speaker's long, fluffy tail, and declared with a shrillness that echoes and re-echoes through the hardwood forest, bounding from trunk to trunk of the nut trees that are his favorite haunts. This specialist in forest planting is the gray squirrel.

The feathery-tailed old campaigner for bigger and better hardwood forests was doing his bit to seed America with oaks, beeches, hickories, walnuts and butternuts long before Michigan State College or the University of Michigan had a professor of forestry and before the Michigan state government organized a Department of Conservation. Indeed, Gray Squirrel was at work before there was a place known as Michigan on a continent known as America. Many scientists are convinced that Gray Squirrel and his tribe speeded up the replanting of North America with trees after the Glacial Age ice sheets had almost wiped the continent clean of forests. The hardwood forests of America did not spring from fallen acorns that awaited an accidental and slow burial under falling leaves. The forests were planted — not by man, but by squirrels. And the most efficient of all the squirrel reforesters were the gray squirrels.

While the gray squirrels had not earned doctorates at the nearest university School of Forestry, they could hardly have improved upon their planting techniques had they crammed their small blunt heads with the latest texts on forestry subjects. And although they dug the holes and buried the nuts in the forest floor for the most selfish reasons — hoarding food for future meals with no intention of providing

What good have we done anyway, with all our efforts? They are wasted, so it appears. Our children are unaware of what we have done for them. Do they ever say "thank you" for the care we gave them during helpless infancy, or the material advantages they have enjoyed through our sacrifices? Children are so forgetful! And our friends! Couldn't they be more appreciative? After all we have done for them, couldn't they show more gratitude? It hurts to be forgotten! But forgotten influences are often the strongest. They are like unconscious urges which any psychiatrist will tell you are more powerful than our conscious wishes or desires.

Supposing we do seem to be forgotten, what of it? There is a power at work in our world that sees to it that the influences that are buried deep in their hiding places and reappear again, just as surely as forests are born from forgotten seeds.

Rayders Drop First Game To East Jordan 7-0

Danforth Scores Only Touchdown With 74 Yard Dash In Third

The Charlevoix Rayders, defending champions in the Northern Michigan Class C league, dropped their opening game of the 1954 season to East Jordan by a score of 7-0 on the latter's field Friday afternoon.

The East Jordan Red Devils, the only team with whom the Rayders have shared the conference title in the past 10 years, scored their winning touchdown midway in the third period when speedy halfback Bobby Danforth broke through the right side of Charlevoix's line and outran the Rayders to go 74 yards for the touchdown. Bob Darbee kicked the extra point for the 7-0 victory.

The break that gave the Jordanites their scoring opportunity came shortly after the Rayders had fought their way to the 14 yard line and then lost the ball on downs.

East Jordan's veteran fullback Bob Rombach was injured on the second play of the game when he suffered a dislocated elbow which is expected to keep him out of action indefinitely.

The game got off to a slow start with first one team and then the other kicking out of danger and trying for weak spots in the opposition's defense. Over-anxious players on the Rayders' squad cost the local eleven a number of penalties for off-sides or backfield in motion in the first period. Early in the second quarter, Guy Swanson snagged a Jordanite pass on East Jordan's 45 yard

Rayder end, Quint Walker, going up for a pass, was robbed of a scoring opportunity in the Charlevoix-East Jordan game Friday when an unidentified Red Devil batted the ball from his reach. Behind him an unidentified Rayder prepares to take the pass if it comes his way as a horde of East Jordan players converge on the pair. The Rayders defending league Champions lost to the Jordanites 7-0.

All Conference Teams Will Go Into Action This Week-end

All teams in the Northern Michigan Class C league will see action against loop rivals this week for the first time since the current season opened Sept. 17.

Friday will find Harbor Springs playing at Pellston and East Jordan traveling to Grayling at 3 p.m. and Boyne City hosting Mancelona and Charlevoix entertaining Grayling in night games to be played at 8 p.m.

At Charlevoix the first annual Dad's night will be observed at half-time. The Harbor Springs-Pellston meeting will be a traditional battle between two arch rivals with the Hornets out to ever old scores. Pellston has one of the best balanced teams in the loop and for the first time in several years will be in a position to set the Harbor Springs Rams back on their heels unless the latter shows more than they have in recent games. The game will probably be a bitterly fought battle but Pellston should win if they play the type of ball they have displayed thus far.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

The Northern Michigan Class C league offered plenty of good football to sports fans last week-end as hard-hitting Pellston defeated Grayling 20-12; under-dog Harbor Springs played Mancelona to a 6-6 tie; Boyne City downed Traverse City St. Francis 21-13 and Grayling edged past Onaway 6-0 after the Charlevoix Rayders had lost to East Jordan 7-0.

Pellston 20, Grayling 12

Playing in the rain at Grayling, the Pellston Hornets were unimpressed by the big Blue Devil line as left halfback Merlyn Davenport scored from the 15 yard line early in the first period. Quarterback Boh Rudy passed to left end Larry Carlson for the extra point.

After talking the Pellston kick Grayling, not to be outdone by the Hornets, moved the ball to the one yard line where left halfback Jim Glasser took it over for the touchdown. The kick for the extra point was wide.

Just before the half ended, Glasser put the ball in scoring position for Grayling with a 60 yard run to the two yard line. (Continued on Page 9)

All Conference Teams See Action This Week

East Jordan, weakened by the loss of veteran fullback Bob Rom and cracked elbow in the Charlevoix game Friday, will travel to Grayling to take on the Vikings who have yet to prove themselves in league play. In their only league game the Vikings lost to Gaylord by one touchdown and defeated Onaway by the same score last week. Coach Larry Baumann has had to use a lot of young players to replace regulars out with injuries and for this reason has been slow in getting his squad in shape. East Jordan, always a scrappy outfit even in the lean years, has come up with a speedy, hard-playing team that will give the Grayling eleven a good game. If they are at their best they should take the Vikings. Coach Gayle Saxton has called on sophomore letterman, Larry Woodcock, to replace Rom.

At Boyne City where the Ramblers are having their best season in several years, they will be out to trim the visiting Mancelona Ironmen, remembering all too well the 47-0 defeat at the hands of the last year's team. The Ramblers have what most teams in the loop lack, a combination of power plus speed, and should win over the Ironmen if Coach Tom Weede's lads get serious about the game.

Gaylord, fielding its biggest team in years, will invade Charlevoix with the idea of handing the Rayders their second defeat of the season. Charlevoix, downed last week by East Jordan, is expected to be prepared for the visitors after a week to correct opening game errors. Though the Rayders lack speed, they should be able to stop the big Blue Devils. The game is expected to be close but Charlevoix will be out to make their first annual Dads' Night a success by racking up a victory.

Boys' Only Touchdown on an 18 Yard Run Through Tackle. The Kick for the Extra Point was Wide.

Unable to pierce the Ironmen's defense, Harbor Springs took to the air late in the third period as quarterback Tom Clarke passed to right end Ray Mann who went 10 yards to score for the Rams. The attempted pass for the extra point was wide and the third period ended 6-6.

Both teams threatened in the last period but both were unsuccessful in their attempts as the Rams held the favored Ironmen to a tie game.

Boys' City 21 Traverse City St. Francis 13

Traverse City St. Francis took advantage of a Boyne City fumble early in the game on the latter's field to score their first touchdown on a 45 yard pass from halfback Bob Saunders to end Gerry Lints, who then went 20 yards to score. John Dunan kicked the extra point.

The lead was short-lived however, as fullback Bill Nulph took the kick-off and ran 70 yards to score for the Ramblers. Quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick passed to end Murray Northrup to tie the score.

Boys' City scored first in the second quarter on a four-yard run by left halfback Chub Rothenberger. Fitzpatrick passed to end Carl Charon for the extra point.

With less than a minute to go, right halfback John Holowasko took a hand-off on his own 19 and went 31 yards to score the winning touchdown. Fitzpatrick kicked the extra point.

The Gladiators took to the air again in the third period after recovering a Rambler fumble on the latter's 44 yard line. This time Saunders passed to halfback Gary Webber who went over standing up in a play that covered 20 yards. The conversion was wide.

Greyling 6 Onaway 0

The lone touchdown in the Grayling-Onaway game was scored midway in the first period by Mel Luter who took a 10 yard pass from fullback Steve Jorgenson and traveled another 10 yards for the TD. The kick for the extra point was wide.

The Vikings threatened later in the game but never managed to break through the Onaway line. The latter never got inside the Grayling 20 yard line.

Tackle Jim Parkinson was taken to the Onaway hospital during the game to have nine stitches taken in a cut over his left eye. He returned home with the squad Jorgenson, who suffered a concussion in the Gaylord game, saw Mel set on against Onaway.

Girl Scout News

Ann Phillips was elected treasurer and Margie Albright scribe of Girl Scout troop 5 at the regular meeting of the troop held Tuesday at the city hall. We also discussed plans for our fall and winter program. Our meeting closed with a closing circle.

Last week we visited the fish hatchery. Mr. Nowland took us on a tour of the building and explained the feeding and care of the fish. He suggested that we come back to the hatchery in January when the new supply of fish is received as there is usually a number of freak fish which are interesting to see.

Mulch Strawberries After Crusty Freeze

Put your mulch on strawberries after a crust has frozen over the ground. You'll have more and better strawberries next year if you wait for the freeze, suggests Ed Reiman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent.

If the mulch is placed after the freeze, he explains, the crust will stay frozen and the soil will not heave.

That means less cold injury to crowns and roots. And next year Stanek, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer spring those undesirable early blossoms will be delayed.

A good mulch like coarse straw that's free of weed seeds means fewer mud spots in the strawberry patch and cleaner berries, point out Michigan State College horticulturists.

Women's Hospital Guild To Hold First Harvest Festival Saturday

Saturday will be festival time in Charlevoix when the Women's Hospital Guild of the Charlevoix Hospital opens its first annual Harvest Festival at the Charlevoix high school gymnasium beginning at 1 p.m.

A variety of new and different events have been planned for the entertainment of old and young alike with the entire affair climaxed by an old-fashioned square dance at 9 p.m. with the popular caller, K. C. Festerling, district 4-H director, on hand to tell the dancers when to do-si-do. Mrs. William Parsons of Norwood township is general chairman of the Harvest Festival. Proceeds from the event will be used to purchase an Isolette for the Charlevoix Hospital nursery.

A Carnival atmosphere will be added to the event by the installation of booths. Mrs. Gordon Fraedman and Frances Miller will manage a cider and doughnut and caramel apple booth; a hotdog and coffee booth will be operated by Mrs. Carlton Ikens and Mrs. Harold Tolian; a fish pond for the youngsters will be under the direction of Mrs. Jeff Novotny; a baked goods booth featuring all kinds of home-baked goodies donated by all the good cooks in the Charlevoix area will be under the direction of Mrs. Versal Seymour; candles will be offered at another booth managed by Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mrs. Fred Willis and Mrs. Angus Fochtman; the sale of popcorn will be in charge of Mrs. Alan Macdonald.

Formers in the area have been generous in their contributions of farm produce including fruits and vegetables. These booths will be in charge of several rural chairmen.

In addition to all this there will be a number of novelty booths offering a variety of entertainment guaranteed to tickle the funny bone of each and everyone.

There will even be a clown, Charlevoix's own Steve Paterka who will be on hand to sell balloons.

The festival will open at 1 p.m. and continue through the afternoon and evening with the square dance scheduled to begin at 9 p.m.

Another special feature of the festival will be a 'jam session' contributions of jams, jellies and preserves to be brought to the festival and displayed and later donated to the Charlevoix hospital.

North Shore Is Removed From Ferry Service

Ferry service between Charlevoix and Beaver Island was discontinued Monday when the Beaver Island Transit Co. chose to remove its motorship, North Shore, from the 34-mile ferry run rather than carry out the work order issued by the U. S. Coast Guard Marine Inspection Division representatives of St. Ignace following a routine inspection.

The work order listed repairs necessary to keep the 65 ft. ferry boat in a sea-worthy condition. The inspection followed the expiration of the North Shore's certificate of inspection on Oct. 4.

Permit was granted the crew to take the boat to Beaver Island until the company decides what course to take. In the meantime, company officials are seeking a boat to operate the ferry service until the current season ends Dec. 31.

For the present, supplies and passengers will be transported by the McPhillips Flying Service operated by Joseph McPhillips who also had the winter mail contract to the island.

Anticipating the results of Monday's inspection, the company has been operating around the clock for a week transporting heavy freight including coal, fuel oil, gasoline and other supplies to the island which is virtually isolated from January until mid-April except for plane traffic.

The boat was on such a trip when it went aground at midnight last Wednesday at the entrance to St. James harbor.

Three Boys Take Part In A Minor Crime Wave Here

Two young teenagers were returned to their parents in Traverse City and a third who claimed Northport, Charlevoix and Harbor Springs as his home, has been taken to the juvenile detention home in Grand Rapids after participating in a minor crime wave here over the weekend.

The trio, led by the 14-year-old boy now in custody, broke into two local business places and then stole three bicycles which they rode to Petoskey. A Petoskey merchant became suspicious of the trio when they entered his store and called the police, who investigated and picked up the two Traverse City youths. The third boy, however, ran away and was enroute to Charlevoix when found by Chief Clarence Heise and patrolman Jack Becht who had been notified of the break-in and who were about to leave for Petoskey to question the youth when the second call, telling them of the escape of the older boy, was received.

They found the lad hitch-hiking a ride to Charlevoix. He was removed from a car and on the trip to Petoskey pulled a knife on the older boy, who was received.

He was taken to Grand Rapids and will be returned here later to appear in Probate Court. The younger brothers, who ran away from their home in Traverse City Friday and who joined the older boy here, were returned to the custody of their parents.

Mrs. Jean Gallagher and son, Michael, and her mother, Mrs. John Zellner, spent the weekend with relatives in Detroit.

Old Hospital Property Put Up For Sale

The old Charlevoix hospital property will go on the sale block this month according to Fred W. Willis, president of the Charlevoix hospital board of directors, following the announcement that the board was accepting bids for the property.

Located on west Huribut ave., the two-story frame building formerly used as a hospital, a garage and greenhouse located on 34th lots 250 feet deep to Newman st. and approximately 287 ft. on Huribut ave., will be included in the sale. The property is beautifully landscaped and the buildings in good repair.

Purchased in 1917, the original structure was converted into a hospital in 1920. In 1924 the west wing was added.

The lot on which the buildings are constructed extend below the hill to Newman st.

Further information regarding the building may be obtained by contacting Mr. Willis or any member of the hospital board.

The board plans to keep the property on which the nurses home is located for the present.

Bob Carey Breaks Leg In Pro Game

Bob Carey, professional football player with the Los Angeles Rams, is hospitalized on the west coast with a fractured leg received in the Rams-San Francisco Forty-niners game on Sunday.

His father, Leo Carey, has been notified by Mrs. Carey, who is with her husband in the west.

The leg is broken below the knee and is expected to put the big end out of the line-up for most of the season.

Ferry Ave. Repair Starts This Week

The re-surfacing of Ferry ave. from Belvedere ave. to the city limits (Stover road) was started this week, Roy R. Robinson, city superintendent, has announced.

The work of applying the tar and chips is being done by the Charlevoix county road commission.

The last time the road was surfaced was in 1942.

Humane Group Gives Report On Activities

The Board of directors of the Charlevoix county Humane Society met Thursday at the home of Earl Crandall to hear a number of reports and to make plans for the organization's program.

The treasurer's report revealed that contributions for a small animal shelter amounted to $50.00 and that funds raised by activities by the members netted $38.87 for a total of $88.87. This figure is far short of the $5,000 tentative budget presented to the Board of Supervisors and city councils last spring when the society solicited aid to establish and maintain the shelter.

To date the temporary shelter with all facilities and labor services have been contributed by Mr. and Mrs. Wesley L. Hullier of Hayes township who have found it necessary to discontinue the service.

A report of activities carried on without charge at the temporary shelter include an investigation of 10 cruelty complaints which were corrected by investigation; 42 animals housed at the shelter where they were brought by owners or finders; 42 cats (not including kittens) were brought in and 14 adoptions made. Two baby foxes were also cared for and later placed in a zoo.

During the summer 211 telephone calls were received and many plans to pick up stray animals entered. The Society, however, had to refuse the latter because there was no warden to care for the work.

Plans for an educational program in the schools were also discussed. It is hoped that class discussions on the proper care of pets followed by the showing of movies supplied by the Society will create an interest in the program.

Plans for a slogan contest to open Oct. 18 and continue through Nov. 30 were also announced. Cash prizes totaling $10.00 will be given and the winning entry used on stickers, stationery, etc.

The next meeting of the Charlevoix county Humane Society will be held at the City hall in East Jordan at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 12. Plans for the forthcoming membership drive will be made at this meeting.

Gov. Williams Is Visitor To City, Tours Hospital

Gov. G. Mennen Williams and his party visited Charlevoix Tuesday afternoon while on a northern Michigan tour.

While here he visited the Charlevoix hospital and was taken on a guided tour by Joseph M. Foster of the Charlevoix county Democratic committee and Miss Ann Baumgartner, hospital superintendent.

Later he met with local members of the Democratic committee and visited local business places.

Plan To Open Annual Campaign To Solicit Funds On October 18

A Community Chest budget of $5,872 was adopted for 1954 at an organizational and admissions meeting of the Charlevoix Community Chest Committee held at the City hall Tuesday night, Mrs. Herbert Campbell, chairman of the organization, has announced.

The 1954 budget is an increase of $210 over last year's budget of $5,662.

The fund drive is scheduled to get underway Monday, Oct. 18 following a special workshop meeting for fund workers too be held at the Council Room of the City hall at 8:30 p.m. Monday, Oct. 11.

At this meeting all fund-drive workers will meet with their respective captains and Roscoe Scott of Bellaire, area representative of the United Health and Welfare Fund, to plan the fund campaign.

One new agency, the Charlevoix hospital which has returned after an absence of one year, is included in this year's budget. The omission of the City Recreation Council and the decrease in the Girl Scout and Charlevoix Service Organization budgets have helped in keeping this year's budget at only $210 more than last year's.

The Charlevoix hospital which has returned as a participating agency, has entered a request for $750, which, it was explained at the admissions meeting, will serve to compensate the hospital for these patients who receive treatment but who are unable to pay and who are ineligible for county or state aid. By asking the community as a whole to compensate for these cases, this deficit is paid with no hardship to anyone. Until last year, the Charlevoix hospital had participated in the annual Community Chest drive.

Other participating agencies and their budgets include: Salvation Army, $325; Boy Scouts, $930, an increase of $50; Girl Scouts, $700, a decrease of $100; Community nurse, $1,000, an increase of $100; Charlevoix Service Organization, $400, a decrease of $100; Emergency Fund, $450; United Health and Welfare Fund, $1,157, an increase of $32. The latter fund also absorbed the Michigan Children's Aid Society which last year received $275.00. Campaign expenses were listed as $140.00.

nuts and oodles of mountain ash berries to feed the squirrels and birds. And what did we find? ... the beechnut shells empty and very few mountain ash berries ... so either there's going to be a lot of hungry animals and birds or we're going to have an open winter so they can feed on something else. We'll know the verdict all too soon.

But even the sun doesn't shine, the trees are beautiful despite the rain and the cloudy days. And so far we've missed the early frosts and even the gardens are still hearing ... always a treat because of the too-short summer season.

AND WHAT happened to the Indians. Quite a few thousand other people are asking the same thing. But, darn it, we wanted a mid-west team to win this year. Wasn't it humiliating, to say the least, to see the Giants win in four straight.

And on top of that, Michigan, State and Notre Dame have to lose. There just ain't no justice. But when our three favorites go down to defeat in one week ... that's truly heart-breaking. What, pray tell, is happening to our teams? And if you find out, send a 'special' to their coaches ... they'd probably like to know too.

THO' SHE is a hunter, Mrs. George Gloster, who lives along U. S. 31 just west of the golf course, was almost wishing she was the other day when a big deer ambled through her yard. That's the first deer to visit town since last spring that we've heard about ... maybe he (or she) decided to look over the hunter situation. What ever the animal was doing, it certainly wasn't in a hurry as it came from the golf course, across the highway and through the Gloster yard.

NEARLY 20 years ago, when Fritz Bergman was first a bridge-tender on the highway bridge across Pine river, he heard voices under the bridge about 3 a.m. one cold, wet morning and came down from the bridge-house overhead (remember?) to investigate. Huddled in a boat not much bigger than a row boat that was equipped with a 'oil' were three kids who were trying to make their way into Round Lake from the big lake. They were cold and wet and hungry and scared, for their 'great adventure' of sailing the Great Lakes in their little craft had turned into a nightmare. Mr. Bergman rescued the trio, took them to the bridge house where he dried them out and shared his lunch. In the morning he took them home, where Mrs. Bergman set three more places at the already big breakfast table. Loaded with food and many instructions, they sailed out of the harbor toward their homes somewhere in the Ludington area.

LAST WEEK the C. D. Geikens crossed Lake Michigan on one of the ear ferries enroute home from a western vacation trip. During the trip Mr. Geikens got talking to one of the mates. When the fellow found he was from Charlevoix he related the story of his adventure and added that he'd sure like to have the bridge-tender know how much he appreciated the interest he'd taken in the three on the trip. After some discussion, they doped out that the bridge-tender was still on the job in the person of Mr. Bergman. A note of gratitude from one of three boys who has made a career of sailing despite the experience was soon written and dispatched via Mr.

Geiken ... a belated 'thank you' for more than a bit of kindness. 20 years later ... Mr. Bergmann, in telling us the story, said he'd almost forgotten the incident. It must give him a very warm feeling to know that his thoughtfulness has been remembered through the years.

WITH FIVE arrogant blasts of its shrill whistle, the North Shore blew a farcical salute Monday afternoon as it left the local harbor on its last run ... for the motorship, which has braved all kinds of weather on Lake Michigan for several years, was being tied up at the harbor of St. James. A coast guard was no longer sea-worthy. To us such things are always a little sad ... for we hate to see something that's served so well and long cast aside for a younger, more modern successor. Sure she was a tub without a graceful line about her ... But you kinda get attached to something you see so often even if it's not a thing of beauty.

A HAPPY birthday this week to one of our old friends who'll be observing his eighty-something birthday anniversary next Tuesday ... He's Dr. Perry Holden, that grand old man of agriculture who now makes his home in East Lansing.

WE WERE privileged to be on hand the other day when Henry Rocheleau, a veteran member of the Coast Guard was retired with 36 years, 11 months and 19 days service in the lighthouse and Coast Guard services. Such years of devotion to a service is something one rarely sees these days. It was a very proud occasion for Mr. Rocheleau as the entire crew of the station stood at attention while a commendation was read.

AND DON'T forget the Hospital Guild festival at the gym this week. It's going to be a lot of fun with all kinds of good things for sale along with all sorts of entertainment for everybody. And the proceeds are to be used by the Guild to purchase an Islette for the nursery ... a very important piece of equipment.

IT HAPPENED ON . . . BEAVER ISLAND

By Loyola Malloy

Bale Tygh and a party of friends spent the weekend at Beaver Lodge. They were here

North Shore Goes Aground On Small Reef At Island

The motor-ship, North Shore, owned by the Beaver Island Transit Co., went aground at a small reef north of the entrance to the St. Jones Harbor at Beaver Island in a heavy fog about midnight Wednesday, while on a fuel run between Charlevoix and the Island.

Twelve hours later, the vessel was pulled from the sand reef by the boat from the U. S. Coast Guard. Lifeboat station at St. James after a portion of the cargo, 127 barrels of gasoline and fuel oil, had been removed in an effort to float the craft.

The company, anticipating a trip to the ship-yard for repairs after undergoing an inspection scheduled for Monday, Oct. 4, had been operating around the clock for a week, carrying supplies to the island which will be isolated except for plane traffic for at least the first three months of the year.

City Council Takes Contract On Liability

for an eight-months liquor license submitted by William Flynn for the Weatherline Inn was approved; a resolution to accept the highway maintenance contract adopted; a resolution assuring the American Mold Engineering Co. on M-66 fire protection from the city fire department was approved. This was merely a formality as the property located in Charlevoix township, already receives fire protection from the city.

A request of a waiver of present zoning ordinance to allow the construction of a garage on the Rex Davis property at 207 Petoskey ave. was approved after M. Davis presented a petition signed by Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wood stating they had no objection to its construction.

Mrs. Betty Lockan left Sunday for Chicago where she expects to spend a week or so.

The Sisters and Frank Partidge attended the Teachers Convention last week. The children were all happy about the extra days off but I don't imagine many mothers were too happy because it rained almost all the time they were home from school.

Mrs. Frank Gillespie returned home last week after visiting her daughters, Mrs. Henry Supernaw and Mrs. Emil Paschner in Charlevoix.

Mrs. Peter (Doney) Gallagher and daughter have gone to Lansing to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kraai.

O. Tuesday, Sept. 28 32 head of cattle were shipped from Beaver Island to the Gaylord livestock auction. At this sale Frank O'Donnell's cattle brought the highest price per hundred of the many lots in the sale. Others that shipped cattle were George Ricksgers, McCauleys and Pat Bonner.

Lloyd McDonough and V. H. Evers left Monday on a business trip to Harbor Springs.

Have your wheel alignment checked at Brown Motors, Charlevoix.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

You know how Handy Turner down at the hardware store goes in for weird advertising stunts. Well, when it came to plugging his new Venetian blind department, his enthusiasm nearly landed him in trouble.

Handy painted a warning on the talkboard of his truck: "Caution—blind men driving."

"Had driven about a mile," Handy says, "when a state trooper stopped me and told me that sign might cause trouble. Guess he was right. From now on I'll be vertiginous in the Clarion."

From where I sit, I agree—the highway is no place for jokes. We all ought to be considerate of the other fellow when we're driving. In fact, let's respect our neighbor's right of way always. Then, when we have differences of opinion—say about the best route to Centerville, or whether beer or buttermilk is better with lunch—there will be less chance of anybody developing any "blind" spots.

Prayer Makes Sense

She had left her fawns safe in some secret woodland bower, tucked beneath the fall ferns. Then she had fed slowly toward the brush-lined opening where stood the cabin. Now she torried at the salt block, licking, savoring, eating her vague but demanding craving for the piquant mineral. She bent low to the salt. Then, with a flick of her tail, she straightened with an almost audible snop, as if to catch some creeping danger in midstep. Sighting no peril, she inclined toward the salt block once more, then, again, she whipped her head from the ground and stored at the cabin.

Sensing some hidden danger she began stomping her delicate fore-hooves and snorting a high whistling danger signal. Prancing a short distance, she broke into long bounds that flashed her across the meadow and into the sheltering woods.

Had it not been for a robin's jawing and scolding in a scandalous fashion I might have missed the antics of that Hidden Bronk doe. But the tattletale bird let me know something gossip-worthy was going on outside the cabin window. "A little bird told me!" Long after the doe went back to her matronly duties of nursing and teaching her twins, and long after we caught glimpses of them in woodland haunts, I thought of that day at the cabin. The robin's shrill whoop and stammerous chatter upon sighting the doe, the deer's sharp alertness of eye and ear and nose, stuck in my memory as reminders of the widely-spread responsiveness in nature.

The excited activity of a red-breasted robin and a white-tailed doe were but representations of what is going on constantly in the natural world. Something stimulates. Something else responds. A deer moves softly toward a salt block. The movement catches the eye of a cocky robin, and the robin rattles. Or the doe sees the cabin in the woods-opening and probes and tests the air with widened nostrils. She turns large ears about to funnel the faintest sounds. She stares and stares again. Robin and deer are bundles of sensitivity, fashioned for stimulation and response.

The entire realm of nature is like that — a vast relationship among things, something exciting a response from something else. Light was here before man came, and man has eyes for responding to light. Sound was here before man was. Now man has ears for responding to sound. Air existed

Fred Kaunitz Returns From 2500 Mile Boat Trip To Florida

Fred Kaunitz, marine architect who makes his home here, returned to Charlevoix last week from what most people would consider a 'dream trip'... a 2,500 mile trip to Florida via boat.

In relating his experiences of the trip Mr. Kaunitz agreed that it was something that even he had not expected at his age, 70 years.

It all started when he received what amounted to a command from his son, Edwin, a marine architect and builder, and his family, until recently of Algonac, to accompany them to Florida aboard their 82 foot yacht, Estelle, a converted PT boat.

With ten aboard including Mr. and Mrs. Kaunitz and their sons, Michael and Peter, and daughter, Nan, Mr. Kaunitz Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hardin and son and a pilot who left the ship at Norfolk, Va., they left Algonac Aug. 14 on the journey to the east coast into the Atlantic and then south along the Inland Water route.

After running into a storm in Lake Erie the first day out, they spent a day at Erie, Pa., for repairs before being lowered into the 45 locks of the Erie Canal into the Hudson river for the trip to the Atlantic ocean. They traveled in the Atlantic to Cape May, N. J., where they entered Chesapeake Bay, which they found to be very rough.

It was here that they saw a jet plane crash and rushed in the aid of the pilot who had been ejected from the falling plane. U. S. Coast Guard rescue boats beat them to the scene and in record time had the pilot aboard. Annapolis, Md., was one of 35 cities they visited on the trip.

While traveling the Inland Water route to the south, the two major hurricanes of the season by-passed them although farther south they were to see the damage wrought by the storm. Near the Georgia state line they ran aground on a sand bar formed by the passing hurricane and had to appeal to the U. S. Coast Guard for assistance.

The trip was on exciting one all the way, Mr. Kaunitz relates, with every day bringing new scenes, all of great interest. With the exception of the first day, they enjoyed good weather all the way to Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where the Kaunitz family, with the exception of Nan, who left the party to fly back to her college studies while they were in South Carolina, will make their home for the present. Mr. Kaunitz Sr. made the return trip via plane to Chicago where he joined Mrs. Kaunitz, who had been visiting relatives there, for the trip to Charlevoix.

Closed Seasons For Great Lakes Remain The Same

Closed seasons on lake trout, whitefish and chubs in Michigan waters of the Great Lakes remains unchanged this year, the conservation department's annual reminder to commercial fishermen points out.

Lake trout may not be taken from Lake Michigan from Oct. 10 to Nov. 15, the closed season on whitefish in Lake Michigan begins Nov. 5 and ends Dec. 10 and the closed season on chubs is the entire month of November in Lake Michigan as well as Lakes Huron and Superior.

The department emphasizes that no permits will be issued to anyone to fish for spawn during the closed seasons.

before man did, and man has lungs in response to air. Plants sense the nearest light source and bend toward it. The moon hovers over the earth, and tides arise in response to the moon's gravitational pull. Throughout the entire visible world stimulus is made for a response, and response for stimulus.

Sometimes, when prayers are not immediately answered or when the answer does not come in the form we expect, we doubt the effectiveness of prayer. Does it work? Is it sensible? Does the Power above us really care what is going on here below?

There is a sort of logic to praying. If eyes are fashioned to respond to light, and ears to sound, and lungs in air, for what purpose do we possess this inner craving for Divine Assistance? Is it not because the Divine Assistance was available long before we knew the hunger? The craving arises in response to the God who is near. Prayer makes sense, and sensible people pray.

In the game with Gaylord Friday night, the Blue Devils kicked off to the Rayders who moved the ball to the 13 yard line before they lost a scoring opportunity on a fumble recovered by Gaylord. An exchange of punts kept the ball between the 30 yard lines until the end of the quarter when the Rayders carried the ball to the 20 as the period ended.

The Rayders moved the ball to the 14 yard line to open the second quarter but drew a 15-yard penalty which put them back on the 29 on a third down and 20 yards to go. Fullback Gary Vandenberg moved the ball back to the 15 and a penalty or the Blue Devils moved the ball into scoring position and gave Charlevoix a first down. A pass from quarterback Tom LaBlance to end Quint Walker in the end zone gave the Rayders their first touchdown of the season and a 6-0 lead after Guy Swanson's kick for the extra point went wide.

A penalty on the kick-off set Gaylord back to the 28 yard line but they picked up five first downs including one made on a 15-yard penalty on Charlevoix and moved the ball to the four yard line where Mike Free went over on a quarterback sneak to the score 6-6. George Middle-ditch's kick was low and the half ended 6-6 as Gaylord kicked off to the Rayders.

Charlevoix kicked off to the visitors to open the second half. Gaylord moved the ball from their own 39 to Charlevoix's 27 where Joe Etienne fell on the ball.

True Power Of Class C League To Show In This Week's Games

The true power of the Northern Michigan Class C league should be brought into sharp focus this week as six of the eight teams meet in league games. Two after a Gaylord fumble on the 25 yard line. Charlevoix picked up one first down but failed to make a second and lost the ball to Gaylord at midfield. The Blue Devils moved the ball to the 25 on two first downs but lost the ball on the 32 when Charlevoix recovered a fumble in the backfield.

On the next series of play the Rayders moved the ball to Gaylord's 22 yard line as the third period ended. Vandenberg and Tom Erber were the chief ball carriers with the last gain made on a pass from LaBlance to Quint Walker.

Mike Elzinga picked up 15 yards to open the last quarter and after two small gains, LaBlance went over on a quarterback sneak to make the score 12-6 after the pass from center for the extra point went wide.

Gaylord received the kickoff and returned the ball to their own 35 when Guy Swanson intercepted a pass and returned it to Gaylord's 25 yard line. On the next play Quint Walker took a jump pass from LaBlance and went the distance to rack up another quick touchdown. Vandenberg ran the ball over for the extra point.

Gaylord, in a series of plays and three first downs, moved the ball into Charlevoix territory but a 15-yard penalty set them back to the 45 where they kicked out of bounds to the 32 yard line.

With three minutes remaining in the game, the Rayders decided to try for another touchdown and started their proposed march with a pass which was intercepted by Gaylord halfback Jim Glasser who raced about 35 yards to score. George Middle-ditch kicked the extra point and the score stood at 19-13 as Charlevoix took the Gaylord kickoff.

Elzinga returned the kick to midfield and Charlevoix marched it too the 32 yard line for a first down as the game ended.

In the starting line-up for Charlevoix were Quint Walker and Dwain Walker, ends; John Connolly and Tom Swanson, tackles; Dick Elzinga and Joe Etienne, guards; Jack Stebe, center; Tom LaBlance, Gary Vandenberg, Tom Erber and Mike Elzinga, backs.

Coming in on defense were Guy Swanson and Charlie Dennis, backs; Walt Pouquette, center; Gene Towles and Clay Walker, ends and Joe Powell, guard. Others who saw action were Gerry Foster, lineman and Bill Koller, back.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Pellston remained the only undefeated or untied team in Northern Michigan Class C league following Friday's games which saw the Hornets defeat Harbor Springs 39-0. Charlevoix won over Gaylord 19-13, Grayling and East Jordan play to a 13-13 tie and Mancelona held Boyne City to a 7-7 tie.

Pellston 39, Harbor Springs 0. At Pellston, the Hornets avenged all earlier losses to arch rival, Harbor Springs, by running up six touchdowns on the Rams who never threatened throughout the game.

Left halfback Merlyn Davenport scored the first touchdown early in the game when he went over from the 14 yard line. Right halfback Ron Kaiser ran the extra point to give the Hornets a 7-0 first quarter lead.

In the second quarter, the Hornets added two more on a triple lateral play with Kaiser scoring from the 13 yard line after taking a pitchout from fullback Chief Shananaquet who had taken a lateral from quarterback Bob Rudy. The second one was scored by Davenport from the 21 yard line. The half ended 19-0.

Harbor Springs held in the third period but in the last quarter Pellston again broke loose with Kaiser going 80 yards to score on the opening play of the period as Rudy threw the key block. Kaiser added the extra point on a run. Shananaquet romped 60 yards to score again after intercepting a Harbor pass and ran the extra point for good measure. In the closing minutes of the game Davenport scored from the 14 yard line after Kaiser had recovered a Ram fumble on the 32 to give Pellston possession of the ball.

East Jordan 13, Grayling 13. After a scoreless first period Grayling left halfback Lloyd Failing went 40 yards around end o score midway in the second period of the Viking-East Jordan game Friday afternoon. Don Denton kicked the extra point to give the Vikings a 7-0 halftime lead.

East Jordan came back to dominate the game in the third period as left halfback Bob Danforth scored off-tackle from the four-yard line early in the quarter. After an exchange of punts East Jordan moved the ball into scoring position a second time on a series of plays (Continued on Page 9) always a scrappy outfit when the going is rough, will have the edge.

Charlevoix racked up its first win, a 19-13 victory over Gaylord last week after losing 7-0 to East Jordan in the season's opener. Unless Harbor Springs, with a 6-6 tie with Mancelona and a 39-0 loss to Pellston, displays more than they have to date the Rayders should come through with another win.

The Gaylord Blue Devils, who looked good at times against Charlevoix last week will take on the Class B Cheboygan Chiefs whom Boyne City defeated 18-7 earlier and Grayling, fresh from a 13-13 tie with East Jordan, will play Lake City, a team defeated 25-0 by Mancelona early in the season. Both league teams, if they should play heads-up ball, could chalk up wins against their non-league opponents.

including a pass from quarterback Alan Sonerville to right end Floyd Cutler. The same play, this time on a jump pass, gave East Jordan another touchdown. Bob Darbee kicked the extra point.

Late in the game the Vikings came back to score the tying touchdown after blocking an East Jordan kick which rolled to the five yard line. Halfback Steve Jorgensen went over from the one after two unsuccessful tries. The pass from center was high and the score remained 13-13.

Boys City 7, Mancelona 7
Boys City failed to show the power which had given them two non-loop victories early in the season and in the second period allowed Don Wilks to score from the one-foot line on a quarterback sneak for the Ironmen. Bob Jewell added the extra point with a kick to give the visitors a 7-0 halftime lead.

In the third period left halfback Chub Rothenberger scored from the one yard line. Several plays earlier he had put the ball in scoring position on a 45 yard run on a fake punt to the 10 yard line. Quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick passed to end Murray Northrup for the extra point to tie the game.

Boys City played without the services of regular fullback Bill Nulph who was out with a foot injury received Thursday when he cut his foot while chopping wood.

On the last play of the ball game guard Gary Newville twisted his knee. The injury is expected to keep him out of the Boys City line-up for some time.

Women's wardrobe inventories need to be detailed because they want many combinations and lots of variety. Men can inventory more quickly, and it is a practical way to make the most of every garment for the masculine side of the family, too.

Albert L. Wrisley Is Elected Head Of Resort Group

Albert L. Wrisley, manager of Cedar Lodge of Northport Point, was elected president of the West Michigan Tourist and Resort Association at the annual meeting of the organization at the Rowe Hotel in Grand Rapids last week. He succeeds B. G. Brown, Grand Rapids newspaperman, who served three years in the post.

Charlevoix county residents named to the board of directors of the association include S. E. Coleman, secretary of the Charlevoix Board of Commerce, Don Sheets of Boyne City and Arthur Johnston of St. James, Beaver Island.

No child will be accepted for care whose needs are purely for shelter, nor whose capacity to learn is not within the normal range, nor whose behavior problems are so severe as to make psychiatric care essential.

The site for the institution has not been selected at this time but it is expected that it will be built where the number of girls to be served is greatest in proportion to the already-existing agencies to serve them. It would also be located where other facilities such as schools, hospitals and special clinics would be available at the least cost.

Corps Of Solicitors Ready For Campaign To Raise $5,872.00

The Charlevoix Community Chest fund drive will open Monday with a corps of workers, more than 100 strong, going about the job of soliciting funds to meet this year's budget of $5,872. Dr. Walter Hoffman, fund chairman, has announced.

The annual drive will raise funds for the following agencies: Girl Scouts, $700; Boy Scouts, $950; Salvation Army, $325; Charlevoix Service Organization, $400; Community nurse, $1,000; Emergency fund which is used to purchase crutches and other emergency equipment for local residents; United Health and Welfare, $1,157; Charlevoix Hospital, $750; campaign expenses, $140.

More than half the workers attended a workshop at the city hall Monday evening to acquaint them with the drive and to distribute materials. Mrs. Charles Duerr and Mrs. Gordon Freedman, co-chairmen of the residential district drive, spoke briefly to the workers. Both emphasized the need for the co-operation of the entire community if the participating agencies are to continue to operate. In addressing the workers, Mrs. Duerr also said that it was important that workers call at every home in their area for if this is to be a true community project it is important that everyone be given the opportunity to participate.

William Van Raaphorst, who will head the industry division, said that both the American Mold Engineering Corp. plant and the Freedman Aircraft Corp. have adopted the payroll deduction plan for contributing to the Community Chest. Other local industries will be invited to participate in the plan.

A movie showing the benefits derived by small communities from the United Health and Welfare Fund was shown by Roscoe Scott, area representative for the Fund. A question and answer period concluded the workshop.

Rodney Crecede has been named chairman of the business division and will be assisted by Robert Lieberman, Jack Mailhot and William Supernaw.

In the outlying districts the following chairmen have been named: Beaver Island, Archie LaFreniere and James Gallagher; Hayes township, Mrs. Leo Berg; Charlevoix township, Mrs. Ted Bergman; Barnard district, Carlton Smith; Eveline district, Mrs. Russell Curtis. Chairmen for the Ironton, Marion and Norwood districts will be named this week, Dr. Hoffman said.

The following is a list of workers in Charlevoix. Look the list over and see who your solicitor might be and when she calls be prepared to receive her.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

HAVE YOU had the good fortune to hear the Mahalia Jackson show on CBS? . . . It isn't often that we tell you about a radio show . . . but don't miss this one . . . This Mahalia is the whole show as far as we're concerned and believe me, you ain't lived 'til you hear her . . . So take a listen come 10:30 Sunday night and see if you don't agree . . .

HAPPENED to run into the Harold Geikens in front of the office the other day and had the pleasure of meeting George and Jettie, a couple of daschunds that are part of the Geikens family . . . George who's 13 isn't a very friendly character but Jettie's as friendly as a pup (she's only three) and we understand gives George a bad time . . . Everyone very devoted to them . . . If we who has these dogs for pets are kinds of pooches for pets that we'd like we'd better get started . . . But for the present we'll settle for a Siamese named Suki who is well in command of the situation at the Martin home . . . And who incidentally, has no time for dogs regardless of their pedigree . . .

IF YOU happened to be watching the sports program on TV on a Cadillac you saw Bob Carey and his charming wife, Lynn . . . Bob's a basketball player, you know, with a 12 in in the Rams . . . Rams game last week . . . And did those Rams ever miss Bob Carey when they played the Rams . . . there was nobody, just nobody, who could hold on to those passes . . . A good game but local interest wasn't as high as it would have been if Bob had been in the line-up . . . But come next season, we're sure he'll be back in the game, cause, as you know, you can't keep a good man down and who comes any better? . . .

AND IF anyone knows where a friend of ours can get an easy shot at a deer with his lil bow 'n' arrow, please, won't you tell us . . . This is a plea in behalf of Steve Paterka who wants to shave . . . Seems he's growing a kind of a beard 'til he fills his license . . . And his chances of doing that? . . . We're sorry to tell you they're not good . . . In fact, at a recent archery meet he was awarded the crooked arrow for the lousiest score . . . So, please, won't you corner a buck and give Steve a quick call . . .

ALTHO' Harbor Springs didn't win the ball game the other night, it was a big occasion for the school . . . for their band was sporting their new uniforms purchased for them by their Band Boosters club, comparable to our Band Parents group . . . Charlevoix spectators, having been through the same deal, could appreciate how proud Harbor and their band are of the new outfits, which, we understand, are pretty sharp . . .

DESPITE all the rain and nasty weather, we've had a report of Easter lilies in bloom . . . Mrs. George Luck Sr. had one in her yard with six buds . . . The plant was rescued from the frost last week by transplanting it and moving it inside . . . Plants sure act their signals crossed some times . . .

Something like the strawberries that are making an appearance sans sunshine and warm weather . . . Clare Cotton had some in his garden which he shared with Ken Forbes which made our mouth water when we heard about them . . . In the spring you have to have almost perfect weather for the darned things . . . come fall, anything goes . . .

WHEN Charlevoix suffers a casualty at a football game it's usually one of the players . . . But this week we had to be different and who's in the hospital with cracked ribs? . . . Why one of the cheerleaders . . . Faye Meggison . . . 'Twas like this and not during the cheer leading antics that it all happened . . . She slipped on one of the logs that form the Ottawa Indian stadium and down she went . . . Results: a trip to the hospital Saturday, x-rays which revealed the injury and, we assume, limited action for a while . . .

WE KNOW a lot of reasons why Charlevoix has consistently good teams . . . In fact, we tho' we'd heard most of them but no . . . a new one popped up over the weekend . . . We re-played the game at least a half dozen times with various players and here's the new reason we came up with . . . No matter how good a game the guy played who was telling you about it all, he took great pains to tell you what a fine play this or that one of his team-mates made and called special attention to just about every other player on the team . . . When each player thinks that every other guy on the team is great, then you've got a team . . . And the 'big boys were pretty proud of the game the younger kids played too . . . You know, there's just something about all those kids that makes you think they're the greatest kids in the world . . . which they are . . .

BUT THERE'S one thing that's got to be remedied . . . If they're going to continue to broadcast games there's three players who are going to have to do something about their name . . . We mean the Walkers . . . At one time the other night there were three in the line-up, Dwain, Quint and Clay . . . and the announcer had Walkers going in every direction . . . And if you think it wasn't confusing . . . well, you try listenin' some time . . .

Mrs. Wayne Ford has returned to Grand Rapids following a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Johnson who observed their fifty-third wedding anniversary last week.

Inexhaustible Supplies

For centuries our favorite little brook has flowed there, not far from town. It roves as casually over the birch and evergreen covered acreage as a mischievous child's crayon line wanders over the living room wallpaper—without apparent design or reason. And like a child's supply of crayons, the brook is inexhaustible. Although it has been scribbling its informal, patternless markings over the landscape for centuries, the brook has never run out of its watery medium of expression. It still flows on. More likely than not it will be flowing from the springs near the road to the nearby lake long after our grandchildren have requested the world's problems and joys to their children and have passed on. Raucous will still come to the brook's banks to soak and rinse their feet in the cool, clean waters. Deer will drink and trout will dart there. Water striders will row across the invisible surface film. Boys of another day, of a new style of dress and a changed civilization, will come with old-fashioned worms to ply the ruffles for old-fashioned trout.

Why doesn't the stream run out of water? Thousands of brooks and countless rivers have been flowing across the earth's surface for millennia. Why don't they all run dry?

Imagine a huge vessel of water a mile long, a mile wide and a mile deep. The streams that flow into the sea carry enough water in a single year to fill 7,500 containers of that size. And those rivers have been running into the world's oceans for hundreds of thousands of years! Where does all that water come from? Why are the streams not exhausted? Why has the sea not run over and covered the entire earth?

The answer is found in nature's wondrous balance. A "water cycle" exists which makes for an inexhaustible supply of moisture on the earth. As the waters pour into the great lakes and oceans of the world, the sun goes to work on them. Its hot rays evaporate the water, drawing it up in the form of vapor. Winds carry the vapor-laden air into the cooler atmosphere where the air is unable to hold its vapor. There clouds are formed, and the clouds move across the heavens dropping their loads at last in the form of rain or snow. Wherever there is rain or wherever snow melts, new streams are formed or old streams have their flow replenished. Water stored in reservoirs or streams under the earth's surface break forth in bubbling streams and add to the surface supply. This reserve supply from underground may be the soaked-in remains of water or now that fell months or years ago. A kindly and wise Creator has fashioned the earth with a built-in balance of income and outgo, so that the ocean does not overflow nor do most rivers run dry.

Why do we ever dread the future? Why are we afraid of tomorrow's problems and testings? Isn't it because we are fearful that we won't have the needed supply of strength? Storms alone do not upset trees or all trees would fall in a storm. Some trees fall, while others remain standing because their roots are weak or their heart-wood sickly. Droughts exhaust cisterns but not artesian wells. Cisterns are limited. Artesian wells tap inexhaustible supplies of water. People react differently to trouble. Some are cringing and others courageous. And those who cringe in abject dread face no greater problems than those who tackle trouble fearlessly. The timid are not afraid of trouble. They're afraid of themselves—their limited strength. The brave are un-

Lucy Himebaugh, Larry R. LaCroix Married In Double Ring Ceremony

Bouquets of autumn flowers formed a setting for the wedding of Lucy Himebaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Himebaugh, and Larry R. LaCroix, son of Mrs. George Hardy of Boyne City, at the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. W. N. Carr officiated at the double ring service in the presence of 150 guests. Mrs. William Garrison, at the piano, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Charles Pontius and played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, selected a gown of white lace and net over taffeta for her wedding. It was styled with a lace bodice, sweetheart neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The full skirt was of net over taffeta. A net band edged with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and gladioli and ivy.

Lucille Himebaugh was her twin sister's maid of honor and Alice Himebaugh, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of yellow and aqua respectively. The gowns were designed with strapless lace bodices and full skirts of net and taffeta and worn with matching bolero jackets. The maid of honor wore a head-band of blue and white carnations and carried a bouquet of blue carnations and white roses. The bridesmaid's bouquet of pink and white carnations matched her floral head-dress.

Erwin LaCroix of Boyne City assisted his brother as best man and Patrick Fine of Grand Ledge, cousin of the bridegroom, was groomsman. Clarence Himebaugh and William Himebaugh, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Himebaugh chose a blue-grey orlon and nylon shantung dress, matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hardy, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy blue crepe suit, matching accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. George Fine of Grand Ledge, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. C. Y. Marshall, Mrs. Edgar Smith, Marilyn Fine of Grand Ledge and Linda Lumly of Boyne City, cousins of the bridegroom, assisted.

The couple will make their home at 1002 1/2 Bridge st.

The bride is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and is employed at the W. W. Mac Co. The bridegroom, a graduate of the Boyne City high school, is a member of the U. S. Army Reserve and is employed at the Freedman Aircraft Co.

Raub-Prevost Vows Exchanged In Ceremony At Greenfield Village

The Martha-Mary Chapel of Greenfield Village in Dearborn was the scene of the Saturday evening wedding of Anna Mae Raub and Kenneth R. Prevost, son of William Prevost of this city.

The Rev. A. J. Graham, cousin of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of autumn flowers and lighted tapers. Mrs. E. H. Bache was the soloist.

The bateau neckline which extended into short sleeves was accented with folds of taffeta. A matching lace cap secured her fingertip veil of French illusion veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of fuji chrysanthemums and ivy.

The Rev. Fr. E. F. Denay officiated at the double ring service in the presence of their immediate families.

The bride chose a ballerina gown of white Chantilly lace over satin designed with a V-neckline accented with a small collar and a fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves. A lace cap trimmed with seed pearls secured her fingertip veil and she wore a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. Her colonial bouquet was of pink and white roses and stephanotis.

Arlene Tooley, twin sister of the bridegroom and her only attendant, wore a ballerina gown fashioned similar to the bride's in pink net over taffeta with a high neckline and Peter Pan collar.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Gives Tables To Local Post Home

The Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 1153 presented 15 banquet tables to the Post Home as a gift from the Auxiliary at the regular meeting of the group at the Post Home Thursday evening, Mrs. Kenneth Staley, Auxiliary president, has announced.

The new tables match five others purchased by the Post.

The Auxiliary voted to contribute to the Community Chest fund drive which will open next Monday and to the Christmas and hospital funds for the V. F. W. National Home at Eaton Rapids.

Plans were also made for a potluck dinner for V.F.W. and Auxiliary members and their families to be held at the Post Home at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 24.

Two new members, Mrs. Eugene Gibelyeu and Mrs. Edwin Mann, were initiated into the organization during the impressive initiatory ceremony.

Mrs. Albert Russell extended an invitation to the group to hold their social meeting on Oct. 21 at her home.

Enjoy Roast Beef dinner at the Lutheran church Sunday, Oct. 17 — 4:30 p.m. $1.25 and 65c.

She carried a colonial bouquet of pink, blue and white carnations.

Richard Whale of Boyne City assisted the bridegroom as best man.

A reception for more than 200 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents in Boyne City Saturday evening. Preceding the reception, a dinner for the wedding party was held at the home of the bridegroom.

Both are graduates of the Boyne City high school. The bride is also a graduate of the Butterworth Hospital School of Nursing in Grand Rapids and has been employed at the office of Dr. G. B. Saltstall here. The bridegroom is a member of the Michigan State Police.

The couple will make their home at East, Michigan

Eastport Baptist Sunday School Is In New Contest

The Eastport Baptist Sunday school has entered the Christian Life Sunday school contest which opened last Sunday and which will close Nov. 14.

On the first Sunday of the contest the attendance rose from 95 to 145 members.

The greatest effort to further the contest has been made by the Young People's group which purchased a former school bus, re-lettered it to make it a Sunday school bus and presented it to the church last Sunday. It will now be used to transport the residents of the community to Sunday school.

Boyer City Road Is Opened To Traffic

The Charlevoix-Boyer City road on the north side of Lake Charlevoix was opened to traffic Wednesday, Ralph S. Hamilton of the Charlevoix county road commission announced.

Although the work on the road has not been completed the earth grading is now passable.

In an effort to create a contest, the Sunday school has been divided into two groups with two large thermometers to 'register' the increased attendance in each group. All members wear identifying badges and attractive posters have been placed about the community on Torch Lake, inviting the public to attend Sunday school.

Henry Allen spent the weekend on the island. He was accompanied by a party of friends.

Mary Kennedy was released Sunday from Little Traverse Hospital where she has been a patient for the past four weeks.

Tom Gatliff who has been on the sick list for the past month died early Monday morning. Part of his family came Saturday morning to see him. They were Perry Roberts, Grace and Eileen all from Chicago. His nephew Jimmy Gatliff also is here.

Anthony Greene spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Mary Greene.

L. J. Malloy left Sunday to attend a meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

Russ Palmer spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charvace Palmer.

South North Shore has been and up Emerald LaBlance of Charlevoix has been carrying mail and freight to the island.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley of Hammond, Ind., returned to their home there after being on the island. Mrs. Conley spent the summer here and he was here almost every weekend.

The White Swan owned by Dick Lyons brought a load of coal to the island Saturday.

"Doc" Collins and a party of friends from Moson spent a few days last week fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Nackerman are spending a few days with Rodney's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nackerman.

Ralph Napont is home again after serving his time in Uncle Sam's Air Force.

Dick Woodfield and a party of friends are vacationing at the Dr. Ludwick cabin.

Coast Guard Honored At Retirement Here

here from Ogdensburg, N. Y., where he had commanded the cutter Maple, for the past two years.

A quiet man, Mr. Rocheleau accepted the good wishes of his fellow Coastguardsmen and said that he planned to do a few of the things that he hadn't had time for until now. Heading the list is a trip to Florida this winter for him and his wife. On his return next spring, he said he is considering entering the farm implement business, a far cry from guiding Great Lakes traffic through hazardous shipping lanes.

Although his record in the service is a remarkable one, Mr. Rocheleau looks back upon it as a job to be done.

A native of Cheboygan where he still makes his home, he entered the Lighthouse Service at the age of 24 years during the critical years of World War I at a time when the yearly salary was $350.

His first assignment was at Holland where he spent five years before going to the South Manitou island where he spent three years. In 1925 he was returned to Holland and in 1932 was sent to the northern part of Lake Michigan to Lansing Shoals lighthouse located at the west end of the Straits of Mackinac. One winter he served as commanding officer of the Beaver Island lifeboat station during the "off months" when the light was closed.

In 1941, three years after the Coast Guard had taken over the Lighthouse Service, he transferred to the U. S. Coast Guard and was sent to the Aux Galets, known to Great Lakes sailors as Skillingalee. After 15 months there he was transferred to the Harbor Point light in 1945 as officer in charge, a position he held until his retirement.

His assignments at South Manitou Island and at Lansing Shoals are his most memorable ones, he relates.

The first because it was while saving on the island that he met and married the former Ida Beck in 1922.

The second because it furnished his most terrifying experience during his years of service. A fire, say where is a serious matter but in an isolated lighthouse at a time when there was no communication with the mainland it is especially serious.

The accident he had in mind happened in the spring 1932 when he was first transferred to the light to assist the chief keeper. While putting the lighthouse in working order and working on the top deck the pair noticed flames coming from the ventilators.

They rushed to the base of the light and found the engine room in flames. Realizing they were doomed if the fire got to the gasoline tanks, Mr. Rocheleau crawled into the room with a fire extinguisher and succeeded in extinguishing the flames but not before considerable damage had been done.

He said he had often been told that his act was a brave one but to him it was just a matter of self-preservation for if the fire had spread, the two men would have been forced to jump into the icy water of Lake Michigan in an effort to save themselves and the light, an important link in the Great Lakes chain of lighthouses would have been destroyed.

Mr. Auttersson, who was introduced to the crew at the lifeboat station which will be included in his command, is a veteran of 24 years in the lighthouse and Coast Guard services.

He, like Mr. Rocheleau, first enlisted in the Lighthouse service (in 1930) and in 1940 transferred to the U. S. Coast Guard.

Most of his lighthouse duty was spent aboard lighthouse tenders stationed at Sault Ste. Marie or Detroit. Among his ships were the tenders, Marigold, Amarenth, Walnut and Clover. After his transfer to the Coast Guard he became skipper of the Marigold during World War II and later commanded the Dahlia at Detroit and the Aspen at the Soo. After de-commissioning the Aspen, he served on the cutter Tamarack, spent some time in Cleveland Coast Guard office and in 1952 was transferred to Ogdensburg, N. Y.

Mr. Auttersson said that he and Mr. Etienne were old friends having relieved each other three times in the past 10 years.

Mr. Auttersson was accompanied here by his wife.

Mr. Etienne who now calls Charlevoix his home after spending five of the past eight years here, left by family here when he departed for Buffalo to assume his new command.

A veteran of 22 years in the Coast Guard he enlisted at Chicago in 1932 and served along the Atlantic and aboard the cutter Champlain before leaving the service for 14 months during 1935 and 36. He returned the following year, however, and was stationed at various lifeboat stations along the Great Lakes and served with the U. S. Navy in invasion maneuvers at Cuba and Puerto Rico. During 1941 he served with the Fifth Naval District until the outbreak of World War II when he was attached to the U. S. Attack Transport Amphibious USS Hunter Liggett.

During the next two years he participated in major invasions in the South Pacific including Guadalcanal, returned briefly for six months service in the Great Lakes before being assigned to submarine patrol duty in the Atlantic.

In 1945 he returned to the Great Lakes to serve aboard the icebreaker, Mackinaw and spent some time as commander of the cutter Tamarack before coming here as Group commander in 1947. After three years here he was sent to the Cleveland Coast Guard office to serve with the Operations Division and in 1952 was returned here as officer in charge.

Listed among his most prized possessions Mr. Etienne said, are commendations for meritorious service with the U. S. Navy during World War II from Admirals Nimitz, Halsey and Turner as well as from the U. S. C. G. Commandant. He has also received special commendations from the Coast Guard for participating in the invention of de-icing equipment for Coast Guard lifeboats.

ONE OUT OF TEN!

ONE out of every ten paychecks handed out in Michigan is paid by Motor Transport — did you know that? And the average annual wage it pays is about 25% higher than the average for all other industries!

That gives you some idea of how big and important the trucking industry is in this State.

Everything you eat, wear, or use travels at least a part of the way to you in trucks and trailers. And besides this, the trucking industry is a major job producer for your State!

No wonder it's said, "Trucks are your friends — serving you night and day!"

Charlevoix Wins Over Harbor Springs Rams 40-7

Rayder quarterback Tom LaBlanca carrying the ball in one of the many ground-gaining runs which resulted in a 40-7 victory for Charlevoix over the Harbor Springs Rams Friday night. Wearing white uniforms, the Rams are shown converging on the ball carrier from all sides.

Pellston To Play Rayders Here Friday Minus Veteran Bob Rudy

Action in the Northern Michigan Class C league this week will find Boyne City entertaining Gaylord, East Jordan traveling to Manelona and Charlevoix hosting Pellston in games scheduled for 8 p.m. Friday. Harbor Springs will journey to St. Ignace for a non-loop game set for 2 p.m. Grayling does not have a game scheduled this week.

With the Northern Michigan loan thrown into a turmoil by the disclosure Friday that veteran quarterback Bob Rudy of Pellston will be lost to the Hornets after it was found that he had passed his nineteenth birthday July 4, a decision regarding games played earlier with Rudy in the lineup had not been made Tuesday.

After declaring the player ineligible, Charles E. Forsythe, Michigan high school Athletic Association director said in a newspaper release Monday that the decision regarding the games lies with the conference and that they may decide by a poll of its members whether to ask Pellston to forfeit its games to allow them to stand or to

Little Rayders Defeat Petoskey Reserves By 7-0

Charlevoix's Little Rayders racked up their first win last Wednesday night with a 7-0 victory over the Little Northernmen on the Petoskey field.

The winning touchdown came late in the third period when Keny Balch on an end run romped 64 yards to score. Terry Davis ran the conversion over.

A Petoskey player, Allan Bachlor, received a broken leg during the game.

turn the matter back to the Michigan high school Athletic Association.

On Tuesday neither Pellston nor league officials had received any communication from the state association in the matter. It is understood that until such a communication is received, no action will be taken by the league.

In that case, present league standings will remain in effect.

Thus Pellston will remain in first place with two wins and one tie in loop play; Boyne City in second with one win and one tie; Charlevoix, third with two wins and one loss; East Jordan and Manelona tied for fourth, the former with one win, one tie and one loss and the Ironmen with three ties; Gaylord, fifth with one win and two losses; Grayling sixth with one tie and one loss and Harbor Springs in last place with one tie and two losses.

According to league rules, participants in tie games are credited with a half game each.

As things now stand, Boyne City will be fighting to hold its second place standing when the Ramblers host the up-and-coming Gaylord Blue Devils this week. Until Friday when Gaylord found their stride against Cheboygan they had a record of one win over Grayling and two losses to Charlevoix and Pellston but now they have become a strong contender for a higher rung in league standings.

At Boyne City Coach Tom Weede is re-shuffling his backfield in an effort to find a fullback to replace two injured players who earlier filled the spot. On Tuesday he said that he thought Leon Florinski, former halfback, would take over the position left vacant when Nels Northrup sprained his ankle in last week's game while substituting for Bill Nulph, who cut his foot in an accident. Nulph is out for practice this week but will not be ready to start this week, Weede said.

If both teams are in top shape, as they are expected to be, the game will be a close one with the results a toss-up.

The East Jordan-Manelona

Victory Gives Red Rayders Two Wins Against One Defeat

The Charlevoix Rayders continued along the victory trail last week with a 40-7 win over the Harbor Springs Rams at the Ottawa Indian Stadium Friday night.

The victory gave the Rayders a two win-one loss record for the current season with four games yet to be played.

This week the Rayders will host the Pellston Hornets whose title hopes were shattered last week with the loss of quarterback Bob Rudy, who was found to be ineligible. The Hornets will still be tough, however, and though the meeting will not be as close as anticipated, it will still be a good game with plenty of spirit on the part of the Hornets despite their loss. In fact, this may serve to inspire the Pellston eleven and make them a dangerous opponent, especially if taken too lightly.

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

The picture in the Northern Michigan Class C league changed radically and rapidly Friday when Manelona held the league-leading Pellston Hornets to a 7-7 tie when the latter played without veteran quarterback Bob Rudy who was found to be ineligible because of the 19-year age limit and Boyne City shattered an eight-year jinx and came through with a 7-0 victory over East Jordan Friday afternoon.

Charlevoix's 40-7 win over Harbor Springs Friday night put the Rayders into third place with a record of two wins and one loss behind Boyne City with one win and one tie and into second place if the decision regarding Rudy follows the trend of previous rulings and demands the forfeit of victories won while Rudy was on the squad.

In other games played Friday, Gaylord upset Class B Cheboygan 31-19 and Grayling trounced Lake meeting will be another close game. The two teams, tied for fourth place, have to date played only one common opponent, Boyne City. East Jordan was defeated 7-0 by the Ramblers who played Manelona to a 7-7 tie. If this is any indication of what to be expected this week, the game could go either way. Manelona, however, is known to lack a pass defense and if the Red Devils should take to the air, they could have a definite edge in the meeting.

Pellston is still in first place in the league but with the loss of Rudy, who not only called signals and held the backfield together but also did the team's kicking, the Hornets are very discouraged. Unless they snap out of their doldrums by Friday, they should be fairly easy prey for the Charlevoix Rayders.

Right now Coach Ray Brown is looking around for a quarterback and on Tuesday had almost decided to pull junior guard Jack Kerridge from his line position to take over the quarterback duties. Harry Ball, freshman quarterback who replaced Rudy in the line-up against Manelona Friday has a sprained ankle and will be out of the line-up indefinitely. Regardless of the shift, Pellston will have a "patched-up" backfield for, as Coach Brown says, you can't train a quarterback in a week.

In a non-league meeting on Saturday, the Harbor Springs Rams should be able to manage St. Ignace, who were defeated by East Jordan 40-0 earlier in the season.

veteran signal-caller Rudy who was running the team for the third year. (See story elsewhere in this issue).

With a freshman quarterback Harry Ball taking over, Pellston scored its only touchdown in the second period which followed a concerted drive which moved the ball to the 14-yard line. End Larry Carlson took the ball over from the five-yard line after taking a short pass from fullback Chief Shananaquet. Halfback Ron Kaiser ran the ball over for the extra point and a 7-0 lead as the half ended.

Early in the third quarter, however, Mancelona got its chance. The Ironmen marched the ball to the Pellston two but the Hornets line held and Pellston took over on downs on their own two.

In an effort to kick out of danger, the Hornets punt was blocked and Ironmen Terry Meeder fell on the ball on the Pellston 12 yard line. On the next play quarterback Don Wilks moved the ball to the one yard line from where fullback Gary Shisler went over to score. Wilks kicked the extra point to tie the score 7-7.

Boys City 7, East Jordan 0. Playing at East Jordan, a determined Boys City eleven, bent on breaking an eight-year jinx, came through in the first quarter to score their first and winning touchdown against the Jordanites.

Following a march that saw the ball move from mid-field to the two yard line on a series of plays, halfback Chub Rothenberger went over to score. Quarterback Bob Fitzpatrick passed to end Carl Charon for the extra point.

In the third period, Boys City fought their way to the 13 yard line but were stopped cold when the Red Devils held. East Jordan never got inside Boys City's 15 yard line.

Grayling 31 Lake City 0. At Grayling the Vikings had everything their way as they romped over the Lake City Trojans to the tune of six touchdowns.

Halfback Steve Jorgenson intercepted a Trojan pass and ran 40 yards to score and then passed from the eight to defensive halfback Tom Gibbons in the end zone to account for another touchdown.

Early in the game Jim Parkinson recovered a Lake City fumble in the latter's end zone for the first TD of the game when the Trojans, with their backs to the wall, were preparing to punt out of danger. Don Denton scored the extra point on a kick.

The second quarter was scoreless.

Annual Feeder Calf Sale To Be Held Today

Fifteen Charlevoix county consignors will be among the 50 who will sell their feeder stock, calves and yearlings, at the ninth annual Northern Michigan Feeder Calf sale at Gaylord today (Thursday).

The sale, sponsored by the Northern Michigan Beef Breeders Association in co-operation with the Extension Service of Michigan State college and the Michigan Department of Agriculture was expected to attract 1,400 head of young stock and thus set a new record. The present record was 1,135 head sold in 1952 for about $150,000.

The larger number of head which will be placed on the auction block this year represents the increased interest that is being shown in feeder calves in northern Michigan which has more grazing land than there is in southern Michigan, the source of the grain supply.

The increased popularity of the cow and calf program in the northern section of the state is due to two things, according to Association officials, an abundance of good grass lands with plenty of good water and a strong demand for feeder calves to go into the feed lots in the southern half of the state and northern Ohio and Indiana.

Consignments this year are far ahead of previous years in both number and quality. Prospects are that the cattle going through the auction ring will be the finest lot of cattle that have ever been in the Gaylord yards.

Wilton Finley and Harry Moxley of the Michigan State college Extension Service and specialists in animal husbandry will assist with the grading and sorting of cattle into uniform packages of from five to 15 head according to sex, quality, weight and breed. The stock is then sold in pen lots with approximately 135 different lots to be sold during the one-day sale.

Among the 15 Charlevoix county consignors who have 240 head of stock at the sale are Edward K. Shanahan who sent 40; James Gallagher of St. James, 19 and William Schmidt, also of St. James with 12.

Charles Robinson Attends National School Meetings

Charles A. Robinson, Charlevoix county Superintendent of Schools, has returned home from Washington, D. C., where, in company with Bruce Blanchard, Emmet county Superintendent of Schools, he attended the National Convention of County School Superintendents and a national meeting of Rural Education.

The theme of the educational conferences centered on the evaluation of the progress and plans for better educational opportunities for the 12 million children in the rural areas.

Mr. Robinson said it was inspiring to talk with educators across the country and to learn first hand of the strides that are being made for the youth of rural America.

Among the speakers at the last general session were Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Agriculture, Rolland Fuller of the Curtis Publishing Co. and Victor Reuther, assistant to the President of the Congress of Industrial Workers.

Mr. Benson pointed out that out of 40 per cent of the total school membership which represents rural areas are derived approximately 80 per cent of the public leaders. Yet, the greatest disadvantage of rural living is the lack of educational opportunities. It seems evident that rural people take more advantage of their opportunities than do urban residents in proportion to their total number.

Mrs. Robinson accompanied her husband on the trip.

County Taxes To Be Levied As Allocated

The Charlevoix county board of supervisors voted to spread the taxes as allocated by the county tax allocation board after a heated discussion during the first three days of the recent October session.

Following the action, school districts fractional with another county will receive up to eight mills to be levied on the county equalized valuation of $19,073,949.

The tax allocation board last spring gave the schools the extra millage when an opinion from the attorney general's office stated that the additional millage could be allocated as long as the total did not exceed 15 mills on the state equalized valuation.

As a result, North Bay No. 1, North Bay No. 2, Boyne Falls, Melrose township unit, Chandler township, St. James township, Murray district as well as the Charlevoix, East Jordan and Boyne City school districts will receive eight mills; Bay Shore, fractional with Emmet County, will receive 7 1/2 mills; Fourty, will receive 7 1/2 mills; Eveline No. 5, six mills; Eveline No. 4 (Norwood) five mills and Peaine and Undine districts whose budgets showed no need received nothing.

Ministers' Group Favors Present Law On Lottery

The Charlevoix Ministerial Association went on record at its regular monthly meeting last week as favoring the present Michigan law prohibiting lotteries.

The Rev. George Majors, president of the Association, said that the ministers strongly urge all Christian people and good citizens to vote in the Nov. 2 general election and to consider seriously voting 'No' on Proposal No. 4.

He went on to say that it is firmly believed by the clergy that churches and community organizations should be held to the highest standards in fund-raising. He stated that it has been pointed out that legalized gambling increases police costs. According to Virgil Peterson, director of the Chicago Crime Commission, "Whenever any form of gambling is legalized, the illegitimate off-spring of legalized gambling increases by leaps and bounds."

Mayor Asks Local Residents To Observe United Nations Day

Sunday, October 24, has been proclaimed United Nations Day throughout the world.

In Charlevoix, Mayor Dean Davenport has asked local residents to display flags and pay C. Davis, local chairman named by Mayor Davenport, has asked the ministers of all Charlevoix churches to observe the anniversary in some manner at Sunday services.

What is United Nations Day? It is the birthday of the United Nations, man's strongest hope for peace.

October 25, 1945, was the historic day when the United Nations officially came into being, the day on which the UN charter was ratified by a majority of the then 51 participating countries. Today there are 60 member nations with 20 others seeking admittance.

In 1947 the UN General Assembly passed a resolution sponsored by the United States which declared that October 24 shall henceforth be officially called United Nations Day. This international action established a day of world-wide observance for peace for the first time in the history of the world.

In the nine years of its existence, the UN has a remarkable record of promoting peace by settling political differences, bettering economic, cultural and social conditions; assisting millions of non-self-governing peoples and in preventing world-wide war. It is now a recognized fact that nations cannot live in isolation in a world of complex relationships and that security cannot be achieved within the borders of one nation. It is also known that the real enemies of peace are hunger, poverty, disease and ignorance.

It is admitted that in the nine years of its existence the UN has not solved all the problems which have plagued mankind since the beginning of time. But in that time it has learned that there is no short-cut for building a peaceful world.

The UN gives nations the opportunity to plan together for the good of all... an opportunity to understand and work out common problems and to resolve differences. The UN must, if it is to achieve peace and stability in the world, get its strength from the people themselves. That is why United Nations Day is celebrated... and that is why the people of the United States must dedicate themselves on this United Nations Day to the ideal of world peace and world unity.

County's Budget For 1955 Totals $156,317, Largest In History

A budget of $156,317 for 1955, the largest in the county's history was adopted by the Charlevoix county board of supervisors late Saturday shortly before the group adjourned its annual October session.

The new budget is $19,383 more than the 1953 budget of $136,933.

The increase was due chiefly to an increased welfare budget, increased officers and deputies salaries, the hiring of an additional turnkey at the Charlevoix county jail now required by law and appropriations for equipment and additional clerical help.

Largest appropriation made by the board was $35,000 to the welfare department, an increase of $5,000 over the 1953 appropriation which had to be supplemented by an additional $6,000 appropriation to complete the current year.

In addition to this, the board appropriated $9,000 for the construction of a septic tank and sewage disposal system and other repairs at the county-operated Grandview hospital near East Jordan.

Officers salaries were hiked from $3,210 to $3,500. The increase applies to elected officers and the director of the welfare department. The deputy clerk and courthouse custodian received an increase from $2,310 to $2,500 and the Friends of the Court $1,700 salary plus $325 for expenses. The county clerk was granted an additional $200 for extra duties required through his office.

A turnkey at the county jail now required by law necessitated an appropriation of $2,080, or a salary of $40 per week, seven days a week. The new employee will work from approximately 9 p.m. to 6 a.m.

An appropriation of $1,482 was made for the purchase of a Graphotype in the office of the county treasurer. This necessitated another $500 appropriation for an operator.

Other appropriations made include: county agricultural agent, $4,200, an increase of $200; district health department, $9,400, an increase of $642; Child Guidance clinic, $981.90; advertising, $1,200 which includes $465 to the West Michigan Resort and Tourist Association, an increase from $750; Whiting Park, $1,500; county superintendent of schools, $2,200; veterans' affairs, $300; soldiers and sailors' relief, $200, an increase of $100 and apary inspection, $150.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

WASN'T that sunshine on Sunday something to see? ... It made one almost forget the rain and the wind of Friday night and Saturday ... But, come Sunday night, it rained again so only heaven knows what the weather will be this week ... Surely there's some Indian summer lurking around the corner ... But what corner ...

THE WEATHER, however, didn't seem to dampen the spirits of the football fans Friday night ... A good crowd turned out to see our Rayders come through with another win and if we do say so, they looked pretty sharp ... We'll admit we had our doubts earlier in the season but they're coming around and may go all the way ... if they can come through with wins over Mancelona, Grayling and the biggest of hurdles, Boyne City ... But we'll take 'em as they come and hope for the best ...

And this week our hope will be that they can break Mancelona's freak record of four ties ... Last week when we were told that the Ironmen had tied East Jordan we just couldn't believe it and quick-like checked on it ... But it was true ... Why people are going around saying "I can remember when there was never a tie in this league" ... One thing's for sure ... they weren't speaking of the '54 season ...

VISITORS to Charlevoix who are unfamiliar with the local custom of leaving porch lights on all night often comment on it ... Last week a local tourist cabin

Births recorded at the Charlevoix Hospital recently include:

A son, Richard E. born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Donaldson on Oct. 18. Mrs. Donaldson is the former Katherine Elizabeth Gill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gill.

A daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. George Drenth of Ellsworth, Oct. 15.

A son born to Mr. and Mrs. John W. Valencourt of East Jordan, Oct. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Kise McCoy of Boyne City announce the birth of a daughter, Mary Catherine, born Oct. 10 at Lockwood General Hospital in Potoskey. Mrs. McCoy is the former Rosemary Cooper, daughter of Mrs. Clinton G. Cooper, a former resident now living in Saginaw.

which is just a block from where they live ... The two of them sent a big 'hello' to their friends back home ...

CAPT. Joe Howard stopped by the other day with an early history of Charlevoix and the Belvedere club being prepared by Bob Ware ... whose family first came to Charlevoix in 1883 ... From what we hear it's going to be a clever little edition with pictures and maps ... We're looking forward to seeing the completed product ... Maybe Joey will share his with us as he did this one ...

IT'S NOT too unusual these days to see four generations of one family ... And once in a while, you find a family with five generations still living ... But when you find a youngster who is the fifth generation on both sides of his parents' family ... well ... that's news ... And that's exactly what Bobby Donaldson is ... a fifth generation child ... with more doting grandparents than we don't know what ... You see, on his dad's side of the family there's his grandparents, the Bruce Donaldsons, his great-grandmother, Mrs. Charles Evans and his great-great-grandfather, Daniel Melhorn of Joliet, Ill. ... And on his mother's side of the family there's Grandpa Bud and Grandma Larue Gill ... great-grandmother, Mrs. Fred Gill and great-great-grandfather, Dan Swartz ... And if you're a little mixed up on all the 'greats', what do you think Bobby is? ... Wonder how his mother's going to explain 'grandparents' to him ...

ON Sept. 25, 1953, Kipke field was lighted as a memorial to the late John Knight who was serving as mayor of the city at the time of his untimely death in March, 1953 ... Recently members of the Knight Memorial Fund committee which raised nearly $5,000 to light the field in his memory placed a plaque on the field which carries the simple legend ... "Kipke Field lighted in memory of John Knight, ardent sports enthusiast, Sept. 25, 1953" ... Thus marks the conclusion of a successful venture ... When the lights were installed and the bills paid, the entire installation was presented to the Charlevoix public school ... no strings attached ... Today we of the Knight Memorial Fund committee look with pride on our accomplishment that many said couldn't be done ... It was completed in a little more than six months because a community believed in it ... Just another reason why Charlevoix's a good place to live in ...

AND DON'T forget to make a contribution to the Community Chest ... You owe a community something for allowing you to live in it ... Giving to the Community Chest is a small way of saying 'thank you' for the privilege of being a part of Charlevoix ... Most of the participating agencies have no other means of support so if you want the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts and the others to continue to operate, then dig down and give something ...

High School Band Completes Its Organization For 1954-55 Season

The Charlevoix high school band has completed its organization for the 1954-55 season with the election of officers, C. A. Odmark, band director, has announced.

Tom Swanson has been named president of the student band association and Jack Stebe has been elected to the important post of student director.

Janet Todd will serve the group as secretary; Faye Meggison as treasurer and Phyllis Williams and Sharon Belding as librarians.

A long-sought goal in the high school band program has been reached this year, Mr. Odmark said, in announcing details of this year's band plans. For the first time the Concert band, numbering 62 pieces, will be comprised almost entirely of members of the upper three high school classes, thus giving the band the maturity and experience so necessary in concert work. Twenty-three seniors, the largest in the band's history, are beginning their last year with the group.

By limiting the Concert band to upper-classes, the eighth and ninth grade music students have joined forces in an activity band to be known as the Varsity band. This group, which will number 39 members, will be active throughout the year appearing at athletic contests, pep meetings and school assemblies.

The Varsity band will make its initial appearance at the Charlevoix-Grayling football game Oct. 29 when it will join the Senior marching band in the special half-time homecoming festivities.

Officers of this group are David Miles, student director; Susie Duerr, secretary and Janice Stutzman, treasurer.

The complete roster of the Concert band follows:

Robinsons Meet R. Schroeders In Washington Motel

Charles A. Robinson, Charlevoix county Superintendent of Schools, who attended a national convention of county superintendents as well as a national meeting on rural education recently, believes that he was the last Charlevoix county resident to see and photograph the Richard Schroeder family before they left the United States for a two-year trip to Pakistan. Mr. Schroeder, former agriculture teacher in the East Jordan schools, has accepted an assignment to assist with the farming program in that country.

While in Washington with Bruce Blanchard, Emmet county superintendent of schools, Mr. Robinson couldn't quite believe his eyes when he first saw Mrs. Schroeder as she smiled at him in a friendly tourist fashion from the doorway of her Potomac Motor Court Apartment when he called at the next apartment for Mr. Blanchard. Not wishing to be too familiar, he called Mrs. Robinson, who had talked with Mrs. Schroeder only three days earlier in Petoskey, to investigate their neighbors.

Sure enough, according to Mr. Robinson, the open door revealed Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder and their four children jammed into the spaces between suitcases and other paraphernalia and the necessary furniture, sweltering in the humid 90 degree temperature. With them was Mr. Schroeder's father of East Lansing.

Shortly after the unexpected reunion, the Schroeders left Washington for New York enroute to London. After a brief stop-over there and at Beirut, Lebanon, the Schroeders were scheduled to arrive in Karachi, Pakistan Oct. 8.

Mr. Schroeder, who was at East Jordan for several years, resigned last summer to accept the position abroad. He will serve as a training officer in the farm machinery field in Pakistan.

The work involves training and assisting the Pakistani government officials in improving their mechanical farming methods in order to increase food production. His headquarters will be Hyderabad where Sing University and the government agricultural training school are located.

Mr. Schroeder spent 2 1/2 weeks in Washington becoming oriented

Red Rayders Defeat Pellston Hornets By Topheavy 34-0 Score

The Charlevoix Rayders took over second place in the Northern Michigan Class C league Friday night after defeating the league-leading Pellston Hornets 34-0 at Kipke Field.

The Rayder victory combined with Boyne City's 18-6 win over Gaylord moved the Ramblers into the loop lead with a record of two wins and one tie.

This week Charlevoix will travel to Mancelona to meet the Ironmen, who have the unusual distinction of a four-tie record this season. To date the Ironmen have met Pellston, Boyne City, Harbor Springs and East Jordan.

The Rayders lost to East Jordan by a 7-0 score but have defeated Harbor Springs and Pellston by lopsided scores of 40-7 and 34-0 respectively.

The local eleven has come a long way since the season opened and if they continue to improve should take the Ironmen. They will have to remember, however, that though the Ironmen do not have a strong offensive team they seem to have a pretty fair defensive team for even if they haven't won any games, neither have they allowed their opponents to score more than one touchdown against them.

The majority of the Varsity squad saw action against the Pellston Hornets as the Rayders racked up five touchdowns and four of the five conversions.

Halfback Gary Vandenberg topped the list of scorers with three touchdowns and two extra points to his credit while fullback Clayt Walker and quarterback Tom LaBlanc each scoring one touchdown apiece. Halfback Tom Erber ran the ball over for one extra point and Glen Ikens kicked one conversion.

Played in a high northwest wind that held passes and punts to a minimum, Charlevoix kicked off to the visitors who were defending the south goal. Pellston took the kickoff and returned it to the 32 but after failing to pick up yardage kicked on the fourth down. The high kick was caught by the wind and carried back to the 10 yard line where the Rayders took over.

On the first play Vandenberg went the distance to score. Ikens kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

The Charlevoix kick-off went into the end zone and Pellston took possession on the 20. Pellston picked up a first down but on the next play was caught behind the line of scrimmage on their own eight. Another Hornet punt was short and Charlevoix took over on their 10 yard line.

Pellston intercepted a Rayder pass on the next play, moved the ball to the 32 for a first down and then fumbled, with Charlevoix recovering as the first period ended.

With Erber, Vandenberg and Clayt Walker carrying the ball, the Rayders moved in to the Pellston seven, from where Vandenberg scored. Erber then carried the ball over to make the score 14-0.

Charlevoix kicked off to Pellston and after failing to pick up a first down, the Hornets punted into the end zone. The Rayders took over on the 20, picked up two first downs and then lost the ball to Pellston at mid-field when they failed to pick up the necessary yardage. Pellston punted to the Rayders on the 28 as the first half ended with Charlevoix ahead 14-0.

The Rayders kicked off to the visitors to open the second half and after racking up a first down on the 30, Charlevoix recovered a Hornet fumble. A series of plays moved the ball to the four where Clayt Walker went over for a third touchdown. Ikens' kick was wide and the score remained 20-0.

The remainder of the period was marked by the exchange of punts, off-side and unnecessary roughness penalties with Charlevoix in possession of the ball on the 38 as the period ended.

Halfback Bill Kolker moved the ball into the 23 for a first down to open the last period. An off-side penalty set it back on the 28 where LaBlanc took it on a quarterback sneak to score. Vandenberg ran the extra point.

The Rayders kicked off to Pellston who returned the ball to their own 40. Charlevoix recovered a Pellston fumble on the 38 on the next play but the Rayders fumbled before they could gain any ground. After a couple of plays which set the Hornets back on the 30, end Dwain Walker recovered a Hornet fumble and Charlevoix was again on the march. This time Vandenberg scored from the 25. Vandenberg went over again to score the extra point.

The Rayders kicked off to Pellston as the game ended.

Charlevoix To Play Mancelona Ironmen There On Friday Night

The Northern Michigan Class C football schedule will go into the home stretch this week as Pellston entertains Grayling in an afternoon meeting scheduled for 3 p.m. and the league-leading Boyne City Ramblers travel to Harbor Springs; Gaylord hosts East Jordan and Charlevoix journeys to Mancelona for night games at 8 p.m.

The Gaylord-East Jordan game is listed as the game of the week this Friday with the Blue Devils expected to take advantage of an opportunity to replace East Jordan in league standings.

Both teams have been victims of defeats at the hands of the Boyne City Ramblers who defeated East Jordan 7-0 and Gaylord 18-6. East Jordan, weakened by the loss of veteran lineman Jim Sherman, who is hospitalized with a back injury, plus the loss of several substitutes, will be the underdog in the meeting with the Gaylord eleven. At times the Gaylord Blue Devils have looked very good. They have the biggest line in the loop with some speed in the backfield, especially in halfback Jim Glasser. East Jordan on the other hand has speed but not too much in the line so Gaylord should have the edge in the meeting.

Pellston and Grayling will have much at stake, also, in their meeting this week. Pellston, who dropped to third place in loop standings after tying Mancelona and losing to Charlevoix, will have to win to stay in the running. Grayling, with a one-tie and one-loss record thus far, would like to move out of their present spot, sixth place in league standings, and this may be the week to do it.

Boasting some fast, hard-playing backs, Pellston hasn't too much else to offer in the way of opposition to the Vikings who might be able to take advantage (Continued on page 10)

Last Week With Class 'C' Teams

Boyne City, with a record of two wins and one tie moved into first place in the Northern Michigan Class C league after defeating Gaylord 18-6 Friday night.

At the same time Charlevoix knocked the Pellston Hornets out of first place by defeating them 34-0 to take over second place in loop standings while dropping the Hornets to third place. East Jordan and Mancelona remained in a fourth place tie while playing to a 7-7 tie on the Ironmen's gridiron.

In a non-league game played at St. Ignace Saturday afternoon the Harbor Springs Rams lost to St. Ignace 13-7.

Grayling had an open date and did not play.

At Boyne City the Gaylord Blue Devils, fresh from a 31-19 win over Class B Cheboygan, looked exceptionally good in the first period as fullback Dick Sklarck scored from the three yard line following a 67 yard march after taking the opening kickoff.

Their lead, however, was short-lived as halfback Chub Rothberger scored in each of the remaining periods. The first Rambler touchdown was scored on a run from mid-field to make the score 6-6 after the tries for the extra points were unsuccessful. In the third quarter, Rothberger scored again, this time from 16 to put Boyne City ahead and added another in the last period on a run through center for 13 yards.

Mrs. Dwayne Schweppe Writes An Account Of Life In Puerto Rico

In Puerto Rico as missionaries at the Brethren Service Project at Castaner, P. R., are Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Schweppe, formerly of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Schweppe is the former Lucille May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ramond May of R13, Charlevoix, who with her husband went to the Island in June to serve their church.

In a recent letter to her friends here she has written an interesting account of life in Puerto Rico which follows in part:

"What are your first thoughts when you hear Puerto Rico mentioned?"

Do you think of a place where people stroll leisurely along their way, in no hurry to get where they are going? Or do you think of it as a place where people live in slum cities or thatched huts? Or are your thoughts of dirt roads leading to sleepy sugar or banana plantations?

Perhaps you think of it as a vacation land for fishing, swimming or loafing, or as a place where many Communists live.

No matter what your thoughts, they will be right for Puerto Rico is all these and much more. It is a land of great contrasts between things beautiful and ugly, of new buildings and old, of Spanish and new world cultural patterns.

People do stroll along in their daily tasks at a leisurely pace but the island is growing up economically, intellectually, industrially and, we hope, religiously. There are still city slums. Many people live in very poor houses and there are still dirt roads, but many wholesome progressive changes are rapidly improving the beautiful, scenic island. Puerto Rico is truly a fine vacation land but it is more than that. It is a land that is awakening to its possibilities. We are working to raise the standard of living of all people and are succeeding. For these reasons there are few Communists, for Communism grows only where people lack adequate food, clothing, shelter and education.

Think of a land that has thousands of graceful palms, waving gently before cool mountain breezes, scattered along most of the coastal areas of the island. See, also, great, green ferns, tall, thin bamboo trees, countless numbers of colorful flowers blossoming almost everywhere. There are large and small towns growing up along the coast and many small towns in the mountain . . . country towns with coffee beans drying in the sun . . . streets that are narrow with overhanging balconies . . . large indoor and outdoor market places where most anything can be purchased . . . street vendors asking you to buy strange fruits . . . All these things, too, are a part of Puerto Rico.

In San Juan there are many beautiful buildings, the Capitol, up-to-date hotels, beach clubs, ball parks, race tracks, air fields, drug and department stores, traffic lights, policemen, fire stations, hospitals, schools, universities and industrial plants.

The people in the cities attend concerts and movies, lectures and sporting events. They read New York or Miami as well as local daily newspapers and listen to favorite radio news commentators speaking in Spanish. The 4-H clubs, Boy Scouts, Elks, Knights of Columbus, Masons, Lions and other organizations receive the same strong support as in the States. Here they support the Red Cross, Community Chests, have labor unions and many similar organizations.

Everywhere one sees a mixture of Spanish and American traditions and cultures. Spanish is the native tongue but most educated Puerto Ricans also speak English. Cock-fighting and baseball are both exciting sporting events. Beautiful modern houses stand side by side with old wooden or tin homes. They have many new cars but there are also oxen and horses still used as a mode of travel and transportation.

About 60 per cent of the people live in the country or in small towns. Agriculture is still the leading occupation and the main type of employment and source of income.

We live on a small island that has many mountains and rivers and we have to do much inten-

Farm Bureau Has Hallowe'en Party

Members of the Marion Center Farm Bureau gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Buchfinck on Wednesday evening for a brief business meeting and Hallowe'en party.

Wearing a variety of traditional costumes the group found the Buchfinck home gaily decorated in a Hallowe'en motif for the occasion, which included a social hour and refreshments.

A brief business meeting followed the party.

For instance, on our project farm, we have orange trees, banana and coffee plants growing on the same acreage at the same time. In the coffee region a few wealthy land-owners own most of the land. On each of these large farms or "finlas" we often find from 10 to 20 very large poor families. Some of these families own one or two acres of land where they can raise a few crops and animals but the majority of these people are exceedingly poor.

Our project is located in mountains southwest of Puerto Rico. We have a unit membership of about 30 people at the present time, including a doctor, five nurses, five full-time teachers, three maintenance and farm workers, three people who work with the boys and girls clubs at the community center, several who do social service work, some who do construction work and others who carry on a variety of duties. There is also a dentist, administrator and two licensed part-time ministers.

In closing let me compare a few things about the Puerto Rico of today and that of 1940.

In 1940, the young Popular Democratic party under the leadership of Luis Munoz Marin, present governor, developed an energetic program for economic, political and social development.

Net income per capita has increased from $122 in 1940 to $252 in 1952. The unemployment rate has decreased from 17.9 per cent in 1940 to about 11.5 per cent of the labor force. The number of manufacturing establishments increased from 798 in 1939 to 1,937 ten years later. In 1940 there were 297,099 students in school while in 1952 480,000 students were enrolled in various schools. The literacy rate has increased from 68.5 in 1940 to 79 per cent in 1952. The death rate has dropped from 18.4 in 1940 to 9 per cent in 1952. Life expectancy has increased from 46 years in 1940 to more than 60 years in 1952.

Many improvements are being made but much more needs to be done. We have electricity here but we still are 15 miles from the nearest telephone. Our sanitation and sewage system is still very poor in these mountainous areas. We have some good roads on the island but our entire transportation system needs to be greatly improved. With over 850 persons per square mile, we are confronted with many difficult problems . . . but where there is a will there is a way.

New FORD THUNDERBIRD

A personal car of distinction
...with Trigger-Torque performance

You'll be delighted at the wealth of conveniences the Thunderbird offers. Two tops are available: a disappearing fabric top . . . and an easy-to-lift-on hard top. The extra-wide vinyl upholstered seat is foam-rubber cushioned . . . power-operated 4 ways. Windows roll up . . . by power, if you like. There is a tachometer . . . and a clock with a sweep second hand. There is a telescoping steering wheel. And you can have power steering and power brakes.

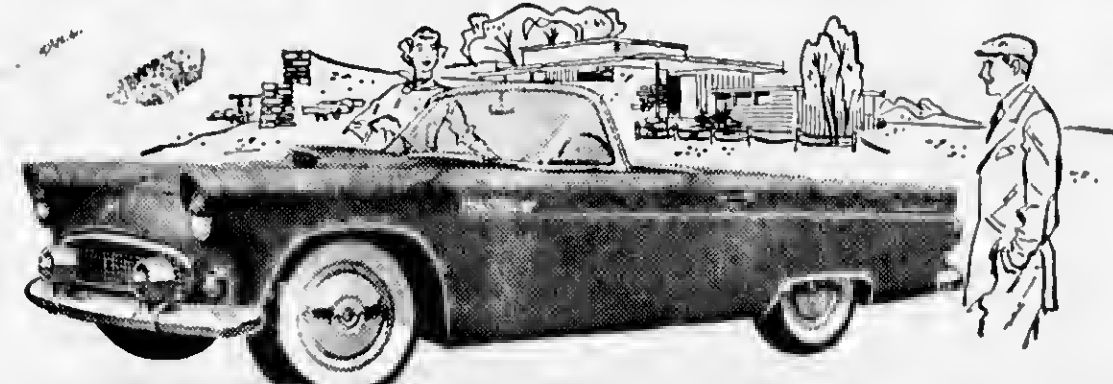

Something totally fresh is here—a bewitching new all-steel beauty that sets the styling keynote for other Ford cars to come.

But, styling gives the merest hint of what the Thunderbird has to offer. In traffic and on the open road the Thunderbird's Trigger-Torque performance is literally a revelation. Here is hair-trigger response . . . fleet, liquid agility . . . backed by a reserve of swift, sure power to meet safety's every demand. Trigger-Torque performance stems from Ford's new Thunderbird Special V-8—a high-torque engine with 4-barrel carburetor, dual exhausts, wide-opening valves and Ford's famous low-friction design. And you can have the Thunderbird with the transmission of your choice—Conventional, Overdrive, or new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic.

Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension not only velvet-cushions your ride, it also allows the Thunderbird to handle with utmost ease—to corner with greatest stability.

But, more important, the Thunderbird is the product of the same advanced engineering . . . the same manufacturing skills that have made Ford products so dependable, so value-full and so desirable to so many.

Pellston Must Forfeit Games

The Pellston Hornets of the Northern Michigan Class C league must forfeit two football games while an ineligible player, Bob Rudy, who was 19 in July, was a member of the squad following a decision made Tuesday night by conference officials at a special meeting held at Boyne City at the request of Gaylord.

With all eight teams in the loop voting on the issue, Pellston was requested by a majority vote to vote to forfeit games won over Gaylord by an 18-12 score and over Harbor Springs by a 34-0 score.

In making the decision, however, the league commended Pellston school officials for offering to forfeit the games as soon as the violation was discovered. The player, whom school records showed to be 18

Banks P.T.A. Will Sponsor Country Fair October 29

Ellsworth — It's going to be "Fair Weather" in Ellsworth, Friday night, Oct. 29. That's a promise for Banks P.T.A. members, are busy as beavers lining up the concessions, the midway, side shows, bazaar, etc. to give you a real taste of the Old Fashioned Country Fair at the Banks School Fairground!

This country fair (not county) brings you good, wholesome fun for the whole family, from grandpa on down. Of course, it's only fair that an affair of this kind bring a fair profit to the promoters! That's where you folks can do your share, with a fair! You might win a blue ribbon with your baked goods, farm produce, fancy work etc. that we hope you'll contribute to the bazaar, to be sold during the evening, what is not sold will be auctioned off later the same evening.

If you can't contribute in this way, won't you be generous with your nickles and dimes as you take in the fun on the midway, of the fishpond, shooting gallery, dart throw, ring toss or what have you?

Or maybe you'd prefer to spend your silver to see the side shows, which sound quite mysterious and amusing from the rumors, floating around.

When you get hungry you can buy a quick lunch any time during the evening, or patronize the popcorn and candy maids who will circulate through the crowd (we hope it's a crowd!) during the Fair.

We can't promise you rides on the merry go round and the ferris wheel or a gamble on a horse race, but we'll guarantee you'll never miss them if you

Gather up your family, throw away your care!

Provide ACP Funds For Soil Practices On Diverted Land

The elimination of the "total allotment" requirement for eligibility for price support on 1955 crops does not affect the availability of funds for encouraging conservation practices on land taken out of basic crops. Furthermore, says Le Roy Hardy, Chairman of the Charlevoix County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, the change in the program does not affect the need for taking care of land taken out of basic crops.

He explains that Congress provided an additional $55,000.00 for the 1955 Agricultural Conservation Program to take care of the conservation needs of land taken out of basic crops under the acreage allotment program. This diverted land is estimated to total from 35 to 40 million acres for the entire country and may run as high as 400 acres in Charlevoix county.

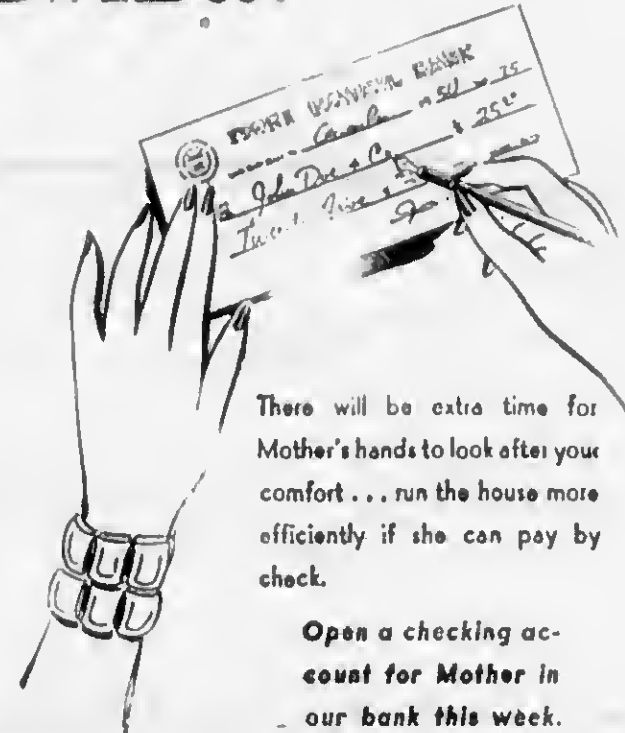

The Chairman stresses that to be eligible for ACP assistance in 1955 the Agricultural Act of 1954 provides that farmers must comply with all basic crop acreage allotments established for their farms.

The additional ACP funds, according to Mr. Hardy, will be used to encourage farmers to carry out recommended conservation practices on the diverted acres. The fact that the Secretary of Agriculture has eliminated the "total allotment" requirement of the 1955 adjustment program and has not removed the original restrictions on crop plantings on diverted acres does not affect the need for conservation of these acres.

Specifications for practices for the 1955 ACP are now being prepared, including practices that will apply to land diverted from allotment crops.

Smitty's Not-So-Silent Partner

Dropped into Smitty's gas station last week and met his new partner who turned out to be a real talker.

"What'll it be?" asked Smitty. Before I had a chance to answer I heard a strange voice "Fill her up! Fill her up!" And there was Smitty's partner—one of those parakeets perched next to the gas pump.

"Took me a month," Smitty said, "but I finally taught him to say those magic words. It's sure paid off—he's had a good influence on my oil buyers."

NOW SINCLAIR OFFERS ANTI-RUST FUEL OIL

CONTAINS RD-119 — New Sinclair Scientific Discovery that Stops Rust.

IN ORDINARY FUEL OIL this steel rod is rusted after only a few days in prescribed laboratory test where small proportion of water is added as part of test method. The inside of your steel storage tank rusts the same way because all fuel oil contains minute quantities of water, resulting from moisture condensation.

Stops Rust that clogs burner nozzles and strainers

Due to the injection of RD-119 at the refinery, Sinclair SuperFlame Fuel Oil now comes to you cleaner and purer than ever. RD-119 stops rust all the way from the refinery to your furnace — helps prevent the rust particles that clog burner nozzles and strainers. The Basic Idea Behind the All-New 1955 PONTIAC

On Display October 29 and 30

ABOUT 30 years ago General Motors Corporation presented to America a new car called Pontiac. This new car was the direct result of a very specific idea.

The idea was this: to create a car which took its style, its engineering principles and its features from the very best and most expensive in America—and to build these into a car priced just above the very lowest!

Naturally, such an idea produced a wonderful and highly popular car—a car which millions of satisfied owners have driven with outstanding pride and pleasure.

Now, nearly three decades later, an entirely new Pontiac has been created for 1955—a car completely new from the ground up!

One thing, however, about the 1955 Pontiac remains unchanged—its basic idea—to offer the American public the very finest car that can possibly be built to sell at a price within easy reach of any new-car buyer.

When you see the new Pontiac on Friday or Saturday—Oct. 29 or 30—you will be immediately impressed by its remarkable new styling. No other car in the world looks like this new Pontiac!

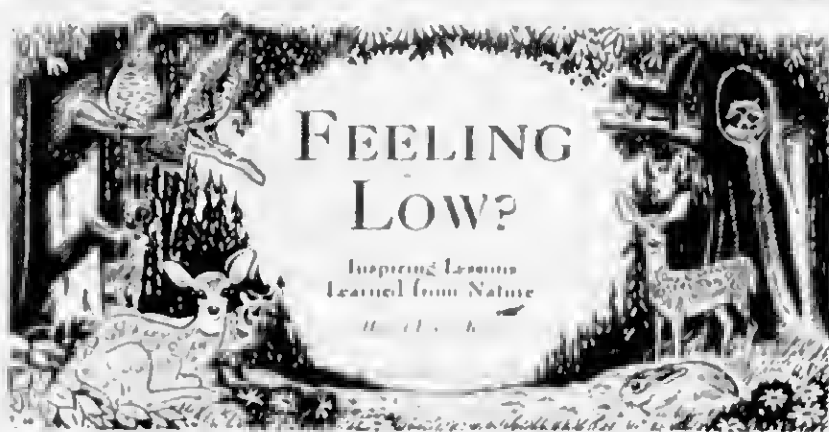

When you drive it you will be astonished at its performance. For the 1955 Pontiac introduces the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8, an all-new engine that has already been proved in more than 3 million test miles!

When you price the new Pontiac you will come face to face with the basic Pontiac idea—you will be agreeably surprised that so much car, so much sparkling newness, so much luxury, so much downright goodness can be priced so near the very lowest.

We cordially invite you to come in on Friday or Saturday and see for yourself what a superb all-new General Motors masterpiece has been created to carry the wonderful name "Pontiac" for 1955.

Like the Great Waters

(Reprinted by Request)

We are depressed when we see civilization destroying our natural resources. The forests fall before the woodsman's axe and the beauties of the northwoods are converted to ugly ashes by man's carelessness with fire. Wildlife disappears before the hunters' guns. It is heartening, therefore, to witness in our time a revival of interest in nature, and an eagerness for the restoration of our natural resources.

We have one resource, however, which, say the scientists, has not decreased in the least from the onward thrust of civilization. Within historic times there has been no change in the quantity of this substance. It is water. While the distribution of water may change, and there may be change in the form it takes, the actual amount of water present on our earth is about the same as it has always been since life first appeared on this planet.

Long before the white man visited this continent, the early Indian inhabitants used American waters. Their canoes glided swiftly along the shores of lakes and bays and down the broad rivers. They fished the streams. They bathed in pools. They prayed for and received the rains. They read the weather signs in the clouds scudding across the skies. They drank from springs and breathed the moisture-laden air. And the Indian, himself, had a body composed of more than seventy-five per cent water.

Since the white man came many changes have transpired and some resources have been woefully diminished. But, insist the scientists, although water has been redistributed, there is as much of it on earth now as there was five hundred, or five thousand, or five million years ago. It pervades all of life. Protoplasm, of which our bodies are made, is a suspension in water. Our bodies, like the Indians, are more than three-fourths water. And still, as in centuries past, land devoid of water would be devoid of life. Water comes from above us in the form of rain, from below us to make wells and springs. It is all around us in the lakes and streams and moisture-permeated air. It is within us in the air we breathe and in the tissues of which we are made. Above us, below us, around us and within us, the great waters, inseparable from life.

God is like the waters. He is above us, greater, bigger, holier than we are. He is around us, encompassing us with all He has made, into which His Creator Mind and Heart have gone. He is beneath us, uplifting us with His love and His mercy. "Underneath are the everlasting arms." God is within us. He has breathed into us the breath of life, His breath. We are spirit as He is Spirit, soul as He is the Soul. It is what makes us different from all other flesh, from the hunted deer and the slaughtered cattle and the cat that purrs by your fireplace. We are unique in that there is soul here within us, a touch of God's own nature. Like the great waters, God is above us, around us, beneath us, within us. And no real living can go on apart from Him.

Whenever this view of the all-pervasive, always present God, has been allowed to charge the mind and saturate the soul, the sure result has been peace of mind and a poised and confident spirit. . . . John Greenleaf Whittier had troubles enough for a dozen men to handle, but they did not unsettle him or upset him. He knew there was a Power, inescapable, but loving and good, like the great waters, around him and within him, a Force greater than life's hard circumstances. In that Divine Power Whittier placed his trust. Said that poet:

"I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise,
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.
I know not where his islands lift
Their fringed palms in air;
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care."

That is it exactly, His love and mercy underlying life and death, sickness and health, trial and triumph, like the great waters — God everywhere.

Charlevoix Rayders To Play Mancelona

of the Hornets' weaknesses and rack up a win. Grayling, if the field is dry, will probably come up with their first win in league competition.

Boyer City, playing at Harbor Springs, should not have too much opposition from the Rams who have yet to win a game this season although they have one tie, with Mancelona. Playing before a big homecoming crowd, however, may inspire the Harbor Springs eleven to come through with a victory over the league-leading Ramblers. This, in view of current records, however, is not very probable.

Charlevoix, in second place behind Boyer City, will go to Mancelona this week with the idea of breaking the Ironmen's record of four ties. The Rayders do not plan to become victim of a tie score as have Boyer City, East Jordan, Pellston and Harbor Springs. Mancelona may not have a strong offense but must have a strong defensive team, for despite the fact that they have not won a game, they have allowed opponents only one touchdown per game. The Rayders, however, should fare a little better and come through with a win but will have to work for it.

were playing the East Jordan Red Devils to a 7-7 tie.

After a scoreless first period, quarterback Don Kilks passed to end Don Phillips for the Ironmen's only touchdown. Bob Jewell kicked the extra point. The touchdown pass covered 12 yards.

In the third period, East Jordan came back to tie the score as halfback Bob Danforth went over from the five, Bob Darbee booted the extra point.

Mancelona threatened late in the last period and the game ended with the Ironmen in possession of the ball on the four-yard line as the final whistle sounded.

In four league games played this season, Mancelona has racked up an unusual record of four ties. St. Ignace 13 Harbor Springs 7

Playing on a rain-soaked field marked with mud-holes at St. Ignace Saturday, the Rams scored only once against St. Ignace.

The touchdown came in the second period when quarterback Tom Clarke went over from the 12 and carried the ball over the second time for the extra point.

Both St. Ignace touchdowns came in the last quarter. Left halfback Tony Accornero scored from the one-foot line with Bob Kalbfleisch scoring the extra point on a run to tie the score and Jack Adams went over later in the period from the one-foot line to add the winning touchdown.

Spirit, know-how and teamwork are what it takes to make a winning team; a team that knows its job, that carries the ball—and scores!

That's the kind of team you can field in Lansing and in Washington on November 2.

Top to bottom, you'll agree here's a lineup that will give Michigan the type of government to make you proud.

But—remember—you need the whole team. You need Donald S. Leonard as Governor to coordinate the effort, to provide the inspired leadership. You need the powerful voice of Senator Homer Ferguson in Washington to continue the fullest cooperation with President Eisenhower's Administration. And you need the full roster of capable, experienced, energetic Republican state officers working together to get things done for a greater Michigan.

County Fairgrounds Offered For Sale To East Jordan Schools

The Charlevoix county fairgrounds, located at East Jordan and the site of the Charlevoix county fair for the past 65 years will be offered for sale following a decision made last week by the Charlevoix county board of supervisors during their regular October meeting.

The board voted to offer the 40-acre plot plus the grandstand and ticket office to the East Jordan school district for a minimum of $1,000 for use as an athletic field.

The board reserved the right to sell the remaining 11 buildings, most of them large exhibition halls, to the highest bidder over a period of two years.

The decision to sell the property followed an earlier decision made by the county fair board not to open the fair this season. The once-popular fair was closed during World War II and since it was re-opened had operated in the black only one season.

The board of supervisors had paid the deficit and the cost of insuring the buildings which amounted to approximately $250 per year.

When the 24-member fair board decided to discontinue the fair the board of supervisors voted to sell the installation rather than continue to finance the cost of maintenance and insurance.

The history of the Charlevoix county fair goes back more than 70 years. Jess Smith, veteran fair board member said. The site of the earlier fairs was a field north and east of the present East Jordan school. Following a re-organization of the fair board the fair was moved to the present site in 1889.

A plea has gone out from the Pack Committee for a Den Mother on the south side to take over Mrs. Edward Heise Jr.'s Den which has been together for a year. The Committee feels that it would be an injustice to the boys to allow them to drift from the organization for lack of a Den Mother.

In reporting on the results of the drive to date, Dr. Hoffman said that the response to the fund drive which solicits funds for eight Community Chest agencies had been gratifying. He went on to say, however, that everyone in the area must contribute if the drive is to be a success.

At this time no report has been received from the outlying rural districts. It is hoped that contributions from these areas and additional contributions in Charlevoix will put the drive over the top by Nov. 1.

The Community Chest fund drive solicits funds for the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Charlevoix Service Organization, Salvation Army, Community Nurse, United Health and Welfare Fund which embraces more than 30 organizations, Emergency Fund and the Charlevoix Hospital.

In reporting on the results of the Community drive thus far, Dr. Hoffman said that special mention should be given to Rodney Creede who is soliciting the business district, William Van Raaphorst who is contacting industries, and the area captains whose hard work and fine organization has been instrumental in making the drive a success to date.

Services Held For Hiram C. Pearl Lifelong Resident

Funeral services were held at the Pontius Chapel Monday with the Rev. Harold E. Kohn of the First Congregational church officiating. Burial was in Brookside cemetery.

Important Election Tuesday Expected To Bring Out Light Vote

Charlevoix county voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to cast their ballots in an important "off-year" election.

Despite its importance, however, a comparatively small vote is anticipated at this time, according to Fenton R. Bulow, Charlevoix county clerk who is in charge of elections in the county.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. at all voting centers.

All county and city offices as well as banks will be closed Tuesday for the 1954 general election.

The race for sheriff of Charlevoix county is the only local contest on the ballot and not even that is expected to bring out the voters. In this contest Glenn E. Rose, Republican candidate for the office will be opposed by Gerald N. Johnson, Democratic candidate who was unopposed in the primary election. Rose won the Republican nomination over six other candidates in the Aug. 3 election.

Both are seeking election to the office being vacated by Floyd W. Ikens who was not a candidate for re-election after serving 22 years in the office. His term will expire Dec. 31.

The race for governor which has pitted incumbent G. Mennen Williams who is seeking his fourth term, against Donald S. Leonard, former Michigan State Police Commissioner and head of the Detroit Police Department, is expected to be the biggest drawing card in the forthcoming election. This race is expected to be the closest of any on the ballot.

Patrick V. McNamara, a Democrat, will oppose incumbent Republican Homer Ferguson for the post of U. S. Senator in another important race.

Four important proposals will be presented to the voters in Tuesday's election including the Proposal No. 4 relating to lotteries. Others are proposed amendments relating to sales tax and distribution of sales tax revenues; a proposal relating to the disqualification of voters and a state bonus for Korean War veterans.

All qualified electors are urged to take their duties seriously and visit the polls on Tuesday to cast their ballots in this important election.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin will be closely associated with the operation of the business which will continue to be located at 103 Antrim st.

The business will include Cadillac and Pontiac sales as well as a complete parts and service department operated by a staff (Continued on Page 4)

Highway US 31 Open To Traffic

More than 900 youngsters from the kindergarten through the senior high school will be guests of the Charlevoix Kiwanis club at the annual Hallowe'en party scheduled for Thursday.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

HOW DO you like this Injun summer we've been having? It could go on til Christmas as far as we're concerned. With most of the leaves off the trees, there's a smell of autumn in the air. Or is it just leaves burning. Whatever it is, it's been ideal. As we said, it could last til Christmas but we know that's wishful thinking.

AND HOW about those football games over the weekend? Michigan was wonderful, State's heart-breaking and on Sunday. Well, we haven't words to describe our sentiments about the Lions-Forty-niners game. The West Coast team couldn't do anything wrong and the poor Lions couldn't do anything right. But you can't say they didn't try. Wouldn't you hate playing pro football for your bread and butter.

IF YOU'D like to knit something real fetchin' for Christmas we know where you can get the directions. From Mrs. William Ratigan who picked up some 'dillies' at the recent White Elephant sale. Of course the directions are for sweaters and what have you (even knitted knickers, if you can remember them) that were fashionable in the early '20's. But with Dior and his 'new look' well, we just thought you'd like to know where you could find the 'look'. And so help us, you'd never believe that people actually wore these creations... but they did, honest.

WERE A little late with our good wishes but better late than never, they say. So, a belated happy birthday to Mrs. John (May) Bugbee who observed her ninetieth birthday anniversary on Saturday. She's over at Grandvue hospital where her cousin, Mrs. Sabra VanDyke of Rothburg, joined her for the occasion.

Meet The Rayders

This week's 'Meet the Rayders' introduces the second of two brother combinations on the Varsity squad this year. They are Jack and Jerry Siebe pictured here with Ralph Lewis and Walt Pouquette.

Jack, 17 and a senior, ht. 5 ft. 7 1/4 in., wt. 148 pounds, plays center.

His younger brother, Jerry, 15 and a junior, ht. 5 ft. 7 in., wt. 120 pounds plays guard.

They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Siebe.

Ralph Lewis, 16 and a junior, ht. 5 ft. 10 1/4 in., wt. 148 pounds, plays tackle and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Tunnison.

Walt Pouquette, 16 and a junior, ht. 5 ft. 10 in., wt. 160 pounds, plays center and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pouquette.

picking up little things you know he'll like. And make a little extra effort to get something off to some serviceman even if he doesn't belong to your family. Everyone likes to be remembered. And Christmas spent in another land is a sad time, but you can make it a little brighter by remembering. And don't forget, the big day is less than two months away.

DID YOU ever stop to think what it would be like to know you had a family some place and yet not know who they are? We'd never given the matter much thought because our family is so close, but last week we had a peak at such a situation and we don't think we'd like it.

A woman, now in her late 40's, learned only a short time ago that she was adopted as a child by a foster mother she always believed was her own mother. She's learned that she had a sister but that's all she knows except that she was born in Charlevoix county. She's now trying to trace her family and see what she can find. The whole story about Mrs. Edwards Venesky and her search is included in a story elsewhere in this issue, so if you think you know anything about her, won't you write to her. If you'd talked to her as we did you would know how much she would appreciate your help.

IF YOU'RE a big brave soul with two sets of red flannels at least to keep you warm, there's a chance you'll get some perch if you have patience. We're told that the perch run is going great guns and the catches have been good. But us? We'll get ours at the fish market. It's just simpler that way.

HOW ABOUT the show the Charlevoix and Pellston bands put on at half-time last week. With more than a hundred young musicians participating it was really something. Especially when you considered the fact that they'd never worked together before. A mark of fine training, we'd say. And we hope that they'll be more such shows. They're loads of fun and sure give the kids a chance to strut their stuff.

If your new winter cotton has a dull or textured finish, you'll get best results by pressing it on the wrong side of the fabric, advise clothing specialists at M.S.C.

BIG AND Small Business will be bailing out the state treasury for years with a "temporary" tax not expected to die.

Tax authors in the legislature already are planning to extend the $32,000,000 business activities tax beyond its June 15 deadline.

Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), considered a tax expert of some talent, figures it's the way out because nobody has complained and the money is very nice indeed.

"Where else can we get $32,000,000 a year so easily?" he asked.

The tax started as an unwanted child two years ago when the legislature was frightened by the deficit of $65,000,000. Gov. Williams pouted that it might help the state's financial position, but let it become law without his signature. He favored a corporation profits tax.

Businessmen fought it originally because they were hazy about it... and a flexible tax bill in the hands of legislators can be a lethal thing. Later, after study, business and industry supported the measure.

Now everybody is happy about the whole arrangement. At least on the surface.

Legislators figure they can keep the tax on the books and keep the cash rolling in without causing a stir. Businessmen feel it's a better tax than one on incomes over $10,000 or others equally obnoxious.

HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER Charles M. Ziegler would like to build roads with the proposed $500,000,000 bond issue.

Gov. Williams would like to name a 50-member statewide commission to tell him where they should be built, hunting for the Ziegler would bow to political demands.

For Ralph V. Case of Lansing is organizing one group to oppose U.S. 127, S-1 U.S. 27, which go through the center of the state, making local merchants delighted with their free-spending tourists.

Others are pushing for a super-highway along the routes, U.S. 23 along the Lake Huron shore, on U.S. 31 and 131, all figuring on a tourist bonanza.

Without premeditation, the groups are (1) becoming ready-made campaign organizations for the bond issue when it hits the ballot next year; (2) confusing Ziegler and his long range plans.

Ziegler is sure taxpayers will complain mightily if the $500,000,000 is spent on a single highway. He said a Detroit-Muskegon superhighway is one of the top priorities, anyway.

Then, Ziegler thinks the local promotion groups may have been misled. He put it succinctly: "Superhighways don't go through towns of any size."

MICHIGAN'S undermanned State Police force has a better chance now of getting 114 more men from the 1955 legislature.

They have been praised and applauded in the past for their deeds, but the state hasn't had money to increase the size of the outfit. Now it's different.

"How can we hold off now, after the job they did Labor Day?" mused one legislator.

The State Police, aided by the National Guard, sheriffs and local officers, held the holiday weekend toll to 22 deaths on the high-

Courier To Run Series Of Safe Driving Lessons

Police Chief Clarence Heise today announced a series of 10 safe driving lessons dealing with pedestrian safety. These are being run by the Courier as a public service to assist in saving the lives of local residents while they are on foot in traffic.

"All motorists and pedestrians are urged to study the illustrations which will be shown in the series because they represent the most common types of difficulty which result from mixing the man on foot with the man on wheels in the traffic stream," the Chief said.

"In traffic it's what you don't know and don't understand, and therefore not prepared for, that gets you into trouble," he added.

According to Chief Heise any motorist or pedestrian who learns these 10 lessons will be much less apt to become involved in a pedestrian accident than a person who has not thought out these practical driving and walking situations.

In calling upon all motorists to cooperate with the pedestrian protection program the Chief said, "Just remember, there's an awful difference between banging up a fender and hitting a pedestrian."

Signs Placed To Show Location Of Run-Off Plots

Signs showing the location of the Run-off Plots were placed in position last week by members of the Charlevoix Soil Conservation District board of directors and the East Jordan FFA class. The large 4x8 sign near the gate explains that these run-off plots are sponsored by the Charlevoix Soil Conservation District and assisted by the East Jordan FFA and their Advisory Council.

There are four run-off plots each 125 feet long. Individual signs for these showing the type of farming that is being practiced have been placed at each plot. The first three are a rotation of corn, oats, hay, hay, hay. One of which is planted up and down hill, the second across the slope, the third in contour strips and the fourth plot is in continuous grass.

Ed Rehman, county agricultural agent and secretary of the district board, states that the land has been leased from H. Brock for 10 years and the project will be carried on by the District and the FFA for that time. During the next week the tanks will be pumped dry and the amount of soil lost during 1954 will be measured.

Visitors are welcome to look at the plots and see the program that is being carried at the run-off plots.

Last Week With Class "C" Teams

Bill Streeter broke the tie as he scored from the six inch line and in the last quarter Danforth sent over again, this time from the one foot line to give the Jordanites an 18-6 win.

Pellston 6 Grayling 0
In a game marked by fumbles, costly penalties and numerous scoring threats by both teams, Pellston racked up its first official win of the current season after losing two earlier victories by forfeiture. This week's victory was over the Grayling Vikings, by a score of 6-0.

The Hornets scored their winning touchdown on the first play of the last period when halfback Merlyn Davenport carried the ball over from the seven on a pitchout. The attempted conversion was not good.

The ball had been placed in scoring position late in the third period when halfback Russ Ehn-hurst carried the ball from mid-field to the Grayling 10 where he was tackled and fumbled the ball. Hornet quarterback Ron Kus-r fell on the ball on the seven to regain possession as the period ended. Davenport went over from the seven as the last period, opened.

In the third period Grayling's Lloyd Failing had scored from the 40 but the play was called back when a Viking was offside on the play. A second try for the TD was unsuccessful and Grayling ended up on the short end of a 6-0 score.

Alpena Woman Is Searching For Relatives

Did you ever know anyone by the name of Byron Holmes?

If you did there is a woman in Alpena who would like to know about it for she thinks that he is her father and she is searching for him.

She is Mrs. Edward Venesky of 819 Chisholm st., Alpena, who was adopted as a child and only recently learned that Mrs. A. M. McLearn of Alpena was her foster mother and not her own mother.

As Mrs. Venesky has pieced the story together, she was born in Charlevoix county on April 4, 1906. This she learned from a 'delayed' birth certificate filed at the Alpena county courthouse following her adoption by Mrs. McLearn from an orphanage in Coldwater. The birth certificate listed her name as Viola Holmes and her father's name as Byron Holmes but stated her mother's name was unknown.

She does not know the circumstances regarding her placement in the orphanage nor does she remember being taken from the home. She has learned, however, that Mrs. McLearn returned to the orphanage later to adopt her sister but found that the sister had been adopted by another family. A check of records at the home has revealed nothing.

Mrs. Venesky visited here Saturday and plans to return later if she receives any further information regarding the matter. So if you have information, no matter how minor, which might help

Mrs. Venesky, won't you please forward it to her at the address given above.

15 Years Patience Wins 15 Pound Pike

Patience and persistence over a period of 16 years paid off for a Lansing fisherman, Fred W. Shaver, a summer resident at the Isle of Pines, and his guest, B. L. (Bud) Hewitt, also of Lansing, when the pair, fishing in the south arm of Lake Charlevoix off Eveline orchard caught a 42 inch, 15 3/4 pound Great Northern pike.

The fish was caught on a 10-lb. line while the pair were fishing for bass and perch and necessitated the beaching of the boat to bring it in.

Mrs. Shaver said that her husband had fished that section of the lake since they first came to northern Michigan and this was the first time he had ever caught anything as large as the big pike.

Accompanied by the Hewitts, they had come north to close their Isle of Pines cottage and the men had braved the cold, rainy and windy weather to have a last day of fishing when they caught the big one.

District Legion Rally To Be Held Here In December

Tentative plans for the Lower 11th district rally to be held here in December were discussed at the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Harry Webster.

Auxiliary members were named to assist in the preparation of the Legion hall for the event, which will be attended by Legion and Auxiliary members from throughout the north.

Mrs. William Flynn was appointed musician by the president Mrs. Leo Allard.

Plans were also made to attend a Lower 11th district meeting of Auxiliaries at Harbor Springs Wednesday evening. Several members planned to represent the local group.

A social hour and refreshments served by the hostess and Mrs. Charles Martini concluded the meeting.

Hairdressers Hold Northern District Meeting Recently

The northern district association of National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists held their regular meeting at the Modern Beauty shop in Petoskey recently.

A hair coloring demonstration was given by the staff of the host shop at the conclusion of the business meeting.

Among the 16 members who attended the meeting were Mrs. Alvin Morrow and Mrs. C. H. Sternberg.

Prepare Compost For Spring Garden

This is a good time to make that cheap compost pile for your garden next spring.

Ed Rebman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent, reminds that a compost pile made right will pay off in better vegetables next summer.

He points out that you can use such waste as leaves, weeds, lawn clippings, corn stover, garden refuse and straw. And you can even use garbage if it's free from grease.

Soil scientists at Michigan State college suggest using a complete fertilizer, such as 10-6-4, and a small amount of limestone to make the compost more valuable.

They advise building the compost pile in layers with a few handfuls of fertilizer and lime over each layer. A little garden soil on each layer helps the material decay better. The pile should be saucer shaped so it will stay moist from the rain or water-sprinkler.

Report on State of the City

By Mayor Dean Davenport

This report supplements that which was published in the Courier last April 1954. Since that time I have received numerous comments from many citizens, all of them in effect, stating that they were not aware of the various departments that operate within the City. Neither were they aware of the many problems that are constantly presented to your City Council.

It being the desire of your present City administration to do the very best job possible for you, we hope that you will read this carefully, ask questions concerning any phase of City business which may not be clear to you, and also, let your ward alderman have the benefit of any suggestions which you may have to improve the efficiency of your City government.

ELECTRIC: Long range planning for our electric department is proving to be well founded. We now have in operation our two Cooper-Bessmer engines, this adds 1,000 Kilowatts to our previous capacity. These engines were installed almost entirely with our own force and with a minimum of disruption to our normal work. The cost of this equipment completely installed is (in round figures) $10,000 for building expansion, and $80,000 for the equipment. We have been paying on this project as the work progressed and on the 15th of December this year the final payment will be made. To make such an installation without becoming involved in a long term debt, is, we feel, a major accomplishment. Our present plans call for the purchase of an additional engine generator of 1136 Kilowatts to replace the old 250 K W unit which has outgrown its usefulness. This proposal has been submitted to the State Finance Commission for appraisal and will be processed under the new Bill 1102 which was passed last spring in the State Legislature. This expense will be net from the revenue of our electric plant and will be paid for over a two year period. Barring any unforeseen demand for power, this will take care of our needs until 1959 at which time, a major overhaul of our power plant switchboard will be necessary. Based on what has transpired the past two years it undoubtedly will be necessary to add another engine generator of around 3,000 KW capacity at that time. We now have sufficient room in our existing building for this equipment so that it will not be necessary to add that expense to our expansion program. As you can well conclude our electric load is steadily increasing and we have every reason to hope that it will continue to grow. The public can now take the fullest advantage of using electric power for all uses in their homes. Selling power is a profitable business and in our case the profit goes to the City instead of an outside Corporation. As we are able to earn more money it will be spent on plant expansion and we hope to install new and modern street lights on our main street, and to extend the street lighting in residential areas. This service will not result in an extra tax burden but will be a dividend to our citizens from your electric plant. If we were buying street lighting the bill would be about $15,000 per year which would come from tax funds.

Perhaps it would be well to give you some figures which show the growth in our gross earnings. Of course our expenses have increased, but it is also true that the more electricity we sell, the less per unit cost.

Gross income 1953	Month	Gross income 1954
11,538.20	January	13,733.17
10,530.56	February	11,409.14
9,880.42	March	11,386.26
10,718.14	April	12,760.72

WATER: Your Water department has been extended by the laying of 2500 feet of new main and as you know we have completed the change of billing your water to a monthly basis. You will have also noticed that a 10% deduction is shown on your water bill. This amount is credited to you toward the cost of purchasing the water meters. Eventually the City will own, operate and maintain the water meters. As announced in the previous report your water rates have been raised. This was a very necessary step as the department was earning barely enough to pay for the operation and normal maintenance. It is important and absolutely necessary that some capital expenditures be made. Last summer one of our pumps broke down and for several days we had only one pump for our entire water supply. This pump is many years old and had it broken down we would have been without any water supply at all. We propose to purchase a new pump and it is extremely important that we lay some new water main extension each year, plus a new large feeder main to the South edge of the City in order to feed back into that part of town. These expenses must be met by the water department and not added to taxes hence the rate increase to pay for these improvements.

SEWAGE: Your Sewage system rates were increased for the same reasons as listed above. Our plant was built in 1935 and financed by Revenue Bonds which according to law were to be paid for out of revenue from the sewage system. Instead, this expense was added to the tax structure. Several years ago a nominal charge was instituted which raised sufficient funds for only the operation and maintenance of the plant which still left the Bond payments to be made from taxes.

We are now in a sound financial basis and in four more years our plant will be paid for. How fortunate we are compared to some of our neighboring cities who are installing sewage plants at today's high prices and who are floating bond issues to pay for them which will be a much greater financial burden than ours and will last for many years. It is interesting to note that the flow records of this August are the highest on record for both water and sewage departments, indicating more customers and greater use of these utilities.

FIRE: This department is functioning smoothly and our new fire truck with its 750 gallon per minute pumper will be delivered about the 1st of the year. The cost of this new equipment will come out of this and next years budget. New contracts for providing fire protection to our surrounding townships have been approved and duly processed. These contracts replace the old outmoded agreements and are in line with recommendations made by the State Fire Marshall. We will not be able to provide the necessary protection to the townships and yet retain full protection in town at the same time. Had this plan not been approved it undoubtedly would have meant an increase in rates for fire insurance in the City.

STREETS: The Street program is progressing and we have received many nice compliments from visitors on the cleanliness of our streets, parks and beaches. It is hoped that a road grader can be purchased next year. With this new tool we can do our own street work of widening and grading. The recently purchased 10 ton roller together with the proposed grader would permit us to triple seal, tar and stone streets. The grader also would be a valuable addition to our snow removal and ice control equipment.

Our share of the cost of Petoskey Avenue paving has been two thirds paid for at the rate of $7,250.00 per year. Next year's payment will complete this project and then we can improve and extend existing streets that we have included in our street planning program.

POLICE: Three important improvements in this department has resulted in a more efficient and stronger operating unit. (1) The purchase of a new patrol car has made it possible to curb, to a great extent, unnecessary speeding and reckless driving in the City limits. (2) The addition of another patrolman to the permanent force brings us up to the full protective strength as recommended by the FBI. (3) The latest project which was just completed consisted of a complete FBI pistol shooting course for our entire police force. This training was made possible through the courtesy of Dr. Whitten and every member of the Police force completed this course. A trophy has been presented to the most proficient member and plans have been approved to continue with this project each year.

TAXES: A great deal of speculation has been offered in regard to the disposition of our equalization program in connection with the Board of Supervisors, who have the authority to raise or lower these values. Up to last year the valuation of the City of Charlevoix was $5,019,100.00. After our revaluation and equalization program, the City Assessor and Board of Review arrived at a value of $4,626,350.00 for the entire City, which they felt was more proportionate and were in line with other values in the County. However, when this figure was submitted to the Equalization Committee of the County Board of Supervisors, there was a good deal of discussion and by a vote of 13 to 12 the County Supervisors decided to raise the value of the City of Charlevoix up to $4,871,300.00 which now stands as the County's equalized value for the City of Charlevoix.

After the Board of Supervisors had closed their 1954 spring session, the County school officials secured an opinion from William D. Dexter, Ass't Attorney General, to the effect that the school could spread their taxes on State Equalized Value which is considerably higher than the County Equalized Value. This opinion was accepted by the Charlevoix County Allocation Board. Therefore, if this plan is followed, your winter taxes will be much higher than your last City tax bill.

Now all of this explanation on taxation may not serve

Volunteers Fill November Draft Quota

The November draft call for Charlevoix county will be filled by volunteers. Mrs. Cornelia Barber, draft board clerk, has announced. Reporting Nov. 17 for induction into the armed forces will be Robert E. Grunow of Boyne City and John T. Whale of East Jordan.

Two additional volunteers, Lloyd G. McAllister of Charlevoix and Robert J. Fairchild of Boyne City, will report for pre-induction physical examinations in Detroit next Wednesday.

to clarify the situation to you, as indeed, it helps to confuse the issue as far as I am concerned, however, I do want to make clear the City's position in the matter. Your City officials have no control over, nor does the City receive any of the winter taxes. We are merely the collecting agency for the County and Schools. If you should be aggrieved over the winter tax it would be proper to direct any questions to your County Allocation Board and to your School officials.

As an example here is the way your real estate taxes are distributed. Supposing your home is assessed at $3,000.00. Your total taxes would be divided like this:

County tax	28.40
School tax	41.10

Total School and County tax	$69.50
City tax	54.00

Total yearly tax $123.50

In other words about 56.3% of your total yearly tax is collected by the City but turned over to the County and Schools. Only 43.7% remains with the City Treasurer for City expenditures.

More interesting figures reveal that the total taxes raised in Charlevoix for the City's use - $83,274.30 while the total taxes raised in Charlevoix for the County and School - $107,189.05. This makes a grand total of taxes paid by the citizens of Charlevoix in one year of $190,463.35. These facts are in no way intended to be critical of the County or School but merely to point out where your tax dollar goes that is collected by your City Treasurer.

GENERAL: There are many other details that we could talk about but I have tried to cover the more essential things at this time. In closing, this question comes to mind, "Are you satisfied with your town?" There is a difference between being satisfied and being proud of your town. I trust every citizen is proud of Charlevoix but not satisfied. We are constantly striving to make our town a better place in which to live, therefore the following questionnaire is being brought to your attention. Try rating your town by giving some thought to each item and then send the completed questionnaire to the City Superintendent's Office, City Hall, Charlevoix.

In the background are two members of her court, Betty Berg (in band uniform) and Darlene Mason. Other members of the court were Mona Davenport and Donna Ikens.

Queen Joyce received her crown from George Finucan, 1906 graduate of the Charlevoix high school in a coronation ceremony in East Park following the homecoming parade.

First Annual Homecoming Is Huge Success

Charlevoix's first annual homecoming, sponsored by the Charlevoix high school Pep Club held in connection with the Charlevoix Grayling game Friday night proved to be one of the most successful events held recently.

The coronation of the homecoming queen, Joyce Cunningham, in East Park Friday afternoon with George Finucan, 1906 graduate of the Charlevoix high school officiating, climaxed the afternoon homecoming parade.

Wearing a light blue formal gown and a corsage of red and white carnations, Queen Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Cunningham, received her crown in the presence of her court, Darlene Mason, Donna Ikens, Betty Berg and Mona Davenport who were also crowned in pastel formal gowns for the occasion.

Music for the event was played by the combined Charlevoix high school Senior and Varsity bands numbering more than 100 young musicians under the direction of C. A. Odmarr. H. E. Bingham welcomed the crowd of more than 1,000 spectators who gathered in the downtown district for the parade and coronation ceremony.

Roberta Swanson, president of the Pep Club, was mistress of ceremonies. Tom Swanson and Dwain Walker, co-captains of the 1954 Rayder team, represented the football team on the program. The Reserve cheerleaders, Sandy Cunningham, Carol Duerr, Margot Davenport and Judy Cunningham, led the cheers.

Eleven original and clever floats were entered in the homecoming parade led by the combined bands.

Prize winning floats which were later displayed during the game at Kipke field were the Junior Class float, Little Red schoolhouse, Senior class float, Plow 'em under with the ninth and tenth grade floats tying for third place. The freshman float was a Viking Ship depicting the

Charles Pontius Chosen Kiwanis Club President

Charles J. Pontius was elected president of the Charlevoix Kiwanis club at the annual election of officers held Monday following the regular dinner meeting at the high school cafeteria.

He will succeed Leonard Burns, who will become a member of the board of directors.

Other new officers and directors are: the Rev. Harold E. Kohn, first vice-president; Kit Carson, second vice-president; Frank Bird, R. G. Bennett, Angus L. Fochtman, H. E. Bingham, C. B. Meggison, Fred Bancroft and A. L. Livingston, directors.

The secretary-treasurer will be named by the executive committee at a later date. At the present time Ralph S. Hamilton fills the office.

Sgt. Don Downer of the traffic division of the Michigan State Police spoke on the work of the State Police and cited the Kalkaska bank robbery case of 1951 as an illustration of how the department operates in such emergencies.

H. E. Bingham of the Hallowsen party committee reported that approximately 1,000 youngsters from the kindergarten through the high school age groups attended the Hallowsen movie and received a treat as guests of the Kiwanis club, which has sponsored the popular event for the past 15 years.

E. D. Hawley attended as a guest.

theme, Sink the Vikings, and the sophomore entry, Scrub 'em up, featuring a Grayling player in a bathtub with huge cans of scouring powder standing by. Other entries were made by the Kiwanis club and school classes.

The winning floats were displayed and the prizes awarded by Mrs. Kit Carson of the judges' committee. Other judges were Charles Pontius and William Aldridge.

The program was concluded with the introduction of the football Alumni by Leonard Burns as master of ceremonies.

Community Chest Fund Campaign Reaches 89 Per Cent Of Goal

The 1954 Community Chest fund campaign nears its goal this week as the drive reached the $5,242 mark with only $630.00 to go to meet this year's quota of $5,872. Mrs. James Coleman, Community Chest secretary, said Wednesday in reporting on the results of the first two weeks of the current drive.

Schools Plan An Open House On Wednesday

The Charlevoix public schools will observe National Education Week at the first open house of the 1954 school year scheduled for Wednesday evening.

The popular event which permits a better relationship and understanding between the parent and the teacher will open at 7 p.m. Wednesday with a visitation period until 8:15 p.m. At this time parents and friends are invited to visit the classrooms and view the work accomplished by the students. Parents may also make appointments for consultations with the teachers. Because of the time element, consultations are not possible at this time.

At 8:30 p.m. visitors will gather in the high school auditorium for a program. Theme of the event will be "Know your Teachers".

A representative of the Department of Education at the University is expected to be present to deliver a talk on "The Teacher and the Community".

Special music will be the Charlevoix high school girls' choir directed by C. A. Odmarr. Mrs. Leonard Burns is the accompanist.

Glenn Snider, Mrs. Jeanette Novotny, H. E. Bingham and D. C. Maltby are members of the program committee.

Mrs. Laura Courtade and Mrs. Blanche Paul are in charge of the refreshment committee which will serve refreshments in the cafeteria following the program.

Mrs. Henry Smith Dies Following A Long Illness

Mrs. Henry Smith, 76, resident of this community for the past 25 years, died Sunday at her home at 211 W. Upright ave. following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at St. Mary's church Tuesday with the Rev. E. F. Denay officiating. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. The rosary was recited Monday night at the Pontius Chapel.

Born at Traverse City May 6, 1878, Mary Rosalie LaFontaine was married to Mr. Smith in 1903. They came to Charlevoix 25 years ago and resided on a farm in Hayes township until moving to their present home in 1945. Mr. Smith preceded her in death in 1947.

She was a member of St. Mary's church.

She is survived by three sons, Oscar Soranson of Grand Rapids, Albert H. and George Smith of Charlevoix; a daughter, Mrs. Dan (Elizabeth) Peters of this city; a brother, Dan LaFontaine of Traverse City and nine grandchildren.

Creede School Of Dancing To Hold An Adult Class

Rodney Creede, of the Creede School of Dancing, has announced that he and Mrs. Creede hope to have the local adult class in ballroom dancing instruction well underway soon. A tentative date for the first group meeting has been set for the evening of Tuesday, Nov. 16. The time and the place has not as yet been decided upon and will be announced later.

Couples who are interested in learning to do the modern Tango, Samba, Mambo and Rhythm, as well as those who would like to brush up on their Foxtrot and Waltz steps are urged to contact Mr. Creede as soon as possible so final decisions can be made regarding the size of hall needed and the hour you wish to attend.

At the present time Mr. and Mrs. Creede are conducting an adult class in Petoskey which meets every other week at 9 p.m. and lasts usually two and one half

The present figure is 89 per cent of the goal.

With only $630 to go, it is the hope of the Community Chest committee that everyone will get behind the current drive and give it the extra little push it needs to put it over the top. Mrs. Coleman said in announcing the results.

Seven worthwhile agencies stand to lose if the goal is not met and this community cannot afford to let such organizations as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Community Nurse, Charlevoix Service Organization, Salvation Army, United Health and Welfare Fund which solicits funds for more than 30 different organizations, the Emergency Fund and the Charlevoix Hospital down for lack of a little interest.

If you have not been contacted and want to contribute to the 1954 Community Chest drive, leave your contribution with your ward captain or Lawrence Feindt, Chest treasurer.

Fire Damages Farm Home Of Doyle Warner

Fire believed to have started from an overheated chimney severely damaged the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Warner in Norwood township 10 miles south of here at noon Monday.

The couple and their four children were preparing to eat their noon meal when the father smelled smoke and discovered the second floor of the frame structure in flames.

The mother carried three of the four small children, Doyle Jr., 4, Gary 3 and Donna Jean, 3-months to safety but was unable to find the fourth child, two-year old Kenneth.

Believing the child had rushed to the second floor where the bedrooms were located the father tried to go up the burning stairs and when this failed climbed a ladder to the second floor and broke a window to gain admittance to a bedroom.

In the meantime the frightened child was found by the mother hovering behind a davenport in the living room.

Mr. Warner was treated at the Charlevoix hospital for hand lacerations and burns.

The entire second floor along with the family's possessions were destroyed and the first floor rooms and furnishings were badly damaged by smoke and water.

The loss was only partially covered by insurance.

The family will live in the former Clark school across the road from their home, which has been used as a dwelling place in the past. The house that was burned is the Charles Warner family home.

Announce Awards For Chevrolet's Premiere Showing

More than 500 visitors to the Charlevoix Oil Co. showroom registered for the prizes offered by the company during the premiere showing of the 1955 Chevrolet Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Company manager, Richard A. Foehlman, has announced.

William Seese was awarded the $100.00 savings bond; Bruce Henley the $50.00 bond and Mrs. Charles Ruchart the $25.00 bond. Homecoming Queen Joyce Cunningham officiated at the drawing.

In addition to the grand prizes more than 250 gift packages of perfume and another 250 gift packages of shaving lotion plus more than 500 pencils and an additional 500 balloons were presented.

In reporting on the showing Mr. Foehlman said visitors showed a great deal of interest in the new models which are drastically changed from recent former models.

The first hour the group has instruction and the second hour and a half is spent in supervised dancing.

Group dancing instruction has become very popular all over the country due to the innovation of so many new Latin routines that you are hearing raved about. This is your chance to learn the answer to the nation's $64 question, "What IS the Mambo?"

Charlevoix Asks Lifting Of Ban On Chub Fishing

The city of Charlevoix was one of the many Michigan fishing port communities along Lake Michigan which sent telegrams to Gov. G. Mennen Williams and Gerald Eddy of the Michigan Conservation Department Monday asking that the ban on the commercial fishing of chubs be lifted. Mayor Dean Davenport announced Monday.

The request arose out of an action taken by the state of Wisconsin which lifted the ruling to allow commercial fishermen to set nets for the fish while the ruling on a closed season in Michigan remained in force.

Mayor Appoints Committee For Youth Program

A Citizens' committee to assist in the formulation of plans for a Youth Center in Charlevoix was named by Mayor Dean Davenport and approved by the City Council at the regular meeting of the council held Monday evening at the City Hall.

The newly-appointed committee will work with the Kiwanis club which is planning such a building and will suggest ways of financing and supervising a youth program. It will also enlist the assistance of other organizations.

Named to serve on the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Fay Davis, Mrs. Dean Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. William Supernaw, Rev. and Mrs. Harold Kohn and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton.

Mayor Davenport said, in naming the committee, that he hoped the school would also appoint a youth committee to work with the Citizens group and the Kiwanis club in formulating plans for the proposed Youth Center.

The Council also decided to erect one-hour parking signs on Bridge st. from Memorial Bridge to Antrim st. and enforce the one-hour parking ordinance adopted earlier.

Delinquent water and sewage accounts, which are growing in number, were discussed and the utilities department advised to enforce an earlier ruling to discontinue service to those users who are in arrears. The order will become effective at once unless arrangements are made for payments of the accounts.

The possibility of installing a curb service mail box near the postoffice was discussed and referred to committee.

An application for the construction of a motel at the corner of Auld and Petoskey avens. was discussed and returned to Dr. Russell E. Palmer, who presented it, for more detailed plans.

A second application for a building permit, this one by James Hilton of LaGrange Park, Ill., for the construction of a home on Mercer Blvd. was tentatively approved.

A contract for a sewer easement through the property of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Scott was discussed. The easement was requested so the south Bridge st. sewer could be extended.

Announce Prizes Given At First Pontiac Showing

It was gala occasion last week-end for the new Cooper-Franklin Inc., Pontiac and Cadillac sales and service, as more than 800 people visited their showrooms to see the 1955 Pontiac 'new from top to bottom' models that were displayed Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

At the drawing which climaxed the three day event Saturday night, $100 gift certificates were awarded to P. D. Campbell, A. L. Livingston, Gordon Neff, Kenneth Boss, Mrs. Joseph Brun, Mrs. Eva Smith and Edwin McCann.

A set of dishes was awarded to Mrs. George Raff and $500 were presented to Robert Case, Mr. Roff, Noreen Cross, Pete Scott, Ray Spence of East Jordan and Don Campbell of Elksworth and others.

In addition favors of cigars for the men and pens for the women were presented to all visitors at the premiere showing.

Rose, Meggison Win As County Remains In Republican Ranks

With all Charlevoix County's 25 precincts reporting, the unofficial results reveal that the county followed its traditional Republican line, although more Democratic votes were cast than in any election in the past ten years.

The Republican trend in the county did not follow that of the state where Democratic candidates were leading late Wednesday afternoon.

G. Mennen Williams has been assured of re-election to a fourth term as governor and his running mate, Patrick V. McNamara had a sizeable lead over incumbent Homer Ferguson for the important post of U. S. Senator.

Donald S. Leonard, Republican gubernatorial candidate, however, led Williams 2549 to 2065 in the county while Ferguson polled 2780 to 1743 for McNamara for the Senate post.

Victor A. Knox, incumbent Congressman from the 11th district received 2774 votes to 1697 for Democratic candidate Harold Beaton.

Of great interest on the local level was the contest for state representative from the Charlevoix district to succeed the late Louis Anderson. In the district which is comprised of Charlevoix, Antrim, Benzie and Leelanau counties, Clarence B. Meggison, Republican candidate for the office was leading his Democratic opponent, G. Archie Bedell by more than 6500 to 3500. In this county Meggison polled 2819 and Bedell 1586.

In the only county contest Glenn Rose was elected sheriff to succeed Floyd W. Ikens who was not a candidate for re-election after serving 22 years. Rose polled 2936 to 1636 for his Democratic opponent, Gerald N. Johnson, a Hayes township farmer.

Other county officers were re-elected without opposition.

On the non-partisan ballot, Norman D. Anee, incumbent circuit court commissioner, polled 2403 to defeat William T. Downs of East Jordan who had 1157 votes with 23 of the 25 precincts reporting.

The vote on the amendments in the county followed the trend elsewhere with the first three receiving an affirmative vote but the fourth or bingo amendment was voted down in the county and was falling behind elsewhere in the state.

The results on the amendments are as follows: No. 1 Yes, 2801; No. 992; No. 2, Yes 2668; No. 1014; No. 3, Yes, 2865; No. 1110; No. 4, Yes, 2049; No. 2221.

Results of the balloting for state officers follow: Lieutenant governor, Reid 2620; Hart 1883; Secretary of State, Cleary, 2763; Illare 1656; Attorney General, Millard, 2662; Kavanagh, 1787; State treasurer, Brake, 2708; Brown, 1787; auditor, Martin, 2760; Targonski, 1713.

Draft Call For December Set At Two County Men

The Charlevoix county draft call for December has been set at two men, Mrs. Eleanor Left, deputy draft board clerk, has announced.

The date for induction into the service has not been announced at this time.

There will be no call for men for pre-induction physical examinations next month. However, if there are volunteers for examination, they will be sent to Detroit.

On Nov. 17 Robert E. Grunow of Boyne City and John T. Whaley of East Jordan will leave for Detroit where they will be inducted into the armed forces. Both are volunteers.

Two additional volunteers, Lloyd G. McAllister of Charlevoix and Robert J. Fairchild of Boyne City, reported for pre-induction physical examinations Wednesday.

Health Officers Hold Conference

The Northern Michigan district conference of the Michigan Department of Health was held at Alpena Thursday and Friday.

Among those who attended were Dr. A. F. Litzemberger, director of District No. 3, and Mrs. Litzemberger, Mrs. Jeanne Miles and Mrs. Marion Rice.

Other district health department nurses in the area also attended.

League Football Schedule To End On This Weekend

Four league games will be played this week as the 1954 Northern Michigan Class C football schedule draws to a close.

Headlining the closing schedule will be the Charlevoix-Boyne City meeting at Kipke field at 8 p.m. Friday.

Other games to be played at 3 p.m. Friday will be the East Jordan-Hornet game played at Pellston and the Mancelona-Grayling meeting to be held on the latter's field. In the only other night game Harbor Springs will host Jayland.

East Jordan, in third place as the season draws to a close, is expected to have little trouble in defending their position against the Hornets. In the past, however, games have gotten rough and the Jordanians cannot expect to win without a struggle.

Mancelona, with an unusual record of four ties plus two losses will travel to Grayling to take on the Vikings, who have yet to win a game since returning to the league. If Mancelona plays ball this won't be the week to accomplish this.

The Gaylord Blue Devils will be defending their fourth place standing when they meet the Harbor Springs Rams this week. The Rams will be out to add one more win to their record as the season ends but the big Blue Devils, if they play ball as they are capable of playing, should end up in fourth place.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin.

IF LAST weekend is any criterion of the weather we can expect this winter, heaven help us. For the snows came and believe us, it really came down. Beautiful white stuff that melted as soon as it fell but white stuff nevertheless. With temperatures in the 20's. And at this time of year. Why, it's more than anyone should be asked to bear!

BUT despite all this, the homecoming was a huge success. Luckily the rain and snow held off so that everyone, (a bit wind-blown, we'll admit) watched the band, 100 pieces in all, march down Bridge st. to East Park where Queen Joyce Cunningham was crowned by that popular old grad, George Finucan. The Queen and her court looked lovely, if a bit chined, in their lovely gowns and their red and white corsages, and everyone was so proud of them.

THE RAIN may have dampened the crowd but not their spirit as they watched old grads being introduced at halftime after Queen Joyce, this time dressed in more protective clothing, had 'knighthood' our two wonderful co-captains, Tom Swanson and Duane Walker. And tho' the rain splattered off their instruments, the hand members played like always and went through their formations like veterans.

AND THE homecoming floats. Four winners were named but all were as cute as could be. We liked the seventh grade entry, Vicki Miller's black cocker, Missy, all decked with horn-rimmed glasses and what have you sitting on a mythical Grayling. Don't know how they made her sit so still for so long but she sure was good. And how about the class of 1967. That seems a long way off but it won't be long. Oh, what am I saying? So an orchid in the Pep club for their first successful homecoming. We must do this again.

Noted Pastor To Speak Here

REV. T. M. RAMSAY

The Rev. T. M. Ramsay will be the speaker for a series of revival and inspirational meetings at the Community Church of God, beginning with the morning worship service at 11 o'clock Sunday. Services will be held at 8:00 each evening through the following Sunday.

The Rev. Ramsay formerly pastored churches in Ohio and at Los Angeles, Calif. For the past five years he traveled throughout the United States as a field representative for Anderson College and Theological Seminary. Because of his wide experience in ministerial activity, his interest in the education of youth, and his enthusiasm for Christian stewardship, the speaker will be an inspiration to all who hear him.

The Rev. George L. Majors, the local pastor, extends an invitation to the public to attend all services of the church.

someone (sounded like a young teen-ager) reciting poetry, no less. That went something like this: "Roses are red, Violets are blue, Violets are $9.00 a dozen. Will dandy-lions do?" . . . to say that I was a bit surprised would be putting it mildly but for once I thought of a quick answer and said "If they come from you, Chum, anything will do." With that he said "OK. . . Thank you" and hung up. . . To date I haven't received either the violets at $9.00 a dozen or even the dandy-lions and I'm still wondering who the poet ladreate is. . . any answers?

GOT A Letter the other day that arrived via airmail but from its contents it should have arrived "Special Delivery" too. . . for it came from a very excited and thrilled little WAVE stationed at Norfolk, Va. . . Who else but our own Joni Henry who had made her television debut on WVEC-TV as a soloist Oct. 19. . . And not only that but she's been invited back for another show. . . Incidentally, she sang "Autumn Leaves." . . And to add to the thrill of appearing on the show her folks, the Dal Hens, enroute to Florida, were there to see and hear her. . . What's that about aittin' on top of the world? That's where Joni was when she wrote. . . So from us and all your friends back here, Joni, lots of luck and may you find that this was only the first rung on the ladder to success. . .

THE MAIL took on a cosmopolitan look this week. . . From Rome and later from Paris postcards from Ed Madill, now of Washington, D. C., who was on a tour. . . from which he expected to return before, as he put it, we received the card from Paris. . . The first mailed from Rome said "It's almost as nice here as in Charlevoix and not half the fun as the 1929 Class reunion. Rome, of course, is always beautiful both presently and historically. . .

AND FROM Barbie Bice, now in Europe as a student at the University of Vienna a Cook's Tour of Paris written on the back of a post card (and we have the card to prove it). . . This is heaven. . . pure heaven! I love Paris. I did all the wonderful traditional things a Parisienne tourist must do. . . Had wine and omelette at a sidewalk cafe. . . Bought perfume at the Place Vendome. . . window-shopped at Jacques Fath's. . . Browsed around the bookstalls that line the Seine. . . Saw the Folies Bergere (Fabulous). . . Visited the Louvre Museum. . . Walked under the Arch of Triumph down the Champs Elysees when it was all lit up and sparkling and twinkling. . . Had hotdogs at Harry's New York Bar. . . Got lost underground in the Paris Metro. . . Heard Dixieland live in a dive (with bearded students). . . Bought roses from a flower cart. . . Saw the nation's No. 1 spy (Bianca), the journalist, charged with treason arrested. . . It was great.

Since then Barbie's arrived in Vienna and started classes at the University. . . We'll pass along any other tidbits that we get. . . We found them mighty interesting. . .

AND FROM Bronville, N. Y., a note from the Sarah Lawrence kid, Pat Raligan. . . who's discovering the wonders of the east for the first time. . . Especially the city of New York. . . One thing we got a bang out of. . . Pat wrote that if she came home with a southern instead of an eastern accent it was easy to account for. . . She has a roommate from Savannah, Ga. . .

AND FROM Fort Belvoir, Va., a note from Pvt. Neil Suomela. . . now stationed there with the army as a teacher. . . He sends his best to all his friends back here and hopes to make it home for Christmas. . . (With the Army's permission, that is!)

of our local residents going around with a weather eye cocked at the sky and a smug look on their faces and have wondered what it's all about, let us clue you. . . It's our dear hunters. . . Those brave souls who slave all year and then give up their vacation to rough it in the northern woods to get venison to keep the family going 'til spring. . . (end of joke). . . But all kidding aside. . . this is the first time in about three years that they could look forward to good hunting weather and even if you and I don't like the snow, these guys are looking forward to it. . . How else can you track a deer? . . . Another ten days and they'll be headin' for the tall timber. . . Does it seem possible?

CHARLEVOIX hospital office personnel couldn't believe their eyes but there it was right on the card. . . A "reservation" for a room. . . In black and white it read "Please reserve single room with running water for Wednesday evening Nov. 3." . . The card was signed and came from Saginaw but it still wasn't the way one made arrangements for a hospital room. . . About that time someone noticed that the card had been delivered to the wrong address. . . It was meant for the Charlevoix Hotel and not the hospital so everyone was a little relieved. . .

AND IN a "know your community" program sponsored by the Ellsworth school, 35 youngsters in the fifth through the seventh grade toured the Charlevoix hospital one day last week. . . Plus industries and other interesting places in Charlevoix. . . It's a wonderful idea, we think, and one that should be adopted by more schools, for Charlevoix does have a lot of interesting places that could be included in an educational tour. . .

Community Choir Is Preparing For Holiday Concert

The Community Choir held its initial rehearsal in preparation for the fifth annual Christmas Vesper Concert in the music room Tuesday under the direction of C. A. Odmak.

Following the rehearsal Mr. Odmak announced that there are vacancies still open in all sections particularly among tenors and basses. Anyone wishing to sing is requested to contact Mr. Odmak as soon as possible as only six rehearsals are scheduled prior to the concert, tentatively set for Dec. 19.

The annual Christmas Vesper Concert is an outgrowth of the Community Choir which appeared only at the Baccalaureate service for several years. At the request of the choir members who urged that the group get together more often, the first call for a Christmas choir was issued in 1950 which resulted in the first Vesper Concert.

Since then it has become a holiday tradition in Charlevoix anticipated by both performers and the audience.

As in the past the concert will feature the finest of choral literature of the Christmas season sung by a choir of 40 voices the Sunday before Christmas.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout troop 11 met at the city hall last Wednesday for a Halloween party.

After roll call and while the popcorn was popping, we bobbed for apples. Wanda Warner was the first one to get an apple and Susie Helms the second.

After we played Winkum, we had our refreshments.

Everyone had a good time.

Girl Scout troop 9 made a trip to the Straits of Mackinac recently to visit the Straits bridge site. Accompanied by leaders, Mrs. Robert Bergmann and Mrs. Franklin Curtis and Mrs. Allen Ulrich, we left here at 9 a.m., arrived at Mackinac City at 10:15 a.m., watched the bridge construction on this side, visited the zoo and had a nosebag lunch at noon at old Fort Michillimackinac.

We then took the ferry to St. Ignace where we visited the bridge site there and visited the town of St. Ignace.

Many pictures were taken because the day was perfect. We returned to Mackinac City for the trip home, a very tired but happy group.

Margaret LaBlance, scribe

Brownie Troop No. 3 met Monday in the Kindergarten room.

We appointed committees for our investiture ceremony to be held later this month and chose actors for the play to be given at that time.

Sherry Holburn was named treasurer and Beverly Falting scribe for next week.

Girl Scout troop 5 has been very busy during the past week.

Last Monday we met at the city hall for a Halloween party. We played games and later served refreshments.

The next day we went to the Frank Pop truck garden farm.

Mr. Pop showed us how to cut and harvest cabbages and also how to store them in the field and in a root cellar. He explained how he started plants from seeds, transplanted them, sprayed and cultivated the cabbages. He gave each of us a cabbage to bring home. When we returned from the field Mrs. Pop served us hot cocoa and cookies and afterwards drove us home.

Th's Tuesday we met again at the city hall. We divided into parties with each electing a treasurer to take attendance and collect dues. Elgie Lou Holmes is head of Patrol 1 and Judy Clarke of Patrol 2. Janet Edison was elected scribe.

Acting Like A Stranger

One of the keenest pleasures of strolling through the woods is found in the unexpected which is bound to happen. We have our tidy little rules of prediction, but nature simply will not abide by them. Surprises follow. Deer are keen-nosed animals with vigilant ears that enable them to detect your approach long before you come into sight. That is why you never see deer while walking through the woods. Never! But White-tails simply won't abide by our neat rules, and I've seen them in the wild when I was making no attempt to be quiet.

Woodchucks are terrestrial animals, content to stay on the ground. They never climb trees as do their nimble cousins the squirrels. But, hold on there! "Never" is a big, all-encompassing word that doesn't fit the habits of all woodchucks. A woodchuck may live out his entire life without ever moving above ground level. A thousand chucks may entertain no tree climbing ambitions. But the thousand and first? He ambles among the branches of a tall maple drinking maple sap for a spring tonic.

In nature the unexpected is constantly happening. Once in a great while a spring-nesting robin will begin building a nest in the fall, or a fly-catching bull frog will snatch a small bird in mid-flight, or the insect-trapping web of a spider will ensnare a snake. In the natural world as elsewhere "fact is stranger than fiction." Nature is the realm of the unexpected.

Some people feel low not so much because they are in deep trouble due to illness or financial worries or humiliation or loneliness, but because they are bored. And to be bored is to be fatigued. People speak a clearer truth than they know when they exclaim, "I'm tired of it all — doing the same old thing in the same old way." They are tired. Boredom produces exhaustion more quickly than does work. The only way some folks endure boredom at all is by some explosive blowoff that constitutes a change in their deadly routine. But the blowoff doesn't last, and soon they are back to the dull cycle again, with a "morning after" dark brown taste in their mouths, and a vague shame in their hearts.

The best way of handling boredom is by acting like a stranger, pretending you are new to your job, a first-time visitor to your town, a guest in your own home, an outsider in your church, or just newly introduced to your mate. Throw all your old habits of thinking about them aside. You will rediscover them and likely appreciate them more than ever.

"What beautiful country you have here!"

"Completely surrounded by lakes! What lucky people you are!"

"We've been all over the nation, and we've never seen a town nestled amidst such magnificent surroundings!"

These and similar excited exclamations come from visitors who see our Charlevoix for the first time. But let a stranger settle here and look upon our lakes and streams and sunsets every day and he becomes much like the rest of us — habituated to beauty. Then he strolls down Bridge Street without noticing the hue of Round Lake, whether today it is sky blue or blue-green. He walks over the bridge without detecting the direction of the current in the channel. A herring gull cries without his noticing. It doesn't take long to become accustomed to loveliness. And while familiarity does not always breed contempt, it may produce indifference, which is worse. At least contempt entails noticing! The Charlevoixan who appreciates his town the most is one who acts like a stranger here. He looks upon the harbor each time with fresh eyes, undulled by long familiarity. He comes upon neighboring Lake Michigan as if he were seeing for the first time, the mighty roll of the Pacific. He watches a herring gull in flight as if he had never seen a bird, and examines a freshly caught Round Lake perch as if it were some visitor from another world. He acts like a stranger here!

The Psalmist greeted the dawning of a day in the spirit of new adventure saying, "This is the day which the Lord hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it." A powerful difference in our living will result when we approach all our day, our tasks, our loved ones and acquaintances in that spirit — seeing them afresh, rejoicing in them, and expecting the best of them.

What's new with Chevrolet? everything!

Even Air Conditioning, if you wish

Air is heated or cooled by a single unit that fits compactly into the front of the car. Requires no trunk space! (V8 models only.) And that's only one of the wonderful extra-cost options you can get!

Tubelless tires as standard equipment

On all models! Proved tubelless tires give you greater protection against a blowout — deflate more slowly when punctured.

... and Chevrolet's got that long, low "let's go" look

It's a show car from the word go! Longer looking—and lots lower. There's plenty of glamour inside, too—plus more room for hats, hips and shoulders!

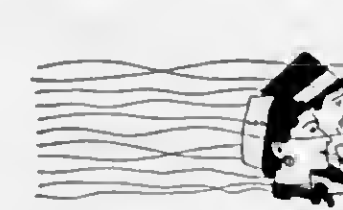

Wonderful new Glide-Ride Front Suspension

New spherical joints flex freely to cushion all road shocks. New exclusive Anti-Dive Braking Control, assures "heads up" stops.

Great new V8—two new 6's

New "Turbo-Fire V8" delivers 162 h.p. with an ultra-high compression ratio of 8 to 1. You can choose from two new 6's, too—the new "Blue-Flame 136" with Powerglide (optional at extra cost) and the new "Blue-Flame 123."

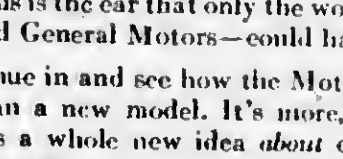

Easier steering, stopping, clutching

The new Chevrolet steers with ball-bearing ease, thanks to new friction-reducing Ball-Race Steering. New Swing-Type Pedals pivot at the top.

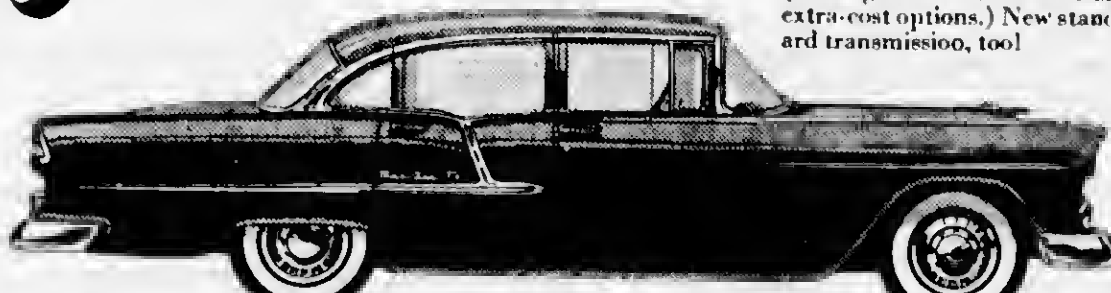

A ventilating system that really works

Chevrolet's new High-Level Ventilating System takes in cleaner air at hood-high level—away from road heat, fumes and dust.

Three drives, including Overdrive

There's Powerglide teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 136." New Overdrive teamed with the new V8 or the new "Blue-Flame 123." (Powerglide and Overdrive are extra-cost options.) New standard transmission, too!

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan

Chevrolet and General Motors have started something—a whole new age of low-cost motoring—by taking a whole new look at the low-cost car. Here are new ideas, young ideas... and some of tomorrow's ideas, too! And they're all rolled up in the most glamorous package that ever wore anything like a Chevrolet price tag!

This is the car that began with a great idea—the idea that a low-priced car could be built that would have the style, the performance, the comfort and convenience features, and the fine quality "feel" of high-priced cars.

This is the car that only the world's leading car builders—Chevrolet and General Motors—could have built. The Motoramic Chevrolet! Come in and see how the Motoramic Chevrolet for '55 is far more than a new model. It's more, even, than a completely new car. It's a whole new idea about cars!

Come in and meet the motoramic Chevrolet

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Our Town Makes Good in New York City

Couldn't place a new subscriber named Clark, but I found out who they were last week when they dropped in The Clarion's office.

"We're native New Yorkers," Mrs. Clark said, "and all our friends there are originally from other places. We always felt left out when they talked about things 'back home.'"

"That's why we 'adopted' your town and to get all the news we subscribed to The Clarion. Now we have a 'back home' to talk about—and we think it's the most wonderful town there is!"

From where I sit, just about everyone thinks his own home town is best. Picking your town comes natural. The right to do this "picking," though, is what really counts. Whether it's a favorite town, a favorite cut of meat, or even a choice of a beverage—say between beer and buttermilk, it's respecting the right to this freedom of choice that makes a good neighbor. I hope you subscribe to that!

James-Martinchek Vows Exchanged At Pilgrim Holiness Church Ceremony

Ellsworth — A lovely fall wedding was solemnized in the Ellsworth Pilgrim Holiness church Sunday afternoon, when Betty Lou James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. James of Ellsworth was united in marriage to Joseph D. Martinchek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Martinchek of Charlevoix.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Herbert Diller, officiating. Wedding baskets of white and deep rose pom poms and the seven branch candelabra provided a simple but effective setting. Faye Meggison, pianist, of Charlevoix played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Carol Goodenough, cousin of the bride from Alba, who sang, "I Love You Truly", before the entrance of the bridal party; and "Because" just before the vows were spoken.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her ballerina length wedding dress of white lace and satin with net overskirt featuring lace panels. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a high neckline with net inset and Peter Pan collar, and long sleeves coming to points over the wrists. A matching lace cap edged in satin and trimmed with seed pearl clusters held her finger tip veil in place. She carried a colonial bouquet of red rosebuds.

Esther Heeres, a close friend of the bride from Grand Rapids, as maid of honor and Harriet James, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, wore pastel and blue ballerina length formal with white accessories, and carried colonial bouquets of pink carnations.

Grant Martinchek, uncle of the groom, from Petoskey, assisted as best man and Richard Smith of Charlevoix served as groomsman. Albert Ballard, uncle of the bride, from Alba and Ray Fettig of Petoskey, uncle of the groom seated the guests.

Mrs. James, wore a grey spun rayon street length dress, with black accessories, for her daughters wedding and Mrs. Martinchek wore a blue grey rayon and acetate street length dress with red accessories. Red carnation corsages accented their costumes.

Mrs. Ballard of Alba, the brides grandmother, wore a grey and rose print street length dress of spun rayon with black accessories and Mrs. Martinchek of Petoskey grandmother of the groom, wore a grey tailored suit with black accessories. Their corsages were of wine color pom poms.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

AS THIS is being written we have enjoyed a beautiful sunny day but the fog is rolling in off Lake Michigan and who knows what the week will bring.

Weather-wise, Armistice Day means just two things to us... the big blow of 1938 or '39 and the big snow of 1951 or '52 when we got 24 inches of snow overnight! Let's hope we don't get either this year. We'll settle for a little good weather which we certainly deserve after all the wind and rain we had earlier. But we'll take what we get... so there...

AND HOW, may we ask, did you like the election? There's only one emotion we've found so far that was shared by everyone and that was surprise... Even the most optimistic Democrats never dreamed of such successes along the line... and the most pessimistic Republicans, in Michigan anyway, never dreamed of such losses... Well... there's always 1956.

We liked what Walter Winchell had to say about the election Sunday night... And it's something to think about... Said he, it was a success for both the Republicans and the Democrats for not one Communist was elected to any office... Food for thought, that.

IF YOU'RE a person who likes to keep up on the street situation in Charlevoix, there's one missing as of Saturday... That's right... for the street along the north side of Pine River, known as Mill st. up to 50 years ago and River st. since the turn of the century is now Pine River Lane... And to make it official, a new street sign was erected last week...

Our little old Rayders have done it again... brought home another title when a good many people didn't think they had what it took... And to you guys who lost money 'cause you bet on the opposition... phooey to you... You should have known better!

Anyway they won but how they played... Knowing they had to win... couldn't settle for a tie... they really were in there every minute... playing the kind of ball we haven't seen 'em play all season... Congratulations for you've earned it... But it was the last game for a lot of pretty swell guys... 14 of 'em in all... We're going to miss seeing 'em on the gridiron next fall but they have left behind them a grand example of sportsmanship and a fighting spirit that will be hard to match... We could recite dozens of examples of both along with sacrifices and other displays of the line spirit that makes the Rayders what they are... So to a grand team many thanks for a grand season.

AND TO you 'round ball' fans, have heart... Practice will begin this week with the first game scheduled for Dec. 3... with four games scheduled before the holidays... In other words, the rat race will soon be on... Basketball's fine, but we'll take football any time...

IF YOU listened to the Michigan State-Washington game Saturday you heard several familiar names mentioned... One was our own Charlie Fairbanks, who was in on a play that gave State two points... There was also a Case in the line-up who might have been Ross Case... Along with Bigelow and Spitzer, former Petoskey athletes... northern Michigan had quite a representation on the field...

THANKS TO Dr. Claire Cartier, for supper Sunday night... As per usual he came by with a couple old dead birds, as he put it, but we didn't let that discourage us and took them in nothing flat... Seems he hunted on his way north and brought these with him... Before long the discussion turned to this area and why there is no longer 'Pats' to be found... or at least very few... Seems we don't have their favorite kind of cover nor do our woods have the type of foods they favor... Gee, we can remember and so could he when there were all kinds of birds around and every hunter had his limit whenever he wanted it... But those days, it seems, are gone... These changing times...

HAVE YOU seen the new license plates? We haven't either but they don't sound good to us... To begin with, green is not our favorite color and the '55 plates are green and white in keeping with Michigan State's centennial... Added to that the county's letters have been changed from PW to, of all things, UY... The numbers for this

And hoo-RAY for Inez Robb, favorite Broadway sob sister of mine! She recently word-walloped the Bejebebers out of us who would homogenize our Christmas merchandising with the World Series... and start humming about the red-nosed Rudolph as if he were a pet of Halloween witches not yet out of our hair.

That particular column, however, wasn't meant for those of us who are smart and take advantage of the terrific Fall sales to do our Christmas shopping early... that's clever of us. But let's hold back the display of finial and baubles and gingerbread until the proper time.

Everyone knows that it's a wise gal who likes to subtly plan her holiday wardrobe months ahead of time... for that is the time of year when clothes can be the most dramatic and fun!

But before selecting, take stock of where your holiday calendar will be taking you... then keep the DESIGN simple and choose the FABRIC for elegance and festivity.

Select one WHEEL of a piece of jewelry for accent... such as a pair of earrings falling to fairly whisk your shoulders, or ropes and ropes of necklace beaded with everything from ice-cube crystal to pink pearl balls.

Please wear high heels... or at least as high as your foot'll permit. And buoy a bouncy skirt with a peppy petticoat, tying the sash low for a long, torso look.

You should start now to let your hair grow a little longer... and experiment, or let your hair-dresser experiment, with a new 'do'.

P.S. Dear Inez Robb... You're a gal after my own heart!

Dickens Study Club Presents A Program On 'Family Living' Theme

Following the theme of "Family Living" adopted by the Dickens Study Club for their program activities for the year, the club members and their respective husbands gathered at the Congregational church for a co-operative supper at Friendship hall Tuesday evening.

In keeping with the same theme, an interesting and enlightening panel discussion on the proposed Youth Center for Charlevoix entitled "Youth Center... Help or Headache?" provided the program following the dinner.

H. E. Bingham served as moderator for the panel which was comprised of various local groups including the Dickens club represented by Mrs. H. E. Paddock and Mrs. Charles Duerr; the city by Mayor Dean Davenport; the Kiwanis club, which has established a Youth Building fund, by Ralph S. Hamilton and the youth of the community by Mona Davenport, Carol Duerr, Ann Ratigan, Quinton Walker and Jerry Schupert.

A variety of ideas for establishing and operating a Youth Center were presented and argued pro and con.

All agreed, however, that there was a need for such a Center and after it was established what a Center should offer, the discussion turned to ways of operating and managing the proposed Center.

The young people present recognized the need of an adult director but felt that the youths who would patronize the Center should be given a voice in the project through a student governing board which would decide on the rules, the punishment for those who would break the rules and the youth program for the center.

A membership plan for the youth of the community was proposed with guest cards available when members wished to bring guests to the Center. The withdrawal of membership cards for a specified time for various offenses was one way proposed for punishing members for breaking rules.

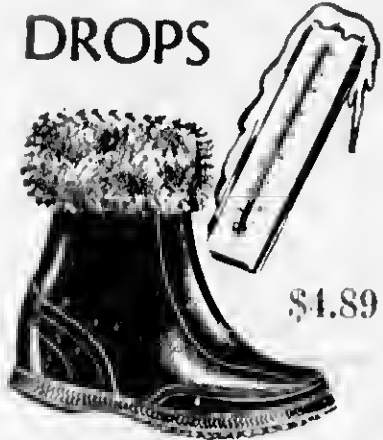

In summing up their ideas the high school students present said that they believed if the Center was to be a success it should be their job to assist in operating the Center under an adult advisor, with an adult board available for advice and direction if needed.

Various means of financing such a youth program were discussed and although no concrete proposals for financing and operating the proposed center resulted from the discussion, it did much to acquaint those present with the subject which is foremost in the minds of the residents of the community at this time.

Mrs. Davenport was program chairman. She was assisted in planning the program by Mrs. Charles Bleha, Mrs. Robert Anderson and Mrs. George Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Ross left Wednesday enroute to Holly Hill, Fla., where they will reside at 400 Daytona ave.

Edna Johnson Weds J. L. McDonough In Double Ring Church Service

St. James church in Grand Rapids was the scene of the wedding Saturday morning of Edna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Johnson of Grand Rapids and Joseph L. McDonough, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McDonough of St. James, Beaver Island.

The Rev. Hugo M. Behan officiated at the double ring service and the Nuptial Mass before an altar decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums in the presence of 250 guests. Traditional wedding music was played by the church organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin for her wedding. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline, long sleeves that came to points over the wrists, a full skirt with inserts of accordion-pleated tulle and a chapel length train. A veil of French illusion was secured by a crown. She carried a white prayer book topped with an arrangement of white baby chrysanthemums and roses.

Joy McDonough, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Susan Lange, cousin of the bride, and Emily Lovell were bridesmaids.

They wore identical waltz length princess style gowns of teal blue crystalet and carried nosegays of bronze chrysanthemums which matched their floral head-dresses.

Jeanne Wojan of St. James, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Ted Albrecht, nephew of the bride, was ring-bearer.

Bruce McDonough of St. James assisted his brother as best man and Glen McDonough, cousin of the bridegroom, and Anthony Greene, both of St. James, were ushers.

Mrs. Johnson selected a jacket dress of plum crepe, black accessories and a corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. McDonough wore a peacock blue two piece crepe dress, matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

An afternoon reception was held at Friendship hall following the wedding. The couple will be honored at a reception at Holly Cross parish hall at St. James on Nov. 16 after returning from a southern wedding trip on Nov. 15 to make their home at Beaver Island.

Masters and mistresses of ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wojan of St. James, Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Albrecht and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tiggelman of Grand Rapids.

The bride is a graduate of Mercy Central School of Nursing in Grand Rapids. The bridegroom is a veteran of three years in the U. S. Air Force.

Melin, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy dress, pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception followed in the church parlors.

After a brief wedding trip the couple will reside in Chelsea until Dec. 1 when they will go to Plymouth to make their home.

The bride, a graduate of Chelsea, has been employed in the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. business office at Chelsea as a business representative. Mr. Melin, also a Michigan Bell employee, is a graduate of the Charlevoix high school and a veteran of two years service in the U. S. Army, 16 months of which were spent in Korea.

MICHIGAN FARM leaders issued a warning to reduce rural worry over the coming of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

They agreed that untold wealth will accompany the widening and deepening of the channel from the Atlantic to the Great Lakes, bringing more people, industry and world markets.

"But we'll still need land for farming to feed all these people," said George S. McIntyre, State director of agriculture.

He said that the expansion of industry and residential suburbs possible with the Seaway boom threaten to overrun some of the better farm lands near the border lakes.

Agriculture in Michigan will be called upon to grow more food and livestock to feed the state and also to take advantage of the world markets.

"We'll need the land we have now and more probably," McIntyre said.

MICHIGAN State College is going to test the effectiveness of flu shots it has been providing free for several years.

Each fall when the students flock to the campus, they are offered the shots free when they complete registration. Doctors believe they do the trick and keep more students in classes instead of the infirmary, but they are going to make certain in tests this winter.

PEOPLE will disagree over toll highways until they are completed and paid for, a period of time which may out-distance the life span of those who are building them.

The toll theory is that those who use the roads pay for them. Free roads are financed from tax money, which often forces payment from people who never receive direct benefit.

After years of controversy, the new Michigan Turnpike Authority is getting started on a toll road between Detroit and the Saginaw-Bay City area.

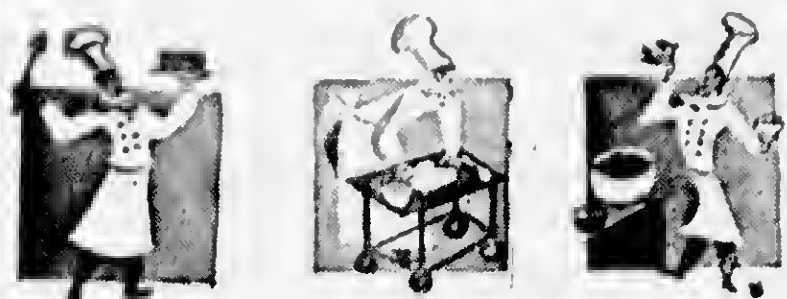

IT IS THE SECOND TRY. Monroe residents objected so strongly to the Authority taking over the Detroit-Toledo expressway, a free road now under construction, that plans were abandoned to make it a toll highway.

Already complaints are being heard about the proposed Detroit to Saginaw-Bay City toll road. Farmers do not want to eliminate farm-to-market roads; resort people want exit points nearby; gasoline dealers want stations on the superhighway.

THE LAW is quite clear on most points, giving the Authority power to make contracts for gasoline service on the highways, to build the roads and sell revenue bonds to pay for them.

Public policy is expected to make certain in the legislature that farmers and resort owners, vacationists and "average" motorists are protected.

For instance, one clause in the law requires that free highways come close to paralleling the toll roads.

MICHIGAN will get $551,000 in Federal money to improve airports in the state. Beneficiaries will be Willow Run airport near Ann Arbor, Detroit-Wayne County airport, Capital City airport at Lansing, Bishop Field at Flint, Kent county airport at Grand Rapids and Muskegon County airport at Muskegon.

This is the first year that southwestern Michigan fruit growers and other businessmen have received "an adequate share" for their air terminals at Muskegon and Grand Rapids.

"Many of them use the air for shipment and personal travel," said Brig. Gen. Lester J. Maitland, state aeronautics chief.

Another point in the increased Federal aid for the airports: employment which, especially around Muskegon and Detroit, has been at the crisis point for months.

WORK is underway on two major prison buildings which are part of an emergency housing program. The inmate population is creeping toward an all-time record of 10,000.

Corrections Director Gus Harrison said that the new $250,000 dormitory at Ionia Reformatory for 230 more men and the $50,000 man farm housing unit at Jackson will ease the situation for another two years.

"In addition we can shift around and get room for 270 more, which should ease the situation considerably," he said.

To make the picture even brighter, a new 600-man prison will be built at Ionia. It is expected to be ready within two years when the population reaches a desperation point again.

BUDD SAID tourists spend millions in Michigan each year — most of it taxable. This turns back money to the state treasury in liquor, sales, cigarette and other levies.

Legislators in the past have heard requests for more advertising money with an almost phenomenal lack of enthusiasm. They threaten to cast the council into oblivion and turn over the function to local Chambers of Commerce.

But, 1955 will be around Jan. 1 and the election will be history for another two years.

A Purpose for Living

It is impossible for any alert person to stroll along a stream's edge or saunter through a woods or tramp over a meadow without puzzling over the mysteries that confront him in every cedar bough and spruce branch, in every immobile stump and darting bird, in swirling waters and the thirsty creatures mirrored there.

Why all this variety of life? Why are not all trees alike? Could nature not have economized and made all trees from the birch pattern, or of hemlock design? Why is each snowflake different from every other snowflake that falls? Would snowflakes not serve their purpose just as well if they were not so intricately designed and of such variety of mold? Why do male deer grow antlers each spring, only to lose them again each fall? Wouldn't it be more sensible and less wasteful if bucks kept their antlers for a lifetime as buffalo do their horns? Why do raccoons dunk and wash their food, even though the present meal may be a clam that had been already washed by the brook for years before the raccoon captured it? Why do deer chew a cud, while squirrels do not? Why do some mushrooms poison human beings while red squirrels can gorge on them unharmed?

Why do we so incessantly ask questions? Because we believe there are answers. Life has meaning and everything a purpose for being. We would not ask the questions if we did not believe that somewhere there were answers.

Behind all philosophy and all religion there is one immense certainty: the world and everything in it has a meaning. Everything exists FOR some reason.

Defeat Boyne City 13-6 In Final Game To Move Into First

The Charlevoix Rayders racked up their second straight Northern Michigan Class C title Friday night with a 13-6 victory over the Boyne City Ramblers, chief contenders for the championship during the recent season.

Never in first place in league standings after losing to East Jordan in their opening game, the Rayders clinched the league lead and the title in a game highlighted by 60 minutes for good, hard football against determined Rambler players who were in sight of their first title in 10 years.

The game marked the end of high school gridiron athletic careers of 14 Rayder athletes, many of whom played outstanding ball during the game Friday.

In the game Friday night, two quick touchdowns, one on a 68-yard run by quarterback Tom LaBlance in the first period and a second by fullback Gary Vandenberg early in the second quarter with Quint Walker passing to end Dwain Walker for the extra point gave the Rayders a 13-0 halftime lead, which they protected until midway in the last period when Boyne City intercepted a Rayder pass inside their own five-yard line and marched the length of the field to score.

Walker and Swanson were co-captains of the 1954 Rayder squad.

Friday marked not only the conclusion of the Northern Michigan Class C football season but also the last gridiron appearance of some 61 young athletes, many of whom have earned outstanding recognition for their performances on the field.

The majority of this group will be graduated from high school in June; one, however, will be ineligible because he is now 19 years old and two others will transfer to another high school.

Charlevoix will be the hardest hit with the Rayders losing 14 players including nine regulars; East Jordan is counting ten who will be graduated; Mancelona, nine; Gaylord, eight; Boyne City and Harbor Springs, six each; Pellston five and Grayling, three.

The list includes veteran backs Gary Lucas, Don Wilks and Bob Jewell who also did the team's kicking and regular linemen Don Phillips and Terry Meeder, ends, Glen Alexander and John Conway, tackles, Glenn Watkins and Don Ryder, guards.

Others are regular guard Gary Swiss and regular tackle Bill Meyer plus a substitute tackle Jack Myers, who will be graduated in June and a sophomore-halfback, Ed Mathews, and a junior end, Ray Mann who will transfer to Petoskey where their respective families are now living.

Pellston's losses will be limited to four regulars, halfbacks Merlin Davenport and Russ Elmhorst, and Larry Carlson and guard Jack Kerridge and a substitute guard, Dick Marzalec.

Grayling will suffer the least by graduation, losing only three players, regular guards Ken Lazarewicz and Larry Balch and defensive halfback, Tom Gibbons.

On the first play from scrimmage LaBlance broke away and ran 68 yards to score. The kick for the extra point was blocked.

The Rayders kicked off to Boyne City but after collecting an offside penalty and losing seven yards on another play, they kicked to their own 48.

After being set back five yards for backfield in motion, Vandenberg ran the ball to the eight yard line as the first quarter ended.

On the second play of the second quarter, Vandenberg scored from the eight with Quint Walker passing to Dwain Walker for the point after touchdown.

From then on it was a defensive game with first one team and then the other gaining possession of the ball, only to lose it when they failed to gain ground. Boyne City intercepted a Rayder pass midway in the quarter but failed to take advantage of the break and later fumbled with Charlevoix recovering as the period ended.

Boyne City kicked off to open the second half but the Rayders failed to gain ground and kicked out of bounds on the Boyne 29.

After losing ground the Ramblers kicked to Charlevoix who were on the march when they fumbled and Boyne City recovered on their own 45. With Charlevoix breaking through the Boyne line, the Ramblers backs lost ground and were about to punt when the ball was fumbled in the backfield and Charlevoix recovered on the Boyne 35. The Rayders were threatening on the Boyne eight yard line when the period ended.

On the first play of the last period, Boyne City intercepted a Rayder pass inside the five yard line and in a march which picked up five first downs moved the ball into scoring position on Charlevoix's 24 yard

County Farm Bureau Plans Annual Drive

Plans for a membership drive to be conducted later this month by the Charlevoix county Farm Bureau have been announced by Leslie Sheridan of East Jordan, president of the county group.

Walter Fowler of South Arm township has been engaged as manager of the membership roll call which is scheduled to begin Nov. 29.

During the membership drive the county organization will attempt to increase its membership to 400 Charlevoix county families, Mr. Sheridan said.

In announcing the membership drive Mr. Fowler said that all farmers should belong to some group dedicated to bettering the farm program. The Farm Bureau, he feels is doing just that for it is fighting for a sound policy in agriculture as well as working for freedom for the farmer and the right to earn a high net spendable income.

The policies of the state and national Farm Bureaus originate in the local groups which make resolution recommendations to their county bureaus.

He went on to say that the Farm Bureau has much to offer Farm Bureau Women, for in addition to taking an active part in the Farm Bureau program the women concern themselves with programs of rural health, cancer and polio treatment, hospitals, schools and churches and issues of rural-urban understanding. Their objective is to make a rural community a better place in which to live.

In an effort to acquaint women throughout the world with the American way, they have financed visits to this country by women of several foreign countries, have provided scholarships for foreign students in Michigan colleges and others have opened their homes to foreign students so they might learn the American methods of farming.

Mr. Sheridan is president of the county Farm Bureau and Louis Jones of Melrose township is vice president.

At present the Charlevoix county Farm Bureau is composed of 16 local Farm Bureaus with a total of 320 members.

Danforth doing the scoring.

Rombach went over from the one yard line in the first period following a long drive with Bob Darbee kicking the extra point.

In the second period Danforth scored from the five and after a scoreless third period he went over again in the fourth quarter, this time from the 10 yard line. Darbee added the extra points on kicks.

The win by East Jordan gave the Red Devils permanent possession of third place as the season ended. The team had a four-win, two-tie and one loss record. Pellston finished in seventh with one win, one-tie and five losses after forfeiting two earlier games played while using an ineligible player.

Mancelone 12 Grayling 0
Although this game was the first win of the season for the Ironmen, Mancelone finished the season in fifth place.

Halfback Gary Lucas did the scoring for the Mancelone eleven against Grayling, going over from the 10 yard line in the first period and from the one foot line in the second quarter. The kicks for the extra points were blocked.

Grayling never threatened. Four ties early in the season plus two losses and Friday's win gave the Ironmen fifth place in league standings as the season ended. Grayling remained in the cellar with one tie and four losses.

Gaylord 25 Harbor Springs 19
In a game marked by either team on penalties, Gaylord's Dale Tolman scored three touchdowns and Jim Glasser the fourth for the victory which gave the Blue Devils possession of fourth place in the final standings.

Halfback Tolman opened the scoring with a 53 yard run on the second play of the game. A short time later Harbor Springs' quarterback Tom Clarke came through with a 36 yard run to score for the Rams.

Glasser scored from the one early in the second period after Gaylord quarterback Mike Freck on the 29 had passed to end George Middleditch on the one to set up the touchdown.

Rams quarterback Clarke took the Gaylord kick following the touchdown play and went 80 yards to rack up Harbor Springs' second touchdown for a 12-12 score at halftime.

Tolmen scored twice in the third period, once from the three yard line on a fourth down and from the seven after Bill Coon had brought the ball into scoring position on a long reverse play. Tolman added one of the extra points on a kick as the quarter ended 25-12.

Harbor fullback Kent Talcott went over from the one to score the last touchdown after Clarke had passed 45 yards to end Ray Mann who took the pass on the 20 and ran to the 10 before he was downed. Clarke carried the ball to the one from where Talcott went over on the next play. Talcott ran the ball over for the extra point.

Harbor Springs was on the march for another touchdown when Gaylord intercepted a Rams pass to stop the scoring threat as the game ended.

Harbor Springs ended the season in sixth place with one win, one tie and four losses. Gaylord, in fourth place, had a record of four wins and three losses.

No. 49 WATCH A PEDESTRIAN SETTING OFF A BUS

When you see a bus ahead on your right stopping to let off passengers, slow down and watch out as you go by. The front end of the bus is a "perfect" hiding place for a pedestrian. He can pop out from behind it in nothing flat.

A stopped bus should ring an alarm in the mind of the motorist just as a frontiersman is alerted when he approached a large tree trunk, which might hide an Indian on the war path.

"Accident-free" motorists are those who have made a specialty of spotting favorite hiding places of pedestrians and thus are able to slow down in time so they can stop in time.

City Is Prepared For 'Opportunity Days'

Class 'C' Basketball Teams Open Practice

Interest in Northern Michigan Class C sports is shifting from the gridiron to the basketball court this week as all eight schools in the loop prepare for the official opening of the 1954-55 basketball season December 3.

Most league coaches called practice sessions last week with an eye to looking over available material and giving the players a chance to do some shooting. This week most teams have settled down to drills and fundamentals with first scrimmages scheduled for late next week.

Boys City and Gaylord will open their schedules on Nov. 26 and Nov. 30 respectively with non-league games. Boys City will play at Petoskey the day after Thanksgiving and Gaylord will go to Cheboygan to play the Class B squad Nov. 30.

On Friday, Dec. 3, the league schedule will get underway with Charlevoix hosting Harbor Springs; Pellston play at Gaylord. Boys City traveling to Mancelona and East Jordan journeying to Grayling.

A look around the league this week revealed that Boys City will have five returning veterans who will also give them the tallest team in the league; East Jordan, Gaylord, Mancelona and Pellston will each have three veteran regulars; Charlevoix and Grayling two each and Harbor Springs one veteran.

In taking stock of his material in early practice sessions, Coach Del Terrill has found two regulars, Tom LaBlance and Guy Swanson, both guards, along with two lettermen, Dwain Walker and his cousin, Quilt, both forwards, and a transfer, Jerry Schupert, who came here from North Liberty, Ind., among his 30 candidates for the Varsity squad. Other players will come from among the following players moving up from the Reserves: Gary Vandenberg, Bill Kolker, Walt Pouquette, Joe Etienne, Charles Dennis, Kit Carson, Gene Towsley, Fred Putman, Gary Smith, Ron Coleman and Charles Pierce.

None of the players is above the 6 ft. mark. Coach Terrill said. At this time all Varsity berths are open with all candidates having the same chance of making the starting line-up in the first game against Harbor Springs here on Dec. 3. Coach Terrill added.

At Boys City where Coach Jay Baysinger is taking over the duties of basketball coach, such veterans as forwards Chub Rothberger, the Northrup twins, Murray and Nels, 6 ft. 1 and 6 ft. 2 in. respectively, Bob Fitzpatrick, a guard and Gordon Yahr, a center, were on hand for early practice sessions.

Plan To Install Sidewalk Box At Post Office Here

At a brief council meeting held Monday night at the city hall, the City Council discussed the existing and out-moded sign ordinance which is not being enforced and decided to turn the issue over to the City Planning Commission for further study and revision.

It was also decided to install a sidewalk mailbox on Bridge st. which could be reached from a parked car. The mailbox will be provided by the Post Office Department and two parking places on Bridge st. in front of the post office will be eliminated to allow patrons in cars access to the box.

Two 12 minute parking areas will be reserved on Antrim st. to replace the former Bridge st. parking places for other post-office patrons.

The city also decided to purchase a $5.00 membership in the Michigan Good Roads Federation.

Deer Hunters Report Fairly Small Kills

Bright, sunny skies with temperatures in the 30's ushered in the 1954 Michigan deer hunting season in northern Michigan.

With the woods dry and noisy and no snow for tracking the deer, hunters had little luck during the first days of the season.

First hunter to report his kill was John Pheil of Reed City, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, who filled his license with a six-point buck at 8:15 a.m. Monday in Marion township.

A short time later Ben Drost reported getting an eight point 200 pound buck on the Camp Dagwood road 1 1/2 miles off US 31 near Petoskey at 7:30 p.m.

Jerry Paul got his first buck, an eight point buck, near Mancelona at 7:15 a.m. Monday.

The oldest Charlevoix hunter and probably the oldest in the state to fill his license was Christ Drost who will be 90 years old on Christmas Day. Hunting with his son, George, near Alpena, he brought down his buck at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Kit Carson, hunting in the Two Heart district north of Newberry, got his buck on opening day, according to Floyd Brown who returned from the camp Monday night. Others at the camp are Rev. Harold E. Kohn, Frank Bird, Ted Coblenz and H. G. Bird of Traverse City.

Lloyd Cummings, hunting with a party near Wolverine brought down a big 16-point buck early Monday.

Among the other hunters who are at their respective camps are Ray Ashdon who is located near Johannesburg where his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dalton and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Elliot of Detroit are camping. Mr. Ashdon was accompanied by his brother-in-law, Roy Kellogg and grandson, Gary Coveanu of Petoskey.

The Randall Crumps and the Orlin Cummings are camping and hunting near Vanderbilt where Les Smith and Wilson Ward joined them on Monday.

George Roff, accompanied by Jack Stokan of Detroit, are hunting near Kalkaska.

Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Whitten have gone to their favorite hunting site east of here.

These are only a few of the many hunters who are hunting at favorite grounds in the eastern section of the state, the upper peninsula and in Charlevoix county.

Perry Sales Co. in Petoskey has extended an invitation to the car-conscious public to visit their showroom and see the new trend-setting Buick.

Holiday time is turkey time in Charlevoix county as growers prepare to send 16,000 turkeys to the Thanksgiving and Christmas markets. Pictured are Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Matchett, who are among the 15 growers in the county who raised more than 18,000 birds this year.

Six Charlevoix Rayders Named On League All-Conference Teams

Six members of the Charlevoix Rayders' 1954 championship team have been given recognition on the Northern Michigan Class C All-Conference teams named this week by the league coaches.

Three Rayder players won berths on the first team, two were named to the second team and two received honorable mention.

Boys City and East Jordan also had three players named to the first team which has 13 members due to the close race for line positions: Mancelona won two berths and Gaylord and Pellston one each. Harbor Springs and Grayling failed to place players or the first team but Harbor Springs managed to win one berth on the second team and three Grayling players were given honorable mention.

County Turkey Growers Raise Fewer Birds

Charlevoix county turkey growers are becoming fewer in number and are also raising fewer of the traditional holiday birds than in the past a survey made this week by the Charlevoix Courier has revealed.

The survey also showed that growers were changing from the once-favored broad-breasted bronze turkey to the smaller white birds and that equally as many birds are being raised for the Christmas market as for the Thanksgiving trade. In the past the majority of birds were sold on the November market.

This year 15 growers, two less than in 1953, raised a total of 18,200 turkeys as compared with 24,500 last year and 28,500 in 1952.

The shrinking margin of profit, the unstable market and the rising cost of feed are among the chief reasons given by growers for leaving the business.

Granny Drives
But Won't "Shift"

Saw Grandma Taylor parking her 1924 Franklin out front the other day. Neat as a pin, radiator and hubcaps gleaming—the whole car is as shiny as the day she bought it 30 years ago.

Then I stopped and looked again—for there, hanging on the spare tire was a sign: "This car NOT for sale."

Asked Granny what was going on. "Joe," she says, "it's this crazy for old cars. Everybody wants to buy my Franklin. But it has served for years and it's not for sale at any price."

From where I sit, it's strictly the new cars for me—but Grandma Taylor, and others, are certainly welcome to their "old faithfuls." It's simply a question of preference. Same with a choice of beverages. For instance, I like a temperate glass of beer with supper. You may prefer coffee. Fine! The important thing is that we respect each other's choice—and "ride along smoothly" together.

M.S.C. Establishes Scholarship To Honor Dr. Holden

A new scholarship to be known as the Perry Greeley Holden scholarship has been established by the Corn Foundation at Michigan State college in honor of Dr. Holden who has assisted in the organization of the Corn Foundation.

Perry G. Holden

The scholarship is for $1,000 but it is not known how it will be awarded.

A former Charlevoix resident, Dr. Holden assembled his impressive collection of bulletins, charts, circulars, newspaper clippings, books, etc., while living here with his daughter, Mrs. Elsworth Besemer and the late Mr. Besemer. Several years ago he presented the collection to Michigan State college from where he was graduated 65 years ago. The new library on the Michigan State college campus which is now under construction will have a section for the Corn Foundation where Dr. Holden's contribution will be housed.

Dr. Holden, through whose efforts hybrid corn was developed before the turn of the century was instrumental through his experiments and work with the Corn Gospel Trains 50 years ago in bettering the lots of the corn farmers, especially in Iowa. Since his retirement he has worked ceaselessly toward assembling his collection about corn and organizing the Corn Foundation at Michigan State college.

In a recent broadcast one of his former students and associates, R. K. Bliss of the Iowa State College Extension Service, told the story of Dr. Holden, what he has done for the corn farmer and his work with the Michigan State College Corn Foundation which has now honored him by naming a scholarship for him.

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Great new 8

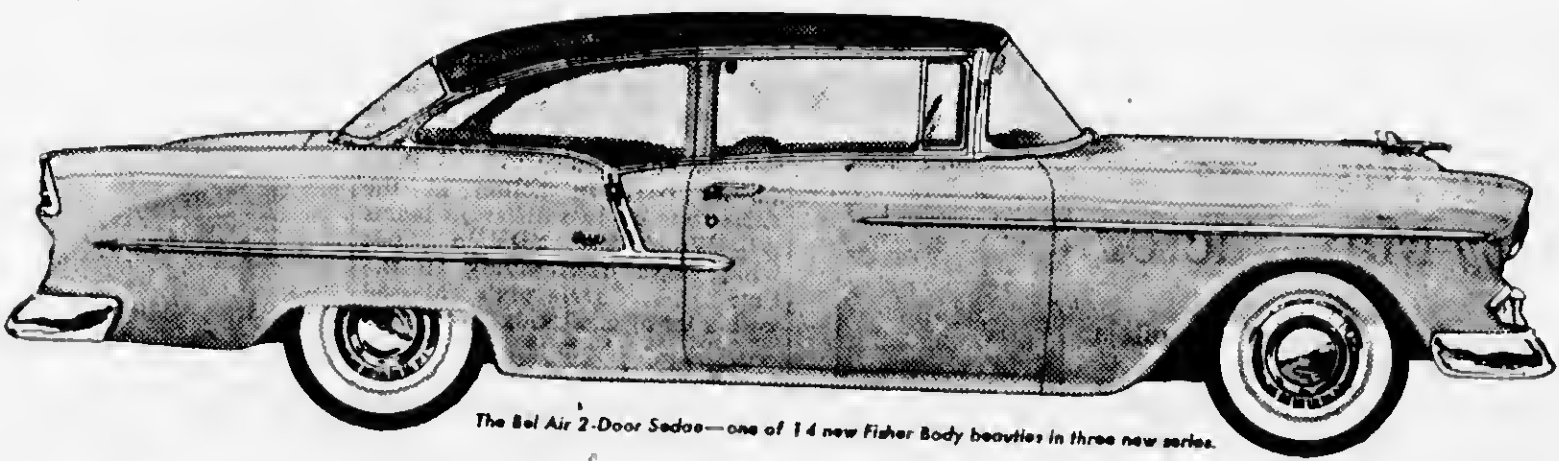

Two new 6's 6

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and drive the new "Turbo-Fire V8!"

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. They're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car!

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

TURKEY is turkey, we suppose, no matter how you slice it, but we also think that the traditional bird has a streak of 'ham' in him. . . . And if you don't believe us, take a look at the picture which accompanies our annual turkey story and you'll see what we mean. . . . Harold Totten was preparing to snap a shot of the Sanford Matchetts at their turkey farm when Sir Thomas strutted himself right into focus. . . . Not wanting to hurt his feelings, Harold relegated the Matchetts and the turkey they were holding to a secondary position and snapped the picture. . . . And wouldn't he look beautiful. . . . come next Thursday. . . . on your dinner table all decked out in a beautiful brown coat and running over with lucious dressing. . . . Mmm. . . .

AND speaking of Thanksgiving next Thursday. . . . Don't forget that the big day. . . . Christmas. . . . is exactly five weeks from day after tomorrow with only 30 shopping days after today remaining. . . . So don't say we didn't warn you. . . . And when you're making out that list and scratching your head for gift suggestions. . . . take a look around town and you'll find all sorts of suitable things that we'll bet you didn't even know were here. . . .

AND WHILE you're relaxing after that 'scrumpious' Thanksgiving dinner next week, take time out to think about the true meaning of the day and be grateful for the glorious ancestors who wanted so much all the things we take for granted, that they endured untold hardships. . . . for all the brave souls who, since 1620, have helped write our illustrious history and made this country what it is today. . . . be grateful that there is peace. . . . an uneasy peace, we'll grant you, but peace nevertheless. . . . be grateful that you have what you have, no matter how much or how little. . . . And if you think you have nothing to be thankful for. . . . look about you and if you still see nothing. . . . Chum, you're in a bad way. . . .

WE DON'T know whether the Irish on Beaver Island know about it or not, but they're about to have their island sold right out from under them. At least they are if we believe a story which first appeared in Parade and later was reprinted in the Nov. issue of Catholic Digest. . . . Under the title "Land for sale. . . Cheap," the article tells the story of lands which can be purchased through the Bureau of Land Management.

It mentions a group of people from Zealand who 'discovered' High Island west of the Beavers, formed the High Island Corp., bid a 40 acre plot in for $400 and now own the place. . . . It didn't mention what they plan to do with it. . . . It goes on to say that because of the pioneering work done by the High Island Corp., two more Islands have been discovered in Lake Michigan. . . . South Fox and Beaver Islands which combine wooded land, fishing water and bathing beaches. According to the article, they ought to be within the price range of the average working man. . . .

AS SEEN IN LIFE

Mrs. Leo Putman Is Honored At Party

A birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Leo Putman was held at the Hub in Conway Saturday evening.

Among those who attended were Mrs. Dan Peters, Mrs. Patrick of Charlevoix and Howard Peters of Boyne City.

End of paragraph. . . . And we'll leave the comment to you. . . . Incidentally, The 'Cornie' Geikens called our attention to that one. . . .

AND Stan Cartier wants to know if there's any chance that we can sue a certain popular men's magazine for its story "King of the Beaver Islands" which appeared last summer. . . . We haven't read the story but it seems there were some 'not too nice' remarks about the people of Charlevoix. . . . Must take time out to read it. . . . Stan sent the magazine from Charlotte, N. C. so we could read it, so it's just a matter of not taking time. . . .

IT WAS good to hear from our old friend, Dr. P. G. Holden again. . . . and to learn that his work in the advancement of corn and the corn grower is being recognized more and more. . . . You'll notice elsewhere in this issue a story about a scholarship being named in his honor. . . . You'd never know that he was nearing the 60 mark for he's as full of ambition and plans as he was years ago. . . .

LAST week we mentioned the new license plates and the fact that they are green and white in honor of Michigan State Centennial year. . . . Dr. W. F. Hoffman, who among other things, collects stamps, told us that the post office department would issue a special commemorative stamp for the one hundredth anniversary of first land-grant colleges. . . . Pennsylvania State University and Michigan State college. . . .

FROM THE deep South last week a card from the Bill Matzingers who were enroute to Florida via New Orleans where they stopped off to get some good food in the French Quarter. . . .

AND A note from John Schroeder about the Boyne City game. . . . It went on to say that it would be nice to know the paid attendance at this game and compare it with the best previous afternoon game. . . . He added that he thought the comparison would certainly be a pat on the back for those who worked for and contributed to the fund to light the field. . . . We think everyone will agree to that, for certainly lots more people are getting to see the games at night. . . . And every northern Michigan community was well represented at that game. . . .

AND IF you're a Korean War veteran and if you are counting on that bonus which the state approved in the recent election, don't go out and spend it right away. . . . 'Cause the applications won't be ready 'til well into next year. . . . late January at the earliest. . . . according to Ken Forbes, American Legion service officer who passed that info on to us. . . . He'll have application blanks when they're ready. . . .

SATURDAY was a proud, proud day for Charlevoix. . . . Those of you who saw the Michigan-Michigan State game or heard it will know what we mean. . . . For there aren't many Class C schools anywhere and certainly there weren't any others Saturday. . . . which could boast players on two Big Ten teams on the field at the same time. . . . Actually, the highlight of the game for Charlevoixians was when Charlie Fairbanks went in to the line-up for State and minutes later Jim Bowman went in for Michigan. . . . The two were classmates back here as well as the best of friends. . . . Those who knew the pair were thrilled to pieces for them. . . . Besides their respective families, probably the proudest guy among the close to 100,000 watching the game in the stadium was their former coach, Del Terrill, for not many coaches from Class C schools get to see two of their former boys in action at the same time on two different teams. . . . Which just goes to prove what we've been saying all the time. . . . Charlevoix's blessed with a lot of good kids. . . .

SIX members of the 1954 Ray-squad were singled out this week and given recognition as members of the All-Conference teams. . . . Only six were named but in our book every player who went onto the gridiron this fall was a candidate for that 'dream' team. . . . 'Cause without those other 10 guys on the field, a single player just ain't goin' no place. . . . So tho' only six Rayder names appeared in print, you'll see, if you look between the lines, the names of those who helped put them there. . . . And we know that those six will be the first to agree with us. . . . So, a deep bow to our own 'dream' team. . . . The Rayders. . . . all 36 of 'em. . . .

Issue 72 Thousand Permits For State's Any Deer Season

Lansing—Distribution of about 72,000 permits for hunting in Michigan's special any deer season will be completed early this week.

Harry Cox, in charge of distribution, said all but a handful of the permits were mailed during the first week of November. He said pre-assigned quotas for areas B and D were filled and that area A was about half filled before the November 1 deadline for application. No further applications are being considered.

"We have mailed 40,188 permits for area D, 21,435 for area B and 10,031 for area A," he added. Final late applications were slated for processing early this week.

The three areas are located in the northern lower peninsula. On December 1, a permit-holder can take any deer he sees in his assigned area, unless he has bagged a deer earlier in the season. Each licensed hunter is allowed one deer per season, whether taken in archery, regular or special season; the permit is invalid if the hunter bags his deer in one of the earlier seasons.

Sheep can stand a lot of cold weather if they have a dry shelter, M.S.C. sheep specialists say.

FARMER'S FRIEND

MICHIGAN'S agriculture produces approximately 10 percent of the State's income!

And, to the Michigan farmer, motor transport is next in importance to the land itself. Over 80,000 trucks are hard at work on Michigan's farms — vital tools in all phases of farm work.

Not only are trucks indispensable to the farmer in the successful operation of his farm — trucks also form a vital link to the outside world.

The town or shopping center where the farmer does his buying is stocked by trucks and trailers which operate 'round the clock to bring him and his family — swiftly and economically — an ever wider selection of the necessities and luxuries of life.

We bring you
THE 1955 BUICK
New thriller in Style—Power—Performance

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

A BRIGHT NEW FRESHNESS greets your eyes, and tells you: Buick's done it again.

You see it in the hold distinction of that gleaming Wide-Screen Grille. You see it in the rakish sweep of the rear-end contours. You see it in the whole fore-and-aft newness of fleet-lined grace that marks Buick the beauty thrill of 1955.

New horsepower—up to 236
You learn more when you get the power story. Up to new peaks go the horsepower of every Buick V8 engine—a wallowing 188 hp in the low-price SPECIAL—a mighty 236 hp in the CENTURY, SUPER and ROADMASTER.

And it's new, more responsive, far ailer power you can literally feel as you go.

But even bigger Buick news for 1955 is something more than style and power. It's what the "variable pitch propeller" now has done for Dynaflo Drive.*

Up goes performance—and gas mileage too

When you find it necessary to push the pedal to the floor board, you do more than call on the greatest high-compression V8 power in Buick history.

You do what a pilot does when he heads his plane down a runway. You do in oil what he does in air—you cut down take-off time by using "variable pitch propellers."

In this case, the propeller blades are inside the Dynaflo unit. But they're engineered to swivel or change their "pitch" just like plane propellers—and with the same result: one pitch for getaway, another pitch for gas-saving fuel efficiency.

And what you get in the way of instantaneous safety-surge with absolute smoothness, you can only believe when you feel it.

This you have to try

Of course, we want you to come and see the trend-setting new Buicks—look into the betterments in gasoline mileage that add new thrills to these spectacular cars.

But this year, "seeing" is only the beginning. So—while you join the crowds viewing the new Buicks this week end, make a date to get behind the wheel as soon as you possibly can. We promise you the thrill of the year.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

From know-how gained in building

50 MILLION CARS

comes an all-new General Motors masterpiece

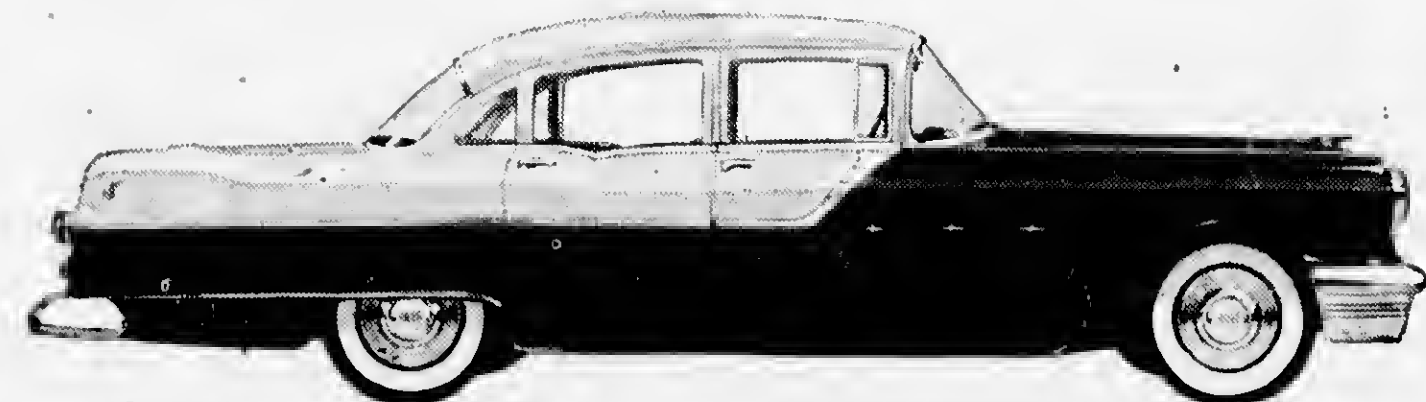

PONTIAC FOR '55

The 1955 Pontiac is getting a royal welcome. "It's hot," they're saying, "the hot car of the year." And no wonder! With its Vogue Two-Tone styling and Strato-Streak V-8 engine, Pontiac wraps up more beauty, luxury, size and power than a like amount of money ever bought before. The price is near the lowest, but the car is way out front in everything that makes an automobile great.

The reason lies in the achievement General Motors is now celebrating—the vast experience gained in building 50 million cars. Research experience that uncovers what you want and need. Design experience that creates new trends. Engineering experience producing more dollar-for-dollar quality year after year.

That's the background of this All-New General Motors Masterpiece. Come in, drive it, and find out what it means to you. Let your own eyes tell you that here is the smartest car on the highway. Let your own hands report the new handling perfection brought about by recirculating ball steering and other advancements in the all-new shock-proof chassis. And let the great new Strato-Streak V-8 whisper its tale of getaway, response and compelling power that make driving a brand-new experience.

Then let us tell you about Pontiac's new thrift and reliability—and how little it costs to buy this future-fashioned beauty. Come in soon and get the exciting facts!

Farm Census Is Nearing Halfway Mark In Region

The 1954 Census of Agriculture is about 50 percent completed in the 36 counties covered by the field office at Ludington, according to Field Supervisor Hans C. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen stated that he was well pleased with the cooperation the census enumerators are receiving from farmers in this area and has high hopes of completing the canvass by the scheduled closing date of Dec. 1, 1954. He pointed out that enumeration of farms is one of the larger costs of the census and that cooperation of farmers in completing questionnaires promptly will be a vital factor in keeping down the final cost of the undertaking. Quick completion of the census will not only help in keeping costs down but will aid in prompt publication of the results, Mr. Rasmussen said. He urged local farmers who had not already done so to complete the census questionnaire and have it ready when the enumerator calls.

Winter 'Overcoat' For Evergreen May Save Trees

It's overcoat weather for shrubs and evergreens.

Unless you give them protection this winter you may have to buy new plants next year, warns Bill Love, extension municipal forester at Michigan State.

Love offers these hints on protecting ornamentals against drying winds, ice, heavy snow, and other winter hazards:

Mulch around evergreens and shrubs with leaves, straw or something similar to stop repeated freezing and thawing and deep-freezing of the soil.

Tip up limber-stemmed plants so they won't break under snow and ice. Burlap tied around vines and roses helps protect them against cold.

Mound up soil around roses and put on mulch to cut down winter injury to grafted plants.

Plant shrubs far enough from the eave line to keep water from dripping on them and freezing. Love adds that it's a good idea to shake the snow off evergreens after a heavy fall.

The Rayders introduced this week are the last of 36 players who were pictured throughout the '54 season.

department of agriculture's bureau of plant industry. In that event the bill of sale alone is not adequate. An inspection of the trees or plants is necessary before they may be removed from the property on which they are growing. Inspection can be arranged upon request to Mr. Boyer at his bureau in the Agricultural department offices in the Cass building at Lansing. Members of the department within coming weeks will check on tree cutters and land descriptions to see that trees are legally cut.

Persons not the original owners such as brokers, truckers, sales lot operators or anyone buying or selling trees must keep for two years the bills of sale, which must be shown upon the request of any enforcement officer.

Property owners may transport Christmas trees or evergreen boughs from their own property without a bill of sale providing they can prove ownership of such property. Persons transporting less than six trees are exempt.

Transporting native trees or plants with roots attached is a different matter, according to C. A. Boyer, chief of the Michigan

Turkey Carving No Challenge If You're Prepared

That Thanksgiving turkey is going to be carved by someone. Are you the one elected to do it?

If you are, home economists at Michigan State college have a few ideas that may help you.

Convention doesn't say you have to sit while carving that big bird. If you are more comfortable standing, go ahead and stand. And remember, when you are carving, you are presiding over the meal. It's up to you to know how much to serve and when to offer second helpings.

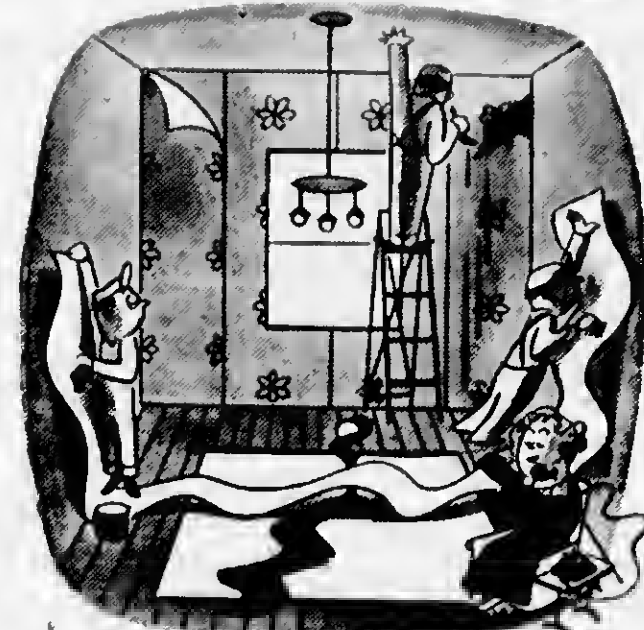

Your carving can be made so much easier if you take a few minutes before the meal to make sure that your knife is sharp. You might practice handling that knife, too. If you can avoid changing the angle of the blade while slicing, the slices of turkey will be neater and more uniform, look better and go farther.

Try using a little foresight, too, when you preside over that Thanksgiving meal. Plan the servings so that the choicest portions will be divided equally among the guests and so that not all is carved before needed. Second helpings will stay much warmer as pieces of the bird rather than as slices.

Probably the prime rule of carving turkey is to cut across the grain of the meat. If you cut with the grain, the long meat fibers tend to give a stringy appearance.

Having a good set of records makes income tax filing time less trouble, M.S.C. specialists point out.

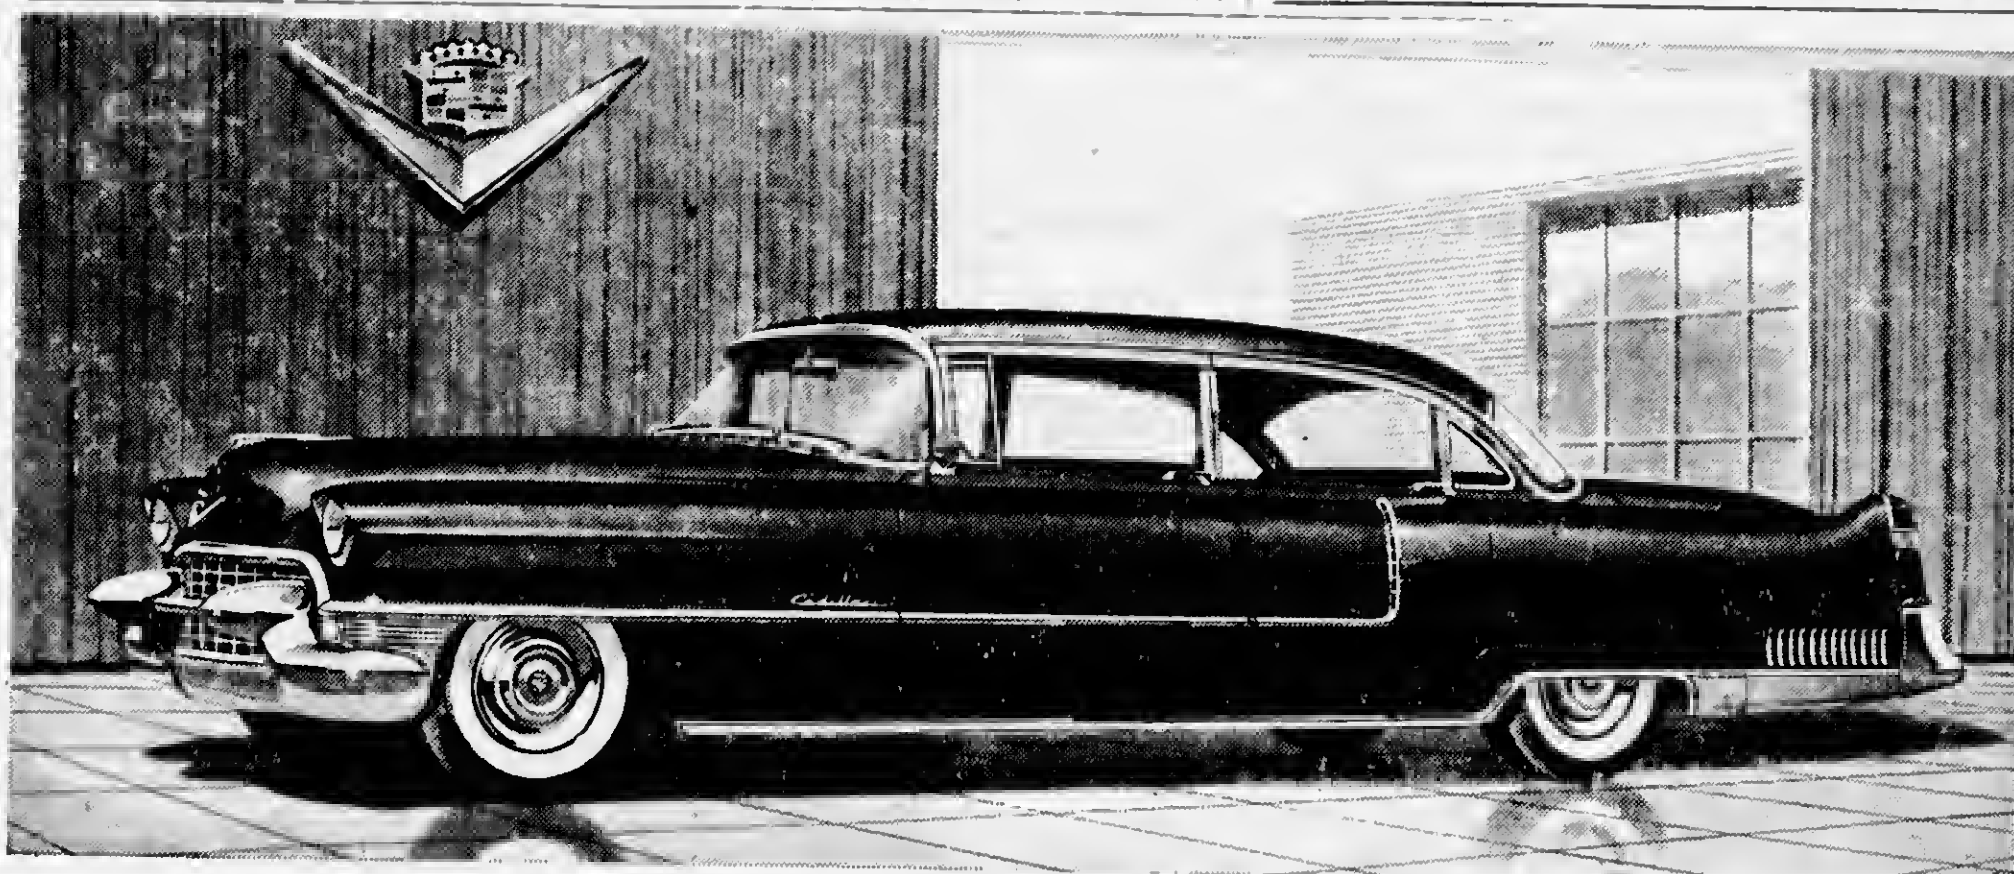

"Wouldn't next week suit you better? This week I'm busy with interior decorators."

Mrs. Liskum Is Awarded Trip To 4-H July Camp

Sadie Liskum, leader of the South Arm 4-H club was among eight leaders in Michigan to be awarded an all-expense paid trip to the 4-H Club Conservation Camp next July.

Mrs. Liskum was given the award for her efforts in aiding boys and girls of the South Arm Club to develop their conservation practices, announced K. C. Festerling, District 4-H Club agent.

The eight awards, the first in history to be given to 4-H Club leaders for conservation work, were presented by the Michigan Chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America. The Michigan 4-H Club state officers helped in the selection.

Besides these eight awards, the society will present 75 certificates of merit to other outstanding leaders. The certificates will be given at leader recognition banquets during the winter months.

Girlieqigs

Thinking the other day that I never go down town that I don't see Chuck Duerr either going in or out of the local post office, I remembered that I hadn't played my favorite game of negatives since the last time I told you about it.

So all last week I dedicated my daydreaming thusly . . . fr instance, I've never seen Bill Raligan that I didn't look to see what he had on his head today . . . or Chief Heisa, that I didn't remember not to (b) Turn the corner as quickly as possible after signaling for a right turn.

I'll bet a cookie two good looking gals in one town never looked more alike than Ginny Hoffman and Alice Bellinger . . . and speaking of cookies, you will never see a cuter ooo-ooo! clock than the one in William's Pastry Shop!

I don't expect to ever see John Schroeder with a distinguished hair out of place . . . or Wayne Bolding without a mustach and a new promotion.

There's never been a town like ours that folks love more to come back to . . . or hate more to leave. Beauty has no inferiority complex here and doesn't hesitate to tell you so, in a million ways or more.

If the sun doesn't shine today, Laura Courier's smile will . . . and Bob Lieberman's friendliness will . . . and Bob Neff's humour will.

About now the boss will start to cut my column space. So we'll continue our recipe for Charlevoix next week. Okay?

Conservation Group Outlines Legislative Program For Year

Lansing — Next step for the conservation commission's 38-point program of proposed conservation law changes is state legislative consideration.

The commission discussed the program for the coming legislative year at a recent meeting. It included requests that the legislature:

1. Change the general trout season opening date from the last Saturday in April to the second Saturday in May and that the closing date be shifted from the second Sunday in September to Labor Day;

2. Authorize a number of areas of state lands for experimental management of various wildlife species such as quail and muskrat;

3. Continue commission discretionary authority over the lower peninsula deer herd;

4. Authorize an annual $2,000,000 fund for state parks to provide revenue for park improvements;

5. Repeal the fox bounty, and

6. Provide an open season on black squirrels.

The commission also asked department workers to study the possibility of removing creel limits on bluegills, sunfish, war-mouth and rook bass, crappies and perch.

Also included in the program were requests for several changes in commercial fishing laws and clarification of phrasing in certain statutes.

A total of 470 boys and girls will exhibit livestock at the Detroit Junior Livestock Show, Dec. 7-9.

Local Turkey Growers Raise Fewer Birds

Early this month the price dropped to its lowest point in recent years with tom turkeys bringing as little as 22 cents and hens 30 cents a pound live weight or 10 cents less than the lowest price offered last year. Since then, however, the market has come up to 24 cents for toms and 33 for hens and growers are hopeful that it will find its way to a higher level before their birds go to the Christmas market.

Approximately 2,200 tested birds from this year's flocks will be retained by 10 of the 15 growers in the county. The fertile eggs from these flocks will be sold during the next few months to southern Michigan hatcheries, most of which are located in the Holland-Zeeland area.

In the past the majority of birds raised in the county were the large broad-breasted bronze birds. However, approximately half of today's birds are of the white varieties, Beltsville whites, white Hollands, white Evergreens, white Empires, white Kings and the white bird developed by a Bellaire grower, the white Or-cut. Growers say the smaller breeds are better for family use and the larger white birds, though they have many of the characteristics of the bronze birds, do not have the black pin-feathers and are a better looking bird to market.

Hiram Brock whose farm is located near East Jordan, is the largest grower in the area with 5,700 turkeys, an increase of 1,700 over last year. The flock includes approximately 1,200 bronze birds and 4,500 white Beltsville birds. After saving about 40 of the bronze variety for breeders, the others will be sold live weight on the southern Michigan market. A breeding flock of 125 white birds will be kept and the remainder butchered at the processing plant owned by Mr. Brock. The birds will be oven-dressed, frozen and stored for sale on both the Thanksgiving and Christmas markets.

The John Barkdolls, the only growers located north of Charlevoix, have the second largest flock in the area. It includes 2,200 Emoire whites, a broad-breasted bronze bird. After sorting out a breeding flock of approximately 350 birds, 800 will be sold on the Thanksgiving market, including 200 which have been oven-dressed for sale locally. The remainder will be sent to the Christmas market. Last year they raised 2,400 bronze birds.

John L. Boss will keep a breeding flock of 225 birds and sell the remainder of his flock of 2,000 broad-breasted bronze birds on the Thanksgiving market at Breckenridge.

Rudy Korth, whose flock numbers 1,000 turkeys, 200 less than last year, will save a breeding flock of 225 birds; sell approximately 550 birds live weight on the Detroit market this week and hold the remainder for the December market.

Eldon Pettar, Addison Chew and Sanford Matchett each have flocks numbering approximately 1,000 turkeys. Mr. Pettar, who increased his flock of white Evergreens from 400 last year to 1,000 this year, will save a breeding flock of 200 birds and sell the remainder on the Christmas market in southern Michigan.

Mr. Chew, who has a flock of Hamilton strain bronze birds, half as many as in 1953, will keep a breeding flock of from 300 to 350 turkeys and market the remaining birds live weight on the southern Michigan market this week. Mr. Matchett, whose flock is made up of both bronze and white birds will keep a breeding flock of 300 hens and toms and sell the remainder locally on both major holiday markets.

John Brock, who had 1,500 turkeys last year has cut his flock to 900 this year. The flock includes 500 Beltsville whites and 400 bronze hens. The latter will be placed on the Thanksgiving market in southern Michigan and the white birds will be saved for Christmas market.

Albert Carlson has 850 white Hollands which he plans to sell in New York or feather dressed in southern Michigan. Approximately 350 birds will be sold for the Thanksgiving market with the remainder of the flock held over for the Christmas market.

Jolmar Rombach with 700 bronze birds will save a breeding flock of 150 turkeys and market the others on the Thanksgiving market in southern Michigan.

Ole Nielsen and Richard Potter each have flocks numbering 500 birds. The Nielsens sold their entire bronze flock live weight on the Detroit market earlier this month. Mr. Potter will keep a breeding flock of 150 birds and sell the remainder of his flock of white Evergreens on the southern Michigan Christmas market.

Lawrence E. Boss, whose flock numbers 350 birds, an increase of 150 over last year's, will keep 200 breeders and market the remainder of the big white birds dressed on this month's market in southern Michigan.

Lawrence Boss with 200 bronze turkeys has sold his entire flock live weight to the Locust Grove market at Traverse City, Rowley Williams with the same number of white Kings will market his birds locally on both holiday markets.

Arlo Wickersham whose flock numbered 5,000 birds and Burwell Meston who had a flock of 650 birds last year were not in the business this year.

FRENCH Premier Pierre Mendes-France and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles have agreed on early "ratification of the Paris agreements" to return West Germany, and informally decided to reject a last-minute Russian bid to halt that move. They also agreed on "co-ordinated procedures" to meet a growing Communist threat in Indochina.

THE Administration has drafted legislation for a 90-day economic freeze including wage-price controls to be sent to Congress should President Eisenhower decide the Communist threat calls for all-out mobilization.

THE UNITED STATES has rejected Soviet Russia's new move to clamp Security Council veto power on President Eisenhower's atom-for-peace plan.

LABOR Secretary James P. Mitchell believes "all indications now point closer than ever before" to a merger between the AFL and the CIO.

SOVIET leader Andrei Vishinsky died Monday of a heart attack while preparing for one of the most important debates in his career as the Soviet Union's leading orator. In the opinion of official Washington, his passing will mean no change in the relations of the United States and the United Nations with Russia.

Stick together to stamp out TB with Christmas Seals.

Local Schools To Close For Recess On Thanksgiving

The Charlevoix public schools will dismiss classes at 3 p.m. Wednesday for the Thanksgiving recess, Supt. R. G. Bennett has announced.

Classes will open at the usual time, 9 a.m. Monday, Nov. 29. St. Mary's Parochial school as well as rural schools in the area, will also observe the Thanksgiving holiday with a two-day vacation.

The next recess will be for the Christmas holidays with school closing Dec. 22 for an 11-day vacation. Classes will be resumed on Jan. 3.

Annual Sale Of TB Seals Gets Underway

The 1954 tuberculosis Christmas Seals, with a total of 250 children running across the face of each sheet, will be delivered to homes in the Charlevoix area this week.

These seals, according to the Michigan TB Association, are representative of the legion of children who will be given more safety from tuberculosis through your Christmas seal purchase.

Although nearly 50 per cent of last year's more than 5,600 new TB cases were among persons over 45 years of age, the association cites records showing that TB still strikes many Michigan children. In 1953, for instance, 360 young folks including some infants, were among the newly found TB victims.

The disease, caused by a germ and spread by uncovered coughs and sneezes, is labeled the most expensive problem in public health today. Each case of tuberculosis costs an estimated $15,000. Even though modern sanatorium care methods have brightened the outlook for victims, the disease breaks home circles and causes heavy loss for the patient and his family.

At the last count, the TB association reported about 4,700 men, women and children were isolated in Michigan sanatoriums struggling to regain health and live normal lives.

Christmas Seal sales contributions are leveled at preventing the disease . . . stopping the TB germ before it strikes. Out of every dollar given, 94 cents fights TB in Michigan with the rest going to the national TB association for research and other country-wide TB programs.

The team has been cut to 15 members for the present but others may be brought up from the Reserves later in the season, Coach Terrill said.

The starting line-up for the opening game will be named from the following players: Tom LaBlance, Dwan Walker, Jerry Schupert, seniors; Quint Walker, Guy Swanson, Gary Vandenberg, Walt Pouquette, Bill Kolker, Charlie Denis, Joe Elcinne, Kit Carson, Fred Putman, Gary Smith, Ron Coleman, juniors and Glen Ikens, a sophomore.

Will Observe First B. I. E. Day On Dec. 8

Charlevoix industries, businesses and schools will cooperate in observance of the first annual Business-Industry-Education Day here Wednesday, Dec. 8.

Plans for the first observance of what has become known as B. I. E. Day were formulated at an earlier meeting of industrial, business and school leaders and Prof. Carl Horn of Michigan State college.

General purpose of the event is to reach a mutual understanding between business, industry and education that will help both in developing youth to contribute more efficiently to our economy and perpetuate the American way of life.

Six groups will be organized and will call on local manufacturing plants and retail businesses following a brief meeting at the high school during which Supt. R. G. Bennett of the program committee speaks on the purpose of the program.

After touring local plants and businesses the meeting will be adjourned until 6:15 when the faculty and the board of education will be guests of the industrial organizations at a dinner at the Masonic Temple.

The planning committee for the first annual B. I. E. Day includes Roy R. Robinson, H. E. Bingham, Gordon Freedman and Mr. Bennett.

Firemen Will 'March' To Aid Dystrophy Fund

Some time during Thanksgiving week, just about every family in Charlevoix will be called upon by one of our volunteer firemen, marching about town on his own time, for contributions toward abolishing the menace called muscular dystrophy.

The reason for the visit, according to Dan W. Geniet, local chairman of the Fire Fighters March for Muscular Dystrophy, is that the local volunteer fire department has pledged its support to a nationwide campaign to act as pick-up messengers for funds donated to carry out the work of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc.

Muscular dystrophy is an incurable, non-contagious, progressive disease of the muscles. Muscles gradually waste away, ending in crippling, or total disability. It is always fatal in children. No treatment or cure has yet been discovered and medical research holds the only hope for its victims.

From coast to coast, American communities have dedicated the month of November to the Fire Fighters March for Muscular Dystrophy. The Charlevoix volunteer firemen are aiding the fund raising campaign and the support of each and every local person is needed.

During the Thanksgiving week-end the local firemen will make a house to house call to pick up envelopes which have been received by each householder in the mail previous to the campaign. These donations will be turned over to the Association to further their study and research towards stamping out this dread disease.

The Fire Siren will sound a signal each evening as the firemen start on their campaign, and let this signal be a reminder to have your donation in the envelope ready for the firemen when he calls.

Cocktail Lounge Is Now Open In New Weathervane

Saturday marked the opening of the new cocktail lounge located in the lower level of the Weathervane on Pine River Lane. The lounge is as typically unique as the rest of the beautiful building and its rustic decor lends a rath-skeller atmosphere in definite contrast to the modern sophistication of the main dining room.

Descending a wide stone-paneled circular stairway from the main entrance on the Lane, you are met with a superb view of Pine River, entrance to the harbor from Lake Michigan. Huge floor to ceiling windows contour the south wall across from an angular fireplace wall of textured grey stone.

Tremendous plank-topped cocktail tables flank the outward view of the lounge, the slabs being hewn from a four foot in diameter "Beaver Island Mahogany" local Cottonwood, to you and me, discovered by Earl A. Young, architect and builder of The Weathervane.

Public School Music Department To Present Concert December 1

The Music Department of the Charlevoix public school will present its annual Fall Music Concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 1, at the high school auditorium, C. A. Odmark, director of the department, has announced.

The concert will present to the public three music organizations of the local school: the Varsity or Reserve band composed of 39 eighth and ninth grade students, the Girls' Glee club of 44 voices and the 62 piece Concert band.

The program is designed to show the progress the three groups have made since school started and, in the case of the band groups, the transition from football marching music to indoor concert music.

The Varsity band will open the program with a group of four selections; the Glee Club will then present five numbers ranging from religious choral music to selections in the popular vein; the concert band will close the program with a group of light but beautiful numbers including the famous Sousa march, The Stars and Stripes Forever.

ODDS 'N' ENDS

By Fran Martin

SOMETIME between now and the weekend one of Charlevoix's volunteer firemen will be knocking on your door . . . This time, however, he's volunteering for another important mission, that of collecting your contribution to the muscular dystrophy drive . . . You've received in the mail this week an envelope to hold your contribution . . . Have it ready so when your solicitor who is giving his time rings your doorbell calls, you can hand him the envelope containing your donation. We think that Thanksgiving time is the proper time for this drive in which firemen throughout the land are participating . . . A time to give to a mighty worthwhile cause and a time to be thankful that it has not struck in your household or your community . . .

WE'RE always anxious to serve our subscribers but we got a request the other day that we're going to have to give some thought to . . . Instead of the usual account of these people in the community who go hunting why not a list of those who stay home . . . It would simplify matters, went the request . . . Well, we don't know but what it might be a good idea . . .

HOW ABOUT all these new cars on the market? . . . Don't know when we've seen such drastic changes, especially in design . . . (we'll leave matters mechanical to those who understand 'em) . . . If we were buying a new car, which we're not, we'd surely have a time deciding on which one 'cause one's as purty as the other . . .

AFTER THE cold rainy fall

W.S.C.S. Christmas bazaar at 2 p.m. and cafeteria supper beginning at 5:30 p.m. Methodist church Thursday, Dec. 2, 48-49c we're sure having nice weather . . . at least, for this time of year . . . Mrs. Emma Sutton was telling us the other day that she even has California Poppies, which are supposedly quite a delicate flower, in bloom in her yard . . . And we've noticed other flowers still around, a bit wind-blown, but blooming bravely . . .

GOT ALL that Christmas shopping done? . . . You've only a month left 'cause a month from 'turkey day,' Thanksgiving to you . . . is Christmas . . .

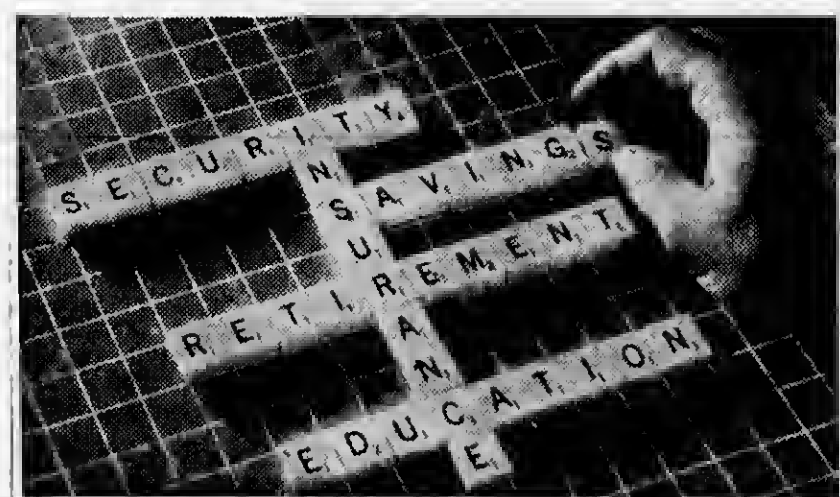

And when you make out that Christmas card list, might we remind you now to include the names of a few people you know who might not be remembered . . . You'll be real happy if you do . . . For instance there are people hospitalized in nursing homes and Grandvue hospital, people house-bound because of injuries or poor health and people just forgotten . . .

So give yourself a lift by remembering . . . And sometime soon we'll help you to remember by printing a list of patients from Charlevoix who are at Grandvue. Speaking of Grandvue hospital, we think it was mighty thoughtful of the local American Legion Auxiliary to pack individual baskets for all the patients there for Thanksgiving . . . Knowing that the patients were well remembered during the holidays, the Auxiliary decided to do something now . . .

HEARD the first Christmas carols on the radio Sunday (we're old-fashioned 'cause we don't have TV) . . . but anyway, we heard the first Christmas songs and it was so good to hear them again . . . Like everything lovely, one never tires of them . . .

AND HOW about the football games Saturday and Sunday . . . Gee, if we live through this season it's going to be something . . . That Michigan-Ohio State game, Saturday and the Lions-Green Bay game Sunday . . . And more coming up this weekend . . . We're sure going to hate to see this season end 'cause football will always remain our first love.

MICHIGAN'S Tourist industry, biggest and best in history, is looking for another pot of gold. That was the reason that the Michigan Tourist Council decided to ask the legislature for another $100,000 next year to advertise the state's attractions.

"We just can't compete with the other states which spend more money on promotion," said Chairman Robert W. Budd.

Michigan ranked third as a tourist state three years ago, behind New York and California. Now it has slipped to fifth, with Pennsylvania and Florida moving up.

Budd says Michigan is paying out the same number of dollars as before, but they don't buy as much advertising.

Last year, the Council received $351,000, but turned over $100,000 to the four regional tourist councils. With another slice taken out for administration, the state office is spending $140,000 for promotion this year.

CHILDREN are being politely asked by the State and Federal governments to drink more milk. Federal authorities have released $1,500,000 to the state this year to expand the school milk program and the kids are being asked to help.

Under the old arrangement, the schools received a 1-cent rebate on each bottle of milk sold. The new money gives the schools 4 1/2 cents back.

In Michigan last year, school children drank 60,000,000 half pints of milk.

"The biggest problem will be to make the expanded program available to all schools on an equal basis," said Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction.

Newest idea for selling more milk, paid for in part by the Federal government. Install milk vending machines in the schools.

POLITICAL Battles over prisons have become major pre-occupations for legislators and Gov. Williams.

They started with the first Jackson State Prison riot in 1952 and have raged since, both hoping for peace in the cellblocks and setting up self-saving excuses if the lid blows again.

Key points of past skirmishes are pretty well known — the blame-fixing after the riots, the surveys, the demands for more prison space and the reluctance of lawmakers to spend unlimited money.

The next will be fought over a plan developed by the corrections commission, all appointees of Gov. Williams.

IT ENVISIONS a long-range multi-million dollar building program. A new 1,200-man prison, a separate reception center, a new women's prison and other things. Start looking for the first shots in the 1955 session of the legislature.

40 Investigations Made By Police Here Last Month

The Charlevoix police department received 60 calls which necessitated 40 investigations, made 11 arrests and 10 liquor investigations during the month of October, the monthly report issued by Chief Clarence Heise has revealed.

The arrests include three each for reckless driving and larceny; four for drunk and disorderly and one for disturbing the peace.

The work was done by four officers working a total of 892 days. The police car was driven 2,021 miles for an average of 88 1/4 miles per day.

County Road Commission System Of Communications Is Started

The Charlevoix county Road Commission's recently-installed communication system went into operation last week, T. B. Reynolds, Road Commission engineer-superintendent, said Monday.

In making the announcement, Mr. Reynolds said that the central transmitter station which operates on 250 watts and seven of the 10 mobile units are already in operation and working satisfactorily. The three remaining units will be ready soon. The mobile units have a 60 watt capacity.

The call letters for the station which operates on 37.90 wave length are KQE 573.

The central station is located in the road commission office in Boyne City with the mobile units operating from four pick-up trucks, one car and five trucks located throughout the county.

One unit is located in a truck on Beaver Island which will give the main office its first direct communication with the island. In the past it was necessary to place a toll call to the island and have the foreman contacted by messenger. When the mobile unit is installed in the foreman's truck there, this costly and time-consuming method will be eliminated.

The tower for the central transmitter is located directly north of Boyne City about two miles from the main office. Mobile units can contact each other within a radius of 15 miles; other calls must go through the central office.

Mr. Reynolds said the system has already proven a great help. For instance, two foremen, one working out of Boyne Falls and the other near East Jordan, came up with a similar problem. The pair called the main office from their trucks, discussed the problem with Mr. Reynolds who offered a solution. By using the new communication system, the entire operation took less than 10 minutes. Without the system, two calls, one a toll call from Boyne Falls or lengthy trips, consuming valuable time and miles of driving would have been necessary.

In conclusion Mr. Reynolds said that he was sure the installation would save countless man-hours of work and many miles of unnecessary driving, especially during the winter months ahead.

Charlevoix county is one of 45 in the state to install similar equipment.

Class C Schools To Meet Here For Visitation Day

The Charlevoix high school will be host to student representatives of the seven schools of the Northern Michigan Class C conference at the first inter-school visitation day of the school year scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 7, H. E. Bingham, high school principal, has announced.

On that date student representatives from East Jordan, Mancelona, Grayling, Gaylord, Boyne City, Harbor Springs and Pellston accompanied by faculty advisors will gather here at 10 a.m. for registration, attend classes, join local students for lunch at noon and during the afternoon attend conferences. The program will be concluded at 3 p.m.

Problems of students at school, attendance, fund-raising projects, school trips and scholarship problems will be among those discussed by the assembled students.

Boats and People

A few days ago, after a wait of six hours in a lineup of thousands of cars, I drove aboard a ferry that carried me across the Straits of Mackinac. There must have been well over two hundred automobiles on that boat — almost all of them, like my own, headed for some deer hunters' camp in Michigan's Upper Peninsula. As drivers eased their vehicles aboard, the huge vessel settled deeper and deeper into the great water. Anchoring rope were uncoiled. Engines throbbed. The docks and shore lights moved into the distance. In spite of adverse blustering winds and uncommonly rough waters we were under way on schedule.

What immense progress a powerboat represents over rowboats and sailboats! Once upon a time all vessels crossing those straits were paddled by Indian braves. How many husky Indians would it take to paddle that car-ferry across the Straits of Mackinac? Thousands! Later, sailing vessels plied their way from Mackinaw City to St. Ignace. But they could hardly observe schedules. They must await favorable winds to fill their sails.

People are somewhat like boats — all made for going somewhere and fashioned to carry a burden. There are rowboat people — folks who are self-reliant entirely, depending upon their own slender store of strength to move them along. When that strength gives out and they are exhausted, they fall to the mercy of life's rough seas.

Then, too, there are the sailboat folks who move only when the winds are favorable. If the circumstances are ideal, just right, they'll get along. But they are not dependable. Supposing breezes of encouragement do not blow or puffs of appreciation do not fill their sails. What then? They don't move. They are becalmed and helpless.

But, thank Heaven, there are powerboat people, too, in our world. Like mighty engines that receive oil brought from distant places, burn it down deep in their inner recesses and make power of it for nosing the waves aside and plowing to far harbors and carrying heavy freightage, the powerboat people possess an inner force. It comes from outside them, from the God above them. They inwardly use it and sail on when their own strength is spent. If winds of fortune are friendly and helpful, they sail faster and easier, but if the winds of circumstance are contrary or still, the powerboat people go on and on toward distant destinations, carrying whatever load life assigns them.

What sort of vessel are you?

New Varsity Band Is Innovation In School Program

The Charlevoix high school Varsity band which will be presented at the Fall Music Concert next Wednesday, Dec. 1, is an innovation as far as the local music program is concerned. C. A. Odmark, band director, said this week.

In previous years, this group was called the Junior band and was composed almost entirely of eighth grade students. This year, however, due to the size of the Senior band, it was decided to retain both the eighth and ninth grade music students in one band and reserve Senior band membership for the three upper grades.

The result is a 39-piece Varsity or reserve band. It is still a training band in that it has the instrumentation and ability to be used much more extensively for public performance.

The group has already appeared in a school assembly and combined with the Senior band for a football performance during the recent gridiron season. Wednesday evening's concert will mark the first public appearance of this ambitious group which will perform music considerably more advanced than usual Junior band material.

The personnel of the Varsity band follows:

Flutes, Sylvia Lee Miles and William Morrow; oboe, Sharon Swanson; clarinets, Nancy Juilleret, Patsy Rabb, Esther Boss, Susie Duerr, Madelyn Rabach, Mary Berg, Billy Russell, Evelyn Russell, Janice Stutzman, Linda Towsley, Patsy Colburn, Roy Whitley and Dale Parsons.

Saxophones, Judy Ingalls, Gail Curtis and Jill Davis; cornets, Barbara Jarvis, Wanda Russell, David Miles, Raymond Schultz, Scott Supernaw, James VerWys, Ronald Vandenberg and Peter Coleman.

Horns, Lucille Sanford and Ellen Miller; trombones, Bob Moi and Carol Burgis; baritone, Sandra Cunningham; basses, John Bingham and John Farmer; drums, Steve Wells, Cynthia Curtis, Bud Balch and Richard Muma.

Discuss School Needs At Year's First Open House

School needs and problems were discussed at an informal program at the first Open House of the school year held recently at the Charlevoix public schools.

More than 700 parents and friends visited the classrooms during the visitation period and an estimated 300 parents gathered in the high school auditorium for the informal discussion period.

Music for the program was provided by the high school Girls Glee Club directed by C. A. Odmark. Refreshments were served in the cafeteria following the meeting.

The vision testing program was in charge of Mrs. Elaine Belfy, certified vision technician.

Plans are being made to screen all other students within the year.

Girls Glee Club Shows Interest By Enrollment

Increased interest in the Charlevoix high school Girls Glee Club which will present a portion of the program at the Fall Music Concert next Wednesday is evidenced by the enrollment in this year's group which numbers 44 girls. C. A. Odmark, director of the choral organization said this week.

God's Gift is Flowers

Their Peaceful Beauty Is A Silent Sermon . . .

The traditional way to say "with sympathy" is to say it with flowers. Through the centuries men have turned to this blessed way of expressing their tenderest thoughts to friends and dear ones.

Those left behind will never forget the beautiful memory picture your thoughtfulness helps to create. Never are we more grateful for flowers than in times of bereavement as they can bring messages of sympathy which words are helpless to express. To send them is to tell what we feel so deeply but cannot say. To receive them is to have them comfort us when we need it most.

Sailor's Hobby Building Ships

George Brooks, aviation ordnanceman first class, built this near-perfect model of the attack aircraft carrier USS Rau while serving aboard the ship in the Mediterranean. Brooks, whose hobby is building model ships, spent approximately 200 off-duty hours constructing this model from the original plans of the Randolph. The model was made of balsa wood, and cost Brooks about $10 for wood, paint and glue.

Ready Brooder Houses Now For The Early Chicks

If you're going to order your chicks early, in January or February, to get the best egg profits, now is the time to get your brooder house ready.

Ed Rebmman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent, points out that you'll be able to do a more thorough job of cleaning now than in midwinter. Cleaning is a hard job he suggests, when cleaning water may freeze.

Dr. S. C. Schmitt, extension poultry pathologist at Michigan State college, says doing a good cleaning job in the brooder house is more important than the disinfectant you may use.

He suggests a thorough sweeping out. Then the entire inside of the brooder house can be wet down with a garden hose. The house should then be scrubbed with lye water, one can of lye per 15 gallons of hot water.

After the area is dry, the disinfectant can be used.

Community Farm Bureau Elects At Annual Meeting

Ellsworth — Ellsworth Community Farm Bureau held its annual meeting recently. New officers are: Chairman, Gerrit George Drenth; vice chairman, Edward Tillotson; discussion leader, Roy Stadenmeyer; secretary, Mrs. John Campau; minute man, Richard Wieland, and Blue Cross secretary, Mrs. Harold Jansen.

A special committee was appointed to study the Policy Development program. This committee gave its report at the October meeting which was held at the Gerrit George Drenth home. At this meeting we discussed issues of the 1954 election.

We learned also that there would be a program of interest to the rural audience televised over WKAR-TV. This program will be available to local stations, if requested. A motion was made and supported that each member pay $50 extra dues to help pay for Christmas candy for the children.

At the November meeting we decided to have the Christmas party on the regular meeting night, Dec. 20. Gifts will be exchanged between the ladies and the men will exchange among themselves, the cost not to exceed 50 cents.

Everyone who was able to attend the state Farm Bureau meeting at Lansing were all aglow with facts of interest. Reports on this meeting at Lansing were given completely and with much interest by Anthony M. Kulper and Mrs. Richard Wieland.

The Blue Cross has set up a new plan which will be an alternative to the present plan. Discussion of the two plans were of interest to all Blue Cross policy holders.

They were married Nov. 27, 1902 at the home of the bride near Reeman. After their marriage they lived six years in Muskegon, then moved to their present home. Both are members of Ellsworth Christian Reformed church.

Mr. Kooyer, 78, was born July 14, 1876 at Holland, the son of John and Jane Mulder Kooyer. He was a member of the board of education of Ellsworth school for 19 years, has served as former treasurer of Banks township eight years, and was a director of Ellsworth Farmers exchange several years.

Mrs. Kooyer, 76, the former Kate Tanis, was born March 21, 1878 in the Reeman home where she was married, the daughter of John and Nella Breen Tanis.

The couple has one daughter, Mrs. Richard Doctor of Muskegon; three sons, Andrew and John of Ellsworth, and George of Rudyard, and 14 grandchildren.

They were married in 1899 at Eastport and after their marriage settled on the farm where they now live.

Mr. Bennett, 86, was born in Clinton county and came to Antrim county in 1883. Mrs. Bennett, the former Lettie Gazier, will be 83 on the date of their wedding anniversary. She was born in Tuscola county and came to Antrim county at the age of 10.

The couple has two sons, Orva and Charles, both of Eastport; three daughters, Bertha at home, Mrs. Lee Scott of Ellsworth route 1 and Mrs. Arlo Wickersham of Charlevoix; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Hags won't be as profitable next year as in 1954, M.S.C. farm economists predict.

Ellsworth Students Present Pageant In National Education Week Observance

In observance of National Education week, pupils of the Junior and Senior high classes of Banks school, presented a very impressive pageant, "The American Way" at the November meeting of Banks P.T.A. last Wednesday evening in the school.

Music in the presentation was in charge of Dean Fiedler and speaking parts were given by pupils in the ninth and tenth grades speech classes under the supervision of Richard Lather. A combined group composed of Senior choir members and junior high chorus members provided the musical background for those who spoke, emphasizing the theme of our American way to worship God as we feel, and too that our American way is the way of opportunity to all including rights of Liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Helen Mason served as narrator for the pageant and Karen Campau closed the evening program with an oration "I speak for America," the winning oration of the Firestone contest last year. The costumes which added so much to the presentation were made by the Home Economics classes under the supervision of Mrs. Vesta Thompson, instructor.

During the business meeting, it was decided to take on the serving of the dinners for the regular meetings of the Ellsworth Lions club, on a trial basis. The treasurers report showed a balance of $621.22 as of Nov. 17. The Country Fair of Oct. 29 netted the treasury the sum of $281.16 and the Lions dinner and Mea dinner brought in $63.55. Mr. Fiedler displayed the new Saxophone and gave a short demonstration.

Mrs. Fiedler's room received the 'kitty' money for having the largest percentage of parents present.

Following the meeting lunch was served by Mesdames Ethel Edson, Anthony Shooks, Minert Veenstra, Arthur Drenth, Maynard Alward, Levi Donaldson, Thale Yettaw, Mrs. Allie Klooster was unable to attend.

Chosen Directors By Milk Producers

ERNEST GIRBACH

CECIL GALLAGHER

Two new members of the State Board of Directors of the Michigan Milk Producers Association held recently in East Lansing. The men chosen by the delegates to serve as directors for three-year terms are Ernest Girbach of Saline, Washtenaw County and Cecil Gallagher of Traverse City, Grand Traverse County. The latter comes from a territory in which the association recently has developed several markets in the northwestern section of the lower peninsula. Members elected to the board for three more years are Jack Harvey of Ulen, Macomb County; John D. Horst, Akron, Tuscola County; and Arnold C. Tassin of Freeland, Saginaw County. Election of officers for the coming year will take place at the organizational meeting of the Board of Directors to be held early in December.

Fertilizer Dealers Co-operate In Soil Testing Program

The local fertilizer dealers in this area are cooperating with all of the Agricultural agencies in sponsoring soil testing this fall, according to Clayton Healey, chairman of the Charlevoix Soil Conservation District. This time of the year has been designated as soil testing month and farmers are urged to have their soil samples tested now so that they will be ready at spring planting time. Healey says that any farmer can take some soil samples on land that he will plant to small grain and seed to grasses and legumes next year and bring them to his local fertilizer dealer. The fertilizer dealer will fill out a soil sampling sheet and mark the samples so that they will not be mixed up while being tested. The fertilizer dealer will pay the cost of testing these soil samples.

The fertilizer dealers in this area who are cooperating in this soil testing program are the Charlevoix Co-operative Company and Burnett Bros. at Bay Shore. After these dealers have collected these samples they will be picked up by Ed Robman, county agricultural agent, and taken to the soil testing laboratory at Petoskey.

Recommendations will then be sent back to the farmer so that he can order his fertilizer and lime in plenty of time for spring work. Taking fertilizer in the fall and winter when prices are lower and storing it for spring planting will save farmers some expenses. All farmers are invited to take advantage of this service.

Boyer City Artificial Breeders Association Directors Vote To Discontinue Services

The board of directors of the Boyer City Artificial Breeders Association have voted to discontinue artificial breeding services in this area after they studied the volume of business for the first ten months of 1954. Twenty eight members had used the service during this year with only 71 cows being serviced.

Bob Feidel, president of the Association, said that the number of services was too low to warrant keeping the Association active. Ed Tapolinski, insenimator, stated that the amount of business was inadequate and that he was operating at no profit while taking care of the service.

Arrangements have been made with the two neighboring artificial breeding associations and they will take care of those members who still desire artificial breeding service. Those members who live on the north side of Lake Charlevoix and north of highway M75 between Boyne City and Boyne Falls will be serviced by Jack Seiler of the South Emmet Association. Jack Seiler's telephone number is Petoskey DI 7-7755.

Those members who still desire service and live south of highway M75 from Boyne City to Boyne Falls and south of the Boyne City front road, will receive services from Ray Fisher of the Antrim Charlevoix Artificial Breeders Association. Ray Fisher's telephone number is East Jordan LE-6-7156. Members in either one of these areas are urged to call one of the above insenimators if they wish additional service.

Lime Applications May Lower Farm Costs If Needed

One of the best ways to reduce costs on a farm is to use lime where it's needed.

Ed Robman, Charlevoix county agricultural agent, points out that if lime is needed, an application will return $8 to $10 for each dollar spent for the liming material.

Ed. D. Longnecker, extension soil scientist at Michigan State college, cites cases:

An Antrim county experiment on alfalfa showed that one ton of limestone meal per acre boosted alfalfa production by a total of 2,200 pounds during three years.

If you figure $4.50 for the lime and $1 per hundredweight for the hay, there would be a return of $22 per acre in three years for the $4.50 investment. The soil has been medium to slightly acid before the lime was applied.

And the benefits probably will continue for another six to eight years, according to Longnecker.

And in a Cass county experiment, running from 1918 to 1934, two tons of lime per acre on a strongly acid soil returned additional crops amounting to $79. The two tons of lime cost $8.25. Longnecker points out that the lime cost is approximately the same as it would be today but crop prices at that time were one-third to one-half of today's.

Seventeen hunters recently paid court fines and costs for violation of this law.

A total of 235 persons were reported last week to have paid fines for various conservation law infractions.
